The Chronicle.

☞ The Detroit Advertiser is sponsor for the following:

About one year ago one of our business men visited New York city, and while there ordered a half dozen cartes de visite of himself, which he distributed among his friends in that place. A few days ago he was surprised to find one of these "counterfeit resemblances" in possession of the family cook. An investigation into the matter disclosed the fact that she had received it from a fortune teller in the New York city, who advertised to forward a correct likeness of any young lady's future husband, all for the sum of fifty cents, which amount the cook had remitted, according to the advertisement, and received her employer's likeness in return.

NEW METHOD OF DRIVING.—A few days since there was an exhibition of trained horses in Cincinnati which attracted considerable attention. Two splendid stallions, attached to a buggy, were driven upon the square by a Mr. Roskwell, and made to perform all the usual movements without bridle, bit or reins, and guided solely by the whip. The driver sat in the buggy and used a long lash which reached to the horses' ears, and directed their movements with perfect ease and accuracy.

— "Now, my little boys and girls," said a teacher, "I want you to be very still—so still that you can hear a pin drop." For a minute all was still, when a little boy cried: "Let her drop!"

— A ruined debtor having done his utmost to satisfy his creditors, said to them: "Gentlemen, I have been extremely perplexed till now how to satisfy you, but having done my utmost endeavor, I shall leave you to satisfy yourselves."

— A man out West, who took his refreshments on the sly, made a hasty raid on the contents of a private jug in the house of a friend, and to his intense disgust, found out that he had swallowed a good mouthful of deodorized coal oil. Since then his friends have been boring him—but not for oil.

SATURDAY, JUNE 16, 1866.

☞ Gov. Smyth's financial ability, and his actual services to the State of New Hampshire in that line during the past year, show very plainly that the true interest of the State would be promoted by nominating him for a third year, and electing him of course.

"LAW IS——LAW."—All the elders remember the celebrated case, Bullum vs. Boatum; and we have some modern cases quite as nice. There has been some exultation on the part of the counsel for the Mutual Safety Association, over the assertion that a new law of Massachusetts had somehow released all the liquor dealers from the fines and penalties impending over them. But Judge Wright, in the Boston Police Court, Friday, 15th, ruled and decided the other way, giving strong and clear reasons for his decision. The question is really yet to be settled by a higher Court—and perhaps somebody has "hollered before he got out of the woods!"

☞ The New York striking caulkers held a meeting Wednesday night, and unanimously voted to stand firm for the eight-hour labor movement;—but the N. Y. Commercial of Thursday evening says: "The caulkers will make a show of holding out, but so many of them have returned to the ship yards, that there is no scarcity of hands."

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—On Thursday, just after the House had adjourned, while Mr. Grinnell was on the way from the Capitol, on the east side of the building, to take a street car, he was overtaken by Mr. Rousseau, who, putting his hand on Mr. Grinnell's shoulder, said something about an expected apology for offensive remarks, and thereupon assaulted Mr. Grinnell with a small rattan cane, which was broken. Mr. Grinnell made but little if any resistance. The only visible mark of injury sustained by Mr. Grinnell is a scratch on the right cheek, caused by the iron ferule of the cane.

Grinnell is a member of the House from Iowa, and Rousseau is a Representative from Kentucky, who seems to have brought "plantation manners" with him,—and who may probably be expelled.

CARELTON, the able army correspondent of the Boston Journal, writes from St. Albans, as follows, about the Fenian plans and disappointments:

Gen. Sweeney says that the Brotherhood had over sixty thousand stand of arms purchased, of which Gen. Meade has in his possession over forty thousand. I am informed that Gen. Sweeney himself purchased over thirty thousand stand of the United States, and that they were delivered to him in February or March from the Watervliet Arsenal. I do not vouch. I give it as I received it. It is asserted by the members of the Brotherhood that the United States authorities knew that the arms were paid for from Fenian funds.

It is no breach of neutrality law for Government to sell arms in time of peace to any person who may desire to purchase; but the question arises whether the Government knew that the Fenians intended an invasion of Canada. Sweeney's adherents say Government was cognizant of their intentions. Another party says the invasion of Canada was not at that time the programme, but Ireland was the avowed fighting ground. The Sweeney Fenians assert that they were assured there would be no interference on the part of the United States. Who assured them they do not say, only that a delegation called upon President Johnson, and that their visit was satisfactory. Whether this is so or not I have no knowledge, but they are exceedingly bitter toward the President and Mr. Seward.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Summer travel to the mountains has fairly begun. Numerous families from New Orleans, Mobile and other Southern cities, have passed through Boston city to New Hampshire during the past few days.

—— The "Great Falls Weekly News," after ten weeks' existence, has been suspended. Reason—don't pay; the publisher stating that he is already $300 out of pocket by the experiment.

MEXICAN NEWS.—Brownsville (Texas) correspondence of the 4th says an expedition of Imperialists marched from Monterey, another from Catillo and another from Matchuala with the intention of dispersing the Liberal army at Espinosa at Victoria, but they were outflanked by Gen. Ercobado and forced to retire with a heavy loss in deserters.

— Rev. Wm. M. Blythe, Methodist preacher at Greenboro', Ga., undertook to beat a negro in the old-fashioned style a few days ago, but the negro, appreciating better than the minister the new condition of things, fractured Mr. Blythe's skull with a heavy stone so that he is not expected to survive.

☞ Rev. Mr. Prane, the veteran editor of the New York Observer, has just taken passage for England. He will correspond with the paper while in Europe, and also establish an increased and improved correspondence there, when he returns to this country.

N. H. LEGISLATURE.

On Thursday in Convention, Walter Harriman was elected Secretary of State; Peter Sanborn, Treasurer; Joseph Mayo, Warden of State Prison; George E. Jenks, State Printer; and Reuben Rand jr., Commissary General.

In the HOUSE the following Resolutions were offered:

By Mr. Clough, of Sanborton. That the Committee on Education be instructed to inquire into the expediency of providing by law that school books shall not be exchanged by Superintending School Committees oftener than once in five years. Adopted.

By Mr. Woodman, of Manchester. That the pay roll of the members of the Legislature at the present session should be made up at $3 per day, for thirty days, and no more. Read twice, and referred to Committee on Judiciary.

The Decimal System.

Mr. Patterson, of Portsmouth, called the attention of the House to the fact, that in 1859, the Legislature requested the Representatives and Senators of this State in Congress, to use their influence to procure the adoption of a uniform system of currency, weights and measures, which proposition attracted considerable interest, and received the support of thinking men all over the country at that time, but the outbreak of the war had turned the public attention from this measure of reform, and concentrated it upon efforts to preserve the country from the assaults of treason. With the return of peace he thought the time had come for renewed effort in this direction, and he therefore offered the following joint resolutions:

Resolved, &c., That our Senators and Representatives in the Congress of the United States be requested to use all their influence to secure the adoption of a uniform decimal system of currency, weights and measures, fixing the unit of each measure with its subdivisions in its most concise and simple manner; and as a means of obtaining the very best which science can devise, Congress be recommended to offer a worthy premium to any citizen of the United States who shall present the most acceptable system of currency, weights and measures, the question of merit to be decided by a committee appointed for that purpose.

Resolved, That the Secretary of State be requested to forward copies of this resolution to our Senators and Representatives in the Congress of the United States.

The resolutions were read twice, and Mr. Page, of Warren, moved their reference to to the committee to be appointed on National Affairs.

Mr. Patterson advocated the passage of the resolutions, setting forth in a forcible manner the evils of the present system, as seen in the school room, in the apothecary shop, in the merchant's counting-room, at the store and on the farm. He described it as a puzzle to the learned, a perplexity to the man of business, and a fruitful source of fraud in the hands of designing men.—France, he said, had adopted the decimal system eighty years ago, with great and permanent advantage; but he would not recommend the adoption of the form used in that country, which would be inconvenient here, and he thought such advances had been made in science since that time, that a better system could be devised. The remarks of the gentleman called forth heavy applause.

The motion to refer was negatived—and the resolution ordered to a third reading.

A HISTORICAL COW.—The New Albany (Ind.) Ledger gives the following:

"At the agricultural fair at Charleston, a certain cow, decorated with blue and red ribbons, was the observed of all observers. She was captured from the rebels by Sherman's army, near Corinth, Miss., in the summer of 1862, and has accompanied the army in all its marches, countermarches, raids and expeditions from that time up to the final disbandment of the army at Washington. She is the property of Gen. Clark of New York, who, expecting to go on duty at New Orleans, had this cow sent westward with a view to taking her to his new field of duty. But the General being ordered back to New York, the cow will be sent thither and placed in the Central Park. This cow, during all her journeyings thro' Mississippi, Tennessee, Georgia, South and North Carolina, and Virginia—a period of three years—has never ceased to give milk, averaging three gallons a day, which she still gives. She is certainly a noble animal, and wears her ribbons gracefully. She is now in the care of Mr. George W. Lee of Clark county.

FENIAN ITEMS.—Montreal dispatches say the order calling the volunteers back from the border has been countermanded, owing to the introduction of the resolutions in the neutrality act in Congress.

An Ogdensburg dispatch says one of Gen Meade's staff has expressed fears of further trouble at Buffalo. General Meade was suddenly called to that point, and four companies of troops from Malone have been ordered there.

An Ottawa (Canada) dispatch says: Another raid is expected at Fort Erie. Fourteen Fenians have been arrested at Hamilton. Important dispatches were found in their possession. Information as to the movement of troops is forbidden, and something important is on the carpet. A large number of Fenians are reported to be assembling along the southwestern border.

☞ On Wednesday night, in New Haven, Conn., a colored man named George Knight, a freedman, was murdered, probably by one of a gang of Irishmen, who were enraged because he had defended himself in a previous assault.

THE WORLD LAUGHS in its sleeve at the efforts of a few envious Dentists to decry the SOZODONT. It is natural, perhaps, that they should dislike it, since its popularity interferes with the sale of their wares; but how ridiculous in them to show their spite when its merits are so palpable. 19

CONGRESS.—In the House, Thursday, the bill to restore to political rights the late rebel States was taken up.

Mr. Windom supported it, arguing that the present issue was whether traitors should now rule the nation they fought four years to destroy.

Mr. Harris opposed the bill, avowing himself in principle the same as when he received the vote of censure from Congress when war was declared. He continued at some length, and said so long as the test oath remained on the statute book he would do all he could to remove it, and preserve the noble citizens of the South from the slavery and degradation it imposed. He claimed secession as a ruling principle of the Democratic party from 1798 to the late war.

At the conclusoin of his speech, Mr. Le Blond, in the name of the Democratic party, dissented from the views expressed by Harris, which in effect justified the rebellion in an arrogant tone. The Democrats, fearing the effect of such talk on their side, made haste to disavow through three of their number, Messrs. Le Blond of Ohio, Randall of Pennsylvania, and Eldredge of Michigan, charging, as they did in terms, that Harris's position was in effect the same that was held by Mr. Stevens and the Republican side of the House.

This brought Mr. Dawes to his feet, and led to a very lively discussion. Mr. Dawes, while disavowing an approval of the Stevens peculiar notions touching the rebel States, defended the ancient nestor very ably against the charge made by his Democratic assailants, and proceeded to lay down his own views in regard to the right of representation on the part of the rebellious States. He stated that he believed in the right of the Southern States to representation, but also believed in their incapacity. Whenever they should stand up clothed and in their right mind, then they will be capable of electing Representatives.

[Le Blond and his comrades have thus reiterated the stupid plea so common during the war, that the extreme anti-slavery men were equally guilty with the extreme proslavery men. By equally, they mean more; and stupid as the plea is, they have no better to offer.]

A resolution was adopted requesting the Ways and Means Committee to consider and report at the earliest possible day upon the fact that the present duty on wool affords no protection and operates to the detriment of American wool growers.

— Victor Hugo lost 375,000 francs in in one of the London banks which has just failed.

— A son of Esther Ewing, a youth of nineteen, residing at Fort Wayne, Indiana, who is heir to a million of property, committed suicide a few days since by shooting himself through the heart with a pistol. A letter states that the rash act was committed in a fit of despondency.

— Professor W. Byrd Powell, who died in Covington, Ky., a few days ago, bequeathed his head to Mrs. F. H. Kinsie, of Cincinnati, to be used for scientific purposes. In accordance with this, a surgeon cut off the professor's head, and it is now in the possession of the lady.

— We unhesitatingly recommend the J. Monroe Taylor Gold Medal Soap to all our lady readers, as being the best soap in the market, and with one trial, we doubt not it will ever after be the only Soap for the kitchen. Its superior qualities for making clothes look so white and clean, will always commend it so strongly that it will be the fixed Soap for family use. One trial is all that is necessary to convince the most skeptical. 101

GIN, AS A REMEDIAL AGENT.—Gin, as a remedial agent, has been in favor with the profession for a very long period, but owing to the difficulty of obtaining a pure article, it has fallen into disuse in many sections of the country, much to the regret of medical men, who consider it almost a specific in very many diseases. For all cases of Gravel, pure Gin, if administered under professional guidance, will certainly work a cure; and if taken as a preventive, acting, as it does, on the sensitive membranes, it cleanses the parts so as to remove all possible sediment. Administered in the same way, it will prevent the formation of Calculi, and do away with those terrible operations, therefore, so necessary for their permanent removal. Gin is of incalculable benefit to females in those diseases so peculiar to the sex, and from its tonic, as well as its anodyne properties, is frequently superior to iron, bark, or even the electrical remedies. In cases of a positive tendency to Phthisis, or Consumption, Gin, in proper quantities, by supplying or filling up the constant dying out of the natural fire of the system, will often entirely ward off that awful disease, which carries off one-eighth of the population of the United States annually. Pure Gin has this peculiar advantage over other diffusible stimuli, that it exhilarates without creating any thirst of an unhealthy character, it soothes while it also excites, and is a powerful nervine as well as an active tonic.

"Bininger's Old London Dock Gin possesses all the qualities that can be desired for the highest and noblest use of all wines or liquors. Its ingredients are the distilled juices of carefully selected grains, made deliciously pungent and flavorous with the aromatic tincture of the Juniper Berry. Age has mellowed all these mingled aromas, and given an exquisite mildness, a smooth, oily body, and an almost floral odor to the liquor, which renders it delicious to the senses, of smell and taste alike, while its sparkling liquid purity leaves nothing for the eye to desire.

The writer must remark that Messrs A. M. Bininger & Co. merit the gratitude of the entire medical profession, as well as the world at large, for having introduced a stimulant of such unexceptionable purity and unequivocal power, both as a preventive and curative agent, and a harmless exhilarative beverage." Chemical Journal and Medical Gazette.

HYGIENIC WINE!

HAS FOR ITS BASE

One of the Finest of Pure Wines.

A WINE grown on the sunny slopes of Spain—the genuine juice of the Grape in all its purity, as bestowed upon us by the beneficent GIVER, and such as is, alone, consistent with Christian teachings—not intoxicating in the least—will supply a want greatly felt in this country.

Such is HYGIENIC WINE,

A Bitter Aromatic.

It is conscientiously recommended to LADIES as a tonic which will soothe the nerves, renew the blood, and gently stimulate and invigorate the system.

☞ All persons of sedate habits—ministers, lawyers, and professional men, possessing constitutions more delicate than others of less confining labor, those who expend a great deal of vitality in brain work—will at once acknowledge the superiority of this restorative; for while it acts as a nervine, imparting a genial glow to the blood, it leaves behind none of the baneful influences of Alcholic preparations.

It stands unrivalled as a Toner of the Digestive Organs, thereby creating a healthy appetite, and we warrant that upon trial HYGIENIC WINE will be found to be the finest, most delicious, and healthful Tonic known. Ask for it.

REASONS WHY THE

AMERICAN WATCH,

MADE AT WALTHAM, MASS:

IS THE BEST.

It is made on the best principle. Its frame is composed of SOLID PLATES. No jar can interfere with the harmony of its working and no sudden shock can damage its machinery. Every piece is made and finished by machinery (itself famous for its novelty, as well as for its effectiveness) and is therefore properly made. The watch is what all mechanism should be—ACCURATE, SIMPLE, STRONG AND ECONOMICAL. Except some high grades, too costly for general use, foreign watches are chiefly made by women and boys. Such watches are composed of several hundred pieces, screwed and riveted together, and require constant repairs to keep them in any kind of order. All persons who have carried "ancres," "lepines," and "English Patent Levers," are perfectly well aware of the truth of this statement.

At the beginning of our enterprise, more than ten years ago, it was our first object to make a thoroughly good low-priced watch for the million, to take the place of these foreign impositions—the refuse of foreign factories—which were entirely unsaleable at home and perfectly worthless everywhere.

How well we have accomplished this may be understood from the fact, that after so many years of public trial, we now make MORE THAN HALF OF ALL THE WATCHES SOLD IN THE UNITED STATES, and that no others have ever given such universal satisfaction. While this department of our business is continued with increased facilities for perfect work, we are at present engaged in the manufacture of watches of the very HIGHEST GRADE KNOWN TO CHRONOMETRY, unequalled by anything hitherto made by ourselves, and unsurpassed by anything made in the world. For this purpose we have the amplest facilities. We have erected an addition to our main buildings expressly for this branch of our business, and have filled it with the best workmen in our service. New machines and appliances have been constructed, which perform their work with consummate delicacy and exactness. The choicest and most approved materials only are used, and we challenge comparison between this grade of our work and the finest imported chronometers. We do not pretend to sell our watches for less money than foreign watches, but we do assert without fear of contradiction that for the same money our product is incomparably superior. All our watches, of whatever grade, are fully warranted and this warrantee is good at all times against us or our agents in all parts of the world.

CAUTION.—The public are cautioned to buy only of respectable dealers. All persons selling counterfeits will be prosecuted.

A Single Box of BRANDRETH'S PILLS contains more vegetable extractive matter than twenty boxes of any pills in the world besides; fifty-five hundred physicians use them in their practice to the exclusion of other purgatives. The first letter of their value is yet scarcely appreciated. When they are better known, sudden death and continued sickness will be of the past. Let those who know them speak out in their favor. It is a duty which will save life.

Our race are subject to a redundancy of vitiated bile at this season, and it is as dangerous as it is prevalent; but Brandreth's Pills afford an invaluable and efficient protection. By their occasional use we prevent the collection of those impurities which, when in sufficient quantities, cause so much danger to the body's health. They soon cure Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, Pain in the Head, Heartburn, Pain in the Breast-bone, Sudden Faintness and Costiveness. Sold by all respectable Dealers in Medicines. my29dawlm

DISCHARGED.—Forty caulkers in the Portsmouth Navy Yard, who had refused to engage on work sent from New York on account of the strike of the trade there, were discharged on Wednesday.—Boston Journal.

This is something near the truth, but not exactly accurate. Forty carpenters and nineteen caulkers were discharged from the Navy Yard on that day, and substantially for that reason.

The ship Simla was brought here from New York to be repaired, because of the strike there. Some men went to work upon her, but the New York strikers sent a delegation to induce them to break off. They did so; and then the owners of the Simla obtained an order from the Navy Department to use the U. S. Dock, and have the work performed by the workmen on the Navy Yard. But when the order was given at the Yard for this purpose, the men refused, and were discharged of course. Thus, for the present moment, there are neither carpenters nor caulkers there, as the above numbers were the whole force in those trades.

THE STRIKES.—Now that the New York strike is said to be mainly over, it may be of some interest to know how the strike was extended to Portsmouth. There was a great gathering of strikers a fortnight ago, at Jones' Wood, near New York city, where a speech was made by Mr. Gustavus V. Burch, who gave a narrative of his recent tour in the Eastern States, where, he said, not a man could be found to strike a blow on any of the vessels recently sent there from New York for repairs. At Portsmouth he addressed a meeting of the trades, by whom the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That in view of the great struggle now in existence between labor and capital in New York, and desiring to contribute to the support of our brethren and the maintenance of the rights of labor, we, the workingmen here assembled, will not strike a blow upon the ship Simla, which lies at this port, until the demand of the New York strikers (viz: $4.50 for eight hours' labor) shall be acceded to.

Resolved, That we will do all in our power to dissuade others from performing any labor whatever on the said ship.

Resolved, That the action of our New York brethren in the present strike for the eight hour system is heartily endorsed by us and shall receive our utmost co operation.

☞ Those despicable persons, the dog poisoners, are again at their low business. We are assured by those in authority that no orders for such purpose have been or will be given, as aside from its cruelty, there is danger of giving a quietus to the wrong dog by this method. People who pay a license upon their dogs can recover damages from parties so offending upon furnishing proof of guilt.

☞ Great preparations are being made for the reception and accommodation of Summer resorters in Wells the present season. This place has become one of the most fashionable summer resorts on our coast. There are many curiosities in this vicinity, and the visitor for a day or for the season can invest his money in no better pleasure or comfort than can be found at old Wells Beach. Mr. O. A. Frost, the whilom landlord of the City Hotel, has furnished the Atlantic House in good style, and will be pleased to see his old friends and the public generally.

☞ Mine host Dumas has secured the services of S. D. Baker, Esq., as head clerk for his hotel at Hampton Beach. This is a most fortunate selection for all concerned, Mr. Baker having held the trying position of head clerk to Maj. Silvey, Provost Marshal for this State, and won high praise by all having business with that officer for his urbanity and great business tact.

☞ Major Hackett will sell at auction, at noon to-day, the very desirable brick house No. 55 State street, with gas, furnace, and other conveniences, and also a good brick Stable in the rear. An opportunity to secure a home in an excellent locality.

☞ We understand that the Portsmouth Steam Mills, which of late have been making cotton yarns, are to turn their energies to the manufacture of cotton goods.

NAVAL.—Third Asst. Engineer Gates McAllister, recently detached from this naval station, has again been ordered to this yard.

☞ If you want a good laugh, get Leslie's Budget of Fun for July. Batchelder has it.

☞ On account of Rev. Mr. Wyman's being called home by sickness in his family, there will be no service at the Christian Chapel to morrow.

☞ Maj. Hackett sells at auction to-day a fine brick house on State street, in an excellent neighborhood. Such houses are rarely found in the market.

☞ Mr. Wendell continues his sale of dry goods this day and evening.

GOLD, Friday, 149.

☞ J. S. Buttrick, the Postmaster at Sterling, Mass., and a director in the Lancaster Bank, has for years been considered an honest and reliable man, and has been so far honored in public esteem as to be favored with the custody of money by people of all classes who had accumulated a small sum for investment. But he has embezzled bonds, obtained money by false pretences, and in various ways taken away all the property of 15 or 20 of his townsmen and women. He says he is a poor man;—and he is now held to bail for embezzlement.

— The "Editorial and other Items" of the Times, yesterday, notices the fact that a new paper, "The Hub of the Universe," is to be issued at the said "Hub," about the 18th inst. It occurs to T. DENTISTRY!

Some of the Advantages of Consulting Dr. Stevens.

Patients having Artificial Teeth fitted at this office always have the advantage of a large assortment of A No. 1 Teeth to select from.

They always, if they choose, have the privilege of selecting size and color of tooth to suit themselves.

The patient alone always has the matter of decision as to whether the case is a "fit" or not, as no Set of Teeth is ever considered satisfactory to the proprietor of this office, unless they are entirely so to the patient.

DR. STEVENS never uses articles of an inferior quality (although they plentifully abound in the Profession,) in his business.

Dentistry, medically considered, is a speciality at this office.

Painful Teeth treated and cured.

Ulcerated Teeth treated and saved to a life of usefulness.

Badly decayed and broken Teeth restored to usefulness and beauty.

Charges always reasonable for the quality of work performed, but no Cheap Work (so called) done at this office.

☞ DR. T. F. WEED still remains with DR. STEVENS as Assistant. my28

WHICH IS THE
Leading Life Insurance Comp'y
IN THE UNITED STATES?
Which is the Safest and the Cheapest?

The following figures are from the latter Reports of the New York Insurance Commissioner, showing the "amount of business" of the

MUTUAL BENEFIT
LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

to be the largest, the "expenses of management" the smallest, the "ratio of Assets to Liabilities," or the security furnished to its members, the largest of any like institution in the country.

Premiums received in 1864.....$2,089,072
" " " " 1865.....3,029,987
Ratio of expenses to premiums rec'd in '64...12.96
" " " " " " '65...12.16
Ratio of assets to liabilities, Jan. 1, 1865....151.55

The inevitable conclusion from these official facts, is that the

MUTUAL BENEFIT LIFE
Insurance Company
IS THE BEST AND THE CHEAPEST.

Because its NET ASSETS are proportionably LARGER than those of any other Life Insurance Company in the United States.

Because its "Managing Expenses" are LESS, and it has a LARGER SURPLUS to divide among its members than any Company in the United States.

QUERY. Will some one inform the public of that mysterious process by which a Company with a surplus proportionably much less, and expenses very much larger than another, can yet divide more to its members, and insure them at less cost? How is it done? Where does the money come from?

Every intelligent man will see at once that it cannot be done. Yet we have Agents among us that make this their boast.

Any one disposed or intending to insure can be furnished with the requisite information by applying to

HENRY A. YEATON, Agent.

Morning Chronicle.

THE GOLD WATCH QUESTION.—The Journal of Commerce publishes Commissioner Rollins report of only 7896 gold watches returned to be taxed in the United States. Whereupon Tempus, feeling his conscience pricking says:

Editors Journal of Commerce—Your remarks about gold watches were evidently intended for me. Permit me to explain by saying, that a collector relieved me of all responsibility, by taking charge of my watch, one night last July, as I was leaving the Fourth Avenue cars, near the Bible House. He has made no return to me, although I watch daily. As soon as he comes up to time I shall hand in my list to the assessor, to be ticked off. Your friend, T. FUGIT.

THE NEGROES AND THE FENIAN CAUSE. A New York paper, in alluding to the tender of their services to the Fenians by certain colored men, who had been soldiers in the army, says:

"We hope that this incident of the Fenian movement will not be forgotten by Irishmen. Let them remember that the true friend is he who offers assistance in the trying hour. Let them remember that in that hour the politicians—who profess so much friendship for Irishmen when votes are wanted—were nowhere to be found; while the colored people, whom they had learned to hate, were ready and eager to aid them, even to the sacrifice of life."

ILL-BOUND PSALM-BOOK.—A Highland laird, who was very fond of card playing, had been engaged in it until a late hour on a Saturday evening. Next morning in church he accidentally pulled out of his pocket, with his handkerchief, a pack of cards, which were scattered in every direction. The attention of the minister was called to this u toward circumstance, and looking straight at the offender, he exclaimed, "Hoot, mon, but your Psawlm-book is unco ill-bound."

EQUIVOCAL COMPLIMENT.—John Forsyth, editor of the Mobile Register, has recently been traveling North. Having been invited to attend a meeting of the Illinois Democratic Central Committee at Chicago, he writes of his entertainers:

"I almost feel as if I were in 'rebeldom' when I hear those gentlemen talk. If possible, they are more zealous and uncompromising in their hostility to radicalism than we are at home."

State of New Hampshire.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
Concord, June 9, 1866.

To the Disabled Soldiers of New Hampshire:

The Managers of the National Asylum for Disabled Soldiers have made application to the Governors of the several States to furnish them with reliable statistics of the number in each State entitled to receive assistance from this Institution. The information is sought to aid them by determining the number, capacity, and locations of the Asylums it may be deemed expedient to establish.

The subjoined "memorandum" will indicate, with sufficient accuracy for present purposes, who are entitled to the benefits of the proposed Asylums.

To enable me to give the information thus sought, all such disabled officers and soldiers are respectfully invited to furnish me, prior to the first day of July, with their names, residence, regiment and company in which they served, nature of disability, and when and where incurred.

Upon this information the Managers will largely depend in carrying into effect this most worthy object of the Government.

As an additional means of arriving at a reliable estimate, I will thank regimental and company officers to furnish me, prior to the above date, with an estimate, based upon the best information they can obtain, of the number belonging to the organization commanded by them, who are entitled to assistance from this source.

FREDERICK SMYTH, GOVERNOR.

Memorandum.—Diseases and injuries entitling admission into the National Military Asylum, if actually incurred in the service and in the line of duty, and disqualifying for procuring their own maintenance and support:—Mental imbecility; Epilepsy; Paralysis; Organic diseases of Internal Organs; Chronic Rheumatism, with impaired motion, change of structure, and distortion of joints; loss of sight of both eyes; loss of right hand; loss of both feet; incurable deformities, rendering the sufferer repulsive, resulting from wounds or injuries; general debility, or premature old age, resulting from hardship, imprisonment or exposure. jel2—3tdeg

A ROMANCE OF THE LIVERPOOL EXCHANGE.—As an illustration of the peculiarly speculative nature of some of the business which produced the panic in England, the following story is told of one of the largest firms in Liverpool: "The firm in question have recently compounded with their creditors for a sum under ten shillings in the pound, and even this will have to be paid in five installments, extending over about eighteen months. There is, however, just a probability that they may again be placed in a position to resume business, and pay their debts in full. It appears that their chief losses have been in cotton, which is now, of course, relatively at a great depreciation. They purchased some time ago, either in America or Egypt, a very extensive shipment of cotton, at about the highest price of the market at that time. The cotton was insured to its full value, but the ship on board which it was stowed, though considerably overdue, has not yet arrived in this country. If the vessel is lost, therefore, the underwriters will have to pay over the full marketable value of the cotton at the time it was purchased, and the firm will be enabled not only to pay their debts in full, but to realize a handsome surplus. Should the vessel and her cargo yet arrive in safety the firm will be compelled to adopt the composition above described.—Persons at a distance from the centres of commercial excitement and speculation perhaps hardly realize the effects of a sudden depreciation or rise in cotton, but we may state as an illustration that in the case of a vessel which recently arrived in Liverpool from Bombay, laden with cotton, the depreciation in the value of this single cargo amounted to £63,000.

— Miss Thomas, in her "Walter Goring," says: "Women can make one another miserable in such infinitesimally small ways that a man can rarely be brought to comprehend how the business is managed."

SENATOR SUMNER.—A well known pro slavery and pro-rebel writer from Washington has this item:

Senator Sumner is quite unwell. Singular to relate, at the very moment of his greatest triumphs, when he has the Constitution under his feet and when he has revolutionized the form of the government, he is attacked with a return of the mental disorder which was the result of the severe punishment administered to him ten years ago by Preston S. Brooks of South Carolina. The cerebral and nervous affection which he is now troubled with is so great as to render him unable to perform continuous mental labor. Sleep is a stranger to his pillow, and frightful dreams disturb his slumbers. His condition, indeed, is truly pitiable.

His physical condition is indeed, as pitiable, as the moral condition of the man who penned the above item. Mr. Sumner's condition is as pitiable as that of the martyr Stephen, who was stoned for telling unpleasant truth to a hardened and prejudiced assembly. But what of Bully Brooks, who made the cowardly assault on Sumner? and what of Butler, for whom Brooks struck the blow?—Answer: they have been filling drunkard's graves almost ever since the "punishment" of Sumner,—and the Institution, in whose defence they aimed to murder Sumner, and perhaps have murdered him, is as dead as they, and its memory as hateful.

The writer of the item shows the bitterness of his venom, in the sentence declaring that the Martyr Senator has the Constitution under his feet, and that he has revolutionized the form of government. Did the First Congress under the Constitution, in 1789, put it under their feet, when they passed twelve amendments? If, not, then how or why is it, that the advocates of one or two amendments are so stigmatized?

And as to Revolution—who does not know that Wise and Davis, Breckinridge, Floyd & Co. revolutionized, to make slavery paramount and perpetual,—but succeeded only so well as to destroy slavery, and make its chief champions, prisoners, beggars and supplicants?

Those who don't know this, either cannot have read the papers, or, if they have read, must have such a "cerebral and nervous affection," as to destroy their common senses or conscience, or both. U. T.

N. H. LEGISLATURE.—Friday, June 15, at 11.30 A. M., the House of Representatives elected Hon. James W. Patterson a Senator of the United States for six years, from March 4, 1867. He received 199 votes; Ira A. Eastman had 110; and Daniel Clark 2.

At 12 o'clock the Senate elected Mr. Patterson by 9 votes. Mr. Eastman had 3.

DELUSIVE LIGHT.—The New Bedford Standard states that the schooner Col. Lester, which went ashore and bilged Wednesday night on Gooseberry Neck, Westport, was led away from her course by a petroleum lamp in a window on shore, which was mistaken for the light-house on Dumpling rocks. Three vessels have recently gone ashore in that vicinity, misled by lights in the same house.

COLLEGE APPOINTMENT.—Dr. David W. Cheever has been appointed by the Corporation of Harvard University Assistant Professor of Anatomy in Harvard Medical School.

GOLD, Saturday, 157 1-2.

— The mother of Hon. Charles Sumner, died at her residence in Boston, Friday, aged 81 years.

— It is stated as a noticeable fact that the department at Washington has issued more passports to Americans visiting Europe this year than in any preceding one.

— The Supreme Court of Illinois, on an appeal, has rendered a decision that all gift enterprises are simply lotteries. Judge Lawrence, in his decision, defines a lottery to be a scheme for distributing prizes by chance.

— Superintendent Kennedy, of the New York police, writes a letter to the Boston Journal, in which he emphatically denies that Mr. Goddard, of Portland, Me., was robbed in the cars of that city, and that the police refused to assist him to recover his money unless he paid them and the thieves also.

— The U. S. Attorney-General appeared before the House Committee on Foreign Affairs in Congress, on Friday, and opposed the Fenian resolutions referred to them on Monday proposing to repeal the Neutrality laws. Mr. Speed declared that such laws were needed now more than ever.

— A young man named Ward was arrested at Brookfield, Ct., on Saturday, for attempting to poison his father, and was bound over in $1000 for trial at the Superior Court. Mixing strychnine and whisky was the way he took to accomplish his purpose, but had the whisky been used alone (provided it was as bad as people say it generally is), the deed might have been done.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— The town of Amherst, at a late meeting, adopted the act establishing a Police.

—— The Laconia Democrat says an attempt was recently made to burn the Advent House at Lake Village; also the freight house in the same place.

—— At Concord, ex-Governor Joseph A. Gilmore has been confined to his house the 9th inst., and on Saturday was reported to be seriously ill.

—— The New Hampshire State Convention of Universalists will hold its next session at Music Hall, Manchester, on the 20th and 21st of this month,—Wednesday and Thursday.

—— Col. Hiram Rollins, fomerly of the 2d N. H. V. and late of the Veteran Reserve, has been before a Court Marshal, but is honorably acquitted, and returned to service.

—— The exercises of the 20th anniversary of the Methodist General Biblical Institute in Concord commenced on Monday last, and closed on Thursday. The entire programme was interesting, and called out a large attendance.

—— Rev. Ira Bailey was installed at Fitzwilliam, May 23, as pastor of the First Congregational (Unitarian) Society in that place, and of the first Liberal Union Society in Troy.

—— A correspondent of the Wolfeboro' News says Lucinda Geralds, of Water Village, has a son twelve years of age, whose body is almost of infantine proportions, while his head is of monstrous size, measuring thirty inches in circumference. He seems to enjoy himself hugely. His memory is great. His organ of mirthfulness largely predominates.

☞ The Wolfeborough News commends that portion of the Message of Gov. Smyth which treats of Water Rights of New Hampshire people. It says:

It gives us much pleasure to notice a passage in Gov. Smyth's message, calling the attention of the Legislature to the necessity of a scrutiny of the action of certain parties with reference to the navigable waters and water-privileges in the State. It is high time the Legislature should take this matter in hand, and at once and forever place these God-given rights beyond the reach of the greedy grasp of a soulless, law-defying, moneyed aristocracy, who, were it possible to do so, would monopolize the free air, and coin money out of the very breath we breathe.

The News further says that a petition is in circulation there, asking Legislative protection against the encroachments of an overgrown money power.

CONGRESS.—Friday June 15, in the House, Mr. Spaulding offered the following preamble and resolution, and moved the previous question:

Whereas, it is alleged in the public press that Hon. Lovell H. Rousseau, a member of this House from the State of Kentucky, did on the evening of Thursday, the 14th inst., commit an assault upon the person of Hon. O. B. Grinnell, a member of this House from the State of Iowa, because of words spoken in this House by the latter, and

Whereas, said assault, if committed, was a breach of the privileges of this House and of the member assaulted, therefore

Resolved, That a select committee of five be appointed by the Speaker to investigate the subject and report the facts, with such resolutions in reference thereto as in their judgment may be proper and necessary for the vindication of the privileges of this House and protection of its members. Said committee to have power to send for persons and papers and examine witnesses under oath.

The previous question was seconded and the resolution adopted.

The Senate bill to regulate the Pay Department of the Navy, etc., was passed.

WOMEN'S RIGHTS IN THE CARS.—A railroad conductor was recently before the judicial authorities at Buffalo, to answer to a charge of ejecting a man from a car because he refused to give his seat to a woman. The court held that ladies, or those who wish to be considered such, are legally entitled to no more privileges in public conveyances than men, and that when the latter pay for seats, they have a perfect right to occupy them so long as they conduct themselves in a proper manner. The conductor was fined $500 for acting on the supposition that a man was under an obligation to surrender his seat to a woman.

☞ Little four-year old Fannie has instituted a new system of philosophical deduction. She had overheard the statement that eggs were getting scarce because the biddies were setting. Our milkman said this morning that he found it difficult to get milk enough to supply his customers; and the cause of its scarcity being discussed at the breakfast table, Fannie bethought herself of the state of the egg market, and displayed her aptitude at drawing conclusions from parity by conjecturing, "Praps the cows are settin'!" PARENT.

— It is stated that an unusual quantity of Irish potatoes have been planted on the eastern shore of Maryland and the lower counties of Virginia, and that a most plentiful yield is probable. The shipment of new potatoes from Somerset county commenced last week.

Correspondence of the Chronicle.

CONCORD, June 14.

Messrs. Editors:—The "seat of government" here to-day attained the climax of its political glory. The excitement consequent upon the Senatorial contest is at a white heat. Politicians with constitutional pale faces wear to-day a strange flushed aspect, while habitually florid countenances resemble the sumach in October. Seldom has the "Third House" been so fully represented as now. Mayors and merchants, doctors and divines, postmasters and pettifoggers, collectors and officers of the customs, judges and gentlemen, congressmen and city marshals, mechanics and military men, are here as plenty as returning "Finnegans." "Who's to be Senator?" is the universal query; upon which but few are willing to risk their reputation as true prophets, by venturing to make a square prediction. Still large sums of money are at stake upon the issue. Putting this and that together, the result appears to depend between Messrs. Clark and Patterson. The caucus to-night will solve the problem.

Concord merchants and traders aver that the sessions of the General Court do not materially affect the extent of their business. Of course the hotels, newspapers, eating houses and lager beer saloons are benefitted thereby,—but beyond these, only slight advantage accrues to business men from the presence of legislators.

People visiting Concord are naturally led to enquire, "Which is the best hotel?" This interrogatory can be readily answered by those who have ever put up at the Phœnix. Gentlemanly proprietors, courteous and attentive clerks, clean comfortable beds, an elegant cuisine, waiters who know their business and do it, and all the other etceteras tend to make the Phœnix what it is reputed to be—a first-class hotel. 225 guests sat at its dinner tables this noon.

Your favored citizens and tax-payers ought to consider themselves fortunate this year, inasmuch as the rate of taxation is a great deal higher in many other places—Concord, for instance—where the rate is nearly double that of your city.

We trust that your Fourth of July Committee will make arrangements to have a special train run over the C. & P. R. R., after the display of fireworks on that glorious occasion, in which case a large number of our citizens will avail themselves of the opportunity to visit your delightful place on the Fourth. A multitude on the line of the road would do the same, as there is to be no celebration at any intermediate point. SAUL.

☞ The Dover Enquirer says, concerning a note which may be seen on our fourth page this morning:

"We publish the following note from Mr. Hatch, the clerk of the U. S. Circuit Court, to correct any erroneous impression which may have been derived from a paragraph in the last Enquirer in relation to recent matters before the Court. We are glad to know, on his assurance, that there could have been no improper "management" in the selection of the jury, though it did appear somewhat singular that they should have all been drawn from one locality, and all, with one or two exceptions, from the very smallest democratic towns in the State, from which there was hardly one chance in a hundred that any other than democrats would be returned. Mr. Hatch has "heard that five were republicans and seven democrats." We have heard that but two were republicans and ten of the other sort. Even Jeff. Davis might safely trust his case to the decision of such a jury.

We have originated no libel on the Court. We simply inquired in what manner such a jury was drawn. Mr. Hatch tells us that it was done "in the ordinary manner," which with all respect for the memory of Judge Harvey, we consider an unfortunate one, when, as in this case, it is pretty certain to return a jury composed so largely of any one political party. The Court we presume knew nothing of their political opinions; but it was a matter of notoriety to others. Our information was derived from common report, which was amply corroborated by the manner in which the matter was served up in the "States and Union," the copperhead newspaper at Portsmouth, which, we respectfully submit, was more insulting to the Court than any thing which has appeared elsewhere."

In France we believe they have a sort of verdict which we need in this country—"not proven." As to the serving up of the case as referred to, by the Stars and Bars newspaper, we can express no opinion, not having seen a copy of that refreshing publication for many months, as the editor cut off our exchange.

☞ From A. Williams & Co., Boston, we have "The Emerald," a collection of entertaining tales, brilliant poems and essays, edited by Epes Sargent and published by John L. Shorey, Boston. This is the first of the "Gem Series," and will be followed by others of a similar nature, each about 300 pages, at 75 cents a number. It a sifting out of the best of fugitive literature, and an addition of fresh and racy translations from French and German writings.

— Albert Pike, his wife, and a young girl named Flora Blanchard, of Whitingham, Vt., were precipitated down an embankment into the Deerfield river, last Sabbath morning, while on their way to church, and Mrs. Pike and the girl and the horse were drowned.

IMPORTANT FROM EUROPE. — Dates from Liverpool and London to June 6, say it is fully confirmed that the proposed conference of the European Powers has been abandoned, owing to the demands of Austria and Prussia, which were regarded by England, France and Russia as tantamount to a refusal. All negotiations have been broken off by the neutral Powers, and its remains for the armed Powers to negotiate among themselves or commence war.—Hopes of peace have almost vanished. Military preparations are reported from all quarters.

PURE BRANDY.

The infamous practice of adulterating Brandies having become so common that a genuine article is the exception, it is of vital importance to those requiring it for family use and invalids, that it should be of undoubted purity and efficacy.

We are pleased to notice that the old and popular Wine Importers, BININGER & Co., No. 15 Beaver Street, New York, are very opportune in calling the attention of families to their "GOLD MEDAL COGNAC," Of which they say, that, "With a view to meeting the popular demand for a reliable Brandy in its natural state, free from alcoholic flavor and impurities, and fully appreciating the fact that it is often recommended by the Medical Faculty as a sustaining stimulant, when all other remedies fail, we are now bottling and selling at reasonable rates a Brandy of our own importation, from one of the most responsible Houses in France, and known as "BININGER'S GOLD MEDAL COGNAC."

This Standard Article is sold by all of the prominent Druggists.

KIND WORDS.—Kind words! how cheap, indeed, and yet how very dear. Kind words are Heaven's sweet Angel messengers. So is Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus earth's sweet messenger to all who love a good, nice, light, white Biscuit. You had better throw your flour away, and go hungry, rather than use any other. Call for Herrick Allen's, and have no other; it is as harmless as flour. Try it. Ask everybody sells it. Depot 112 Liberty Street, New York. 101

Elegant Residence for Sale.

[On account of removal of owner.]

The well known and beautifully situated CUTTS' HOUSE, on North Road, Portsmouth, recently occupied by Chas. Amory, Esq. The House contains eighteen rooms, with elegant bath-room, billiard room, (containing a table in good order,) nursery, and all requisites for a properly arranged family mansion.

The House is in excellent repair, having been thoroughly refitted a year or two since, while its propinquity to the beaches, and the facilities which it affords for charming rides and pleasure sailing, render it one of the most desirable estates in the market.

The House is furnished with double windows (each with a sliding pane) throughout, is heated by a furnace, and many of the rooms have also elegant marble mantels and grates. In addition to the superior cellar, there is a first class wine cellar. The house is fitted throughout with Straw Matting.

The out-buildings are very complete. A STABLE, with accommodations for five horses; CARRIAGE HOUSE; a splendid Harness Room, finished in chestnut and black walnut, with glass cases for harness; Cow House, &c.

If desirable, more land, adjoining, could doubtless be purchased.

The grounds comprise about four acres, with terraced Lawn, fine old trees and thrifty shrubbery—and so situated as to command a delightful view of forest, city and harbor. The winding drive about the house is underlaid with stone, and laid with shells.

REASONS WHY THE

AMERICAN WATCH,

MADE AT WALTHAM, MASS:

IS THE BEST.

It is made on the best principle. Its frame is composed of SOLID PLATES. No jar can interfere with the harmony of its working and no sudden shock can damage its machinery. Every piece is made and finished by machinery (itself famous for its novelty, as well as for its effectiveness) and is therefore properly made. The watch is what all mechanism should be—ACCURATE, SIMPLE, STRONG AND ECONOMICAL. Except some high grades, too costly for general use, foreign watches are chiefly made by women and boys. Such watches are composed of several hundred pieces, screwed and riveted together, and require constant repairs to keep them in any kind of order. All persons who have carried "ancres," "lepines," and "English Patent Levers," are perfectly well aware of the truth of this statement.

At the beginning of our enterprise, more than ten years ago, it was our first object to make a thoroughly good low-priced watch for the million, to take the place of these foreign impositions—the refuse of foreign factories—which were entirely unsaleable at home and perfectly worthless everywhere.

How well we have accomplished this may be understood from the fact, that after so many years of public trial we now make MORE THAN HALF OF ALL THE WATCHES SOLD IN THE UNITED STATES, and that no others have ever given such universal satisfaction. While this department of our business is continued with increased facilities for perfect work, we are at present engaged in the manufacture of watches of the very HIGHEST GRADE KNOWN TO CHRONOMETRY, unequalled by anything hitherto made by ourselves, and unsurpassed by anything made in the world. For this purpose we have the amplest facilities. We have erected an addition to our main buildings expressly for this branch of our business, and have filled it with the best workmen in our service. New machines and appliances have been constructed, which perform their work with consummate delicacy and exactness. The choicest and most approved materials only are used, and we challenge comparison between this grade of our work and the finest imported chronometers. We do not pretend to sell our watches for less money than foreign watches, but we do assert without fear of contradiction that for the same money our product is incomparably superior. All our watches, of whatever grade, are fully warranted and this warrantee is good at all times against us or our agents in all parts of the world.

CAUTION.—The public are cautioned to buy only of respectable dealers. All persons selling counterfeits will be prosecuted.

A Single Box of BRANDRETH'S PILLS contains more vegetable extractive matter than twenty boxes of any pills in the world besides; fifty-five hundred physicians use them in their practice to the exclusion of other purgatives. The first letter of their value is yet scarcely appreciated. When they are better known, sudden death and continued sickness will be of the past. Let those who know them speak out in their favor. It is a duty which will save life.

Our race are subject to a redundancy of vitiated bile at this season, and it is as dangerous as it is prevalent; but Brandreth's Pills afford an invaluable and efficient protection. By their occasional use we prevent the collection of those impurities which, when in sufficient quantities, cause so much danger to the body's health. They soon cure Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, Pain in the Head, Heartburn, Pain in the Breast-bone, Sudden Faintness and Costiveness. Sold by all respectable Dealers in Medicines. my29dawim

If Fair Weather,
THE SECOND PUBLIC CONCERT
—BY THE—
PORTSMOUTH CORNET BAND, will be given
ON HAYMARKET SQUARE,
THIS (MONDAY) EVE'G, June 18th,
commencing at 8 o'clock.

☞ At the 4th Annual Session of the New Hampshire Unitarian Association, held in Portsmouth last Wednesday and Thursday, about one hundred ministers and delegates were present. The officers elected for the ensuing year are:

President—Hon. Ichabod Goodwin, of Portsmouth.

Vice Presidents—Hon. Thomas M. Edwards, of Keene, and Rev. C. B. Ferry, of Peterboro.'

Secretary—Rev. John C. Learned, of Exeter.

Treasurer—Col. Benj. Grover, of Concord.

Directors—S. M. Wheeler, of Dover; A. L. Jones, of Portsmouth; Rev. Livingston Stone, of Charlestown; B. F. Whidden, of Lancaster; H. A. Bellows, of Concord; Alfred F. Perry, of Manchester; Amos A. Parker, of Fitzwilliam.

THE LADIES' FRIEND.—We were called upon recently to witness the operation of a new patent Atmospheric Churn, at the City Hotel, by the Agent, Mr. J. P. Welch, which far exceeded our most sanguine expectations. The operation was actually performed in less than two minutes, under very unfavorable circumstances,—converting the cream into excellent yellow butter, to the astonishment of every one present. We consider this to be one of the best of the numerous churns ever brought before the public. Most churns patented heretofore have either been total failures or faulty in some one or more respects. Few of them were based on the true chemical combination of cream; hence they have generally proved failures. The butter in cream is contained in small sacks or globules; and the true process of churning is that which will break or burst these little vessicles the quickest or most thoroughly, and then unite the little particles thus set free from their natural covering. The floats of this churn do this quickly and effectually; it does the hard work of churning literally "in less than two minutes," and does the work well, as was proved by actual trial.

Mr. Welch proposes to churn every evening at half-past seven o'clock, at the City Hotel, where he is prepared to sell County and Town Rights, including York county, Maine, and supply parties purchasing Rights with churns. We think this a rare chance for those out of employment, with a small capital, as he offers very liberal inducements. The price of the churn is low, and within the reach of everybody wanting one. Generally, those selling Patent Rights have no goods to furnish; this is not the case with Mr. Welch—he has 1000 now on hand, and has facilities for manufacturing 50 a day. All interested should go and see him churn to-night.

☞ We observe that some citizens are making improvements in front of their buildings, in placing turf where it should be, and removing grass, straw and rubbish from places where they should not be. This is well,—and the example will not be lost.

ODD FELLOWS' HALL, in this city, has just been newly fitted up, and is now as cosy and comfortable room as any one could in reason desire. An elegant new carpet has been placed upon the floor, new furniture has been provided, and the old gas fixtures replaced by those of a more tasteful pattern. The members of the Order will no doubt decide that their committee have expended the $1500 which these improvements have cost, in a most judicious manner.

In perfect keeping with the elegance of the room is a large and new safe, from the manufactory of Messrs. Tilton & McFarland, Boston, whose card may be found in another column. But the merit of this safe does not lie in its fair outside, being rather in the extraordinary thickness of its walls and in the construction of the lock, which latter renders the possibility of damage by powder nearly out of the question.

☞ Ladies have in years past suffered considerable annoyance from a parcel of ill-bred loafers who infested the cemeteries at the foot of Richards Avenue, during the summer months—clinging to the wall like lizards, sprawled out on the grass, boisterous in language not the most refined, and altogether out of keeping with the sanctity we are wont to ascribe to the last resting place of those we have loved and lost. To prevent the recurrence of this unpleasant feature, Marshal Kent will detail an officer for special duty in that vicinity, throughout the season.

REAL ESTATE SALES.—Saturday, Maj. Hackett sold at auction brick house No. 55 State street, to Benj. Cheever, for $4600.

The same auctioneer also sold the dwelling house corner of Sheafe and Chapel streets, for $750, to George Rice.

Communication.

☞ Shall we have a glorious celebration of the coming Fourth or shall it be a fizzle? The only question at issue is means. Nothing can be done without money. The committee appointed by the City Government acting in conjunction with the citizen's committee, have adopted a most judicious and economical programme, which if well carried out will reflect credit upon the City. But again we repeat, nothing can be done now-a-days without money. Much has been done by our public spirited citizens, but much more remains to be done. Will those who have already cast in their mite yet add to it, that we may have our hopes for the coming Fourth answered?

Dr. Stevens has been appointed on behalf of the City Government, and Mr. Chas. L. Tidd of the citizens committee, to wait upon the people of Portsmouth during the week, to solicit renewed re subscription.—Do not let them go away from your doors empty handed. Mr. John Townsend will act with the above gentlemen, by presenting a paper to the citizens of the Southend.

☞ Attention is called to the advertisement offering that very desirable property, the Cutts' House, for sale. We have recently inspected the premises, and found them in excellent repair, from cellar to roof, while the house has some features which more modern ones do not generally have, in its elaborately wrought wooden cornices and embayed window seats. It will be disposed of at a bargain.

☞ Boys would do well to remember that the practice of bathing from the wharves in the compact part of the city during daylight is forbidden by law, and that the officers are directed to enforce the penalties against those thus exposing themselves.

☞ Mr. Wendell continues his sale of dry goods this day and evening.

P. P. S.

All members of the Philharmonic Society are requested to meet at Mercantile Hall on TUESDAY EVENING, June 19, at 7 1-2 o'clock. A full attendance is desired.—

Perry's Moth and Freckle Lotion.

☞ Chloasma, or Mothpatch, (also called Liver-spot,) and Lentigo, or Freckles, are often very annoying, particularly to ladies of light com plexion, for the discolored spots show more plainly on the face of a blonde, than of a brunette; but they greatly mar the beauty of either and any preparation that will effectually remove them, without injuring the texture or color of the skin, is certainly a desideratum. Some of the Advantages of Consulting Dr. Stevens.

Patients having Artificial Teeth fitted at this office always have the advantage of a large assortment of A No. 1 Teeth to select from.

They always, if they choose, have the privilege of selecting size and color of tooth to suit themselves.

The patient alone always has the matter of decision as to whether the case is a "fit" or not, as no Set of Teeth is ever considered satisfactory to the proprietor of this office, unless they are entirely so to the patient.

DR. STEVENS never uses articles of an inferior quality (although they plentifully abound in the Profession,) in his business.

Dentistry, medically considered, is a speciality at this office.

Painful Teeth treated and cured.

Ulcerated Teeth treated and saved to a life of usefulness.

Badly decayed and broken Teeth restored to usefulness and beauty.

Charges always reasonable for the quality of work performed, but no Cheap Work (so called) done at this office.

☞ DR. T. F. WEED still remains with DR. STEVENS as Assistant. my28

WHICH IS THE
Leading Life Insurance Comp'y
IN THE UNITED STATES?
Which is the Safest and the Cheapest?

The following figures are from the later Reports of the New York Insurance Commissioner, showing the "amount of business" of the

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

to be the largest, the "expenses of management" the smallest, the "ratio of Assets to Liabilities," or the security furnished to its members, the largest of any life institution in the country.

Premiums received in 1864	$2,089,072
" " " 1865	3,029,087
Ratio of expenses to premiums rec'd in '64	12.96
" " " " " '65	12.16
Ratio of assets to liabilities, Jan. 1, 1865	151.85

The inevitable conclusion from these official facts, is that the

MUTUAL BENEFIT LIFE
Insurance Company
IS THE BEST AND THE CHEAPEST.

Because its NET ASSETS are proportionably LARGER than those of any other Life Insurance Company in the United States.

Because its "Managing Expenses" are LESS, and it has a LARGER SURPLUS to divide among its members than any Company in the United States.

QERRY. Will some one inform the public of that mysterious process by which a Company with a surplus proportionably much less, and expenses very much larger than another, can yet divide more to its members, and insure them at less cost? How is it done? Where does the money come from?

Every intelligent man will see at once that it cannot be done. Yet we have Agents among us that make this their boast!

Any one disposed or intending to insure can be furnished with the requisite information by applying to
HENRY A. YEATON, Agent.
Portsmouth, March 27, 1866—3mdaw

From the Portsmouth Journal

NOMINATION OF C. S. SENATOR.

From the result of the legislative caucus on Thursday evening, it appears that the Hon. J. W. PATTERSON, one of our present Representatives in Congress, will be a Senator in Congress for the next six years. At any other position of public affairs than the present important crisis of our country, we should have been in favor of rotation, but at the present time when all the wisdom which long experience gives is required to be called into exercise in the reconstruction of our government, we must say that we were in favor of retaining Mr. Clark in the position he has so long, so uprightly and so ably filled. Aside from this consideration, we know of no one better fitted for the place than Mr. Patterson. An able Statesman, a true Patriot, an accessible man, and one who will seek to carry out the principles of his constituents, we trust he will be found to be one on whom the honors of his State have not been misplaced.

SUICIDE.—Mr. Washington Parker, aged about 45, formerly of Quincy, Mass. but for several years a resident of North Hampton, N. H. was found dead in a building attached to his house on Tuesday last. He lost his wife about two years ago, and had no family. He recently disposed of his house to Mr. John F. Hobbs, for about $500, and afterwards wished to break the bargain, regarding it a bad one on his part. He had been clearing the house the last week, expressing regrets that he had not kept it, to marry again and occupy it. Since Sunday he had not been seen, and on Tuesday noon he was found with a rope around his neck, evidently having been dead two days. In his pocket book was found $767.

To the Editor of the Dover Enquirer:

Sir: I saw copied into the Portsmouth Journal, from your paper, an article, intimating, that by the "management" of some person "a copperhead jury" was packed, to try certain prosecutions at the recent term of the Circuit Court of the United States holden in this city. The charge is entirely false and unfounded, and is very insulting to the Jury, to Judge Clifford and the officers of his Court, as well as to the memory of Judge Harvey—one of the purest, most honorable and impartial magistrates who ever lived. My position as Clerk of that Court seems to require me to ask you to make the necessary correction.

The facts are, that only fourteen petit jurors were drawn for the recent term of the Court. They were summoned, all in the ordinary manner, from twelve different towns, selected by Judge Harvey, and named in his written order filed in the Clerk's office on the 8th day of March. The venire issued March 9th, long before the prosecutions in question originated, and before the alleged offences were committed. One of the jurors was sick and never attended the Court; another was excused by Judge Clifford, leaving just twelve men on one jury. Of course any "management" to pack such a jury was simply impossible. When they appeared none of the jurors were personally known to the Judge or any officer of the Court, except the District Attorney; and nothing was known of their politics, tho' I have since heard that five were Republicans and seven Democrats.

With the result of the trials referred to, I have no concern; but I have every reason to believe, that the selection of the Jury, the trials and the verdicts, (of which there were four; two of conviction and two of acquittal) were fair, honest and impartial according to the ordinary course of justice. The expression attributed by you to the Judge is probably no better founded than the falsehoods I have exposed.

I am unwilling, Mr. Editor, to accuse you of originating a libel such dangerous, tending to destroy the confidence of the people in the purity and impartiality of our Courts. But to excuse yourself I think you ought to expose the name of your informant as an adept in falsehood and a proper subject for the application of the justice of the Court he has maligned.

ALBERT R. HATCH.

Portsmouth, June 11th, 1866.

For the Portsmouth Journal.

MY JUNE ROSE.

BY DANIEL A. BROWN.

'Mid the warbling of birds, and the breath of sweet flowers,
Smiling June like a fairy has entered her bowers.
With her sandals all sparkling with jewels of light,
Which had crowned sleeping violets thro' the still night
And now scatters her gifts from her bountiful quiver,
O'er the emerald banks of our swift-flowing river.
Bidding woodland, and meadow, and dingle to smile,
While I, as her lover, am happy the while.

A rose deeply blushing she offered to me,
Exhaling its sweetness deliciously free,
Whose velvety petals seemed plainly to say
"Praise God for pure flowers, this bright summer day;
For His goodness has made us both graceful and sweet,
With purest of pleasures thy senses to greet,
And He, who now crowns us with beauty anew,
Will surely extend loving care over you.

Our delicate buds are the work of His hand,
Though unseen, oft we bloom in a lone distant land,
But our praises in perfume ascend to the skies,
And blessings of dew are His bounteous replies."
So let your heart's offerings freely ascend
To Him who has called himself "Father" and "Friend,"
And He, who adorns both the lily and rose,
'Mid showers of blessings will give thee repose.

Should the storm-king of sorrow and trial pass by,
And clouds of adversity darken thy sky,—
Should thy heart bend to earth, as it all hope had fled,
As the rose 'neath the blast bows its beautiful head,
Then remember! the "angel of peace" smiles again,—
That sunshine is brighter succeeding the rain,—
That the rainbow of Hope will soon span the blue sky,—
That Faith ever triumphs, and Love cannot die.

MONARCHIES VS. THE PEOPLE.—Remarking upon the approaching European conference, a London paper forcibly remarks:

"It is a melancholy sight to see the fate of a million and a half of fighting men depend upon the affirmative or negative of a few elderly gentlemen who will sit round a table at the approaching conference, representing a hundred millions of the most enlightened and best educated men in Europe, the subjects of their respective sovereigns, and that these hundred millions of people, who will have to bear the brunt of the war, if it come, have no more voice in arresting it than if they were natives to the empire of China."

BE CAREFUL HOW AND WHERE YOU SPEAK.—A short time since, a lady in this city, while standing on the doorstep, called to her husband in the house that she had put her portemonnaie in the bureau drawer. That night she was awakened by a noise, which she supposed was made by the cat, but on getting up the animal was not to be found in the room. Next morning the cat was out of the bag—or rather the portemonnaie, containing $100, was missing from the drawer in the next room, and has not since been found—Portland Press.

A CAT STORY.—Mr. George H. Wiggin has a cat that catches her own fish. A day or two since she tugged bravely up from the Lake, a big horned pout. The fish was alive, and puss had evidently been under water, and the exhausted condition of the cat showed that the contest had been a severe one. We are told this is not the only instance in which puss has furnished herself and family with a mess of fish from the Lake.—Wolfeboro' News.

GEORGE PEABODY, ESQ.—It may perhaps interest many, and save trouble to some, to know Mr. Peabody's intended programme of proceeding during his present visit to his native land, as laid down by him in a letter to the Mayor of Baltimore declining a reception in that city:

At present I am precluded from paying your city a visit by having found it necessary, in making arrangements for visiting my native country, to form before leaving England, and strictly to carry out after my arrival, a definite plan, which has obliged me to decline similar invitations from other cities. And in accordance with what I conceive to be my duty, I must for some months confine my attention to business of a family nature, and to carry out other intentions with which my mind has long been occupied."

— Neal Dow has been welcomed to England by the Temperance Alliance.

— Roses appear to be doing better this season than they have for several years past. Some varieties have blossomed and look well. They have for years been eaten and poisoned by little white insects, which bid defiance to all attempts to stop their depredations.

— A number of young Germans engaged in commercial pursuits are compelled to leave London, having received orders to join the Prussian and Saxon armies. If they do not obey the summons they lose the rights of citizenship, and any property they may inherit is forfeited.

CONGRESS AND RECONSTRUCTION.—It seems hardly necessary at the first glance that Mr. Fessenden should take so much pains as he does in his report from the Reconstruction Committee, to argue the power and duty of Congress to fix upon the final terms of the restoration of the seceded States. But, after all (remarks the Boston Journal) it is just there that the enemies of every wise plan, whether they be secessionists at the South or oppositionists at the North, take their ground. They may commit all sorts of inconsistencies in reaching their position, swallowing what has already been done by Congress, overlooking even more arbitrary things done by the President, and claiming a degree of exemption from Congress that could not be distinguished from a revival of the rebellion itself—yet here the Stephenses and Lees of the rebellion join hands with the Northern Copperheads and the few advocates of the President's policy. In the loyal States there is no difficulty in maintaining the right view. The people feel Congress is but representing themselves in the matter of reconstruction as truly as the loyal armies did in subduing the rebellion, and for the same great ends. But at the South there is need of much truthful instruction on the subject, which we fear will not be forthcoming in season to prevent erroneous action and the formation of habits of thought which will long exert a pernicious influence over that section. For this reason we hail the recent noble appeal of Governor Hamilton of Texas, and trust that others will be found in all the Southern States to follow his example. The following is a specimen of the manner in which he discusses this important topic:

"I do not pretend to know how much they require of you, but I know this, that just as the majority of that Congress you abuse may determine, you must comply in order to obtain admittance. But whom do you abuse when you abuse the majority in Congress? Now and then it is fashionable to say Thad. Stevens, Sumner and others; you will find it has reference to all those in Congress who vote together. You are abusing two-thirds of Congress, and through them two-thirds of the people of the United States. You would be just as unsuccessful in making a political war upon the majority of the Union people as you were in the conflict of arms in the late war. You have made it necessary for them to make certain requirements of you, and they will do it in such a manner that they will never be disturbed again by a rebellion. I would do the same and so would you if placed in the same position. You would not permit any State to go back until you had assurance of the hearty submission of the people in a manner not yet given by the people of Texas."

STRANGE FREAK OF NATURE. — A short time ago a cat belonging to the Salutation Hotel, Ambleside, gave birth to four kittens. At the time a hen was discovered in the same room sitting on 18 eggs, which were taken from under her. The hen immediately drove off the cat and took possession of the kittens, which she sat on regularly. The kittens suckled from their mother, and during the time they were fed the hen was plaged in a hamper close at hand. It was amusing to see the hen when she was released again make puss skedaddle.—Westmoreland (Eng.) Gazette.

SURATT, THE ASSASSIN.—There is an apparently well-grounded rumor afloat in Memphis, that John H. Suratt, one of the leading Lincoln conspirators, was recently in that city on his way from Northern Texas to Missouri.

THE LAST STRIKE ON RECORD.—A horse railroad company in Chicago, having occasion to have a few rods of rail laid down, last Sunday employed a gang of laborers to do the work. After they had been engaged at the task an hour or two, it suddenly occurred to them that they ought to better their condition, and they accordingly struck for—ten dollars a day! At last accounts the company had not acceeded to their demands.

☞ A lad named John Hollowood, Jr., aged about eleven years, whose parents reside in York street, Portland, while passing through a stable in the vicinity of the house, Sunday noon, was kicked by a horse, the blow striking the jugular vein, and instantly killed. The boy was discovered a few moments after the occurrence, by his father, who lifted him up and carried him home; but life was extinct.

— George Knight, a colored boy living at New Haven, was attacked by a crowd of Irishmen at the Circus on Wednesday afternoon, and driven for refuge to the house of his employer, Thomas Atwater. About six o'clock he went out to the barn, where he was again set upon by his assailants and fatally stabbed in the groin, so that he lived but an hour.

—— Franklin had exactly 1600 inhabitants in 1860. It has two lawyers, Daniel Barnard and Austin F. Pike. The first named has been elected President of the New Hampshire Senate, and the second Speaker of the House. They have been law partners.

WILLIAM W. SEATON, of the old departed firm of Gales & Seaton, for many years the printers and publishers of the National Intelligencer, died at Washington on Saturday, aged 81,—of cancer in the face. He was Mayor of Washington for twelve successive years; was a worthy Freemason, and a man of integrity, honesty, hospitality and generosity. He was never a rich man (as riches are commonly estimated) but always had something to bestow upon the needy. Honors were paid at his funeral by the Grand Lodge of Freemasons, the City Government, the Columbia Typographical Society and the people, white and black.

GEN. LEWIS CASS died on Sunday morning, at Detroit, aged 83 years. He was the only true and loyal member of President Buchanan's Cabinet, at the outbreak of the rebellion, and resigned his place because he could not be a partaker in Treason at the seat of government. He had previously been one of the great men in the democratic party, and once their candidate for the presidency.

Gen. Cass was a native of Exeter, and received his education at Phillips' Exeter Academy.

☞ The attractive list of L. Prang & Co.'s Chromo Pictures—being fac similes of oil and water color paintings—embraces Album of Cuba, 4 views; Autumn Leaves, 2 plates; 9 American Views, including White and Catskill Mountain Scenery, Niagara, &c.; Wood Mosses and Ferns; Groups of Chickens; Early Autumn and Late Autumn; 6 American Landscapes, including Lake George, &c.; and Portraits of George and Martha Washington.

The New York Tribune commends highly these fine specimens of Chromo-Lithography, particularly the one representing "a Group of Chickens," after Tait, which they regard as the most creditable piece of work of this class yet produced in America; and says this is the art of picture-printing in colors, and, although not a very recent invention, has been greatly modified and improved of late years; it might, with propriety, be called mechanical painting, as the colors are laid on one after another, mingling the different tints and shades until the picture is complete, in a manner analagous to painting with a brush; and, provided the men who undertake the work are skillful artists, there is no reason why a Chromo-lithograph should fall short, in point of expression or delicacy, of the original painting which it is designed to imitate.

Messrs. Prang & Co. have other works of this nature in press, and we trust they may receive the encouragement necessary to enable them to continue their labors, which have a tendency to raise the standard of art among us, and educate the taste of the masses, by placing within their reach fac similes of the finest works of the great masters in painting.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—Washington dispatches say the Committee on Foreign Relations will not consider the proposed repeal of the neutrality law until week after next.

The official records show that our Navy captured during the rebellion 1500 prizes, some of which were worth $200,000 besides other important captures of supplies. It is stated that the Navy netted over twenty million dollars as its share of these prizes.

It is confirmed that France has officially notified England and Prussia that negotiations for a peace are at an end. Napoleon said: "Well, Austria takes upon herself a great responsibility."

One of the President's organs, the Washington Chronicle, has advices that since the withdrawal of some of our troops from South Carolina, threats of assassination have been freely made to some of the remaining Union officers.

LYNCHING AND MURDER.—At Memphis, Tenn., June 15, a posse of men attempted to bring into the city two men named S. A. Boyett and Frank Wingate, for the murder of a man named Payne, on Tuesday night. It seems the guilty parties were informed of by E. N. Bank, an accomplice, who hunted them out near the city. On nearing the city they were met by a Mr. Henderson, a relative of Payne, when the three killed Bank and mortally wounded Boyett. The leader of the posse ordered Henderson to desist, and on refusing the latter was shot and killed. The man that killed Henderson was his own uncle.

THE RECONSTRUCTION AMENDMENT.—Gov. Curtin of Pennsylvania has sent a circular to the Governors of all the loyal States, suggesting a simultaneous calling together of the Legislatures to adopt the amendment to the Constitution proposed by Congress. He thinks it desirable that this should be done before the adjournment of Congress. About forty Republican Congressmen have also signed a letter to Gov. Brownlow of Tennessee, asking him to call together the Legislature of his State, to adopt the amendment, and intimating that if it is done the Tennessee delegation will be once admitted to Congress.

— The first official copy of the new constitutional amendment was sent to Connecticut.

NEW HAMPSHIRE BOARD OF EDUCATION.—The School Commissioners constituting the New Hampshire Board of Education, held an adjourned session at Concord last week, commencing on Wednesday morning and continuing two days. Rev. Daniel E. Adams of Wilton, Chairman, presided, with Geo. W. Cate of Northwood, as Secretary. Committees were appointed to draft resolutions in relation to increasing the pay and powers of the Commissioners, in relation to text books and in relation to increasing the public school fund. The Board also urged upon the Legislature the importance of authorizing the Commissioners to hold school conventions in the various counties. The committee on text books, through a resolution, recommended to the Committee on Education of the House of Representatives the expediency of presenting to the Legislature a resolution providing for the adoption of a uniform set of school books throughout the State, which should not change oftener than once in five years. It was also suggested to the Legislature to appropriate the sum of $5000 annually for the salaries of the several members of the Board and for the expenses of the school conventions; also the expendiency of choosing the Commissioners for different terms of office, so that each year four of them may retire and four new members be added theirto. The Commissioners held long consultations with Gov. Smyth, and were much gratified with the deep interest which His Excellency manifested in the cause of common school education in New Hampshire.

PRESIDENTIAL REMOVALS.—President Washington, in his eight years, removed 8 officers, all for good cause shown to the Senate. John Adams in his four years 9. Jefferson in his eight years 39; not one for partisan or political reasons, as he averred. Madison 5, and Monroe 9, in their eight years each. John Quincy Adams, in his four years, only 2. The Spoilers who elected Jackson, took for one of their mottoes, "to the victors belong the spoils"—and removals were legion—a high bid for corruption. The new motto now threatened is, "to the vanquished traitors belong the spoils." But "the end is not yet."

— The soldiers' monument to be erected in the town of Wells is to be of white marble with granite base. It is to be twenty feet high from the top of the mound on which it will stand. We understand that Mr. J. E. Staples, of York, has contracted for the marble work, and Mr. Sylvester Hatch, of Wells, for the granite work and grading of the site. It is expected to be finished and erected in September next. The marble work will cost one thousand dollars. John Storer, Esq., of Sanford, a former resident of Wells, donates the monument to the town.—Biddeford Union.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—On Thursday evening Mr. Ephraim Russell of Temple, Me., took rooms at the Commercial House, Portland. In the night he got out of bed in a bewildered state and made a dive for the window, which gave way, and he fell thro' down upon the sidewalk, striking upon his head, receiving injuries from which he died Friday morning at 7 o'clock. He was at the theatre the evening before, and appeared in good health and spirits.

MEXICO.—A Brownsville, Texas, correspondent gives a view of Mexican affairs under Maximilian's rule, which shows that the Empire is fast verging into anarchy.

There is much discontent among our troops on the line of the Rio Grande, at being kept in the service when entitled to be mustered out.

☞ On Sunday, in New York city, the excise law was largely violated—hundreds of liquor saloons being kept open secretly, while many lager beer saloons sold freely. Hoboken and other points were visited by crowds, but little drunkenness and rowdiness were apparent. There were a number of arrests made by the police in town.

☞ A dispatch from Utica, N. Y., of Sunday, states that a mob early that morning burned the house of the notorious Loomis gang at Sangersfield, and strung up Plumb Loomis and a confederate until they confessed numerous crimes, when they took them to jail. The rest of the gang were given 30 days to leave.

☞ Among the magazines for July Beadle's Monthly and Godey's Lady's Book each maintain their excellence in the path they have severally chosen. The former gives an interesting illustrated article on Utah, while the latter has a fine steel engraving—"Summer Joys"—colored fashions, &c. Batchelder has them.

The United States Service Magazine for June is just received. It has, among other good things, an interesting article on Navy Yards.

☞ A new volume of Godey's Lady's Book begins with the number for July. "Summer Joys" is a beautiful steel engraving. The colored Fashion plate, containing six figures, speaks for itself. "Confiscated" is a fine wood engraving; and so is "Boating on the Lake—New Employment for the Ladies." "Dress under Difficulties," by a lady of Georgia, gives an insight of the troubles of Southern ladies during the blockade.

— A man out in Indiana got a divorce from his wife because she went skating against his wishes. He concluded to let her slide.

— Special dispatches from Washington say the Senate has agreed to make no more confirmations during the present session, except to fill vacancies.

— A "run" on a London bank was stopped, and the crowd in front effectually dispersed in ludicrous plight, by the simple expedient of emptying a bag of flour over them from an upper window.

— Gov. Curtin, of Pennsylvania, has issued a Circular to his brother Governors, recommending a special session of the several Legislatures, to ratify the new Amendment of the Constitution.

WHERE THE SHOE PINCHES.—Certain Dentists who have tooth nostrums to sell, and who find that the SOZODONT is taking the place of every other dentrifice in the land, shake their heads knowingly and hint that it is deleterious. If they mean deleterious to their interests, no doubt they are right. Were it destructive to the teeth, these cavilers would have nothing to say against it, as the effects would bring grist to their mill: their motives are too transparent not to be seen by every intelligent person. 20

— No lady should be without the J. Monroe Taylor Gold Medal Soap, especially if nice, white, clean clothes are of any object. It should be regarded in every family as the one important and indispensible article on a washing day. Indeed, it is the only perfectly pure soap made. It is a model soap, and the only one worthy the patronage of the American people. We feel as if we could not say enough of its good qualities. A word to the wise, however, we think will prove sufficient. Most of the grocers sell it. 101

HYGIENIC WINE!

HAS FOR ITS BASE

One of the Finest of Pure Wines.

A WINE grown on the sunny slopes of Spain—the genuine juice of the Grape in all its purity, as bestowed upon us by the beneficent GIVER, and such as is, alone, consistent with Christian teachings—not intoxicating in the least—will supply a want greatly felt in this country.

Such is HYGIENIC WINE,

A Bitter Aromatic.

It is conscientiously recommended to LADIES as a tonic which will soothe the nerves, renew the blood, and gently stimulate and invigorate the system.

☞ All persons of sedate habits—ministers, lawyers, and professional men, possessing constitutions more delicate than others of less confining labors—those who expend a great deal of vitality in brain work—will at once acknowledge the superiority of this restorative; for while it acts as a nervine, imparting a genial glow to the blood, it leaves behind none of the baneful influences of Alcholic preparations.

It stands unrivalled as a Toner of the Digestive Organs, thereby creating a healthy appetite, and we warrant that upon trial HYGIENIC WINE will be found to be the finest, most delicious, and healthful Tonic known. Ask for it.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

Is a concentrated extract of the choice root, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effectual antidote for diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. Such a remedy is surely wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove, as this has, of immense service to the large class of our afflicted fellow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found in the following complaints:—

Scrofula, Scrofulous Swellings and Sores, Skin Diseases, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Eruptions, St Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ring Worm, &c.

Syphilis or Venereal Disease is expected from the system thus rendered free of this SARSAPARILLA, and the patient is left in comparative health.

Female Diseases are caused by Scrofula in the blood, and are often cured by this EXTRACT OF SARSAPARILLA.

Do not discard this invaluable medicine, because you have been imposed upon by something pretending to be Sarsaparilla, when it was not. When you have used AYER'S—then, and not till then, will you know the virtues of Sarsaparilla. For minute particulars of the diseases it cures, we refer you to Ayer's American Almanac, which the agent below named will furnish gratis to all who call for it.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS, for the cure of Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Biliousness, Dysentery, Foul Stomach, Headache, Piles, Rheumatism, Heartburn arising from Disorded Stomach, Pain or Morbid Inaction of the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Worms, Gout, Neuralgia, and for a Dinner Pill.

They are sugar-coated, so that the most sensitive can take them pleasantly, and they are the best Aperient in the world for all the purposes of a family physic.

Perry Davis' Vegetable Pain Killer.

The Great Family Medicine of the Age!

Pain Killer, taken internally, should be adulterated with milk or water, and sweetened with sugar if desired, or made into a syrup with molasses. For a Cough, a few drops on sugar eaten will be more effective than anything else. For Sore Throat, gargle the throat with a mixture of Pain Killer and water, and relief is immediate and the cure positive.

It should not be forgotten that the Pain Killer is equally as good to take internally, as to use externally. Each bottle is wrapped with full directions for its use. jel-dawlm

REASONS WHY THE
AMERICAN WATCH,
MADE AT WALTHAM, MASS:
IS THE BEST.

It is made on the best principle. Its frame is composed of SOLID PLATES. NO jar can interfere with the harmony of its working and no sudden shock can damage its machinery. Every piece is made and finished by machinery (itself famous for its novelty, as well as for its effectiveness) and is therefore properly made. The watch is what all mechanism should be—ACCURATE, SIMPLE, STRONG AND ECONOMICAL. Except some high grades, too costly for general use, foreign watches are chiefly made by women and boys. Such watches are composed of several hundred pieces, screwed and riveted together, and require constant repairs to keep them in any kind of order. All persons who have carried "ancres," "lepines," and "English Patent Levers," are perfectly well aware of the truth of this statement.

At the beginning of our enterprise, more than ten years ago, it was our first object to make a thoroughly good low-priced watch for the million, to take the place of these foreign impositions—the refuse of foreign factories—which were entirely unsaleable at home and perfectly worthless everywhere.

How well we have accomplished this may be understood from the fact, that after so many years of public trial, we now make MORE THAN HALF OF ALL THE WATCHES SOLD IN THE UNITED STATES, and that no others have ever given such universal satisfaction. While this department of our business is continued with increased facilities for perfect work, we are at present engaged in the manufacture of watches of the very HIGHEST GRADE KNOWN TO CHRONOMETRY, unequalled by anything hitherto made by ourselves, and unsurpassed by anything made in the world. For this purpose we have the amplest facilities. We have erected an addition to our main buildings expressly for this branch of our business, and have filled it with the best workmen in our service. New machines and appliances have been constructed, which perform their work with consummate delicacy and exactness. The choicest and most approved materials only are used, and we challenge comparison between this grade of our work and the finest imported chronometers. We do not pretend to sell our watches for less money than foreign watches, but we do assert without fear of contradiction that for the same money our product is incomparably superior. All our watches, of whatever grade, are fully warranted and this warrantee is good at all times against us or our agents in all parts of the world.

CAUTION.—The public are cautioned to buy only of respectable dealers. All persons selling counterfeits will be prosecuted.

A Single Box of BRANDRETH'S PILLS contains more vegetable extractive matter than twenty boxes of any pills in the world besides; fifty-five hundred physicians are them in their practice to the exclusion of other purgatives. The first letter of their value is yet scarcely appreciated. When they are better known, sudden death and continued sickness will be of the past. Let those who know them speak out in their favor. It is a duty which will save life.

Our race are subject to a redundancy of vitiated bile at this season, and it is as dangerous as it is prevalent; but Brandreth's Pills afford an invaluable and efficient protection. By their occasional use we prevent the collection of those impurities which, when in sufficient quantities, cause so much danger to the body's health. They soon cure Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, Pain in the Stomach, Headache, Pain in the Breast-bone, Sudden Faintness and Costiveness. Sold by all respectable Dealers in Medicines. my29dawlm

Local.

POLICE COURT, June 18th.—Edward Morrill, of Exeter, was found Saturday evening safely ensconced in the door-way of the North Church asleep. When questioned as to his reasons for sleeping there he gave not a very plausible one for that evening. He said he went there to get out of the rain. He seemed to have rain or some other liquid on the brain, and this morning he was ar-raigned before His Honor, and his pocket made to suffer $6.86. He was what might be called a genus pluvius.

Margaret Carey, a young lady of rather prepossessing appearance, but who is addicted to drinking beer and inclined to other equally indelicate practices for a lady,—was sent to the House of Correction for the term of three months for night walking, and ordered to pay costs $5.62. At the H. of C. her habits will change, for there she will sleep in-doors instead of out.

Chas. Caswell, a resident of the Pine Tree State, visited this city, as he states, by the advice of a doctor, to get some gin.—He has an affection of the liver, and a stronger one for gin. He drank three glasses (small ones) of his affection, and then ate the half of a cocoa-nut obtained at Batchelder's. This made him sick, and he lay down on the Temple stops. Officers Tucker and Underhill found him sick and "took him in." Monday morning he was "taken in" $6.86 more. The doctor's advice proved a bad thing for him.

George Beard, a Marine, (it has been some time since one of this corps has been so unfortunate as to fall into bad habits,) was fined $6.86 for drunkenness.

Mary Rogers, the better-half of her husband John Rogers, not the one that was burned at the stake—(she is the better-half, otherwise he would leave a person who behaves as she has for the past three months)—was charged with being a common drunkard. She lives in Bow street, and in her periodical sprees makes "Rome howl." Judge Odell gave her until the 30th of July to experiment in and try and improve her general conduct, for which favor she gave "A long life to your Honor! God bless ye!"

A NEW PORTSMOUTH BOOK.—"Leaves from the Heart Library, or A Bachelor's Musings," is the title of a new work of 450 pages, written by James H. Head, Esq., of this city; to be published the first of September by the firm of Wm. H. Hill, Jr., & Co., Cornhill, Boston. Those who have read the manuscript speak of it as a composition displaying calm, deep thought, and a descriptive ability of no common order.*

A third edition of the author's very popular work, "Jewels from the Quarry of the Mind," is to be issued by the same publishers, in rich binding, at the same time.

J. E. Tilton & Co., publishers, Boston, have also recently printed the fourth edition of Mr. Head's "Home Pastimes," a book which is universally adopted through the States as a correct guide for producing Tableaux Vivants.

To show how much work can be accomplished by a single person, providing they work up every hour of a day, and improve each day of the fleeting years, is shown by the fact that Mr. Head, besides attending strictly to his very prosperous business, has within the past six years compiled or composed, and written, thirty-eight hundred pages of manuscript, mostly of foolscap size, and has designed and drafted about three hundred engravings for his works, published and unpublished. Giving himself three to four hours each day for recreation, in the way of walking, gymnastic exercises and boat-rowing, he has always found time to lend a helping hand for the public good, when occasion for his taste and experience called for it.

☞ Mr. Smith Gerrish of this city, aged 22 years, son of Mr. Woodbury Gerrish, and one of the crew of bark Nonantum, recently arrived at Mobile; fell from the maintopsail yard to the deck of the vessel, four days before her arrival in that port, which caused his death. This was his third voyage, and misfortunes followed him closely—on his first trip his vessel was wrecked, and the Florida captured him on the second; and now he has met death in this sad form.

☞ All interested in Butter-making, or money making, should go and see the Atmospheric Churn work, at the City Hotel, this evening and every evening this week, at half-past 7 o'clock.

☞ Thanks to Senator Cragin for a copy of Bancroft's Memorial Address on the life and character of Abraham Lincoln, delivered before Cong ess.

Elegant Residence for Sale.

[On account of removal of owner.]

The well known and beautifully situated CUTIS' HOUSE, on North Road, Portsmouth, recently occupied by Chas. Amory, Esq. The House contains eighteen rooms, with elegant bath-room, billiard room, (containing a table in good order,) nursery, and all requisites for a properly arranged family mansion.

The House is in excellent repair, having been thoroughly refitted a year or two since, while its proximity to the beaches, and the facilities which it affords for charming rides and pleasure sailing, render it one of the most desirable estates in the market.

The House is furnished with double windows (each with a sliding pane) throughout, is heated by a furnace, and many of the rooms have also elegant marble mantels and grates. In addition to the superior cellar, there is a fine clean wine cellar. The house is fitted throughout with Straw Matting.

The out-buildings are very complete. A STABLE, with accommodations for five horses; CARRIAGE HOUSE; a splendid Harness Room, finished in chestnut and black walnut, with glass cases for harness; Cow House, &c.

If desirable, more land, adjoining, could doubtless be purchased.

The grounds comprise about four acres, with terraced lawn, fine old trees and thrifty shrubbery—and is so situated as to command a delightful view of forest, city and harbor. The winding drive about the house is underlaid with stone, and laid with shells.

Some of the Advantages of Consulting Dr. Stevens.

Patients having Artificial Teeth fitted at this office always have the advantage of a large assortment of A No. 1 Teeth to select from.

They always, if they choose, have the privilege of selecting size and color of tooth to suit themselves.

The patient alone always has the matter of decision as to whether the case is a "BAD" or not, as no Set of Teeth is ever considered satisfactory to the proprietor of this office, unless they are entirely so to the patient.

DR. STEVENS never uses articles of an inferior quality (although they plentifully abound in the Profession,) in his business.

Dentistry, medically considered, is a speciality at this office.

Painful Teeth treated and cured.

Ulcerated Teeth treated and saved to a life of usefulness.

Badly decayed and broken Teeth restored to usefulness and beauty.

Charges always reasonable for the quality of work performed, but no Cheap Work (so called) done at this office.

WHICH IS THE

Leading Life Insurance Comp'y

IN THE UNITED STATES?

Which is the Safest and the Cheapest?

The following figures are from the later Reports of the New York Insurance Commissioner, showing the "amount of business" of the

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

to be the largest, the "expenses of management" the smallest, the "ratio of Assets to Liabilities," or the security furnished to its members, the largest of any like institution in the country.

Premiums received in 1864.....$2,089,072
" " " " 1865.....3,029,087
Ratio of expenses to premiums rec'd in '64...10.96
" " " " " " '65...12.16
Ratio of assets to liabilities, Jan. 1, 1865....151.85

The inevitable conclusion from these official facts, is that the

MUTUAL BENEFIT LIFE Insurance Company

IS THE BEST AND THE CHEAPEST.

Because its NET ASSETS are proportionably LARGER than those of any other Life Insurance Company in the United States.

Because its "Managing Expenses" are LESS, and it has a LARGER SURPLUS to divide among its members than any Company in the United States.

QERRY. Will some one inform the public of that mysterious process by which a Company with a surplus proportionably much less, and expenses very much larger than another, can yet divide more to its members, and insure them at less cost? How is it done? Where does the money come from?

Every intelligent man will see at once that it cannot be done. Yet we have Agents among us that make this their boast.

Any one disposed or intending to insure can be furnished with the requisite information by applying to

HENRY A. FEATON, Agent.

Morning Chronicle.

MRS. DR. WALKER IN COURT.—The case of Mrs. Dr. Mary E. Walker, who was arrested in New York for wearing male attire, came up in Court last Wednesday. The charge preferred against her was for improper conduct in wearing this costume, attracting the attention of a lot of boys and men who followed her through the streets, and she was arrested as the only means which the policemen knew would disperse the mob. In her testimony she stated that she was a practicing physician and had served in the Union army; she had worn that style of dress for several years, and many medical students had done the same, and had always been treated with respect. The case was dismissed, and the officer instructed as follows: "Don't arrest her again, officer. Let her go. She's smart enough to take care of herself. Never arrest her again."

Mrs. Walker was dressed upon this occasion in a costume similar to that in which she was arrested. It consists of a kind of gored sack, fitting closely at the waist, and reaching a few inches below the knee. Below this point all that is visible suggests an under-garment similar to the pantaloons worn by males, but fuller, and gathered neatly about the ankle. The sack is made of broadcloth, with very little trimming, and is ornamented with a single row of jet buttons reaching from the throat down the front to the bottom of the dress. There is certainly nothing immodest in the costume, which would attract no attention, probably, were it not for the fact that it entirely conceals the limbs of the wearer.

—Three young men, natives of Kentucky, have been sentenced at Springfield, Ill., to be hung on the 22d inst., for the murder of John Saunders last March, while on a pilfaging expedition.

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN PATENTS
R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents,
Late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1836, 78 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON.
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to solicit Patents in United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other opinions rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through its inventors' rare advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.
The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.
These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in securing inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them as early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unanimity proves a great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART
During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made only twelve rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

NEW USE OF THE COTTON PLANT.—An ingenious Yankee in New Orleans has been engaged in making thread from the stalks of the cotton plant. It is very fine and strong, and looks very much like flax, being nearly as soft and pliable. He proposes to make this thread into cloth, which he says will be as strong and durable as that made from cotton itself. Forty pounds of thread can be made from one hundred and twenty pounds of stalk. A new factory will soon be established for the manufacture of cloth from this substance. This discovery is not a new one. It has been known for several years that there was a fibrous substance in the cotton stalk which very much resembles flax, but it has never before been put to practical use. Should this prove successful, it will double the value of the cotton plantations at the South. The next invention in order for the development of the South is a method of making paper from sugar cane stalks. Whoever does this ought to make a fortune.

A WHALESHIP INCIDENT.—A Honolulu paper of a recent date reports that a seaman belonging to the whaleship Milo, a Brazilian by birth, who had been arrested as a runaway, on being taken on board the ship, seized a hatchet, laid his left hand on the deck, and coolly chopped it off at the wrist joint. When taken to the Consul's office, he said he was determined not to go to sea, and cut his hand off to prevent going.

— By a recently printed English Parliamentary report upon the expenses of the various candidates for seats in the House of Commons, it appears that in the North Riding of Yorkshire the three contestants for a seat spent $135,000. The least expensive election in the kingdom was £70, about $350.

— The salary of the agent of the Salisbury woolen mills is $15,000—the largest salary paid to any man in New England.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 20, 1866.

NOT SO.—A Massachusetts paper plumes its "conservative" wings over the supposition that Senator Clark of New Hampshire failed of re-election because he was a radical, and that Mr. Patterson, who takes his place was elected because he was not a radical. The wish was father to the thought—but there is no truth in the supposition. Mr. P.'s speech in the House was no doubt agreeable to Mr. Clark's views—and our New Hampshire delegation in both Houses have voted alike on all great questions. Of the four Union Republican candidates who were voted for in Caucus, no one called himself a Conservative Policy man. If any one had done so, he would have been dropped at once. The caucusing was on personal and local grounds; and the voting, on the choice, in the House, was (except two votes) in a solid body.

The same paper says of the majority in Congress, that

"They finally passed a series of amendments to the Constitution which are in accordance with the policy of Andrew Johnson. These amendments were so harmless that they encountered no opposition, and passed through both Houses of Congress without serious opposition, and if submitted to the President he would approve them.

These statements, if they are made by a man both sane and sober, are very strange. Every Representative and Senator of the Democratic party in Congress voted against them! and their great guns were fired off in opposition. And if the President really approves them, in his mind, then his Washington new friends have been lying dreadfully of late. The amendments do agree with the policy he professed in Tennessee, but not at all with his practiced policy in Washington.

THE GRANITE STATE FOREVER! New Hampshire "Nationality."—The Independent Democrat very sensibly and pertinently remarks that those people who intend to make New Hampshire their place of permanent abode; who believe it to be a good State in which to be born, to live and to die; have observed no element in the character of our excellent Governor Smyth with more satisfaction than his steadfast advocacy of his native State. All his inculcations are in the same direction. Using the word in a restricted sense, this "nationality" of our chief magistrate is in the highest degree to his honor, and its exercise cannot but be attended by salutary results. And if his commendable impulses in this direction could be caught up by all the people, great benefit would result to the State and its institutions.

The time has gone by when a man can, without damage to himself, cry down New Hampshire. The past is too full of precious memories, and the future too fully freighted with fond hopes, to allow men to turn their backs to the land of their birth, much less to make invidious comparisons regarding it. Gov. Smyth is only one of thousands who believe that with exceptional instances, no advantage is, all things considered, to be gained by emigration; that New Hampshire affords 'scope and verge enough" for all her sons; that if they do not fancy one honorable pursuit, they can change to another; that if weary or discontented at the plough, they can go to the loom or the workshop, or to other useful callings; and thus our healthy and good State be sustained, not merely in its present strength, but be augmented in its numbers by the various and useful branches of industry for the prosecution of which New Hampshire presents facilities of unrivalled description.

It is desirable that henceforth our people entertain new and better views on the matter here touched upon; that they calmly weigh the disadvantages in changing their homes to distant scenes, where customs not congenial and circumstances not advantageous are sure to surround them. The Scotch cling to their hills with the tenacity of the chamois to the rocks of the Alps. Why, then, should not the men of New Hampshire adhere to the soil on which they were born?

Our State and our city can be and will be just what we make it by our industry, enterprise and good taste. The Granite State forever, say we.

GOLD, Monday, 167 to 156—Tuesday, varying from 154 to 149 1-2—at 1 o'clock, 151 1-2. News from Engagland quotes 5 20s at 1 3-8 advance. Gold is too dear in New York to buy them now,—and therefore gold falls. So it seems 5-20s are the standard, while gold rises and falls. Great is humbug.

— Special dispatches from Washington state that the Committee on Ways and Means have decided not to report on the question of adjournment until the tariff bill is safely through.

— "Perley" says that Congress will probably adjourn on the 16th of July, as the leading members think the business can be completed on that day.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Rev. O. Ayer, who has supplied the Baptist Society in Deerfield, has left.

—— Rev. G. S. Hill has taken charge of the Free Baptist Society in Deerfield.

—— The Methodist Society in Epping has purchased and repaired the Universalist meeting house, and now holds services in it.

—— Rev. T. H. Miller is to preach at South Hampton next Sabbath; at Nottingham, July 1,—and at Atkinson July 8.

—— Prescott Williams, aged thirty years, a respectable citizen of Oxford, committed suicide by hanging himself in a field near his father's house on Saturday last. Domestic trouble is reported to have been the cause of the act. He had been married only six days.

—— We are pleased to learn from the Manchester Mirror that an agent of one of the so-called "gift enterprises" who had been feathering his nest from the pockets of Nashua factory girls, came to grief in that city on Saturday. Arraigned before the Police Court on nineteen complaints for swindling, in default of $7500 bail, he was committed to jail.

—— The ladies of Christ Church (Protestant Episcopal) a new society, in Exeter, intend giving a strawberry festival and fair, on Wednesday, June 27th, 1866, with music, tableaux, &c. The hall will be open from eleven A. M. to eleven P. M. A special train is promised by the Concord Railroad, to leave Portsmouth for Newmarket Junction to meet the 11 o'clock train for Exeter, to accommodate all who wish, and will leave Exeter again at seven.—Should the day be stormy, it will be postponed till the first pleasant one.

—— Claremont is a "live town." The people there have not only voted to accept Paran Stevens gift of 10,000 to establish a High School, but have added $15,000 to it. They have voted to raise $100,000 as a bonus to any Company who will build a Railroad through their midst, from Bradford to the Connecticut and have chosen three thorough, judicious, uncompromising temperance Selectmen, and unanimously instructed them to see that the laws relating to the sale of intoxicating liquors, and to the gaming houses and other public nuisances, are duly enforced. They have two woolen mills, three cotton mills, an extensive machine shop, and other manufacturing establishments, with Sunapee Lake, fifteen miles long, as reserve water power in in a dry time. They have four Masonic societies, who will have a grand celebration on the 26th.

HON. JAMES W. PATTERSON, the new United States Senator elect from New Hampshire, the Boston Transcript well says is unquestionably one of the foremost men of the State. He is in the forty-third year of his age, and has filled many high and responsible trusts since leaving college. His first important position was Professor of Mathematics in Dartmouth College, after which he was transferred to the chair of Professor of Astronomy and Meteorology, in the same institution. Being a strong advocate of popular education, he was chosen School Commissioner for Grafton County, where he served with such distinguished ability that he was afterwards appointed Secretary of the Board of Education for the State. At the breaking out of the rebellion in 1861, he took strong patriotic grounds, and the next year was elected to the State Legislature. At the next Congressional election, he was chosen to represent the third District in the Thirty-Eighth Congress, and was re-elected to the present Congress. Mr. Patterson is one of the most finished and effective popular speakers in New England, and his eloquence has done much to keep the Granite State politically right during the past four years. A gentleman of his high personal character, unquestioned talents, and sound political creed cannot fail to exert a commanding influence in whatever station he may be called upon to occupy.

HON. DANIEL CLARK, who failed of renomination for the U. S. Senate, was first elected to that position in 1857, and was re-elected in 1861. His term will expire on the fourth of March next.

— Schooner Hattie M. Lyons arrived at Gloucester last week with a fare of 75,000 pounds of halibut and 6000 pounds of cod, the result of a four weeks' cruise, which stocked about $4000.

☞ Messrs. Hurd & Houghton, New York, have just published "Pictures of Country Life," by Alice Cary, a dozen or more short stories told in that writer's easy manner. It is one of those elegantly printed books which have won for Cambridge a reputation for fine work, and may be had of Jos. H. Foster in this city, or A. Williams & Co., Boston.

TRIAL AND FRIENDSHIP.—Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus has had a trial among three million families, and is pronounced the best Saleratus in the known world. Its use always brings a smile to the household; it keeps them in health; it helps make the weak strong, and saves hundreds from that dreadful disease, dyspepsia. As you value health, use it. Most of the Grocers sell it. Depot 112 Liberty street, New York. 102

For the Chronicle.

AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE. — We feel obliged to dissent from that part of Gov. Smyth's most excellent Message relative to connecting the Agricultural College in some measure with Dartmouth College at Hanover. A few of our reasons will now be suggested.

1st. Hanover is too far North. The weather is severely cold a considerable part of the year. In the warm season it is often subject to heavy fogs a considerable part of the forenoon; when no fog, rain may be expected.

2d. The well water is very clayey. It is very clear that in some ancient time Connecticut river ran over what is called Hanover Plain. In digging wells, logs have been found 30 or 40 feet underground. Some remedy has been found, it is said, by constructing an aqueduct. Having been graduated at Dartmouth College, I profess to know something upon the subject.

3d. The Agricultural College is designed for instruction in Agricultural Science, or the Agricultural Department. It ought, therefore, to be located in some pleasant central part of the State, for the greater convenience and benefit of our population, and where the land is fertile. We know not where such a farm can be found among the hills and valleys near Dartmouth College. A location at Enfield or Canterbury, near those beautiful villages, where the Shakers well understand farming, would be preferable to that of Hanover. It would be so at Lyme, the State availing itself of a very liberal donation.

4th We cannot hesitate in recommending PEMBROKE for the location, where there is a most delightful swell of land, very fertile, and a beautiful landscape—the Merrimac river in full view. This would be central enough. It would be difficult to raise any objection to it.

5th. Another very serious objection to its being connected with Dartmouth College is that frequent jars, insults, or conflicts would doubtless take place between the students of the two institutions. The students of Dartmouth College would look down in a sort of contemptuous manner upon the young farmers, even as now the learned Seniors in the old College, in their lofty pride, often treat the Freshmen and Sophomore classes as far beneath them, although in truth the difference in learning is not great.

6th. An agricultural library, with all the modern improvements, sufficient for all the students, would not cost a large sum. Such a library Dartmouth College does not possess. Other reasons will occur to those who understand the whole subject.

Perry's Moth and Freckle Lotion.
☞ Chloasma, or Mothpatch, (also called Liver-spot, and Lentigo, or Freckles, are often very annoying, particularly to ladies of light complexion, for the discolored spots show more plainly on the face of a blonde than of a brunette; but they greatly mar the beauty of either and any preparation that will effectually remove them, without injuring the texture or color of the skin, is certainly a desideratum. DR. B. C. PERRY, who has made diseases of the skin a specialty, has discovered a remedy for these discolorations, which is at once prompt, infallible and harmless.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla
Is a concentrated Extract of Vegetable Root, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an efficient antidote for diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. Such a remedy is surely wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove as it does, of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by the testimony on many of the worst cases to be found in the following complaints:—
Scrofula, Scrofulous Swellings and Sores, Skin Diseases, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Eruptions, St Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ring Worm, &c.
Syphilis or Venereal Disease is expelled from the system by the prolonged use of this SARSAPARILLA, and the patient is left in comparative health.
Female Diseases are caused by Scrofula in the blood, and are often cured by this EXTRACT OF SARSAPARILLA.
Do not discard this invaluable medicine, because you have been imposed upon by something pretending to be Sarsaparilla, when it was not. When you have used AYER'S—then, and not till then, will you know the virtues of Sarsaparilla. For minute particulars of the disease it cures, we refer you to Ayer's American Almanac, which the agent below named will furnish gratis to all who call for it.
AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS, for the cure of Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Dysentery, Foul Stomach, Headache, Piles, Rheumatism, Heartburn arising from Disordered Stomach, Pain or Morbid Inaction of the Bowels, Flatulence, Loss of Appetite, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Worms, Gout, Neuralgia, and for a Dinner Pill.
They are sugar-coated, so that the most sensitive can take them pleasantly, and they are the best Aperient in the world for all the purposes of a family physic.

REASONS WHY THE
AMERICAN WATCH,
MADE AT WALTHAM, MASS.
IS THE BEST.
It is made on the best principle. Its frame is composed of SOLID PLATES. NO jar can interfere with the harmony of its working and no sudden shock can damage its machinery. Every piece is made and finished by machinery (itself famous for its novelty, as well as for its effectiveness) and is therefore properly made. The watch is what all mechanism should be—ACCURATE, SIMPLE, STRONG AND ECONOMICAL. Except some high grades, too costly for general use, foreign watches are chiefly made by women and boys. Such watches are composed of several hundred pieces, screwed and riveted together, and require constant repairs to keep them in any kind of order. All persons who have carried "ancres," "lepines," and "English Patent Levers," are perfectly well aware of the truth of this statement.
At the beginning of our enterprise, more than ten years ago, it was our first object to make a thoroughly good low-priced watch for the million, to take the place of those foreign impositions—the refuse of foreign factories—which were entirely unsaleable at home and perfectly worthless everywhere.
How well we have accomplished this may be understood from the fact, that after so many years of public trial, we now make MORE THAN HALF OF ALL THE WATCHES SOLD IN THE UNITED STATES, and that no others have ever given such universal satisfaction. While this department of our business is continued with increased facilities for perfect work, we are at present engaged in the manufacture of watches of the very HIGHEST GRADE KNOWN TO CHRONOMETRY, unequalled by anything hitherto made by ourselves, and unsurpassed by any thing made in the world. For this purpose we have the amplest facilities. We have erected an addition to our main buildings expressly for this branch of our business, and have filled it with the best workmen in our service. New machines and appliances have been constructed, which perform their work with consummate delicacy and exactness. The choicest and most approved materials only are used, and we challenge comparison between this grade of our work and the finest imported chronometers. We do not pretend to sell our watches for less money than foreign watches, but we do assert without fear of contradiction that for the same money our product is incomparably superior. All our watches, of whatever grade, are fully warranted and this warrantee is good at all times against us or our agents in all parts of the world.
CAUTION.—The public are cautioned to buy only of respectable dealers. All persons selling counterfeits will be prosecuted.

A Single Box of BRANDRETH'S PILLS contains more vegetable extractive matter than twenty boxes of any pills in the world besides; fifty-five hundred physicians use them in their practice to the exclusion of other purgatives. The first letter of their value is yet scarcely appreciated. When they are better known, sudden death and continued sickness will be of the past. Let those who know them speak out in their favor. It is a duty which will save life.

Our race are subject to a redundancy of vitiated bile at this season, and it is as dangerous as it is prevalent; but Brandreth's Pills afford an invaluable and efficient protection. By their occasional use we prevent the collection of those impurities which, when in sufficient quantities, cause so much danger to the body's health. They soon cure Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, Pain in the Head, Heartburn, Pain in the Breast-bone, Sudden Faintness and Costiveness. State of New Hampshire.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
Concord, June 9, 1866.

To the Disabled Soldiers of New Hampshire:

The Managers of the National Asylum for Disabled Soldiers have made application to the Governors of the several States to furnish them with reliable statistics of the number in each State entitled to receive assistance from this Institution. The information is sought to aid them in determining the number, capacity and locations of the Asylums it may be deemed expedient to establish.

The subjoined "memorandum" will indicate, with sufficient accuracy for present purposes, who are entitled to the benefits of the proposed Asylum.

To enable me to give the information thus sought, all such disabled officers and soldiers are respectfully invited to transmit me, prior to the first day of July, with their names, residence, regiment and company in which they served, nature of disability, and when and where incurred.

Upon this information the Managers will largely depend in carrying into effect this most worthy object of the Government.

As an additional means of arriving at a reliable estimate, I will thank regimental and company officers to furnish me, prior to the above date, with an estimate, based upon the best information they can obtain, of the number belonging to the organization commanded by them, who are entitled to assistance from this source.

FREDERICK SMYTH, GOVERNOR.

Memorandum.—Diseases and injuries entitling admission into the National Military Asylum, if actually incurred in the service and in the line of duty, and disqualifying for procuring their own maintenance and support:—Mental imbecility; Epilepsy; Paralysis; Organic disease of internal Organs; Chronic Rheumatism, with impaired motion, change of structure, and distortion of joints; loss of sight of both eyes; loss of either eye and total loss of both feet; incurable deformities, rendering the sufferer repulsive, resulting from wounds or injuries; general debility, or premature old age, resulting from hardship, im, risonment or exposure. je13—3tdaw

Lyon's Periodical Drops!
THE GREAT FEMALE REMEDY FOR IRREGULARITIES

These Drops are a scientifically compounded fluid preparation, and better than any Pills, Powders or Nostrums. Being liquid, their action is direct and positive, removing the difficulty in a reliable, speedy and certain specific for the cure of all obstructions and suppressions of nature. Their popularity is indicated by the fact that over 100,000 bottles are annually sold and consumed by the ladies of the United States, every one of whom speak in the strongest terms of praise of their great merits. They are rapidly taking the place of every other female Remedy, and are considered by all who know aught of them, as the surest, safest and most infallible preparation in the world, for the cure of all female complaints, the removal of all obstructions of nature and the promotion of health, regularity and strength. Explicit directions stating when they may be used, and explaining when and why they should not, nor could not be used without producing effects contrary to nature's chosen laws, will be found carefully folded around each bottle, with the written signature of JOHN L. LYON, without which none are genuine. Price $1.50.

Prepared by Dr. JOHN L. LYON, 195 Chapel Street, New Haven, Conn., who can be consulted either personally, or by mail, (enclosing stamp,) concerning all private diseases and female weaknesses. Price $1.50 per bottle.

Elegant Residence for Sale.

[On account of removal of owner.]

The well known and beautifully situated CUTIS' HOUSE, on North Road, Portsmouth, recently occupied by Chas. Amory, Esq. The House contains eighteen rooms, with elegant bath-room, billiard room, (containing a table in good order,) nursery, and all requisites for a properly arranged family mansion.

The House is in excellent repair, having been thoroughly refitted a year or two since, while its propinquity to the beaches, and the facilities which it affords for obtaining rides and pleasure sailing, render it one of the most desirable estates in the market.

The House is furnished with double windows (each with a sliding cane) throughout, is heated by a furnace, and many of the rooms have also elegant marble mantels and grates. In addition to the superior cellar, there is a first class wine cellar. The house is fitted throughout with Straw Matting.

The outbuildings are very complete. A STABLE, with accommodations for five horses; CARRIAGE HOUSE; a splendid Harness Room, finished in chestnut and black walnut, with glass doors for harness; Cow House, &c.

If desirable, more land, adjoining, could doubtless be purchased.

The grounds comprise about four acres, with terraced Lawn, fine old trees and thrifty shrubbery—and is so situated as to command a delightful view of forest, city and harbor. The winding drive about the house is underlaid with stone, and laid with shells.

Some of the Advantages of Consulting Dr. Stevens.

Patients having Artificial Teeth fitted at this office always have the advantage of a large assortment of A No. 1 Teeth to select from.

They always, if they choose, have the privilege of selecting size and color of tooth to suit themselves.

The patient alone always has the matter of decision as to whether the case is a "fit" or not, as no Set of Teeth is ever considered satisfactory to the proprietor of this office, unless they are entirely so to the patient.

DR. STEVENS never uses articles of an inferior quality (although they plentifully abound in the Profession,) in his business.

Dentistry, medically considered, is a speciality at this office.

Painful Teeth treated and cured.

Ulcerated Teeth treated and saved to a life of usefulness.

Badly decayed and broken Teeth restored to usefulness and beauty.

Charges always reasonable for the quality of work performed, but no Cheap Work (so called) done at this office.

WHICH IS THE
Leading Life Insurance Comp'y
IN THE UNITED STATES?
Which is the Safest and the Cheapest?

The following figures are from the later Reports of the New York Insurance Commissioner, showing the "amount of business" of the

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

to be the largest, the "expenses of management" the smallest, the "ratio of Assets to Liabilities," or the amount of security for the members, the largest of any like institution in the country.

Premiums received in 1864	$2,089,073
" " " " 1865	3,026,087
Ratio of expenses to premiums rec'd in '64	12.96
" " " " " " '65	12.16
Ratio of assets to liabilities, Jan. 1, 1865	151.86

The inevitable conclusion from these official facts, is that the

MUTUAL BENEFIT LIFE
Insurance Company
IS THE BEST AND THE CHEAPEST.

Because its NET ASSETS are proportionably LARGER than those of any other Life Insurance Company in the Union.

Because its "Managing Expenses" are LESS, and it has a LARGER SURPLUS to divide among its members than any Company in the United States.

QUERY. Will some one inform the public of that mysterious process by which a Company with a surplus proportionably much less, and expenses very much larger than another, can yet divide more money to its members, and insure them at less cost? How is it done? Where does the money come from?

Every intelligent man will see at once that it cannot be done. Yet we have Agents among us that make this their boast.

Any one disposed or intending to insure, will be furnished with the requisite information by applying to

GEN. SCOTT'S RECEPTION BY THE "SPIRITS."—At a spiritualist meeting in New Jersey on a recent Sunday, one of the mediums, a Miss Bullene, gave the following account of the reception of Gen. Scott in the spirit land:

Gen. Scott was received by all the spirits en masse. At his right stood Washington. Behind him was Wellington, the Iron Duke. At his left appeared the late Czar of Russia. Before him, with folded arms, Napoleon was stationed as the representative of France. Jefferson, Madison, Taylor, Lincoln, and the other deceased Presidents of this Republic, whose names Miss Bullene had clearly forgotten, acted as the reception committee. All the dead heroes of the recent war were on duty, with many thousands of other famous people, whom Miss Bullene would not name. The reception ceremony was exceedingly modest. A little child whom the General had dearly loved was deputed to present him with a crown of laurel, and as it was placed upon the hero's head, there were exclamations from the vast throng.

☞ General Fisk has made an elaborate report to General Howard upon the condition of affairs in Tennessee and Kentucky. He says that during the month of May 77,177 rations were issued to white persons, and 7,409 to freedmen. He has ordered the distribution of an aggregate of 30,000 rations for June, at least two-thirds of which will go to the whites. The people of Kentucky, he thinks, are indisposed to properly care for the aged and infirm freedmen, and their support will for a time be a burden upon the Government.

— The Jacinto Patriot says that one hundred acres of good land, lying within three miles of Corinth, Miss., was sold a few days since at auction, being a trustee's sale, for thirty-five cents per acre.

We wouldn't give three cents an acre for land in the centre of the town, after a short residence we suffered there in 1862. 1.

The Chronicle.

— It has been computed "that eleven thousand Englishmen, heirs to fair fortunes, are wandering about the continent in a state of utter destitution, because they would not lead trumps with five and an honor in their hands."

— "Josh Billings' new book has this preface: "This book was got up tew sell, but if it don't prove tew be a sell, I shan't worry about it." The volume is dedicated to Deacon Uriah Billings, with the hope that "he ma bav the strength to stand it."

— Rev. Ward Beecher crawled through a thirty-four foot pipe of his new church organ, the other day, on a challenge of one of his flock. He came out puffing and covered with dust and sweat, and exclaimed as he touched the floor: "I want no man to tell me anything about this organ. I know all about it. I have been through it."

— The Commonwealth learns that S. Morgan Smith of Philadelphia, who left Boston for Europe in April, has been playing Othello with success at Gravesend, near London. He is a colored man, and while in Boston was excluded from visiting some of our theatres on that account.

☞ The returned Fenians say that Major Gibson of the Third United States artillery, and United States District Attorney Dennison of of Vermont, were the informers who swore the depositions under which Generals Sweeney and Spear and Col. Meehan were arrested. If so, Messrs Gibson and Dennison simply performed the duties imposed upon them by the President;—exactly as Gen. Meade did in making the arrest.

THURSDAY, JUNE 21, 1866.

WISE ABOVE WHAT IS WRITTEN.—Some papers have an item to this effect, viz: that some eminent lawyers have given their opinion that the Constitutional Amendments do not need the President's signature or approval, and therefore Sec. Seward sends them out, as he would not have done but for this opinion!

Now it does not require a very great lawyer to give an opinion in the case.—When Congress,in '89, proposed ten amendments, President Washington did not sign them! yet eight of them became the supreme law of the land. And this same Washington, having been president of the Convention that made the Constitution, must certainly have known whether he ought to sign the proposed amendments or not. He decided (as any man of sense might,) that it was not his business, or his duty! and therefore he did not do it, as any one may see by looking at the record.

WASHINGTON ITEMS, from Perley's letter of the 19th.—Commissioner Rollins reports that the receipts from Internal Revenue today amount to $428,203.

This district will be represented in the annual session of the National Division of the Sons of Temperance, to be held at Montreal this week. The delegates will report a gratifying state of things here, as they number, including ladies, nearly three thousand.

The report on the colored schools of this District for May is gratifying. There are 63 day schools, with 126 teachers and 6414 scholars. The night schools are 12 in number, with 468 scholars, and there are 19 Sunday Schools with 2555 scholars. The industrial schools reported are 5 in number, employing 181 women. During last month 966 garments were made, 957 of which were given away.

The House Committee sent to Memphis to investigate the riots there will report immediately after the return of Mr. Washburne. The testimony taken covers over two thousand pages of manuscript, and there will be a majority and a minority report.

The House Committee on Elections decided to report, in the case of Fuller and Dawson, that Dawson is entitled to the contested seat, and he will probably represent the West Moreland district of Pennsylvania. Mr. Dawson is a Democrat and Mr. Fuller is a Republican.

The Senate Naval Committee will report in favor of transferring the Philadelphia Navy Yard to League Island. Proprietors of fever-and-ague medicines advocate the transfer.

CHEAP FLUTE.—A fluteless flutist is spoken of in Havre as performing wonderful things. He makes a flute out of his left hand, which he holds to his mouth, using the right in lieu of stops. The notes he produces are not to be distinguished from the real instrument. His name is Fereyra.

☞ A fire occurred at Lawrence, Mass. Tuesday night, past midnight, destroying several mechanics' shops and machinery; loss about $25,000. Supposed to be incendiary.

— An infant was strangled to death in New York the other day, by attempting to swallow an ornamental ball attached to a waterfall pin, which had been given it to play with.

— A girl of thirteen and a veteran of ninety-one were married in Cairo last week. And the girl was rich, and might have bought her a young husband, had she been so inclined.

— Mrs. Rogers of Madison, Indiana, invited a dozen of her neighbors to tea last Sunday, and used arsenic, by mistake, instead of cream of tartar, to lighten the cake. Fortunately, too much of the poison had been taken, and no one died, though all were very sick.

— At Hoboken, a few nights ago, a lady got up from bed and opened the window to look out, when the noise awakened her husband, and seeing some person at the open window he supposed it to be a burglar, and snatching a pistol from under his pillow he fired twice before discovering the fearful mistake he had made. Both shots took effect, inflicting mortal wounds.

— The negroes are an improvident, thriftless, lazy set of vagabonds, we are daily informed by the papers. The Freedmen's Saving and Trust Co. Bank was established here six or seven months ago, and had only had one hundred and three thousand dollars, deposited in it by those who, a year or two ago, were the property of somebody else.—Cincinnati Colored Citizen.

— A good thing. A loving heart, a pleasant countenance, a pleasant word, and a few bars of J. Monroe Taylor Gold Medal Soap, are commodities which a man should never fail to take home with him. The four together will season his food, keep his clothes clean, soften his pillow, and give him many pleasant thoughts, besides having his good wife and children say of him that he has done his part in making a happy household, all by patronizing the Gold Medal Soap. 102

N. H. LEGISLATURE.—On Monday, in the House, the Resolution on Decimal Weights and Measures was read a third time and passed.

On Tuesday a petition was presented for a Law restraining the Winnipiseogee Lake Co. from using the water to the injury of citizens of the State. Referred to the the Judiciary Committee.

In the Senate, a bill to incorporate the Portsmouth, Great Falls & Conway Railroad, was ordered to a third reading.

A bill from the House, amending the Homestead Law, was read twice and referred to the Judiciary Committee.

IN THE U. S. SENATE, June 19, the Army Appropriation bill was taken up.

An amendment was adopted making an appropriation for the support of the Freedmen's Bureau.

An amendment was adopted that the President shall not dismiss officers unless convicted by court martial.

The House proviso for bidding any money to be paid to the Illinois Central Railroad, was stricken out.

The Pacific Railroad bill was then taken up. After a long discussion it was passed—yeas 20, nays 12. Adjourned.

In the House, the vote of the 8th of June, rejecting the bill to establish a Department of Education, was, after debate, reconsidered, and the bill passed—yeas 80, nays 44.

The army bill was then taken up. It provides for the establishment of five regiments of artillery, six of cavalry, fifty of infantry, &c. It was debated by sections, and several amendments offered were rejected.

The further consideration of the bill was postponed, leaving eighteen sections to be considered.

Mr. Rogers presented a minority report from the Committee on Reconstruction. Ordered to be printed.

[Rather late—as the Amendment passed by a 3 4ths vote of both Houses.]

GEN. CHAMBERLAIN, it appears, is likely to walk over the coarse, and be Governor of Maine. Rev. Mr. Drew was named as a candidate, but he positively declined. And now Gen. Shepley declines to allow his name to be used as a candidate. In his letter of declination he says:

"It seems to me too clear to admit of reasonable doubt that the preference of the delegates to the Convention will be for General Chamberlain; and in that preference I heartily concur. His past record is so brilliant, his qualifications are so eminent and the avowal of his opinions is so decided and so fully in accord with those of the Union men of Maine, as to leave no question but that they may find in him a true representative of their opinions, and a governor who will do honor to the State. I wish therefore to be considered as unqualifiedly declining to allow my name to be used in the Convention as a candidate for the nomination."

GOLD AND SEVEN-THIRTIES.—On Tuesday, at Washington, Secretary McCulloch's report, in answer to a resolution of inquiry, was handed into the House. He states that between February 2 and 25 he had sold, through Assistant Treasurer Van Dyke, who employed Mr. Myer, $14,910,000 of gold at premium of from 40 1-8 to 37 3 8, closing at the latter price. None was then sold until May 16, when he commenced selling at 30 1 8, and sold up to 30 3-4; but closed his sales on May 23 with sales of $3,500,000 at 35, and $585,000 at 36, making total sales since January 1, 1866, of $50,495,000, on which he received premiums amounting to $16,391,418. No gold has been bought since January 1. He paid to Mr. Myer one-eighth per cent. commission on the entire amount, except the last two items. Since January 1, the Secretary has bought $1,550,000 of Ten-forties, for which he paid $1,415,126. He sold, between January 3 and June 30, $22,969,900 of Five-twenties, for which he received $23,435,249 in Seven-thirties, compound interested notes and legal tenders. Jay Cooke & Co. were employed in the last operation, which resulted in a profit to the Government of about one million dollars, besides bringing up to and above par the Seven-thirties, and so increasing the value of other securities as to prepare the way for general funding of the national indebtedness.

EASTERN RAILROAD.—The Bangor Whig after copying a complimentary notice of the Eastern Railroad adds:—

"We can fully endorse the above. The time has been when the Boston and Maine was preferred to the Eastern by passengers from this State; but the reverse is rapidly becoming the case. The Eastern road is in excellent order, its conductors pleasant and accommodating, its cars luxurious, the route one of the pleasantest in New England, and the station in Boston practically as far up town as that of the Boston and Maine."

— The Newburyport Herald says that George Peabody is so annoyed by beggars that he is obliged to render himself as inaccessible as the Grand Lama. So great has been the "run on the bank" that the rule has been adopted by his sister not to have the bell answered at all, so that every one not sufficiently intimate to enter without ringing, no matter what their business, or with whom, must wait for a more convenient season.

For the Chronicle.

BUTTER.—Any one who has not thought upon the subject, will be surprised to find the importance of butter in domestic economy; it seems more an article of necessity than of luxury; it is one of those things we have become so accustomed to seeing and to having, that we do not consider how much we really care for it. Think of the food we eat in a single day; its relish and flavor in an important degree depend upon good sweet butter. We eat it with almost every thing that is dry, and it is used for cooking most things that are moist; in fact without this article in daily use, the great business that sustains our physical nature would be considered unpleasant and intolerable, instead of a desirable and gratifying part of our lives.

It is a matter of no little interest and curiosity, to know when, where and by whom butter was invented or discovered; but the individual or nation does not seem to be handed down to posterity. Butter does not appear to have been known to the ancients, at least so far as history reveals knowledge on the subject. We read of a land flowing with milk and honey, but no butter. In the time of Galen, butter was known and used among the Greeks and Romans, but to a very limited extent.

Doctors do not disagree more than dairy men and dairy women in their theories and practices in butter-making; many of them adopt certain whims and practices which are useless in themselves, as fixed laws. Every person who makes butter ought not to be satisfied with making anything short of the best. There are butter-makers who get from three to ten cents more per pound for their butter than their neighbors, and find a sure and quicker market, simply because they take pains to make the best.

Let us give a few general principles and directions for making good butter. We may mention as one of the first and most important, perfect neatness in every thing connected with the dairy. Another essential is that the butter-milk should be perfectly separate from the butter; this is the most laborious and difficult of all the operations. With the other pressing cares of a family, a farmer's wife is often unable to find time for properly performing this work. It is just at this point, so all-important to be accomplished,—that the ingenuity of man steps in to perform thoroughly and more easily this difficult part of butter-making. Such is the exceedingly simple and ingenious construction of the Atmospherick Churn, now on exhibition at the City Hotel, that when it is properly operated the buttermilk may be all pressed out without touching the hands to the butter.

Let us look at the advantages to be derived by this, First, a great saving of labor, any one can see by the construction of the churn, or better by a trial of it, that with the crank as a lever and the whole side of the dasher, instead of the size of a woman's hand, to pat the butter, it can be done easier and better by the churn. The best bands become warm by patting it; this warmth makes the butter look greasy and taste unpleasently. The churn does not heat by exercise, and the butter can be worked in ice or cold spring water; much is added to the market value by this improved appearance. On the whole, we advise every one who wishes to become interested in the Atmospheric Churn, to call and examine for themselves, as it is a wonderfull as well as simple construction. Mr. Welch churns every evening at 7 1-2 o'clock at the City Hotel.

FROM GEORGIA.—A dispatch from Augusta, June 19, says:

There was a destructive fire at Newberry, S. C., on Monday, which destroyed stores and dwellings.

A Freedmen's Convention will meet here in July. Delegates have been elected from all parts of the State. The object of the meeting is to memorialize Congress for the rights of franchise and for trial by jury of their own color. George Pitts and Henderson Beck of Griffin have been elected delegates by a large majority as anti-Bureauists. At a meeting of colored people, both denounced the Freedmen's Bureau as mischievous and creative of disturbances between the two races. They are willing to trust to the laws of the State and their old masters and friends for justice. The Bureau Agent at Griffin said—"I'll be d—d if I allow negroes to speak disrespectfully of my Bureau," and arrested the delegates, who were afterward released by the authorities.

The employees of the revenue offices in Georgia and South Carolina are resigning, being unable to take the test oath. Several Post Offices have been closed, and great inconvenience will be the result until the evil is remedied.

☞ The Senate having called on the President for information concerning the action of the late insurgent States on the subject of the rebel debt, he responds: "The North Carolina Convention prohibited its payment. The South Carolina Convention and Legislature were unable to act without further information of the debt. The Georgia Convention pronounced it null and void and prohibited its payment. The Alabama Convention forbid the assumption of any part of it. The Florida Convention declared it null and void. The Mississippi Legislature prohibited its payment until authorized by that body. The Texas Convention declared it null and void."

Perry's Moth and Freckle Lotion.

☞ Chloasma, or Mothpatch, (also called Liver-spot,) and Lentigo, or Freckles, are often very annoying, particularly to ladies of light complexion, for the discolored spots show more plainly on the face of a blonde than of a brunette; but they greatly mar the beauty of either and any preparation that will effectually remove them, without injuring the texture or color of the skin, is certainly a desideratum. DR. B. C. PERRY, who has made diseases of the skin a speciality, has discovered a remedy for these discolorations, which is at once prompt, infallible and harmless.

☞ Santa Anna has issued an address to the Mexicans, in which he makes it appear that he is the most thorough and consistent Republican that ever lived, and that he never had anything to do with imperialism. He says that a monarchy in Mexico is an impossibility,—and he might have added (says the Traveller) that a republic is equally impossible there, except the Republic of the United States, which will be down there some fine morning, and teach the Mexicans how to govern themselves.

REASONS WHY THE

AMERICAN WATCH,

MADE AT WALTHAM, MASS.

IS THE BEST.

It is made on the best principle. Its frame is composed of SOLID PLATES. NO jar can interfere with the harmony of its working and no sudden shock can damage its machinery. Every piece is made and finished by machinery (itself famous for its novelty, as well as for its effectiveness) and is therefore properly made. The watch is what all mechanics should be—ACCURATE, SIMPLE, STRONG AND ECONOMICAL. Except some high grades, too costly for general use, foreign watches are chiefly made by women and boys. Such watches are composed of several hundred pieces, screwed and riveted together, and require constant repairs to keep them in any kind of order. All persons who have carried "ancres," "lepines," and "English Patent Levers," are perfectly well aware of the truth of this statement.

At the beginning of our enterprise, more than ten years ago, it was our first object to make a thoroughly good low-priced watch for the million, to take the place of these foreign impositions—the refuse of foreign factories—which were entirely unsaleable at home and perfectly worthless everywhere.

How well we have accomplished this may be understood from the fact, that after so many years of public trial, we now make MORE THAN HALF OF ALL THE WATCHES SOLD IN THE UNITED STATES, and that no others have ever given such universal satisfaction. While this department of our business is continued with increased facilities for perfect work, we are at present engaged in the manufacture of watches of the very HIGHEST GRADE KNOWN TO CHRONOMETRY, unequalled by anything hitherto made by ourselves, and unsurpassed by anything made in the world. For this purpose we have the amplest facilities. We have erected an additional two main buildings expressly for this branch of our business, and have filled it with the best workmen in our service. New machines and appliances have been constructed, which perform their work with consummate delicacy and exactness. The choicest and most approved materials only are used, and we challenge comparison between this grade of our work and the finest imported chronometers. We do not pretend to sell our watches for less money than foreign watches, but we do assert without fear of contradiction that for the same money our product is incomparably superior. All our watches, of whatever grade, are fully warranted and this warrantee is good at all times against us or our agents in all parts of the world.

CAUTION.—The public are cautioned to buy only of respectable dealers. All persons selling counterfeits will be prosecuted.

A Single Box of BRANDRETH'S PILLS contains more vegetable extractive matter than twenty boxes of any pills in the world besides; fifty-five hundred physicians use them in their practice to the exclusion of other purgatives. The first letter of their value is yet scarcely appreciated. When they are better known, sudden death and continued sickness will be of the past. Let those who know them speak out in their favor. It is a duty which will save life.

Our race are subject to a redundancy of vitiated bile at this season, and it is as dangerous as it is prevalent; but Brandreth's Pills afford an invaluable and efficient protection. By their occasional use we prevent the collection of those impurities which, when in sufficient quantities, cause so much danger to the body's health. They soon cure Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, Pain in the Head, Heartburn, Pain in the Breast-bone, Sudden Faintness and Costiveness. OBITUARY.—Died, in this city, Wednesday morning, June 20, JONATHAN BARKER, Esq., aged 74 years.—Mr. Barker was a skillful and faithful bricklayer and stonemason, and was for some time Master Mason on the Navy Yard. He was also one of the principal workmen on the Middle Street, Pleasant Street and Methodist Churches. Many years ago he was in trade in Portsmouth as a retail grocer, of the firm of Barker & Wiggin; and as all did then, they sold spirits, part of which were drunk on the premises. Both the partners were members of the Methodist Episcopal Church —and under the influence of one of the earliest Temperance Lectures delivered here, they concluded that selling drams, or liquor to make drams, was not a christian act,—and they stopped this branch of their business very suddenly. Their trade declined immediately; the firm dissolved; Mr. Barker took up the trowel again, and Mr. Wiggin sold provisions to the end of his days;—but neither of them would sell liquors. This is mentioned, partly to mark the progress of the age, and partly to honor the memory of the departed. Mr. Barker was also one of the early and steadfast anti-slavery men, who rejoiced greatly over the downfall of the institution. And in his decease, our city sustains the loss of an honest man and worthy citizen.

THE COMING CELEBRATION.—Existing circumstances go to show that everything is progressing finely toward perfecting arrangements for a grand celebration in our city on the Fourth; and it is very gratifying that our citizens generally apprehend the importance of liberally contributing "sinews" to this noble object. But in order to handsomely carry out the extensive programme of the celebration, it is essential that at least $300 more be subscribed. Let our public-spirited citizens see that the wherewithal is not lacking, and the result will assuredly be magnificent.

The route of the procession, as marked out by the able and efficient Chief Marshal, Col. Jackson, is as follows: The procession will form on Market Square, right resting on Pleasant Street. Invited guests will take carriages at City Hall. The procession will move through Pleasant street to Water, through Water to State, State to Middle, Middle to Cabot, Cabot to Islington, Islington and Congress to Market, Market to Deer, Deer to Vaughan, Vaughan to the Temple,—where the Oration and Poem will be delivered. The procession will pass through our principal streets, and yet the route is not sufficiently lengthy to render it tiresome to those who take part therein. It is designed to reach the Temple by 11 or 12 o'clock. It is to be hoped that residents on the above-named streets will freely decorate their residences and localities with flags, evergreens, spruce, flowers, &c., which will add very much to the interest and attractiveness of the celebration. No city in the country is better situated and calculated to make a beautiful display in the way of decorations, than is our charming "Strawberry Bank."

A grand Regatta has been decided upon, which will take place about 5 o'clock on the afternoon of the Fourth, previous to the Balloon ascension. Several swift Navy Yard boats will participate in the race.

Two large and excellent military companies in Newburyport have signified their intention to visit Portsmouth on the great day. They have just received new uniforms, and will make an elegant appearance. Two or three fire companies are also expected from Newburyport; as well as a number of military and fire companies from Dover and other places. Our generous-hearted people, particularly the ladies, will of course see that visiting companies and associations are provided with a good collation.

Citizens from all the adjoining towns, including Kittery, Eliot, York, Stratham and North Hampton, are invited to come in ornamented vehicles, or in any other way that they may deem most expedient, to appear in a position assigned them in the procession.

☞ "How did you come over?" inquired a writer at the Navy Yard of two friends who appeared on that sacred ground a few days since. "Oh, we rowed over; won't you go back with us?" was the rejoinder. "Well, I guess a ride will be a change from that steamer"—and thus the confiding young man allowed the steamer to come over to this side of the river without him. Fancy his feelings when he found that his friends had rowed over in a leaky old boat, while he had fondly imagined that they rode over in a fine buggy.

POLICE COURT, June 20.—Patrick McGuire, for drunkenness, was fined $6.86. Not being in funds, he was sent to the House of Correction, where he will scent the newmown hay.

☞ The fine yacht Alice sailed for Boston on Wednesday, with a spanking breeze. She took a pleasant party to test her accommodations and sailing qualities. This elegant craft is a good testimonial to the skill of Portsmouth mechanics, and we hope will prove satisfactory to her owner, and add to the fame of her builder, Mr. John E. Townsend. Her cost we hear was about $15,000.

Parties who went below to view the yacht report her behaviour under canvass as admirable and her speed very great.

ODD FELLOWS' HALL.—We are requested to say that the repairs and refurnishing of Odd Fellows' Hall having been completed, the Hall will be open this (Thursday) evening from 8 to 10 o'clock, for exhibition to members of the Order and their friends.

☞ It will be seen by an advertisement elsewhere that the Steamer Pioneer will begin her regular trips for the season on Monday next,—under the same management which proved so popular to her patrons last year.

☞ On Wednesday forenoon, while the large crowd were awaiting the time when the yacht Alice should spread her white wings and glide away from the port of her nativity, they were treated to a novel and exciting spectacle. A horse belonging to Mr. Saml. G. Hooper, with a wagon attached, backed from the wharf into the dock, throwing a boy who was in the wagon into a boat moored below, while the team took position between two other boats—the wagon upside down and the horse right side up. Some gentlemen present, by cutting portions of the harness and building a sort of gangway extricated the horse and recovered the wagon, and although the fall could not have been much less than fifteen feet, the damage to the vehicle was slight and the horse received but few trifling cuts.

☞ On Wednesday afternoon, four young men in a sail boat at the Narrows in our harbor, were going down river before a brisk west wind; and another sail-boat, containing Messrs. Robert and Amos S. Foster, had just outsailed the former, and passed beyond her a few rods, when the first mentioned-boat was upset by some mischance or mismanagement; and instantly filled and went to bottom, leaving the four young men in the water, with no other support than some ropes and sails and one oar, which had risen from the sunken boat. The Messrs. Foster put their boat about and got down the sail as quickly as they could,—and rowing in among the apparently drowning men, were happily the instruments of saving all of them, tho' they were much exhausted.

☞ We are pleased to announce that His Excellency Gov. Gilmore, has signified his intention to be present on the occasion of the Celebration of Independence in Portsmouth.

Elegant Residence for Sale.

[On account of removal of owner.]

The well known and beautifully situated CUTTS' HOUSE, on North Road, Portsmouth, recently occupied by Chas. Amory, Esq. The House contains eighteen rooms, with elegant bath-room, billiard room, (containing a table in good order,) nursery, and all requisites for a properly arranged family mansion.

The House is in excellent repair, having been thoroughly refitted a year or two since, while its proximity to the beaches, and the facilities which it affords for charming rides and pleasure sailing, render it one of the most desirable estates in the market.

The House is furnished with double windows (each with a sliding pane) throughout, is heated by a furnace, and many of the rooms have also elegant marble mantels and grates. In addition to the superior cellar, there is a first class wine cellar. The house is fitted throughout with Straw Matting.

The out-buildings are very complete. A STABLE, with accommodations for five horses; CARRIAGE HOUSE; a splendid Harness Room, finished in chestnut and black walnut, with glass cases for harness; Cow House, &c.

If desirable, more land, adjoining, could doubtless be purchased.

The grounds comprise about four acres, with terraced Lawn, fine old trees and thrifty shrubbery—and is so situated as to command a delightful view of forest, city and harbor. The winding drive about the house is underlaid with stone, and laid with shells.

Some of the Advantages of Consulting Dr. Stevens.

Patients having Artificial Teeth fitted at this office always have the advantage of a large assortment of A No. 1 Teeth to select from.

They always, if they choose, have the privilege of selecting size and color of tooth to suit themselves.

The patient alone always has the matter of decision as to whether the case is a "fit" or not, as no Set of Teeth is ever considered satisfactory to the proprietor of this office, unless they are entirely so to the patient.

DR. STEVENS never uses articles of an inferior quality (although they plentifully abound in the Profession,) in his business.

Dentistry, medically considered, is a speciality at this office.

Painful Teeth treated and cured.

Ulcerated Teeth treated and saved to a life of usefulness.

WHICH IS THE
Leading Life Insurance Comp'y
IN THE UNITED STATES?
Which is the Safest and the Cheapest?

The following figures are from the later Reports of the New York Insurance Commissioner, showing the "amount of business" of the

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

to be the largest, the "expenses of management" the smallest, the "ratio of Assets to Liabilities," or the security furnished to its members, the largest of any like institution in the country.

Premiums received in 1864.....$2,089,072
" " " " 1865.....3,029,987
Ratio of expenses to premiums rec'd in '64...12.96
" " " " " " " '65...12.16
Ratio of assets to liabilities, Jan. 1, 1865....151.85

The inevitable conclusion from these official acts, is that the

MUTUAL BENEFIT LIFE
Insurance Company
IS THE BEST AND THE CHEAPEST.

Because its NET ASSETS are proportionably LARGER than those of any other Life Insurance Company in the United States.

Because its "Managing Expenses" are LESS, and it has a LARGER SURPLUS to divide among its members than any Company in the United States.

QUERY. Will some one inform the public of that mysterious process by which a Company with a surplus proportionably much less, and expenses very much larger than another, can yet divide more to its members, and insure them at less cost? How is it done? Where does the money come from?

Any one disposed or intending to insure can be furnished with the requisite information by applying to

HENRY A. YEATON, Agent.
Portsmouth, March 27, 1866.—3mdaw

Morning Chronicle.

☞ Among the "results of the Fenian war," the New York Sun enumerates the following:

An active member of the Grattan Circle in Brooklyn, who possessed a homestead a fortnight ago, sold it out and invested the proceeds in the Fenian cause. He is now penniless, and dependent on his daily labor for his daily bread. Another Fenian of large sympathies, residing in the Fourteenth Ward, invested $10,000 in the movement, which was his all, and the savings of twenty-five years' industry. On Tuesday he had only left of this amount a $100 Fenian bond. An aged widow sent her only son off with the Williamsburg contingent, and sold the cottage in which she lived, giving the proceeds to the cause. The failure of the Canadian expedition had so fearful an effect upon a well-known medical gentleman of Brooklyn that his reason is despaired of.

Archbishop Purcell, in Cincinnati, on Sunday, said in his sermon that the idea of the Fenians that only admitted the right of the Church in spiritual affairs, and said it had no right to prescribe temporally for them, was heretical, and those who advocated it were "worse than Martin Luther at the head of the Reformation."

☞ ABOUT MIDDLING.—Old Rev. Mr. B. was one day attending the funeral of one of the members of his church, when, after praising the many virtues of the deceased, he turned to the bereaved husband and said: "My beloved brother, you have been called to part with the best and loveliest of wives."—Up jumped the sorrow-stricken husband, interrupting the tearful minister by saying: "Oh, no, Brother B, not the best; but about middling—about middling, brother B."

— The Mobile Times suggests the importance of sleeping cars on the street railroads in that city.

— Paper manufacturers say that one reason of the continued high prices of this article is because of the new uses to which it is applied. It is a low estimate to say that thirty tons of paper material are used every day in this country for collars alone.

CONSEQUENCES OF THE CALKERS' STRIKE IN NEW YORK.—The New York Times states that, although the strike among the ship calkers is at an end, the sad consequences of their folly have not disappeared. The long continuance of the suspension of work caused many of the ship masters to send their ships away to other ports, and the consequence is that, although there are hundreds of men willing to work at the old terms, there is little or nothing for them to do. It is estimated that not less than $5,000,000 of work has been driven off or turned away to other ports in consequence of the strike. The men were being paid about $100,000 per week, and this sum was not only lost for ten weeks, but a large amount was spent in mass meetings and contributions. One instance is given:

"We are told of one man who, in course of ten years, had secured a nice little house by his labor, who was educating his children well, and had a nice home for them, who was compelled to sell his place in order to supply his family with the necessaries of life. He wanted to work all the time, and was opposed to the strike, but was forced to follow in the ranks with his fellow-workmen. His case is but an illustration of many others."

— A New Haven company has commenced manufacturing compressed stone for building purposes. It is made of sand, pulverized quartz and silicate of soda, and hardens from the consistency of putty, in twenty-four hours, to the solidity of stone.

Portsmouth N. H.

FRIDAY, JUNE 22, 1866.

CRUMBS OF COMFORT,—VERY SMALL CRUMBS.—The Boston Herald of June 20, says:

It cannot be denied that the Republican party is rapidly tumbling to pieces. The course pursued by the majority in Congress has disgusted all conservative men who have during the last four years acted with the Union party.

Where is the crumble? In Congress 3-4ths of each House pass an Amendment. In New Hampshire a new Senator gets all the votes but two, of the whole party, after a sharp caucus.

The long-heralded Johnson meeting at Rochester, N. Y. on Friday night, was a decided failure. Only five hundred or six hundred persons were present, and the meeting adjourned after a session of less than an hour.

The Omaha (Nebraska) Republican of the 9th of June says that the State Constitution has been carried beyond a doubt, and that the same may be said of the State ticket, though the returns are yet incomplete. The legislative returns thus far give to the Union party a majority of three in the House, of one in the Senate, and of four on a joint ballot.

☞ At Bangor, Me., June 20, the Union Congressional Convention was very fully attended and entirely harmonious. Hon. John A. Peters of Bangor was nearly unanimously selected as the candidate for Representative to Congress. The resolutions were extremely radical—fully up to the firmest New England sentiment. They oppose President Johnson's policy of reconstruction and indorse the advanced position taken by Congress.

☞ The N. Y. Commercial Advertiser of Wednesday says the gold speculation is subsiding. The failure of a gold speculator is reported, covering contracts of over $1,000,000. Speculation is returning to the stock exchange.

☞ Two men named Aaron and Collier had a prize-fight at a by-place in Virginia, for $1000, June 20. Collier won; both are blinded, and miserably bruised. They pounded each other two hours, and when they got back to Washington both were carried to lodgings on litters. On their return, in Washington, the victor and the vanquished were arrested, but they were too badly injured to be removed from their lodgings and officers were left in charge.—Seventeen others were arrested and taken to the police station. The parties, or a number of them, will be held for a requisition from the Governor of Virginia on a charge of engaging in or aiding and abetting the fight.

—In New York city on Wednesday, three new cases of cholera were reported. At quarantine two new cases on board the Illinois and two deaths from cholera and one from typhoid fever have occurred since last report.

The police made about 150 arrests on Wednesday of liquor dealers who had not obtained a license. The Tombs court was crowded and the offenders were held to $300 and $200 bail. Many intend to continue selling and to test the authority of the Excise Board before the courts.

GOLD, Thursday, opened at 151 1-4—run down to 148 5-8—and at 12:35 was 149 5-8.

☞ The Atlantic Monthly for July is received filled from beginning to end with excellent reading.

☞ It is said that Jeff. D. and wife are living in a nicely furnished casemate at Fortress Monroe; that he is supplied with all the delicacies of the season by his friends, and that his health is improving.

U. S. FIVE-TWENTIES ABROAD.—A letter from a merchant of long experience dated Bremen, June 2, says: "A great investment demand for 5-20s is now setting in from the peasantry and that class of people, especially since the war looks inevitable. They consider the stock, and probably justly so, the safest thing to hold in such a crisis." This confirms the view taken by well informed German houses at Bremen, that a Continental war would lead to a hoarding of United States gold-bearing Bonds, in preference to the old-fashioned hoarding of gold in Louis d'Ors and ducats, which any regimental commander might press from the holders by forced loans or requisitions.

☞ One of the editors of the New Orleans Times gives daily about a column under the head of "Looker on." From the number of instances we have noticed from day to day, wherein he uses that figure of speech by which two different applications of a word give an odd or ludicrous idea, we have decided "Looker on" to be a pun-gent editor.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— A great Railroad Meeting was held at Claremont June 20;—object, to extend the Railroad from Bradford to Claremont.

—— A correspondent, writing from Sanbornton Bridge, says that the anniversary of the N. H. Conference Seminary and Female College commenced on Sunday afternoon by a sermon before the graduating class by Rev. Dr. Barrows, in which he eloquently set forth the highest excellency of woman, her great responsibility and power. On Monday morning the examining committee attended to their duties with gratifying results, and in the evening Rev. Mr. Mallalieu of Boston delivered an eloquent practical address before the graduating class.

THE EXCISE IN NEW YORK.—On Tuesday last, about noon, Mr. Manierre, Treasurer of the Board of Health of New York, reported that he had received over a million of dollars for licenses granted, and in honor of the event the Stars and Stripes were hoisted over the police building. At the hour of closing business, Mr. Manierre's account showed that 3278 venders had taken out first-class or $250-licenses, and paid therefor $819,500; and 1807 $100-licenses had been delivered, and $180,700 had been received therefor—the totals being 5085 license papers delivered and $1,000,200 received.

FROM MEXICO.—An extra Rio Grande Courier of the 18th inst. contains details of the capture by the Liberal forces under Trevino of a large merchandise train from Matamoras to the interior. The train was conveyed by ten Imperialist companies, numbering 350 men, under Captain Hoppa, 100 guerrillas made up of Confederates, and 1500 Mexican Imperialists. It had 8 pieces of artillery and 6 Mexican guns. The fight lasted one hour, when the train was captured, on the 16th inst., about three leagues from Camargo. Canala, Marangua and Escabedo, with their commands, had placed themselves under Trevino, the Liberals numbering 2500, well armed and equipped. The train contained merchandise and ammunition of great value. Gen. Olvares was wounded, and passed through Roynosa Saturday night. Several officers of his command had arrived at Matamoras, who confirmed the capture of 800 prisoners of Olvares, and about 400 others with the convoy were sent to Camargo under a double guard, with orders not to allow anything to be touched. Rumor says the Mexican Imperialist regiment changed sides in the fight. Commerrit has suffered an irreparable loss by this capture. Twenty-one of the Austrians escaped.

A Monterey specie train is reported as being at Colva for 6 days, attempting to return to Monterey and fears are entertained that it would also be captured.

WHEAT IN ILLINOIS.—The Springfield (Ill.) Journal, in discussing the question as to the profit of raising wheat in that State, says it is safe to predict that the day is not very far off when in central and northern Illinois only enough wheat will be raised to serve for home consumption. It adds:

"It has already come to be true that many of our leading agriculturists are turning their attention to other branches of their occupation. The raising and fattening of cattle, hogs, horses and mules, the growing of wool, and kindred enterprises, now claim a large share of the farmers' attention, and he finds it a profitable business. Corn is needed in abundance, and corn seldom, if ever, fails. The great increase in manufactories in the State seems to point to the raising of live stock rather than small grain, and it is certain that the farmers will not much longer continue to cultivate a crop that does not pay."

BELLOWS FALL.—We are gratified to learn that some gentleman of Keene, N. H., have purchased the property of the Bellows Falls Canal Company, a large portion of which was owned in England, comprising one of the best water powers in the whole country, and about fifty acres of land in the village of Bellows Falls. It is said they will commence the improvement of it the present season, and its full development cannot fail to make Bellows Falls one of the most prosperous and thriving villages in the Connecticut Valley. — Rutland (Vt.) Herald.

— The wheat crop in Georgia is harvested and turns out better than was feared, but it is by no means excellent. The harvest in Alabama is a fair average.

— A small keg of nitro glycerine exploded in a drug store at Nashvile on the 18th inst. The quantity was not sufficient to do much damage, but windows, bottles, chairs, &c., were broken.

— Georgie Squils, aged 72 years, and his grand-daughter, aged eleven, were brutally murdered Sunday evening last, near Rossville, York county, Penn. Mrs. Squills was also horribly injured, and is dying. A man named Donovan has been arrested on suspicion of doing the dead. The weapon used is supposed to have been a hatchet.

— At the East New Jersey Baptist Association, recently held, more than a thousand baptisms were reported in connection with the fifty churches composing the body—which is an average of twenty to each church. Never before, not even in 1857 and 8, were so many additions made in a single year.

CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION AT CROYDON.—On the 13th inst., the town of Croydon, N. H., was the scene of a centennial celebration. This town was settled as far back as 1766, which gives it a respectable age for an American township. There were three thousand people present in the East village on the occasion, and a multitude of the sons and daughters of Croydon, who had strayed away from home in quest of fortune, were of course on hand. The Rev. Baron Stowe, a native of Croydon, was on the platform and made a speech, redolent of the memories of boyhood.

He stated that he left Croydon when a youth of only eight years, yet she was fresh in his memory. The hills, and especially the Croydon Mountain, which extends along the western boundary of the town, appeared familiar to him. He recalled some of the reminiscences of his childhood. He recollected well that venerable old spinster, "Aunt Lizzie Sanger," and that old fortune-teller, Mrs. Hamble.

The speaker stated that several years since he visited Europe. While taking a walk one evening in Bavaria, a small flower by the wayside attracted his attention. The impression which this single flower made upon him was greater than could have been made by the flora of Europe combined. It carried him back to his youthful days, and the scenes of his childhood came rushing upon his mind more vividly than they had ever done before. It was a flower he had often seen upon his native hills—the butter-cup.

A beautiful greeting hymn, written by Mrs. Lizzie P. Harding of Croydon, was sung, and a Centennial Ode by another Croydon poetess, Mrs. Augusta Cooper Bristol, now of Illinois. Few occasions are more touching than these centennial celebrations, at this season of the year particularly, when the hill country has all its bravery on.

CARRIAGES — GREAT IMPROVEMENTS. The improvements in the style and manufacture of carriages have been remarkable within a few years; from a small variety we have now a large number of patterns, substantial, airy, and graceful, relieving the horse by lightness and easy running, and affording the utmost ease and pleasure to those who occupy the seats.

MESSRS. KIMBALL BROTHERS & Co., Boston, have paid long and careful attention to the construction of travelling vehicles of all descriptions, and have arrived at a perfection in their business which seems to be the limit of ingenuity and faithful workmanship in this branch of mechanics. Their sleighs have long been prime favorites in the market, while their wheel carriages are not surpassed in beauty, convenience, and durability by those produced by any similar establishment in the country. Their Sales room, Minot Building, junction of Court and Sudbury streets, is always filled with specimens of their work, and the justice of our commendation will prove by examination.—Boston Post.

CONGRESS.—In the House June 20, Mr. Boutwell introduced the following important bill to secure a proper construction of our neutrality laws. Had the laws been so construed Spain would not have done the damage that she has in South America, neither would Napoleon's troops now occupy our sister republic of Mexico; besides, there is no reason why our mechanics and ship-builders should not be permitted to dispose of their work.

Mr. Boutwell's Neutrality Bill.—Be it enacted, &c., That an act entitled an act in addition to the acts for the punishment of certain crimes against the United States, and to repeal the acts therein mentioned, passed April 18, 1818, shall not be so construed as to prohibit citizens of the United States from selling vessels, ships or steamers built within the limits thereof, or material or munitions of war, the growth or product of the same, to inhabitants or governments not at war with the United States, provided that the operation of this act shall be suspended whenever the United States shall be engaged in war.

The Senate indirectly discussed the question of final adjournment, but the Union Senators were unanimous in refusing to fix a day. Mr. Fessenden said that if Congress would cease discussing unimportant questions it could adjourn by the middle of July.

— A "colored" millionaire, announced as the Duc de Bouton qui Perce, is in Paris. He is the wealthiest of the ex-Emperor Soulouque's ebony courtiers. His fortune is stated to be seven millions; and a splendidly decorated and furnished hotel has been prepared for him in the Avenue de l'Imperatrice.

BAILEY'S CIRCUS AND MENAGERIE.—The great quadruple combination of Messrs. G. F. Bailey & Co. has been doing an immense business through the Eastern States, and their canvass has been crowded day and night to its utmost capacity, we should judge from the notices in our cotemporaries. They offer a greater amount of attraction for a single admission fee than any other exhibition travelling. The great living Hippopotamus, the comical performing elephants, the den of Baby Lion, only eight weeks old; the Chinese Tartar Yak, the only one in America; the extensive Menagerie, and a Circus comprising the best equestrian and gymnastic talent in the country, ought to be attraction enough for fifty cents.

IMPORTANT.—The fact that cannot be too often stated, or too strongly urged upon the public, that the majority of the Saleratus in market is not only very unhealthy, but actually a slow poison, causing teeth to decay, and bringing on disease generally. Thanks to science, skill, perseverance and energy, that the man still lives who invented Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus, which has and is doing such great wonders in the culinary department. We say that one trial will convince the most skeptical that there is none other to be compared with it. Most of our Merchants have it for sale. Their depot is 112 Liberty street, New York. 102

AMERICAN WATCH,

MADE AT WALTHAM, MASS:

IS THE BEST.

It is made on the best principle. Its frame is composed of SOLID PLATES. NO jar can interfere with the harmony of its working and no sudden shock can damage its machinery. Every piece is made and finished by machinery (itself famous for its novelty, as well as for its effectiveness) and is therefore properly made. The watch is what all mechanism should be—ACCURATE, SIMPLE, STRONG AND ECONOMICAL. Except some high grades, too costly for general use, foreign watches are chiefly made by women and boys. Such watches are composed of several hundred pieces, screwed and riveted together, and require constant repairs to keep them in any kind of order. All persons who have carried "ancres," "lepines," and "English Patent Levers," are perfectly well aware of the truth of this statement.

At the beginning of our enterprise, more than ten years ago, it was our first object to make a thoroughly good low-priced watch for the million, to take the place of these foreign impositions—the refuse of foreign factories—which were entirely unsaleable at home and perfectly worthless everywhere.

How well we have accomplished this may be understood from the fact, that after so many years of public trial, we now make MORE THAN HALF OF ALL THE WATCHES SOLD IN THE UNITED STATES, and that no others have ever given such universal satisfaction. While this department of our business is continued with increased facilities for perfect work, we are at present engaged in the manufacture of watches of the very HIGHEST GRADE KNOWN TO CHRONOMETRY, unequalled by anything hitherto made by ourselves, and unsurpassed by anything made in the world. For this purpose we have the amplest facilities. We have erected an addition to our main buildings expressly for this branch of our business, and have filled it with the best workmen in our service. New machines and appliances have been constructed, which perform their work with consummate delicacy and exactness. The choicest and most approved materials only are used, and we challenge comparison between this grade of our work and the finest imported chronometers. We do not pretend to sell our watches for less money than foreign watches, but we do assert without fear of contradiction that for the same money our product is incomparably superior. All our watches, of whatever grade, are fully warranted and this warrantee is good at all times against us or our agents in all parts of the world.

CAUTION.—The public are cautioned to buy only of respectable dealers. All persons selling counterfeits will be prosecuted.

A Single Box of BRANDRETH'S PILLS contains more vegetable extractive matter than twenty boxes of any pills in the world besides; fifty-five hundred physicians use them in their practice to the exclusion of other purgatives. The first letter of their value is yet scarcely appreciated. When they are better known, sudden death and continued sickness will be of the past. Let those who know them speak out in their favor. It is a duty which will save life.

Our race are subject to a redundancy of vitiated bile at this season, and it is as dangerous as it is prevalent; but Brandreth's Pills afford an invaluable and efficient protection. By their occasional use we prevent the collection of those impurities which, when in sufficient quantities, cause so much danger to the body's health. They soon cure Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, Pain in the Head, Heartburn, Pain in the Breast-bone, Sudden Faintness and Costiveness. AN APPEAL TO THE LADIES OF PORTSMOUTH.—Public Meeting.—The Ladies of Portsmouth are hereby most respectfully invited to meet at the City Rooms, on Saturday afternoon, June 23, at 4 o'clock, for the purpose of perfecting arrangements to give a collation to military and fire companies from abroad, which contemplate visiting our city on the coming Fourth. It is very essential that extensive preparations be made in this direction, as a considerable number of companies are expected here on that occasion, which will materially augment the extent and enhance the attractions of the procession. Several of these fire companies have, with the noblest spirit of generosity and self-denial, hastened to our aid at times when disastrous conflagrations threatened to lay in ruins large portions of our city; and it seems to be manifesting only simple regard for the promptings of of gratitude and reciprocal kindliness, to accord them the merited meed of a cordial and enthusiastic welcome on the glorious Fourth. Every lady in our community should do something towards this praiseworthy object; and to this end, it is earnestly hoped that all who can make it convenient will attend the meeting as above announced.

PER ORDER COM. ARR.

☞ A neighbor informs us that several times within a few months, he has seen a boy steal the Chonicle from Dr. Oliver's door at the Rockingham House; but he does not know his name. We will gladly give $10 reward for evidence to convict him or any other of these thieves who so trouble us and annoy our subscribers. And yet who will say that they are any meaner than that other more numerous class who habitually get the reading of the paper to which they have no right, but for which they are amply able to pay?

Communication.

Editors of the Chronicle:—Yesterday $48 was sponged out of the hard earnings of the masters of four schooners, which arrived from New York, by the Health Officers of this city. Every one knows how hard these sons of the ocean toil for their scanty living; and they justly complain of the swindle. To quarantine a vessel from the above named northern port, is too absurd to be discussed. Gentlemen of the City Government—how long are you to allow this imposition to continue?

MARKET STREET.

☞ To be sure our commerce is not very extensive, but small as it is, every unnecessary impediment thrown in its way will tend materially to diminish it. It seems to us that the arrangements for proper quarantine of the port might be somewhat improved, so that vessels able to show a clean bill of health might not be detained in the lower harbor, losing favorable winds and tides, awaiting the visit of the Health Officer, for whom we understand it is necessary to send to this city and await his coming. Would it not be well to have this duty devolve upon a resident of Newcastle?

☞ Prof. Patterson, of Hanover, being unable to prepare and deliver the Oration on the Fourth of July in this city, on account of his duties in Congress,—Rev. A. J. Patterson of Portsmouth has been invited to that service, and consents to perform it.

☞ Gov. Smyth is to attend our celebration—not Gov. Gilmore, as a correspondent (*) stated.

☞ Rev. Wm. E. Armitage, Rector of Christ Church, Detroit, fomerly Assistant Minister of St. John's Church, Portsmouth, has been unanimously elected Assistant Bishop of Wisconsin.

SUPREME JUDICIAL COURT.—Law Term.—This Court was in session at Exeter on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, Judges Sargent, Bellows, Doe and Nesmith being present. The following named cases wherein parties reside in this vicinity, were decided:

City of Portsmouth vs. Wm. M. Shackford, Mark Shores and others. Bill dismissed, without costs. Goodall for city: W. H. Y. Hackett for W. M. Shackford.

Thos. G. Judd vs. town of Brentwood. Judgment on verdict. Hackett and Goodall for pltf.; Suckney and Bell for defence.

Wm. M. Shackford vs. town of Newington. Judgment on verdict for the plaintiff. Hackett for pltf.; Hatch for Newinton.

Olive A. Grant vs. John E. Grant. Divorce decreed and custody of child to libellant. William H. Hackett for libellant.

Ammi R. Wiggin vs. Angeline B. Wiggin. Divorce decreed and $500 alimony. Bell and Stickney for libellant; Wood for libeller.

Charles D. Towle vs. Abraham P. Blake. Judgment on verdict for plaintiff. Frink and J. W. Towle for pltf.; Small and Wood for deft.

Perry's Moth and Freckle Lotion.

☞ Chloasma, or Mothpatch, (also called Liverspot,) and Lentigo, or Freckles, are often very annoying, particularly to ladies of light complexion, for the discolored spots show more plainly on the face of a blonde than of a brunette; but they greatly mar the beauty of either and any preparation that will effectually remove them, without injuring the texture or color of the skin, is certainly a desideratum. DR. B. C. PERRY, who has made diseases of the skin a specialty, has discovered a remedy for those discolorations, which is at once prompt, infallible and harmless.

The well known and beautifully situated CUTTS' HOUSE, on North Road, Portsmouth, recently occupied by Chas. Amory, Esq. The House contains eighteen rooms, with elegant bath-room, billiard room, (containing a table in good order,) nursery, and all requisites for a properly arranged family mansion.

The House is in excellent repair, having been thoroughly refitted a year or two since, while its proximity to the beaches, and the facilities which it affords for charming rides and pleasure sailing, render it one of the most desirable estates in the market.

The House is furnished with double windows (each with a sliding pane) throughout, is heated by a furnace, and many of the rooms have also elegant marble mantels and grates. In addition to the superior cellar, there is a first class wine cellar. The house is fitted throughout with Straw Matting.

The out-buildings are very complete. A STABLE, with accommodations for five horses; CARRIAGE HOUSE; a splendid Harness Room, finished in chestnut and black walnut, with glass cases for harness; Cow House, &c.

Patients having Artificial Teeth fitted at this office always have the advantage of a large assortment of A No. 1 Teeth to select from.

The patient alone always has the matter of decision as to whether the case is a "fit" or not, as no Set of Teeth is ever considered satisfactory to the proprietor of this office, unless they are entirely so to the patient.

DR. STEVENS never uses articles of an inferior quality (although they plentifully abound in the Profession,) in his business.

WHICH IS THE

Leading Life Insurance Comp'y

IN THE UNITED STATES?

Which is the Safest and the Cheapest?

The following figures are from the later Reports of the New York Insurance Commissioner, showing the "amount of business" of the

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

to be the largest, the "expenses of management" the smallest, the "ratio of Assets to Liabilities," or the security furnished to its members, the largest of any like institution in the country.

Premiums received in 1864.....$2,089,072
" " " " 1865.....3,029,087

Ratio of expenses to premiums received in '64..12.96
" " " " " " " '65..12.16

Ratio of assets to liabilities, Jan. 1, 1865....151.85

The inevitable conclusion from these official facts, is that the

MUTUAL BENEFIT LIFE

Insurance Company

IS THE BEST AND THE CHEAPEST.

Because its NET ASSETS are proportionably LARGER than those of any other Life Insurance Company in the United States.

Because its "Managing Expenses" are LESS, and it has a LARGER SURPLUS to divide among its members than any Company in the United States.

QUERY. Will some one inform the public of that one Insurance Company by which a Company with a surplus proportionably much less, and expenses very much larger than another, can yet divide more to its members, and insure them at less cost? How is it done? Where does the money come from?

Every intelligent man will see at once that it cannot be done. Yet we have Agents among us that make this their boast.

Any one disposed or intending to insure can be furnished with the requisite information by applying to

Morning Chronicle.

A FENIAN "DAUGHTER OF THE REGIMENT."—A party of 150 Fenians arrived at Albany last week, from Malone, in charge of Capt. Brownell, a New Yorker. The Captain was accompanied by his wife, a noble and happy looking specimen of the feminine gender. She went to the "front" with her husband, fully prepared to look after the wants of her husband's company. She had a satchel filled with lint and bandages in case the men got into action, that she might care for their wounds. The Captain served three years in the rebellion, and his wife was at his side there also. He was taken prisoner and conveyed to Milledgeville, and his wife went with him. While in prison she was the means of saving a great many lives by the care and attention she gave the unfortunate sick and wounded prisoners. Such a woman is worth her weight in gold.

— An extraordinary reptile has arrived in England from Australia, which seems to be more nearly allied to the pro-Adamite Saurian than anything before discovered. It possessed enormous claws and teeth, which enabled it to cause great destruction to the natives, while its almost impenetrable skin shielded it from their rude weapons. The body is perfect, with the exception of one claw torn off in the final contest.

—WILL EXHIBIT—

IN PORTSMOUTH,

One Gigantic Show!

The specialties and attractions of no less than Four Complete Exhibitions!

FIRST.

The greatest marvel of the Animal Kingdom and Antediluvian wonder, the gigantic

HIPPOPOTAMUS!

Sixty Thousand Dollars,

From the White Nile, 2000 miles above the City of Cairo. This remarkable Animal, "the Behemoth of Holy Writ," is accompanied by All, his Egyptian trainer and captor, and is the only animal of his species that has ever been exhibited in America. The peculiar characteristics, habits, history, &c., of this strange creation of nature will be described each day and evening in a brief but interesting lecture by Prof. ELLINGHAM.

SECOND.

Sands, Nathans & Co.'s

PERFORMING ELEPHANTS,

Antony and Cleopatra, Victoria and Albert.

These remarkable animals, under the direction of their trainer Col. Chas. Johnson, have been educated to such a degree of perfection as to border on the marvelous. No idea can be conveyed through the medium of language of their extraordinary and multitudinous performances. They dance, play the organ, stand on their heads and perform an infinite variety of other feats almost incredible, except to those who have witnessed them.

THIRD.

Melville's Australian Circus!

In organizing this Circus, the management would respectfully state that they have spared neither time, labor nor money, to make their present combination the most brilliant and attractive ever presented to the public, and have congregated from the four quarters of the globe the choicest gems to form the following

The Use of this Column

Has been bought and paid for for three months, by

C. A. RICHARDS & CO.,

99 Washington Street, - - Boston, the largest Wine Merchants in New England. Their object for this outlay is to TELL THE PEOPLE

that they have the most extensive variety of

PURE WINES AND SPIRITS

of all kinds, which they sell in any required quantity, and warrant them to be just as represented,—and also to arouse public attention to the fact that the three great leading articles in their business are these,—

EXTRACT OF RYE,
DUNSTER'S LONDON CORDIAL GIN,
GOLDEN SHEAF WHISKEY.

EXTRACT OF RYE;

WHAT IS IT?

Ask the thousands who are using it. Make the enquiry anywhere from one end of this glorious country to the other. Some people call it

The Very Best

OLD RYE BEVERAGE

THEY EVER TASTED.

Perhaps they are right. Try it and see.

RYE,

AND NOTHING ELSE,

and from the best Rye at that.
None of your musty, mouldy, heated stuff, but the Very Best of Rye

that grows in the Cumberland Valley.

It is enough to do a man's soul good to taste it, and see how different it is from the strong, fiery stuff that people use for Rye Whiskey.

It is Made Different.

It retains, by a peculiar mode of distillation, the very

MEDICINAL QUALITIES

that have made it so popular. If you want to use

A Pure, Genuine Article of Spirit, to stimulate a Weak stomach, or to give you renewed health and long life, use the

EXTRACT OF RYE.

It is put up in large square bottles, which contain the name of blown in the glass. He is the General Agent, yet you can find it all over the country at the principal Drug and Grocery stores.

Banishing and driving away all the worthless deceptions which have stolen his name, and ruining alone, the

Purest, Oldest, Mildest,

—and—

BEST BOURBON

That ever could date back to a Grain-field.

Go where you will, in any city, town or village, and you will find somebody that has got a little of the

GOLDEN SHEAF WHISKEY,

that they keep for the stomach's sake, and the reason is because it is

PURE AND GOOD.

It is not sold everywhere where spirits are retailed, but openly and fairly by the most respectable

Druggists, Town Agents and Grocers,

ALL OVER THE COUNTRY.

It is put up in large bottles, and its

PURITY IS GUARANTEED

By the Sole Proprietors and their Agents everywhere.

Now go and ask your grocer or apothecary for a bottle of any one of these three articles, if you conclude to try them; and if he has not got it, tell him he is behind the times, for it is sold by all grocers and druggists who do not care so much for working off goods of their own getting up, as they do to give their customers what they call for and want.

The Chronicle.

THE AUTHOR OF "JOHN HALIFAX, GENT."—The recent publication by Messrs. Ticknor & Fields of a "blue and gold" edition of Miss Mulock's poems will render the following scrap of personal history interesting to those into whose hands her poems may come. It is an extract from a private letter:

"MRS. R—— knows Miss Mulock intimately. It is quite true that the good hearted authoress married a lame man, one younger than herself. His name is Craik; he is the son of the leading minister of the Scottish kirk in Glasgow. The latter and Miss Mulock have been intimate friends for years, but he has not become reconciled to her marriage with his son, for she is forty and he but twenty-five. It appears that some time ago young Craik got his leg broken on the railway to London. After the accident, a letter was found in his pocket addressed to Miss Mulock, (a letter of introduction from his father,) and he was carried to her house and tenderly cared for by her. A great friendship sprung up between them, but for a long time it was more like that existing between an older sister and a younger brother than any deeper sentiment. He at length went home, but soon returned, proposed and was accepted. Mr. Craik was what is called an accountant, but he has just become the manager in the London branch of Macmillan's publishing house. Miss Mulock is very tall and is rather gaunt, but has a peculiarly gentle look. She is very quiet and unpretending, and hates to be treated as an authoress."

RIGHTS OF WITNESSES.—The English Lords of the Bench decided at Westminster, about a month ago, that it was a principle of common of law, that a counsellor, in questioning a witness, should address him in ordinary tones, and in language of respect, such as is employed by one gentleman in conversation with another; that such lawyer has no right to question the private business or moral character of a witness, any further than it is apparent they absolutely affect his reliability, or touch the case in hand; and that a witness is not bound to answer questions put to him in an insulting or annoying manner. If forced to answer by the Court, he will have his remedy in an action for damages.

AN INCIDENT IN A RAILWAY CAR.—Monster—I'm afraid I'm sitting on your crinoline, ma'am!

Affable young lady—O, never mind, sir, it's of no consequence; you can't hurt it.

Monster—No, ma'am it's not that; but the confounded thing hurts me!

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth N. H.

SATURDAY, JUNE 23, 1866.

GOV. SMYTH received, on Wednesday, from Sec. Seward, a certified copy of the proposed Constitutional Amendment. It is probable that New Hampshire will be the first State to adopt the measure.

In his communication on this subject to the Legislature, the Governor remarked that as New Hampshire early and nobly responded to the calls of war, he trusts she will promptly and unanimously ratify this great requirement of peace.

IN CONGRESS, the House has finally passed the new regular army bill. It provides for an army of fifty thousand men, and requires an examination by a Board of every officer below the rank of Colonel. It prohibits any one who has been in the rebel military or naval service from holding an appointment in this army.

PATRIOTISM REWARDED.—Mr. Anthony, from the Committee on Claims, reported a resolution, which the Senate passed, giving Mrs. Abbie Green $1500 for her services in aiding Union prisoners to escape from Libby Prison in 1863 and 1864. This devoted woman merits a larger recompense, as through her instrumentality 109 Union officers and soldiers escaped.

☞ The Washington Police, finding that the two prize fighters were rather like a pair of elephants on their hands, determined to pack them away, bruised as they were, and they were accordingly taken to the cars and sent off on the evening Baltimore train.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Mr. Stephen Sergeant of Hopkinton, N. H., was accidentally drowned Tuesday at Wilmington, Mass. He was 50 yrs. old.

—— Thomas Appleton, of Lake Village, in opening a bale of cotton, on Tuesday last, shipped from New Orleans, found it well sprinkled with powder, and would have set fire to the picker machine had he run it through.

—— The Laconia Democrat states that Mr. Samuel Lamprey, of Upper Gilmanton, finding that his potatoes did not germinate and come up, concluded to dig a few hills to ascertain the cause of their nongermination. In one hill he found that the seed potato had grown a new potato nearly as large as a small hen's egg, the only sprout from the seed.

MUTINY.—A special dispatch to the N. Y. Tribune, from Montreal, states that the ship Annie McKensie had just arrived from Portland, having sailed on the 20th of May. On the 19th, the captain going aboard found the men drunk and three armed sailors driving the rest of the crew, who were unarmed, about the deck, swearing they were bloody Englishmen. The mates, during this time, were trying to drive the unarmed sailors back to the forecastle. The captain met them, and induced the unarmed men to go to the cabin. On the passage between Portland and Picton, the chief mate, named Wood, became so belligerent that he was relieved from duty, which act brought matters to a crisis, and developed the fact that the three mutinous sailors and Wood were Fenians, and they were imprisoned at Pictou, N. S. On the 5th, Wood being partly intoxicated, attempted to take possession of the ship and threatened to shoot the captain, but he was knocked down with a speaking trumpet and put in irons. Had it not been for the prompt and resolute conduct of the captain the mutineers would probably have been successful.

A NEW WHITE HOUSE.—Mr. Wade has introduced a resolution into the U. S. Senate, inquiring into the propriety of purchasing a large tract of land on the plain directly east of the Capitol, as a site for a new Executive mansion. The present home of the Chief Magistrate is unhealthy and unsuitable, but it could be easily converted into a commodious State Department. The present State Department is to be demolished as soon as accommodations can be provided, that the Treasury Department may be extended over its site.

UNIVERSALIST STATE CONTENTION.—The Annual Universalist State Convention assembled at Manchester on Wednesday. The officers elected for the ensuing year are Hon. F. S. Rogers of Nashua, President; Hon. Moses Humphrey of Concord, Vice President; Rev. R. Conner of Concord, Recording Secretary; Rev. G. T. Flanders of Nashua, Corresponding Secretary; Joseph Kidder of Manchester, Treasurer. After the election of officers, the usual denominational business was done, and a sermon was preached by Rev. L. J. Fletcher of Maine.

In the afternoon the Occasional Sermon was preached by Rev. R. Connor of Concord; and the evening was taken up by a Sabbath School Meeting, at which time reports relative to the different Sabbath Schools throughout the State were made, and short addresses delivered by Rev. Messrs. Willis, Adams, Bliss, Laws, Patterson, Clark and others.

Thursday morning John H. Greene of Wentworth was ordained. The ordination services were very interesting. The Annual Missionary Sermon, by Rev. E. G. Brooks of New York City, concluded the session. The Convention was fully attended, and harmony and good feeling prevailed during its sitting.

THE MAINE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION on Thursday, at Bangor, nominated Gen. Joshua L. Chamberlain for Governor. It is said the whole number of towns represented was 341, by 1097 delegates present, making, it is believed, the largest party convention ever holden in that State.

The resolutions adopted were:—1st, that all men, without distinction of color or race, are entitled to equal civil and political rights; 2d, endorses the joint resolution passed by Congress for the amendment of the Constitution; 3d, sustains Congress in its reconstruction policy; 4th, acknowledges the claims of the soldiers to the gratitude and regard of the country, never to be forgotten or overlooked; 5th, presents the claims of General Chamberlain, the nominee for Governor, for the suffrages of the Union men of the State.

Another set of resolutions were offered, but were laid on the table and left there.—They began by condemning Pres. Johnson's policy, and ended with impartial suffrage as a condition precedent. It appears, thus, from what the Convention did, and what they did not, that the Republicans of Maine mean to sustain Congress, but do not wish a quarrel with the President, and don't mean to have one, unless he chooses to make it.

FILING CASES.—In the Superior Court at New Bedford, Mass. Tuesday, Judge Ames stated that no case for violation of the liquor law would be laid on file, on account of the parties relinquishing the trade, unless it could be shown that the shop was not occupied, or likely to be occupied, by any other person in the same business.

THE PARDONING POWER ABUSED.—President Johnson has pardoned Mary Blake, who had been convicted by a jury in Washington for keeping a very disreputable house, and sentenced to pay a fine of $500, and to be imprisoned until the fine was paid.

LIQUOR PROSECUTIONS IN SALEM.—The State Constables have been at work again in Salem this week, and made numerous arrests for violation of the liquor law.

— The ship news collector of the Portland Advertiser is another victim to the enameled collar poisoning. Painful boils broke out all over his neck and face. The surgeon to whom he applied discovered that in sweating he had absorbed arsenic, which had been used for highly glazing the collar. He is recovering.

— Mr. John Whitton, a driver for a telegraph construction train in Leavenworth, was killed by lightning a short time since. He had occasion to lift the telegraph line off the ground, when a flash of lightning struck the line at that point, tearing it into small pieces and instantly killing him. The men who saw the accident state that they observed a ball of fire, as large as a man's fist, issue from Whitton's breast. He was buried on the spot where he was killed.

CHIEF JUSTICE CHASE ON TAXING THE DEBT.—The Concord Legislative Reporter publishes the following extract from a recent letter from Chief Justice Chase to Gov. Smyth:

I think you for sending me a copy of your Message. It gave me great pleasure as a son of New Hampshire to read your clear and interesting account of her condition, resources and generous patriotism.

I was particularly pleased by your protest against the new scheme of perpetual and untaxed debt.

You may readily imagine that after all my labors, and with so great success, to establish the principle of controllability of the public debt by making it payable—the six per cent. at any time after five and within twenty years, and the five per cent. at any time after ten and within forty years—it was very painful to me to see a proposition for a loan not refundable at all till after 30 years.

I can understand an argument for not taxing a debt which the creditor may take up after five or ten years, for I can see that the country may save more in interest than it will lose in taxes; but I cannot imagine an honest argument for a debt for thirty years, and exempted from bearing burdens to which other property may be subjected. I got money, and all that was needed, in the worst times, on short, controllable loans, subject to national taxation. Surely there is no reason now to depart from the plan of 5-20 six per cent. or 10-40 five per cents., when there is now no money to be borrowed, but only floating debt to be funded.

☞ Dr. Potter, of Tionesta, Venango county, Pa., made a wager of $5000, a week since, that he would drive his pair of mares on a country road, to be selected by him, 100 miles in 9 1-4 hours. The event came off on last Saturday week, and the doctor drove 103 miles and 17 rods in 9 hours, 11 minutes and 13 seconds, stopping once to feed and twice to water, the actual time of travelling being 8 1-2 hours, the best time on record. The animals are a beautiful pair of large bay mares, and they came in apparently quite fresh, under a strong pull. The doctor afterwards refused $10,000 for his team.

HYGIENIC WINE!
HAS FOR ITS BASE
One of the Finest of Pure Wines,

A WINE grown on the sunny slopes of Spain—the genuine juice of the Grape in all its purity, as bestowed upon us by the beneficent GIVER, and such as is, alone, consistent with Christian teachings—not intoxicating in the least—will supply a want greatly felt in this country.

Such is HYGIENIC WINE,
A Bitter Aromatic.

It is conscientiously recommended to LADIES as a tonic which will soothe the nerves, renew the blood, and gently stimulate and invigorate the system.

☞ All persons of sedate habits—ministers, lawyers, and professional men, possessing constitutions more delicate than others of less confining labors—those who expend a great deal of vitality in brain work—will at once acknowledge the superiority of this restorative; for while it acts as a nervine, imparting a genial glow to the blood, it leaves behind none of the baneful influences of Alcholic preparations.

It stands unrivalled as a Tonic of the Digestive Organs, thereby creating a healthy appetite, and we warrant that upon trial HYGIENIC WINE will be found to be the finest, most delicious, and healthful Tonic known. Ask for it.

REASONS WHY THE
AMERICAN WATCH,
MADE AT WALTHAM, MASS.
IS THE BEST.

It is made on the best principle. Its frame is composed of SOLID PLATES. NO jar can interfere with the harmony of its working and no sudden shock can damage its machinery. Every piece is made and finished by machinery (itself famous for its novelty, as well as for its effectiveness) and is therefore properly made. The watch is what all mechanism should be—ACCURATE, SIMPLE, STRONG AND ECONOMICAL. Except some high grades, too costly for general use, foreign watches are chiefly made by women and boys. Such watches are composed of several hundred pieces, screwed and riveted together, and require constant repairs to keep them in any kind of order. All persons who have carried "ancres," "lepines," and "English Patent Levers," are perfectly well aware of the truth of this statement.

At the beginning of our enterprise, more than ten years ago, it was our first object to make a thoroughly good low-priced watch for the million, to take the place of these foreign impositions—the refuse of foreign factories—which were entirely unreliable at home and perfectly worthless everywhere.

How well we have accomplished this may be understood from the fact, that after so many years of public trial, we now make MORE THAN HALF OF ALL THE WATCHES SOLD IN THE UNITED STATES, and that no others have ever given such universal satisfaction. While this department of our business is continued with increased facilities for perfect work, we are at present engaged in the manufacture of watches of the very HIGHEST GRADE KNOWN TO CHRONOMETRY, unequalled by anything hitherto made by ourselves, and unsurpassed by anything made in the world. For this purpose we have the amplest facilities. We have erected an addition to our main buildings expressly for this branch of our business, and have filled it with the best workmen in our service. New machines and appliances have been constructed, which perform their work with consummate delicacy and exactness. The choicest and most approved materials only are used, and we challenge comparison between this grade of our work and the finest imported chronometers. We do not pretend to sell our watches for less money than foreign watches, but we do assert without fear of contradiction that for the same money our product is incomparably superior. All our watches, of whatever grade, are fully warranted and this warrantee is good at all times against us or our agents in all parts of the world.

CAUTION.—The public are cautioned to buy only of respectable dealers. All persons selling counterfeits will be prosecuted.

A Single Box of BRANDRETH'S PILLS contains more vegetable extractive matter than twenty boxes of any pills in the world besides; fifty-five hundred physicians use them in their practice to the exclusion of other purgatives. The first letter of their value is yet scarcely appreciated. When they are better known, sudden death and continued sickness will be of the past. Let those who know them speak out in their favor. It is a duty which will save life.

Our race are subject to a redundancy of vitiated bile at this season, and it is as dangerous as it is prevalent; but Brandreth's Pills afford an invaluable and efficient protection. By their occasional use we prevent the collection of those impurities which, when in sufficient quantities, cause so much danger to the body's health. They soon cure Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, Pain in the Head, Heartburn, Pain in the Breast-bone, Sudden Faintness and Costiveness. It teaches how to remove Tan, Freckles, Pimples, Blotches, Moth Patches, Sallowness, Eruptions, and all impurities of the skin; how to enamel the skin, having it white and clear as alabaster; how to produce the fullest development of the female form (as practised by the French,) causing the bust to grow round and full, and if the form has been lost by padding, lacing, or maternity, restoring it to more than its original fullness, firmness and beauty. It teaches how to reduce fat size the hands and feet; produce corpulency or the reverse; remove superfluous hair; cure Corns, Bunions, Warts, and Moles; renew your age; cure Drunkenness, Catarrh, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, &c., how to fascinate and gain the love and affection of any person you may choose, together with other useful and valuable information. AN APPEAL TO THE LADIES OF PORTSMOUTH.—Public Meeting.—The Ladies of Portsmouth are hereby most respectfully invited to meet at the City Rooms, on Saturday afternoon, June 23, at 4 o'clock, for the purpose of perfecting arrangements to give a collation to military and fire companies from abroad, which contemplate visiting our city on the coming Fourth.
PER ORDER COM. ARR.

☞ The funeral services of Jonathan Barker, Esq., took place on Friday forenoon, at the Methodist Church, which was well filled,—St. John's Lodge of Freemasons, DeWitt Clinton Commandery of Knights Templar, Mechanics' Association, and Cornet Band being in attendance. Rev. Mr. Pike, the pastor, read the Scriptures, and gave a brief but excellent sketch of the life of deceased,—and the Presiding Elder, Rev. Mr. Manson, offered the prayer.

☞ Summer has come;—that time of the year when cool water is said to be "an ice thing;"—and with it all the fruits—radishes and rockets, strawberries and street sprinklers, tomatoes and torpedoes, cherries and crackers.

Kittery $56,661, Eliot $46,301, York $58,423, South Berwick $50,460.

☞ Rev. O. T. Wyman will preach at the Christian Church on Court Street, tomorrow.

☞ On Thursday night the Village National Bank of Bowdoinham, Me., was robbed by a party of robbers who followed the cashier to his home, gagged his family, and placing a guard over them, took him to the bank. After robbing the vault of its contents, amounting to about $67,000, they locked him in the vault and made their escape. They were traced to Topsham, and it is supposed they are making for Canada.

☞ The prospects of President Baez, in St. Domingo, are not very good, and it is thought that General Cabral, who is carrying on a revolt against him, will be proclaimed President before long. If Baez does not fall into the hands of his enemies, he will most likely soon have to abandon the country and embark for Caracas or St. Thomas. The revolutionary forces were daily becoming strengthened.

☞ In Hayti, owing to the continued excitement and disorder which the great fire at Port au Prince had occasioned, nearly all the English and American residents were abandoning the island as speedily as possible. Several of the French had taken passage by the French corvette Rolland, and more intended to leave on her return from St. Thomas.

IMPORTANT FAILURES.—The steamer China brings the announcement of the failure of the house of James Baines & Co., of Liverpool; also that of T. M. Mackay & Co., of London, both extensively engaged in the shipping trade.

THIERS, THE FRENCH HISTORIAN.—He rarely gives dinners, because he eats little and that quickly, and does not like to sit long at table. Until within the last fifteen years he had a guest at his table the first day of every month. He called her la mere Gregorine (Aunt Gregorine.) She was the keeper of humble furnished lodgings, near the Law School, where M. Thiers lived when he came to Paris without a cent in his pocket. He made up his mind to leave the capital in despair of making his way there. He gave her notice to quit. She persuaded him to stay, and offered to board and lodge him until he could earn his livelihood. When he became rich his first care was to provide his humble, useful friend a sufficient pension, and to make her dine with him monthly until his death.

— Major Wm. B. Daulap was instantly killed by the bursting of a grindstone on Saturday last, at the works of E. Richardson, in Fitchburg, Mass.

— A letter from St. Petersburg states that the Czar is in such fear of his life since the discovery of the conspiracy of which Korokozoff was a member, that he has now shut himself up in the fortress of Cronstadt.

— Mrs. Dennis, mother of the family afflicted with trichinæ at Marion, Iowa, died Sunday. The father died on Saturday.—This makes the sixth death out of the ten afflicted.

— Rev. Dr. Bushnell of Hartford will address the Porter Rhetorical Society, and Rev. Dr. Eldredge of Norfolk the Society of Inquiry, at the Anniversary of the Andover Theological Seminary in August.

— A young man by the name of Benj. F. Curtis, 22 years of age, was drowned at the Goose Rock in Kennebunkport on Saturday evening last. He was seen about sunset on that day in a boat alone. Not returning on Sunday morning, search was made, and his body found on the beach.

— Michael Donnelly, a soap-maker living in Elmwood, R. I., was in Pontiac Village on Wednesday, selling his soap, when his horse became frightened and suddenly started, crushing Mr. Donnelly between the wagon and the side of a house, and injuring him so badly that he lived but three hours after the accident.

GOLD, Friday, 149 1-4.

— Jeanie Burns, the young girl who is lecturing on the subject of temperance, has given five hundred dollars to the Patriot Orphan Home, at Dixon, Ill. She is said to be a relative of the poet Burns.

— At a recent meeting in Pine Bluff county, Ark., the ex rebel General Yell offered resolutions declaring that they wished to be relieved from morbid feelings and insane ideas, that States have no right to secede, and that negroes should be allowed equal rights.

— The South American Republics are losing all their Spanish settlers. About one hundred and fifty reached Santiago de Cuba on the 10th inst., and about four hundred more are awaiting transportation at Aspinwall, which the Spanish Government will furnish.

— An explosion recently occurred in the fireworks manufactory of M. Aubin, in Paris. The firemen found twelve dead bodies. Every person in the place at the moment of the explosion perished. Close by in another building were discovered six other corpses, and nine men still alive but frightfully injured.

— The Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette, speaking of the Johnson mass meeting at Frederick, Md., on Saturday, 16th, says that numbers of returned rebel soldiers were in attendance, and cheers for Jeff. Davis, Mosby, Beauregard and other noted rebels were repeatedly given at the meeting and on the streets.

DEATHS.

☞ The Funeral of Mrs. POLLY RAND takes place from Mrs. Locke's, Bow street, to-day (Saturday) at 2 P. M.

At his residence near Vienna, La., May 20, Mr. HENRY CARLETON CROSBY, aged 48 years, a native of New Hampshire, and for the last twenty years a resident of Louisiana.

Elegant Residence for Sale.

[On account of removal of owner.]

The well known and beautifully situated CUTTS' HOUSE, on North Road, Portsmouth, recently occupied by Chas. Amory, Esq. The House contains eighteen rooms, with elegant bath-room, billiard room, (containing a table in good order,) nursery, and all requisites for a properly arranged family mansion.

The House is in excellent repair, having been thoroughly refitted a year or two since, while its propinquity to the beaches, and the facilities which it affords for charming rides and pleasure sailing, render it one of the most desirable estates in the market.

The House is furnished with double windows (each with a shifting panel) throughout; is heated by a furnace, and many of the rooms have also elegant marble mantels and grates. In addition to the superior cellar, there is a first class wine cellar. The house is fitted throughout with Straw Matting.

The out-buildings are very complete. A STABLE, with accommodations for five horses; CARRIAGE HOUSE; a splendid Harness Room, finished in chestnut and black walnut, with glass cases for harness; Cow House, &c.

If desirable, more land, adjoining, could doubtless be purchased.

The grounds comprise about four acres, with terraced Lawn, fine old trees and thrifty shrubbery—and is so situated as to command a delightful view of forest, city and harbor. The winding drive about the house is underlaid with stone, and laid with shells.

Some of the Advantages of Consulting Dr. Stevens.

Patients having Artificial Teeth fitted at this office always have the advantage of a large assortment of A No. 1 Teeth to select from.

They always, if they choose, have the privilege of selecting size and color of tooth to suit themselves.

The patient alone always has the matter of decision as to whether the case is a "fit" or not, as no Set of Teeth is ever considered satisfactory to the proprietor of this office, unless they are entirely so to the patient.

DR. STEVENS never uses articles of an inferior quality (although they plentifully abound in the Profession,) in his business.

Dentistry, mediocrity considered, is a speciality at this office.

Painful Teeth treated and cured.

Ulcerated Teeth treated and saved to a life of usefulness.

Badly decayed and broken Teeth restored to usefulness and beauty.

Charges always reasonable for the quality of work performed, but no Cheap Work (so called) done at this office.

WHICH IS THE
Leading Life Insurance Comp'y
IN THE UNITED STATES?
Which is the Safest and the Cheapest?

The following figures are from the later Reports of the New York Insurance Commissioner, showing the "amount of business" of the

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

to be the largest, the "expenses of management" be smallest, the "ratio of Assets to Liabilities," or the security furnished to its members, the largest of any life institution in the country.

Premiums received in 1864.....$2,089,072
" " " " " 1865.....3,029,087
Ratio of expenses to premiums rec'd in '64..12.95
" " " " " " '65..12 16
Ratio of assets to liabilities, Jan. 1, 1865...121.85

The inevitable conclusion from these official acts, is that the

MUTUAL BENEFIT LIFE
Insurance Company
IS THE BEST AND THE CHEAPEST.

Because its NET ASSETS are proportionably LARGER than those of any other Life Insurance Company in the United States.

Because its "Managing Expenses" are LESS, and it has a LARGER SURPLUS to divide among its members than any Company in the United States.

QUERY. Will some one inform the public of that mysterious process by which a Company with a surplus proportionally much less, and expenses very much larger than another, can yet divide more to its members, and insure them at less cost? How is it done? Where does the money come from?

Every intelligent man will see at once that it cannot be done. Yet we have Agents among us that make this their boast.

Any one disposed or intending to insure can be furnished with the requisite information by applying to

HENRY A. YEATON, Agent.

CASTING OUT DEVILS.—M. Erdan writes from Naples to the Tempe: There is much talk at Rome of astonishing cases of exorcism said to have occurred within the last two months at the village of Narzano, on the left bank of the Tiber. A young girl named Marianqola, is every day exorcised by monks, who say that she is possessed with devils. The girl lodges in a cottage near the monastery, and is every day taken to the church to get the devils cast out of her. Every Sunday crowds flock to witness the ceremony. On April 8 the Franciscan Superior brother preached a sermon, in which he solemnly proclaimed the names of the devils who had that day been cast out from the girl. They were Bero, Asmodeo, Belzebu Lampo, Justitia declinator, &c. The Pope would appear to be rather annoyed by the too gross absurdity of this superstition, for he has sent a physician to examine the ecstatic girl.

A BOY'S EFFUSION.—Not long since a little chap in the primary department of one of our colored schools offered the following effusion in response to the request of the teacher that he should prepare a composition. It has a claim to originality, if nothing more:

A Boy's Composition on Moonlight.—'Twas a calm, still night; the moon's pale light shone over hill and dale. Not a breeze stirred; not a leaf stirred; not a dog stirred; not an owl stirred; not a cat stirred; not a horse stirred; not a man stirred; not a mouse stirred; not a hen stirred; not a goose stirred; n—

At this juncture the teacher interrupted the boy's effusion with the remark that his effort related more to agriculture than moonlight.—From a Friend in Richmond, Va.

HARK! FROM THE TOMBS.—The papers have mentioned the lately repeated boast of ex-Senator Toombs that he would yet call the roll of his slaves on Bunker Hill. This empty threat took place at Havana, where Toombs is now residing, and was made to an American lady, who thus describes the scene:

"At the table (of the hotel) I was introduced to Mr. Toombs of Georgia. Inquired, sotto voce, of the nearest gentleman, if it was the former Senator of the United States. I think he saw that I was asking about him, for he at once began to tell the English captain (naval) next to him that he had been thirteen years in the Senate of the United States; that he was a Confederate General, and Confederate gentlemen were gentlemen, &c. Captain L. remarked: 'This lady is not of your way of thinking; she is for the Federals,' looking over at me. So appealed to, I said: 'Yes, indeed, I am for the Union—I am a Yankee to the marrow of my bones.' 'Ah!' said Toombs, 'I have trampled on the Yankee flag many times (gentlemanly, was it not?) I have trod upon eighteen of them at one time.' I replied, 'it seems to have done very little harm, since it floats triumphant now.' O, I shall do it again; it has got to be brought low yet.' 'I think there is no immediate danger,' replied I, 'either of that or of your calling the roll of your slaves on Bunker Hill.'

Such an expression of fiendishness as his countenance assumed I cannot describe; the corners of his mouth curled up, showing his long, tobacco stained teeth, and he hissed out, 'I'll count them there yet—I'll count them there yet.' 'You may,' said I, 'but with the tables turned, you in bonds and they free.' 'Oh!' said he, 'the North has not done with us yet.' 'Indeed,' said I, 'if you have not fought it out why did you stop? The sooner you recommence the better. You can fight as long as you please, you know—as long as it seems good and pleasant to you—until you come to that last ditch!' He grinned with rage, 'O, the giant is not strangled yet.' 'The giant!' said I; 'where was he when Sherman went through your State? I never that he found even any fossil remains of giants, or even dwarfs.'

I turned and asked the astonished English sympathizer at my side to take me away, and we rose; there had been a simultaneous movement on the other side of the table. I think they were all ashamed of their 'Confederate gentleman,' for he began by his insulting boasts of his outrages to the flag he had just been informed claimed my fealty?"

— The Senate on the 18th, rejected the nominations of H. H. Goldsmith, Postmaster at Camden, N. J., and E. A. Carmen, assessor of Fith district of same State, on the ground that State Senator, James M. Scovel, indorsed the appointments. That is a sufficient reason why they should be rejected if they are like him.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth N. H.

MONDAY, JUNE 25, 1866.

LEGISLATURE.—In the House on Friday, the following petitions, &c., were presented and referred to the Committee on Railroads:

By Mr. Perkins of Dover—Of Samuel M. Wheeler, of Dover, and 322 others, for the charter of a railroad from Dover to Portsmouth.

By Mr. Bean of Moultonboro'—Report of Portsmouth, Great Falls and Conway Railroad.

The Committee on Incorporations reported the bill to incorporate the Portsmouth and Manchester Telegraph Co., with a verbal amendment and an amendment securing trial by jury, which were adopted, and the bill ordered to a third reading.

Mr. Patterson of this city, introduced a bill in addition to chap. 116, R. S., in relation to the punishment of idle and disorderly persons, which was read twice and referred to Committee on Judiciary.

OULAWRY IN MISSOURI.—A Western paper says that on the 13th inst., five or six armed outlaws rode up to the jail in Independence, Missouri, and calling for the jailer, Mr. Henry Bugler, a worthy man and jailer for several years, demanded the keys to release one Joab Perry, of Cass county, incarcerated for horse stealing. Mr. Bugler refused to deliver them, and on attempting to close the door, was shot dead. A little boy of his was, by the same or a subsequent shot, hit in the arm, lacerating the flesh considerably. The villains then impressed a young man to go in and get the jail keys. He went in, but escaped back and hid himself in a hollow, and they failed to release Perry. A meeting of citizens was then called and an armed posse raised, who voted to disarm every returned rebel in the county.

MR. TRASK, the industrious and persevering anti-tobacco preacher and lecturer, has sent us the annual report of the American Anti-Tobacco Society, a very interesting document. Of course, with our crowded columns, we can only copy scraps. He says:

Eighteen years ago I was an abject slave of tobacco. The poison produced its legitimate effects. It crushed my health and courage, and paralyzed my energies as a Christian minister. The continuance of its use became a question of life and death. I chose life, relinquished the baneful drug, and admirable health richly rewarded my choice.

This was an epoch in my life. My soul glowed with gratitude to God. I was saved from vile bondage, and I wished to save others. Hence I began to write and speak against this popular habit, and spread tracts, far and near, according to my ability. * * *

What has been done?—Nothing, we answer, of which to boast, and nothing in view of the fearful magnitude of the evil. Captions men say "We have more of the nuisance than ever, and nothing has been done." We have directed attention to the evil, and there appears to be more than ever.

Something has been done. 1. There has been agitation, and "this agitation," says a doctor of divinity, "is worth a thousand times all it has cost.

2. Many of the victims of the poison have been saved. Many in all the walks of life, and here and there a clergyman, among others, who delicately used the weed, have delicately renounced it, and coming to regard its use as an indelicate thing, have like other still-born converts failed to make known their conversion.—Boys in Sabbath-schools in every region are pledged against the triplet of abominations—tobacco, strong drink, and profane swearing. Our common schools are being expurgated, and committees are coming to the decision that teachers who have not sufficient self-control to drop tobacco are not duly qualified to control our youth.

3. The common use of tobacco is now viewed by men of sense as an immorality or sin. Men there are no doubt who still discover a terrific sin in some tenet of a religious creed who discover no sin in the most abject slavery to this poisonous drug, though it may waste time, waste money, health, and life, and by fair construction be shown to violate every commandment in the decalogue! The world however moves.

4. Much is said of the disgraceful culture in the Connecticut valley. Bad as it may have been, remonstrances from many quarters have tended to bridle the cupidity of tobacco growers there.

5. This habit is seen to be a prolific source of infidelity. Its victim becomes constitutionally a sensualist.

6. It is beginning to be seen that narcotics are doing much to obstruct the conversion of the world.

COTTON.—The latest estimates of the cotton crop for this year are from 1,200,000 to 1,600,000 bales.

— Words cannot heal the wounds words can make.

— The people of Martha's Vineyard have been congratulating themselves upon the high state of morals in that community —there being not a single case before the Superior Court; but it has since leaked out that the presiding Judge had his new hat stolen during the session.

— A man in Pennsylvania has been sued for $25,000 for a breach of promise. His defence is, and it ought to clear him, that he was ready to marry her last winter, but she kept putting it off, and as she weighs 285 pounds, he prefers not to marry during the warm weather.

NOTES OF FORMER DAYS.

Collected and collated by UNCLE TOBY.

Doctor Joshua Brackett.

Among the physicians of Portsmouth, who have attained considerable eminence, Doctor Joshua Brackett holds a conspicuous place. He was born at Greenland in May, 1733. In his early youth, he attended the public school in his native town, but as his parents intended him for one of the learned professions, they determined to give him a collegiate education; and placed him under the tuition of the Rev. Mr. Rust, of Stratham. He was there prepared for admission into Harvard College, where he was graduated in 1752. He then applied himself to the study of theology, with an intention to qualify himself for the gospel ministry. Having made some progress in his studies, he was licensed by the association and preached a short time. He was induced to enter on this profession, more to gratify the wishes of his parents than to follow his own inclinations, and he soon relinquished it for the practice of physic, which was more congenial with the natural bent of his mind. He pursued his medical studies under the direction of Doctor Clement Jackson, who was then at the head of the profession here. The medical student at that time, labored under many disadvantages, which he would not at present experience. By assiduous attention to his books, with the benefit of seeing Dr. Jackson's extensive practice, Doctor Brackett laid the best foundation for knowledge in the profession, his opportunities afforded. He had a taste for literature, particularly for those branches which led to the examination of the works of nature Having completed his term with Doctor Jackson, he commenced business in this town, and soon obtained the reputation of a skillful and successful practitioner. In 1783 the Massachusetts Medical Society elected him an honorary member, "and in 1791, he was complimented by his Alma Mater, with a medical doctorate." When the New Hampshire Medical Society was organized in 1791, he was elected the first Vice President, and in 1793, succeeded Governor Bartlett as President of the society. He continued in that office until 1799, when his declining health obliged him to resign. He had been a zealous promoter, and an active member of this institution. The benefit arising from the regular meetings of members, and their reciprocal communications of their personal experience in extraordinary cases was very evident, as it would be the means of diffusing their knowledge more extensively. On the first formation of the society, it was intended to establish a medical library, and Doctor Brackett laid the foundation of it, by presenting them one hundred and forty-three volumes of valuable books in that branch of science. When he declined a re-election to the presidency, the society made their "respectful acknowledgments to him for his diligent and friendly attention to its interests, and for his liberal donation to it." "His profession, in which he shone with eminence, was his peculiar delight, as the native bias of his soul, led him to the relief of those wants and distresses, which it continually presented to his view. To increase his knowledge and usefulness in it, his reading, which was uncommonly extensive, his observations, which were accurate, and his reflections, which were judicious, were principally directed. In medicine his motto was, Imitate Nature. He was extremely attentive to his patients, and spared no pains to investigate the cause and the nature of their maladies, and to afford relief. While a happy general success attended his professional ministration, his tenderness and sympathy with the sons and daughters of disease and distress, were striking traits in his character, and greatly endear his memory."

Doctor Brackett had a great taste for natural history, and botany, and was very desirous that a professorship in those branches of philosophy should be established at the University of Cambridge. A short time before his decease he requested his amiable consort, who always made his wishes the rule of her conduct, to convey certain property, worth about fifteen hundred dollars, when she should no longer need the use of it, to the corporation of Harvard College, for the above purpose.

Doctor Brackett was appointed Judge of the Maritime Court for this State, at the beginning of the revolutionary war, and held the office until the duties of it were transferred to the District Court, after the adoption of the Federal Constitution. His health was visibly on the decline, and his constitution gradually decaying for a considerable time before his decease. He resolved at length, to try the efficacy of the Saratoga waters, and visited that place the latter end of June. But finding his disorder rapidly increasing, and that he must soon sink under it, he returned home the 9th of July, 1802, and departed this life on Saturday the 17th of the same month. His remains were interred on the Monday following, "and the tears of the widow and the orphan watered his grave."

He was of a mild and placid disposition, social and unaffected in his manners; benevolence was a prominent trait in his character, and philanthropy always regulated every movement of his soul.—Adams.

☞ A German named Flach, who had been experimenting at Valparaiso with a submarine torpedo boat, which he had several times successfully sunk and raised in four fathoms of water, got a party of friends on board on the 3d of May, and started out into the harbor to make another trial. He went out some distance, and sunk his boat in thirty fathoms of water. No anxiety was felt about the expedition for some time, as Flach said he could remain under water easily for six or seven hours. After that period, however, as the boat did not reappear, anxiety was awakened; but as Flach was so confident in the success of his experiments that he would not allow any buoy or rope to be attached to the boat before going down, no search could be made for him with any certainty of success. Every effort, however, was made to find them, by divers and otherwise, but no traces were had until the 8th, when a diver discovered the boat, but at such a depth as to render it impossible for him to make a rope fast to it. At last accounts the boat had not been raised. The victims of this unfortunate disaster were ten in number, most of whom leave families.

— A Florida paper remarks that whatever may be the condition of the colored population in other Southern States, it has yet to record the first death from suffering in that State. There every man has enough to do and can get plenty to eat and drink.

— The Senate thinks railroad and steamboat companies—as well as gas—ought to have their taxes paid by the traveling public. If the principle is a good one, it ought to be extended. By all means let us have everybody's taxes paid by everybody else, and then see how much better off we should be.—Tribune.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

Is a concentrated extract of the choice root, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effectual antidote for diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. Such a remedy is surely wanted by those who suffer from strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove, as this has, of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found in the following complaints:—

Scrofula, Scrofulous Swellings and Sores, Skin Diseases, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Eruptions, St Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ring Worm, &c.

Syphilis or Venerial Disease is expelled from the system by the prolonged use of this SARSAPARILLA, and the patient is left in comparative health.

Female Diseases are caused by Scrofula in the blood, and are often cured by this EXTRACT OF SARSAPARILLA.

Do not discard this invaluable medicine, because you have been imposed upon by something pretending to be Sarsaparilla, when it was not. When you have used AYER's—then, and not till then, will you know the virtues of Sarsaparilla. For minute particulars of the diseases it cures, we refer you to Ayer's American Almanac, which the agent below named will furnish gratis to all who call for it.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS, for the cure of Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Dysentery, Foul Stomach, Headache, Piles, Rheumatism, Heartburn arising from Disorded Stomach, Pain or Morbid Inaction of the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Worms, Gout, Neuralgia, and for a Dinner Pill.

They are sugar-coated, so that the most sensitive can take them pleasantly, and they are the best Aperient in the world for all the purposes of a family physic.

Prepared by J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass, and sold by all Druggists and Dealers in Medicine everywhere.

REASONS WHY THE

AMERICAN WATCH,

MADE AT WALTHAM, MASS:

IS THE BEST.

It is made on the best principle. Its frame is composed of SOLID PLATES. NO jar can interfere with the harmony of its working and no sudden shock can damage its machinery. Every piece is made and finished by machinery (itself famous for its novelty, as well as for its effectiveness) and is therefore properly made. The watch is what all mechanism should be—ACCURATE, SIMPLE, STRONG AND ECONOMICAL. Except some high grades, too costly for general use, foreign watches are chiefly made by women and boys. Such watches are composed of several hundred pieces, screwed and riveted together, and require constant repairs to keep them in any kind of order. All persons who have carried "uncres," "lepines," and "English Patent Levers," are perfectly well aware of the truth of this statement.

At the beginning of our enterprise, more than ten years ago, it was our first object to make a thoroughly good low-priced watch for the million, to take the place of these foreign impositions—the refuse of foreign factories—which were entirely unsuitable at home and perfectly worthless everywhere.

How well we have accomplished this may be understood from the fact, that after so many years of public trial, we now make MORE THAN HALF OF ALL THE WATCHES SOLD IN THE UNITED STATES, and that no others have ever given such universal satisfaction. While this department of our business is continued with increased facilities for perfect work, we are at present engaged in the manufacture of watches of the very HIGHEST GRADE KNOWN TO CHRONOMETRY, unequalled by anything hitherto made by ourselves, and unsurpassed by anything made in the world. For this purpose we have the amplest facilities. We have erected an addition to our main buildings expressly for this branch of our business, and have filled it with the best workmen in our service. New machines and appliances have been constructed, which perform their work with the consummate delicacy and exactness. The choicest and most approved materials only are used, and we challenge comparison between this grade of our work and the finest imported chronometers. We do not pretend to sell our watches for less money than foreign watches, but we do assert without fear of contradiction that for the same money our product is incomparably superior. All our watches, of whatever grade, are fully warranted and this warrantee is good at all times against us or our agents in all parts of the world.

CAUTION.—The public are cautioned to buy only of respectable dealers. All persons selling counterfeits will be prosecuted.

A Single Box of BRANDRETH'S PILLS contains more vegetable extractive matter than twenty boxes of any pills in the world besides; fifty-five hundred physicians use them in their practice to the exclusion of other purgatives. The first letter of their value is yet scarcely appreciated. When they are better known, sudden death and continued sickness will be the past. Let those who know them speak out in their favor. It is a duty which will save life.

Our race arosubject to a redundancy of vitiated bile at this season, and it is as dangerous as it is prevalent; but Brandreth's Pills afford an invaluable and efficient protection. By their occasional use we prevent the collection of those impurities which, when in sufficient quantities, cause so much danger to the body's health. They soon cure Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, Pain in the Head, Heartburn, Pain in the Breast-bone, Sudden Faintness and Costiveness. Reported for the Chronicle.

IN BOARD OF ALDERMEN, Thursday evening a message was received that the Council had refused to concur in the amendment to the bill raising the pay of firemen, which provides that any fireman found intoxicated while on duty shall be discharged and forfeit six months pay. [All such certainly ought to be discharged, but probably their pay could not, as it certainly should not, be forfeited.—Eds. Chron.]

A motion that the Board of Aldermen recede from the amendment was carried, Yeas, the Mayor, Ald. Hodgdon, Henderson, Martin and Ham, 5; Nays, Ald. Davis, Wilson, Foster and Ayers, 4.

Petition of J. M. Edmonds and others, for a public highway and bridge, from the northerly end of Cabot street, across the North Mill Pond to the house of Phineas D. Hoyt on Mystic street, was referred to Com. on Streets, to report.

The Committee on Claims were requested to report an ordinance fixing the fees of Health Officers in cases of quarantine.

Petition of C. W. Carter, for leave to erect a refreshment stand at the north corner of Brick Market on 4th of July, was granted.

The Com. on City Lands and Buildings reported that they had visited the Academy and that it can be bought for $8,000. The report was recommitted to them, to report probable cost of alterations of building; also the number of scholars it will accommodate when altered.

Elias Burns resigned the office of watchman, constable and police officer, from Ward One, and Thomas E. Rand was elected to fill the vacancy. Thomas P. Waldron, Isaac Wallace and Charles W. Shannon were appointed supernumerary watchmen.

The Com. on School Houses were directed to obtain plans and estimates for alterations of the Cabot street, Hanover street and State street school houses, and report to the Board.

The following preamble and resolution were passed:

Whereas, By order of the Hon. Secretary of War, the troops garrisoning Fort Constitution have been removed, and, whereas, it is impossible to enforce the quarantine regulations of this port without a sufficient garrison at that post; therefore,

Resolved, That His Excellency the Governor be requested to use all the influence in his power to have a sufficient garrison stationed at said post.

For the Chronicle.

A TOTAL ECLIPSE.—The "ostentatious orb of day" is expected to be totally eclipsed on the morning of the Fourth. Astronomers have not predicted this, but the astute in another "skience" declare it is strictly true. This prognostication of an extraordinary phenomenon appears to be based upon the unequaled projected pageant of the Redoubtable Irregulars, C. S. A., (Confounded Strange Antiques,) who will, in spite of wind and weather, exhibit their astounding artificial development on the morning of the aforesaid day. The Crashing Calithumpians, Orpheus Apollo Beethoven, Jr., Esq., Leader, will furnish the music, which will assuredly be of the first order—reckoning from the bottom. The Freedmen's Bureau will follow, minus the drawers, on account of the Hadean heat of the hour. A superlatively magnificent turnout (in which "white folks" will be turned out,) will come next, representing the distressingly engrossing subject of Negro Equality in all its lights and shades, especially the shades. An excruciatingly funny Coach, patterned after those that ran between Joppa and Jehosaphat before Watts, Hudson and Stevenson got their eyes open, will modestly appear in the Third Division as an Addition. The More-ice & Buckler Negro Minstrel Troupe, which is guaranteed to cure the cholera in its most desperate stage, will exhibit marvellously open countenances during the display. It is expected that a hurdle race will come off when the most spectators come on, between a buggy and sulky—the nag being sulky and the vehicle buggy. A shockingly elegant cavalcade will bring up the rear on its hind legs, in which many a mettlesome steed and snorting war horse will appear, upon which revolutionary patriots and rampant Fenians have fleetly hobbled to the sulphury conflict. $25,000 in cash prizes will be awarded to those who most happily succeed in frightening unarmed policemen and unprotected veterans. Those who get the prizes will be obliged to make a slight discount for cash on delivery, viz, $24,975. Tremendously telling speeches will follow, free of charge, after which the whole procession will vanish in a great cloud of fire and smoke, and the place that knew them shall know them no more forever. Front seats reserved for those who usually yield up their seats in the cars to the ladies. The whole affair will be the most appalling, brilliant and blinding ever witnessed,—and the judicious public will of course get their smoked glass in readiness.

SAUL.

☞ The alarm of fire on Sunday afternoon was caused by the burning of the waste house of the Portsmouth Steam Mill, on Tanner street. Partially insured.

☞ We put high walls around our criminals, to prevent the bad influence of contact with them; but every glimpse of the beautiful exerts a power for good. An exchange says:

Unmistakably in the greatest bad taste of anything, is it to have a beautiful garden and build around it a fence ten feet high, to shut out from view God's glorious work in Nature.

☞ An adjourned meeting of the ladies will be held at the City Rooms at 5 o'clock this afternoon.

GOLD, Saturday, 153 1-4. Sent to Europe, $1,187,000.

☞ We are indebted to D. D. Ranlett, New Hampshire State Auditor, for his Report for the past year. It contains 64 pages, and suggests a great deal of work, which he has the credit of doing well.

Also to State Treasurer Peter Sanborn, for his Report for the past year—which Mr. Ranlett says, and we have no doubt, is all right. And, thanks largely to Governor Smyth, our State finances are much improved since last year.

Also to the Commissioners, for their Report upon the War Expenditures of the Towns and Cities in New Hampshire.—Three valuable and interesting State documents.

Perry's Moth and Freckle Lotion.
☞ Chlossma, or Mothpatch, (also called Liver-spot,) and Lentigo, or Freckles, are often very annoying, particularly to ladies of light complexion, for the discolored spots show more plainly on the face of a blonde than of a brunette; but they greatly mar the beauty of either and any preparation that will effectually remove them, without injuring the texture or color of the skin, is certainly a desideratum. DR. B. C. PERRY, who has made diseases of the skin a speciality, has discovered a remedy for these discolorations, which is at once prompt, infallible and harmless.

Prepared by B. C. PERRY, Dermatologist, No. 49 Bond Street, New York, and for sale by all druggists; price $2 per bottle. Call for

WHICH IS THE
Leading Life Insurance Comp'y
IN THE UNITED STATES?
Which is the Safest and the Cheapest?

The following figures are from the later Reports of the New York Insurance Commissioner, showing the "amount of business" of the
LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,
to be the largest, the "expenses of management" the smallest, the "ratio of Assets to Liabilities," or the security furnished to its members, the largest of any life institution in the country.

Premiums received in 1864.....$2,089,072
" " " " 1865.....3,029,087
Ratio of expenses to premiums rec'd in '64...12.36
" " " " " " '65...19.16
Ratio of assets to liabilities, Jan. 1, 1865....151.85

The inevitable conclusion from these official acts, is that the MUTUAL BENEFIT LIFE Insurance Company
IS THE BEST AND THE CHEAPEST.

Because its NET ASSETS are proportionably LARGER than those of any other Life Insurance Company in the United States.

Because its "Managing Expenses" are LESS, and it has a LARGER SURPLUS to divide among its members than any Company in the United States.

QUERY. Will some one inform the public of that mysterious process by which a Company with a surplus proportionably much less, and expenses very much larger than another, can yet divide more to its members, and insure them at less cost? How is it done? Where does the money come from?

Every intelligent man will see at once that it cannot be done. Yet we have Agents among us that make this their boast.

Any one disposed or intending to insure can be furnished with the requisite information by applying to HENRY A. YEATON, Agent.

From the Portsmouth Journal

SPLENDID PLEASURE YACHT.—"A thing of beauty is a joy forever." The pleasure yacht Alice, which has been laying at Rollins' wharf the past week is one of the most elegant crafts of the kind which ever originated in this city. She is just completed without regard to cost, which has been about $15,000, for T.E. Appleton, Esq. of Boston, for a fast sailor and a splendidly furnished yacht.

The designer and builder is Mr. John F. Lowsend of this city, under whose supervision the entire finishing and furnishing has been done. She carries over five hundred yards of canvas, is sloop-rigged, has a splendid "run" and is calculated to compete with any other yacht in sailing qualities. Her keel is 58 ft, and her beam 18 ft. Her main boom is 60 ft. in length, and the elevation of the gaff 47 ft. at the mast. To sustain this amount of sail she is heavily ballasted with cast iron and stone, and appears to be as staunch a little craft as ever Jack set foot upon. Her cabin is a beautiful specimen of artistic arrangement and adorning. In the snug little space which is allowed, there are comfortably arranged and most completely hidden from view four well ventilated bunks, besides which are three commodious state rooms, a pantry, a large refrigerator, &c. giving ample accommodation, and table room for seven in the cabin, with arrangements for a crew of four in the forecastle. The cabin is finished in chestnut wood with gilt trimmings, the credit of which is due to Mr. James W. Lefavour. The upholstry is in red silk plush, giving a superb richness to the furniture of the cabin. It was upholstered throughout by Mr. Hiram C. Locke. The pantry is a snug closet in the cabin, liberally supplied with crockery and glass by Mr. Albert Stavers. We understand that she is to be supplied with a complete silver service.

The appearance of the yacht is certainly creditable to Portsmouth, and if she sails as well as she looks, we have no doubt that the reputation of Mr. Townsend will be widely extended.

We understand the Alice was only four hours in going from the Portsmouth to the Boston lights.

The California, Nevada and Oregon members of Congress received in pay and mileage, from $16,000 to $18,000 for each Congress of two years, while very many of the Atlantic members of the Middle States get but a few hundred dollars (mileage) over the regular salary of $3000 a year. The mileage established seventy or eighty years ago, when most of the members had to go on horseback, or travel in their own vehicles, was fixed at six dollars (or a day's wages,) for every twenty miles. The per diem compensation is now changed to the annual salary; but the mileage is not changed. Hence the six dollars for every twenty miles of travel in cars, or steamboats, from California and Oregon, counts up beautifully via Panama. It is now proposed better to equalize the compensation, by increasing the yearly pay of all, and allowing only the actual expenses of travel. As the majority will be benefitted by such a change, it will most probably be effected. By investigation it has been found, and the fraud exposed, that a Committee of Congress to report as to the mileage allowance of each member, added a large per cent. to all distances, giving from $100 to several thousands more than the members claimed! This, though late, is now exposed by several members!

NATIONAL BANKRUPT LAW.—The first attempt this session to pass such a law, failed in the House of Representatives; but since, a new bill with some of the objectionable provisions erased, and others changed, has found favor, and it only remains for the action of the Senate. A strong manifestation of the Chamber of Commerce in New York has been presented in favor, and the probability is it will pass. It has been remarked that the Creditor interest calls for a law, while the Debtor interest opposes—that is, the Western interest, debtors, is more generally opposed; while the creditor believes it to be for his interest, as well as that of unfortunate debtors, that the latter should be relieved, and so enabled to start anew in business. The bill relieves no dishonest debtor.

THE ATLANTIC CABLE.—At the last accounts from England, nearly a thousand miles of the new Atlantic cable had been stowed on the Great Eastern. About sixty miles per day were stowed away, the work proceeding day and night. It was found that the Great Eastern will not be able to take all the necessary cable, two thousand seven hundred miles, on board. The screw steamer Medway, consequently, has been chartered to take about five hundred miles of the old cable from the Great Eastern. Another steamer, the Albany, is also engaged to assist the enterprise, and the British Government has again granted the services of the war steamer Terrible, to accompany the expedition. Each of the three steamers is to be furnished with grappling apparatus, so that the old cable may be grappled at points a mile apart to break the strain and give greater security. The Great Eastern will only partially coal at Sheerness, owing to her great draft of water. She is expected to quit the harbor June 28, and start a day or two after for Bearhaven, Ireland, where she will complete coaling, and proceed to lay the cable.

FASTEST TIME ON RECORD.—Despatches just received here by Thomas C. Durant, Vice President of the Union Pacific Railroad Company, announce one hundred and five miles of railroad west from Omaha completed, and that on Friday, the 8th instant, one and a half miles of track, and on Saturday the 9th instant, 9,000 feet of track was laid by a single gang of men. This is the fastest track laying on record, and allowing twelve working hours, would be at the rate of a bar of iron laid and spiked complete each minute of time. At this rate the country may look for a railroad to California at an early day.—New York Paper.

Lieut. Commander Bradford, U.S. Navy, late Fleet Captain of South Atlantic Blockading Squadron, has presented the New Hampshire Historical Society a 15 inch shell, fired at Fort Sumter by a monitor, and other mementoes of the siege of Charleston. The shell failed to explode, and was recovered from the ruins after the surrender.

Professor Agassiz, by accounts from Rio Janeiro, had arrived in that city, from his scientific exploration up the Amazon, and was preparing to leave for home. The tour has been successful and satisfactory. The Emperor of Brazil has given him every facility throughout, and compliments him with a beautiful collection of fishes of the Paraguay and Parana rivers, where he had himself been conducting or looking into affairs connected with his war in the former country.

ILLINOIS.—The Chicago Tribune boasts that Illinois is bigger than New England and New Jersey, Delaware and Maryland besides, those States having an area of 54,836 square miles, while the Sucker State makes a spread of 55,405 square miles. The tillable land of Illinois is more than treble that of all the States mentioned, according to official statistics. In 1810 the State was inhabited chiefly by Indians and French traders. It now has a population of over two millions. It is gaining more rapidly in this respect than any other State. In eighteen years over 3200 miles of railway have been built. The State is well supplied with water courses and water power for manufactories, while coal mines are abundant and found over three-fourths of its area. Another important fact is thus touched upon:

Out of 35,400,000 acres of land, Illinois contains 33,000,000 acres of tillable ground. Only one-seventh of this has yet been touched by the plow, yet this one seventh has sustained our own population of 2,148,178, and furnished a surplus of food for exportation, enough no doubt to sustain 2,000,000 more. Now, if one-seventh of our State, with its imperfect culture, furnishes food for 4,000,000 of people, cannot the whole State sustain a population of 25,000,000?

— About 160 miles of the new Atlantic cable have been already made; and when all the machinery is in operation, the manufacture is expected to proceed at the rate of 100 miles per week.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth N. H.

TUESDAY, JUNE 26, 1866.

☞ At Mobile, the shackling of Jeff. Davis, as described by Surgeon Craven, was published in the Register and causes indignation. The paper says—The outrage was committed upon the eight millions of people whom he professed to regard as brothers. The iron entered into their souls.

[Ah! plantation manners don't suit, when the planter gets into the irons! Did it never occur to these people that there is some truth in the maxim laid down by the Teacher sent from God, "With what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again,"—and is there not some poetic justice in shackling the representative man of a Great Empire which was designed to fasten the shackles on thousands of men from generation to generation.

CONGRESS.—In the House on the 22d, a substitute for the Senate bill to erect an army at Rock Island, Ill., was passed. A bill was reported adverse to that granting pensions to soldiers of 1812. The Indian appropriation bill and the bill to revise and consolidate the statutes were passed.

☞ Gov. Low of California has appointed Steve Fenard of Nevada Aide-de-Camp on the Staff of the Commander-in-Chief, with the rank of Lieut. Colonel, in consideration of "meritorious services" in the field. This is the hero who, single-handed, followed to their den in the mountains and killed the three express robbers and recovered the money, over $3000.

GOLD, Monday, 152 1-2.

— Live within your means, if you would have means within which to live.

— Galveston and Houston, Texas, have been supplied with steam fire engines.

— Six deaths from cholera have occurred in Elizabeth, N. J.

— Charlestown, Mass., has free public baths, by authority of her city government.

— Deaths from yellow fever being recently reported in New Orleans, a post mortem examination proved the report untrue.

— The train captured near Camargo by the Mexican Liberalists consisted of 268 wagons, valued at $3,000,000

— Mr. Edward Bush, of the firm of Bent & Bush, Boston, was drowned on Thursday night in Boston harbor.

— Rev. Leonard Bacon, D. D., has accepted the professorship of Didactic Theology in Yale College.

— Daniel Webster used to say that the word "would," in Rufus Choate's handwriting, resembled a small gridiron struck by lightning.

— An enthusiast, writing 'neath the classic shades of Harvard, says that he would rather live in the pleasant city of Cambridge than die anywhere else.

— The Governor of Alabama has gone to St. Louis and Chicago to purchase corn to supply the people of the State with food till the harvest is gathered.

— Steamer Cortes arrived in Boston on Friday from Havana, having made the run in five days and seventeen hours—the quickest trip between the two points on record.

— The New York Herald's St. Domingo correspondence says the revolution has entirely succeeded, and President Baez has gone to St. Thomas, where he arrived on the 12th.

— A Mr. Atheson of West Troy, while digging a well a few days since, found a wooden box containing over $3000, and a lot of silver spoons. The box fell to pieces on being taken out.

— The Houston Telegraph, in a long article on the cultivation of cotton by white labor, says that the Germans in Texas have solved one problem as far as that State is concerned, which is that cotton can be successfully grown by white men.

— The princes of the royal family of Prussia have departed for their various commands in the Prussian army. The princes of the House of Hapsburg have also gone to their respective stations. So the two royal families will meet each other on the battlefield.

— A bear escaped from his fastenings in Webster park, Worcester, on Friday, and caused no little consternation by his proceedings in Webster square, looking in at back doors of houses and prowling about the yards. He was finally driven into the brook and captured.

— Much excitement is reported to have been caused in the Canadian Parliament by a speech of Mr. Chambers, who declared that it was impossible for Canada to support troops enough to defend herself against the United States. It was those millions of people against thirty-five millions. He also called for an investigation into the conduct of some of the commanders of the Provincial troops in the recent trouble, and denounced the management of the volunteers as a blunder.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— The President has approved a bill which requires Secretary of the Treasury to pay to the Amoskeag Manufacturing Company, Manchester, N. H., $1650 for three regimental cook wagons ordered early in the war.

—— A communication has been received from the War Department, directing that the office of the Acting Assistant Provost Marshal General in Concord be kept open until July 31, instead of closing June 30, as heretofore ordered.

—— Wm. W. French of Enfield has shipped 200 barrels (16,000 dozen) of eggs to market the present year.——True W. Heath, one of the oldest, if not the oldest member of the Shaker Society in Enfield, died the 15th inst., at the age of 87. He has been connected with this society since 1794, and for 47 years was Trustee of the Society. —— Enfield manufacturers and wool dealers are buying wool quite freely for 50c per lb., which seems to be the ruling price. Which items we glean from the Lebanon Free Press.

—— Among the list of patents issued June 19, are the following to parties in this State:

Alanson Bingham of Derry, for improved chair seat.

David Gilson of Nashua, for improvement in artificial legs.

Welcome Jenckes of Manchester, for improvement in cleaners for ring traveler, spinning machines.

C. M. Lufkin of Claremont, for improvement in plows.

James L. Wiggin of South Newmarket, for improvement in nail plate feeders.

—— On Friday, at Concord, John H. Vallet, a young man 18 years of age, was arraigned before United States Commissioner Fowler, upon a charge of embezzling and destroying letters containing money in May last, while in charge of the Post Office at Nelson. He plead guilty and was ordered to recognize in $500 for appearance at the Circuit Court at Exeter on the 8th of October. Vallet is from Chelsea, Mass., and was a soldier in the late war, where he won the confidence of his fellow-soldiers. He came to Nelson well recommended, and the postmaster had entire confidence in his integrity. But he fell into temptation, and became a thief.

HOMEWARD BOUND—Destitution and relief.—On the steamer Old Colony, from New York to Newport, Saturday evening, there was a lady passenger who attracted attention. She was en route to Fall River, her native place. Her husband died in Pittsbug, Pa., nine months since, and she was journeying home. With her were ten of her children, boys and girls, in age from one to sixteen years. They were all bright, intelligent and prepossessing in appearance, and their demeanor evidenced that their manners had been taught by some one competent to instruct. The only property she possessed was the scanty wardrobe worn by herself and children. She started from Pittsburg to walk home, but a kindly disposed stranger told her to make application to a railroad company, which furnished her free transportation to Philadelphia. Arriving there at midnight Friday the party took the New York cars. The first conductor passed them free as far as he went, but a second (in New Jersey) made her pay, and thus deprived her of nearly every cent she possessed. She arrived on board the Old Colony steamer destitute, and at the first opportunity, Capt. Simmons started a collection among the passengers, and in a few moments realized a handsome sum—enough to relieve immediate and pressing wants—and also gave the party the best entertainment and accommodations the boat afforded. The family reached Fall River Sunday morning.

☞ In New York City, on Friday, one hundred and thirty liquor dealers were arrested for being unlicensed.

Several injunctions against the Excise board in favor of the liquor dealers were granted by Judge McCunn.

Two men were seriously burned by an explosion of gas in a room where there was a leak in the pipes, into which they took a lighted lamp.

Paul McElrath took Paris green by mistake for medicine and died.

A fire in the engine-room of Steinway's piano manufactory did $5000 worth of damage.

Twelve hundred dogs were slaughtered during the last week.

On Friday night James Brennan was shot dead in a house on Centre street, while commencing a row.

DEATH UNDER SUSPICIOUS CIRCUMSTANCES.—Mr Robert S. Goodall, formerly of this town, who served three years in the army, was recently found dead in the night at Fortress Monroe, where he was doing watch duty, under circumstances that lead to the belief that he had been foully dealt with. We learn that the affair will be investigated by Gen. Miles. His body will not be brought home till fall.—Fitchburg Reveille.

Local.

SCAN. MAG.—In our duty as local reporter we have frequently to notice cases which we should prefer to leave unmentioned, were it not that thousand-tongued rumor is apt to magnify such things until they retain scarce a semblance of truth.

Woodbury Curtis, a soap boiler at the West End, on the 11th instant ran away with Susan Edgerly, his wife's sister. Immediately after this occurrence Mrs. Curtis and her relatives informed Marshal Kent of the circumstance, and desired him to apprehend the guilty parties. Mr. K. ascertained that the woman had on the day named taken the morning train for the East, without her guilty companion; and also that Curtis had left the city in a team for Kittery, at which point he rejoined the woman.

They were traced to the City Hotel, Portland, where the register bore the entry "W. Curtis and wife," and where they passed for married persons. Thence they were followed to Brunswick, Me., and there was found a hack-driver who had driven them to a private boarding-house by request. Inquiry at the house brought information that the parties sought had left for parts unknown two days before. The pursuit was continued and the happy pair found boarding at a farm-house in Topsham, Me. They were both brought to this city on Saturday last, and on Monday the faithless husband settled the matter by paying his wife her proportion of the property and costs.

One would suppose that the parties would have shunned the light of day after this episode, but we are informed that since his return here Curtis and his "adopted" have paraded the streets in a most indelicate manner. Mrs. Curtis is said to be an estimable woman, and has the sympathy of many friends.

POLICE COURT, June 25.—W. H. Miller, drunk, fined $6.86. Sent to the Almshouse.

David Welch, who keeps the Plains House—a continued case for violation of Sunday ordinance: a nol. pros. entered—the parties having quit the traffic.

John H. Ferguson, for violation of Sidewalk ordinance—a continued case: nol. pros. entered.

Thomas Connor, a boy arrested some time since for larceny of bricks: nol. pros. entered.

A little lame boy sixteen years of age, for attempting to commit a rape on a little girl five years old, waived examination, and was placed under three hundred dollars bonds to appear before the Grand Jury in October.

☞ Not only does our exhibition in all respects promise to be a grand one on the coming "Fourth," but from the number of military and fire companies from abroad that have signified their intention of participating in our procession, we are led to conclude that our visitors alone would form an imposing array. We are informed that one company from Nashua, two from Manchester, five from Newburyport, and three military companies and a large portion of the Fire Department from Dover, have accepted the invitation to join in the "turnout."

☞ We understand that one or more Catholic schools are soon to be established in our city, as soon as sites can be selected for the location of the buildings. The Catholics desire to have their children educated according to their own ideas, and will eventually claim to have their share of the public school fund expended under their own direction for this purpose.

EARLY FRUITS.—For a nice mess of the first green peas of the season raised in this vicinity—well filled-out, tender and succulent—we are indebted to Mr. C. T. Lane of Candia, Route Agent on the Concord Road.

The same gentleman also furnishes us a handful of large strawberries, ripened on his premises. We understand that the products of his strawberry-beds have been engaged for the season by Messrs. Varney & Co., of this city.

☞ Anna E Dickinson has fulfilled her lecturing engagements for the season, and is now at her home in Philadelphia. She has since the opening of the lecture season, last autumn, given one hundred and fifty-three lectures and travelled nineteen thousand miles. She will spend the summer at Rye Beach.

AN ENEMY IN YOUR MOUTH.—Do not put an enemy in your mouth to steal away your teeth. Beware of destructive tooth washes and tooth powders, many of which are base imitations of Sozodont. Insure a life lease of sound teeth and fragrant breath, by adopting the fragrant SOZODONT. 22

— Having frequently expressed our opinion in these columns of the superior qualities of the J. Monroe Taylor Gold Medal Soap over any and all others in the market, it appears unnecessary to occupy space to reaffirm that opinion. No eulogy can now add to its reputation, and no disparagement can detract from its merits. The secret of the universal favor which this Soap receives, lies in its invariable purity and excellence. It is one of those articles that returns to the consumer many times the cost. 103

HYGIENIC WINE!

HAS FOR ITS BASE

One of the Finest of Pure Wines.

A WINE grown on the sunny slopes of Spain—the genuine juice of the Grape in all its purity, as bestowed upon us by the beneficent GIVER, and such as is, alone, consistent with Christian teaching—and intoxicating in the least—will supply a want greatly felt in this country.

Such is HYGIENIC WINE,

A Bitter Aromatic.

It is conscientiously recommended to LADIES as a tonic which will soothe the nerves, renew the blood, and gently stimulate and invigorate the system.

☞ All persons of sedate habits—ministers, lawyers, and professional men, possessing constitutions more delicate than others of less confining labors—those who expend a great deal of vitality in brain work—will at once acknowledge the superiority of this restorative; for while it acts as a nervine, imparting a genial glow to the blood, it leaves behind none of the baneful influences of Alcholic preparations.

It stands unrivalled as a Tonic of the Digestive Organs, thereby creating a healthy appetite, and we warrant that upon trial HYGIENIC WINE will be found to be the finest, most delicious, and healthful Tonic known. Ask for it.

Address orders for this superior article to

REED, CUTLER & CO.,
Boston,
AGENTS FOR NEW ENGLAND.

N. B.—Hygienic Wine is an imported Tonic; has the approval of the "IMPERIAL SCHOOL OF MEDICINE of PARIS," and was tested by the Committee on Chemistry of the American Medical Association, which assembled in Baltimore May 1st, 1866, and endorsed by 50 prominent members with their signatures.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

Is a concentrated extract of the choice root, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effectual antidote for diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. Such a remedy is surely wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove, as this has, of immense service to this large portion of our afflicted fellow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found in the following complaints:—

Scrofula, Scrofulous Swellings and Sores, Skin Diseases, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Eruptions, St Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ring Worm, &c.

Syphilis or Venereal Disease is expelled from the system by the prolonged use of this SARSAPARILLA, and the patient is left in comparative health.

Female Diseases are caused by Scrofula in the blood, and are often cured by this EXTRACT OF SARSAPARILLA.

Do not discard this invaluable medicine, because you have been imposed upon by something pretending to be Sarsaparilla, when it was not. When you have used AYER'S—then, and not till then, will you know the virtues of Sarsaparilla. For minute particulars of the diseases it cures, we refer you to Ayers American Almanac, which the agent below named will furnish gratis to all who call for it.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS, for the cure of Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Dysentery, Foul Stomach, Headache, Piles, Rheumatism, Heartburn arising from Disordered Stomach, Pain or Morbid Inaction of the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Worms, Gout, Neuralgia, and for a Dinner Pill.

They are sugar-coated, so that the most sensitive can take them pleasantly, and they are the best Aperient in the world for all the purposes of a family physic.

REASONS WHY THE

AMERICAN WATCH,

MADE AT WALTHAM, MASS.

IS THE BEST.

It is made on the best principle. Its frame is composed of SOLID PLATES. NO jar can interfere with the harmony of its working and no sudden shock can damage its machinery. Every piece is made and finished by machinery (itself famous for its novelty, as well as for its effectiveness) and is therefore properly made. The watch is what all mechanism should be—ACCURATE, SIMPLE, STRONG AND ECONOMICAL. Except some high grades, too costly for general use, foreign watches are chiefly made by women and boys. Such watches are composed of several hundred pieces, screwed and riveted together, and require constant repairs to keep them in any kind of order. All persons who have carried "ancres," "lepines," and "English Patent Levers," are perfectly well aware of the truth of this statement.

At the beginning of our enterprise, more than ten years ago, it was our first object to make a thoroughly good low-priced watch for the million, to take the place of these foreign impositions—the refuse of foreign factories—which were entirely unsaleable at home and perfectly worthless everywhere.

How well we have accomplished this may be understood from the fact, that after so many years of public trial, we now make MORE THAN HALF OF ALL THE WATCHES SOLD IN THE UNITED STATES, and that no others have ever given such universal satisfaction. While this department of our business is continued with increased facilities for perfect work, we are at present engaged in the manufacture of watches of the very HIGHEST GRADE KNOWN TO CHRONOMETRY, unequalled by anything hitherto made by ourselves, and unsurpassed by anything made in the world. For this purpose we have the amplest facilities. We have erected an addition to our main buildings expressly for this branch of our business, and have filled it with the best workmen in our service. New machines and appliances have been constructed, which perform their work with consummate delicacy and exactness. The choicest and most approved materials only are used, and we challenge comparison between this grade of our work and the finest imported chronometers. We do not pretend to sell our watches for less money than foreign watches, but we do assert without fear of contradiction that for the same money our product is incomparably superior. All our watches, of whatever grade, are fully warranted and this warrantee is good at all times against us or our agents in all parts of the world.

CAUTION.—The public are cautioned to buy only of respectable dealers. All persons selling counterfeits will be prosecuted.

A Single Box of BRANDRETH'S PILLS contains more vegetable extractive matter than twenty boxes of any pills in the world besides; fifty-five hundred physicians use them in their practice to the exclusion of other purgatives. The first letter of their value is yet scarcely appreciated. When they are better known, sudden death and continued sickness will be of the past. Let those who know them speak out in their favor. It is a duty which will save life.

Our race are subject to a redundancy of vitiated bile at this season, and it is as dangerous as it is prevalent; but Brandreth's Pills afford an invaluable and efficient protection. By their occasional use we prevent the collection of those impurities which, when in sufficient quantities, cause so much danger to the body's health. They soon cure Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, Pain in the Head, Heartburn, Pain in the Breast-bone, Sudden Faintness and Costiveness. If Fair Weather,
THE FOURTH PUBLIC CONCERT
—BY THE—
PORTSMOUTH CORNET BAND, will be given
ON "THE PARADE,"
ON TUESDAY EVENING, June 26th,
commencing at 8 o'clock.

☞ A correspondent suggests as a public improvement—to move the Court House down to the southwest corner of the lot on which it sets, and place it out of proximity to the stable, and by keeping it up to the present level, give a good high schoolroom below, much better than now. Or the whole might be made into a schoolhouse, and arrangements made to hold our Police Court in the U. S. Court Room. The whole (he thinks) might be done for one-quarter of what it will cost to buy a lot and build a new house; and by so doing, the street be opened to the pond, giving a beautiful prospect.

Now although we should like to see a street opened to the South Pond, and a bridge across it; and this is the place to make it, or below the Universalist Church, or both: still we do not believe in underground schools, among the salt-marsh mosquitos. And our correspondent's suggestion to dig reservoirs for fire engine use, to be filled by rains, has been broached before. To sprinkle streets, salt water is far better.

A PORTSMOUTH BOY.—Lyman B. How, A. M., M. D., Demonstrator of Anatomy at Dartmouth College, Hanover, N. H., and a physician and surgeon at Manchester, has been selected to deliver the lecture on Anatomy and Physiology for 1866, in place of Edmund R. Peaslee, M. D., LL. D., of New York city, Professor of Anatomy and Physiology, who is absent on a tour in Europe. Dr. How is a son of the Rev. Moses How of New Bedford, Mass., and formerly of this city. He stands eminent in his profession.

☞ Our energetic City Marshal came very near "catching a Tartar," in Brunswick, Me., on Friday last. Ever on the lookout for offenders against the dignity of the law, he registered himself as a suppositious personage from Boston. The whole town was in excitement regarding the bank robbery at Bowdoinham, and every stranger regarded with suspicion. The system of espionage was so well kept up upon Marshal Kent, that he was fain to reveal himself to the authorities there, and thus relieve himself of the unpleasant position of being considered one of the very rogues whom it is his duty to endeavor to thwart in their nefarious designs.

☞ A company of infantry has been organized in this city, designated as the "Portsmouth City Guards," officered as follows: Capt. Peter Mitchell, 1st Lieut. James Collins, 2d Lieut. George H. Morrison.

NAVAL.—Among the appointments in the regular navy recently confirmed by the Senate, we notice the following: John A. Bates, Paymaster; Homer C. Blake, Commander; Geo. V. Fox, Secretary of the Navy.

Reported for the Chronicle.

THE FOURTH.—Mons. Denier, of Boston, has been engaged to perform some of his surprising acrobatic feats on Market Square, on the afternoon of the Fourth.

The Portsmouth Philharmonic Society has voted to accept the invitation to furnish the music as a portion of the exercises at the Temple.

Steamer Pioneeer will make a trip from Dover to Portsmouth on the morning of the celebration, and return after the Fireworks.

The aeronauts were in the city on Saturday, for the purpose of completing arrangements for the Balloon Ascension.

Several military and fire companies in Newburyport, Dover, &c., have signified their intention to take part in our celebration.

A number of the Trades are preparing to be represented in the procession, and it is hoped that all our manufacturing establishments, shops, &c., will have teams therein.

The Regatta will be an exciting affair. There is a Committee at the Navy Yard who are working with determined resolution to make this the best regatta ever got up on the Piscataqua. Messrs. C. Rook and C. W. Carter deserve great credit for incepting and furthering this enterprise.

Judging from present indications, there will be this year no Fourth of July celebration in New England, out of Boston, so varied and attractive as the one in Portsmouth.

BURGLARY—Prompt Arrest.—On Sunday afternoon, 24th inst., the saloon of C. W. Kimball, on Daniel street, was entered and robbed of a quantity of money and a pistol. Marshal Kent and Officer Johnson were informed of the facts, and on Monday arrested three young men, named Chas. A. Willey, Wm. Palmer, and Wm. Stratton. The first two named have confessed their guilt, while it seems that Stratton was innocent except in receiving a portion of the plunder.

THE GALAXY for July 1st contains: The Claverings, An American Colony in France, Pharaoh's Horses, Elements of the Art of Poetry, by E. C. Stedman; The Art of Dining, No. IV, by Pierre Blot; &c. Price 25 cents a number; $5 a year. Address W. C. & F. P. Church, 39 Park Row, New York.

☞ The Eclectic Magazine for July begins a new volume. The embellishment is a very fine portrait of John Stuart Mill, while the contents of the letter press embrace a wide range. W. H. Bidwell, publisher, New York.

A MASTERLY MOVEMENT.—The Navy Yard master mechanics are now warrant officers in the U. S. service, and are therefore beyond the influence of partisan politics. Hitherto a master mechanic's time has been chiefly consumed in working to keep himself in place. Now, the trammels of party having been removed, he can devote his energies to the legitimate duties of his position; and the country at large, including the public treasury, will, as well as himself, be the gainer. When his work is completed in one yard, he may be transferred to another,—and in the intervals of slack work, or no work, he will, like other officers, be "waiting orders." The painter no longer needs brushing up at every change. The blacksmith may bolt the timbers of his ship, and have those of his "platform" to others; the plumber can apply his spelter and pewter to mechanical purposes, and cease "soft soldering" members of Congress; and the carpenter, in hewing ship timber, can "cut" politics altogether. There is plain sailing before them all. What is now required of the "master," as with other officers of the Navy, to secure their positions for life, is a faithful discharge of duty, combined with good behaviour. Let them use the tools of their craft, instead of being themselves used as tools, and they will be indeed masters of their positions.—N. Y. Atlas.

— Rev. James Lyman Merrick, who died at South Amherst, Mass., on Monday, 18th, was a missionary in Persia eleven years, from 1834 to 1845, and after his return to this country, was installed pastor of the church at South Amherst in 1849, and was dismissed at his own request in 1864.

DENTISTRY!

—AT—
No. 5 Daniel Street.

Some of the Advantages of Consulting Dr. Stevens:

Patients having Artificial Teeth fitted at this office always have the advantage of a large assortment of A No. 1 Teeth to select from.

They always, if they choose, have the privilege of selecting size and color of tooth to suit themselves.

The patient alone always has the matter of decision as to whether the case is a "fit" or not, as no Set of Teeth is ever considered satisfactory to the proprietor of this office, unless they are entirely so to the patient.

DR. STEVENS never uses articles of an inferior quality (although they plentifully abound in the Profession,) in his business.

Dentistry, medically considered, is a speciality at this office.

Painful Teeth treated and cured.

Ulcerated Teeth treated and saved to a life of usefulness.

Badly decayed and broken Teeth restored to usefulness and beauty.

Charges always reasonable for the quality of work performed, but no Cheap Work (so called) done at this office.

☞ DR. T. F. WEED still remains with DR. STEVENS as Assistant. my28

COMMERCIAL.—The St. Louis Press says: In passing up Biddle street, we listened to the following conversation between two sons of the Emerald Isle:

"I say, Patrick, what do you think of President Johnson?"

To which Patrick replied:

"Faith, and he is a good merchant."

"How so?" asked the first Irishman.

"Faith, and he jabers, and didn't he sell arms and ammunition to the Fenians, and then sell the Fenians?"

— The Lawrence (Kansas) papers are justly exultant over the fact that a match factory, a ropewalk and broom factory, in addition to the woolen factories now in operation in that city, are about to be started.

— David Adams and his son, a lad of eighteen, were indicted for assault and battery at the recent term of the Court of Common Pleas of Wood county, Ohio, and were so deeply troubled by the occurrence that they hung themselves.

— The President has commuted the death sentence of the South Carolinians who were tried and convicted by court martial in Charleston on the charge of killing several negro soldiers while on guard duty. The evidence against them was circumstantial.

— During the progress of an important lawsuit at Springfield, Ill., the United States against the Atlantic Steamship Company, for the recovery of $15,000 of government funds, colored witnesses were, for the first time, allowed to testify in the U. S. Court in that State, and which was permitted under a statute recently passed.

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN PATENTS

R. H. EDDY,

Solicitor of Patents,

Late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1857,

78 State Street, opposite Kilby Street, BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that no other office of the kind will re the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved to inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakeable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."

JOHN TAGGART

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twelve rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

The Chronicle.

☞ At a late merrymaking of the Richmond Grays, in Virginia, two toasts were drank for Jeff. Davis, three for Stonewall Jackson, and two for Lee.—But while these reconstructed F. F.'s of Virginia were fervent toward the secession leaders, they were rather cool and condescending toward President Johnson. The following, produced near the close of the feast, reads like a brief but severe lecture:

Andrew Johnson, President of the United States—He has been styled the "Restorer of the Constitution." Let him perfect his title by restoring the liberty which the Constitution guaranties.

And this (says the Tribune) is the reward of the President, after all his efforts to have Congress and the country acknowledge that the seceded States are "completely restored" as fit and worthy members of the Union! Such demonstrations as this spoil many a fine argument.

"O dear! O dear! I grieve, I grieve,
For the good old days of Adam and Eve!"

—but they will never come back.

☞ The report having gone abroad that some general officer stopping at a Galveston hotel, had solicited and received an appointment from the President, one Bagley, who proclaims himself an ex-Confederate officer, writes: "I believe I can say for Gen. Evans (Ball's Bluff Evans) as for myself, that we have at no time held any intercourse with persons of the vocation to which, as I am informed, Mr. Johnson belongs, except in relation to the making or repairing of clothes." This we take as a specimen of the loftiest dudgeon of self-consuming chivalry, but it sounds as if the classic Bagley had been refused a pardon. Tribune.

PUCK.—The San Francisco comic paper comes out for the Fenians in this wise:

Puck wears the green upon his breast,
The shamrock in his hat;
And when he thinks of Ireland's woes,
His heart goes pity Pat!

— Bulwer, the novelist, in a letter to a gentleman in Boston, says: "I have closed my career as a writer of fiction. I am gloomy and unhappy. I have exhausted the powers of life chasing pleasure where it is not to be found."

Portsmouth N. H.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 27, 1866.

THE LATEST NEWS FROM EUROPE appears warlike, and sets gold and stocks into flutter, on both sides of the water.

Liverpool dates of June 15, say there has been no formal delaration of war as yet, but the Emperor of Austria, in a speech to the Vienna corporation, yesterday, said that, having done everything else, he was compelled to resort to the sword.

The German Diet, by a vote of 9 to 6, resolved to mobilize the Federal army. The Prussian member protested, and retired from the Diet. The Austrian representative insisted on the indissolubility of the Confederation, and the Diet voted its adherence to the Austrian declaration.

The crisis in Germany has increased in intensity. Austria has entirely evacuated Holstein, retiring before superior numbers. The Prussians occupied the Duchies, dismissed the government, arrested the Holstein Commissioner, prevented the assembling of the Estates and entered Altona on the 12th. On that day Austria determined to break off relations, and ordered Count Karolyi to retire from Berlin. No shot has been fired as yet, but war is generally regarded as virtually commenced.

La France denies the rumors of intended abdication of Maximilian.

Satterthwaite's Circular of the evening of the 13th reports a fair amount of business during the week in American securities and prices on the whole well sustained. Five-twenties at one time touched 66 and closed at 64 3-4; Illinois Central shares have been without alteration, closing at 75 a 75 1-2, but Eries on lower prices from New York declined to 40 1-2 a 41. The settlement has developed a scarcity of Five-twenties and Eries.

English funds are lower under the war news. The Bank rate remains at ten per cent.

The Rho's Hall Iron Company has suspended payment.

In the British House of Commons the continental crisis was also debated. Mr. Gladstone said England had unofficially recommended the cession of Venetia, and he expressed his opinion that in the German quarrel the sympathy of England was with Austria, but on the Italian question it was with Italy.

It is reported that the Emperor Maximilian has demanded from France an advance of money, otherwise he must lay down his arms and quit Mexico. France refused the demand, and ordered Marshal Bazaine, should Maximilian leave, to take a plebiscite and ascertain the wishes of the people.

CONNECTICUT.—The last report of the Connecticut Board of Education shows that the school fund amounts to $2,046,000, and the revenue distributed last year was $136,000. Besides this sum $290,000 were raised by taxation for school purposes in 1865—nearly $65,000 more than in any former year, giving an average of $2.55 for each child in the State. Teachers' wages, board included, in the last ten years have changed from $29 to $49 per month for males, and from 17.25 to 22.61 for females. There are 1623 school districts in the State, and 114,825 children between the ages of 4 and 16. The average attendance at the schools in winter is 57,131; in summer, 51,751. Twenty new school-houses were built last year.

A curious fact is stated in the report, which is also noticed in the report of the State librarian on births, marriages and deaths, to the effect that the relative number of children in the State has been steadily diminishing during the past forty years. The percentage of children in the population has fallen off from 30.59 in 1820, to 22.92 in 1860, a relative loss of eight per cent.

☞ A tornado passed over Buffalo, N. Y., Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock, uprooting trees, blowing down chimneys, unroofing several buildings, including the U. S. Express Company's stables, and badly injuring the overseer, also partly destroying the roof of the Kremlin hall and arcades. Several persons were injured and two reported killed.

☞ A Johnsonian committee in Washington have sent out a call for a Johnson National Convention to endorse the President's policy, and help it and him along.—The call is endorsed by conservative Republicans and Democrats, and fully accords with the views of the President to whom it was submitted by Senator Doolittle and Thurlow Weed.

GOLD, Tuesday, 156.

—— There is to be a celebration of the 4th of July at Great Falls; Gen. Walter Harriman is to be the Orator.

— The finest residence in the South is that of W. B. Johnson of Macon, Ga., modeled after the plans of European palaces. In order not to know how much it cost, he destroyed the bills as fast as they were paid.

☞ Rev. A. J. Patterson has resigned his pastorship of the Universalist Church and Society in this city—to take effect on the 1st of September, or sooner:—and the Society have accepted the resignation, and passed resolutions expressing their high regard for him as a preacher, pastor and citizen; their regret at losing his services; and their best wishes for his comfort and usefulness in wider fields of labor and promise elsewhere.

It is understood that Mr. Patterson is to be Pastor of the Universalist Church in Roxbury, Mass.,—which was gathered under the care of Rev. Hosea Ballou, 2d, and has since enjoyed the labors of other eminent pastors.

☞ The two companies of Marines at the Navy Yard will compose a part of the military escort in our Fourth of July procession. Col. Jones, U. S. M. C., will take command of the entire military escort on that occasion.

☞ Wm. Henderson, Esq., fomerly of this city, is President of a company in New Orleans which has recently erected large tanneries in Magnolia, Miss., from which magnificent results are anticipated.

THE BOWDOINHAM BANK ROBBERY, so shrewdly planned and so daringly carried out, has set the detectives in all this part of the country at work to detect the perpetrators, while the $3000 reward offered may possibly be a slight stimulus.

A Portland dispatch of the 25th, which we condense, gives the following, believed to be a clue to the robbers:

A man arrived in the 11 o'clock P. M. Boston train on Saturday, 16th inst., at Portland, and registered his name at the United States Hotel as "G. H. Fitzgerald, Exeter," (probably assumed) who is believed to be one of the robbers, if not the principal one. Fitzgerald next day hired a horse and buggy, stating that he was going to Yarmouth. On Wednesday, a carryall was furnished him, with a pair of horses. The search shows that Fitzgerald drove to Brunswick, stopped at the Lurline House over night, and took an early start for Bath, where he arrived about ten o'clock A. M. and put up his team at Perkins' stable. Paying his bills, he left for Bowdoinham at eight P. M., where the team was seen crossing Bay bridge an hour later, when the carriage appeared to contain others besides Fitzgerald. Between 11 and 12 P. M., Thursday, the night before the robbery, the team was seen quarter of a mile from the bank. It appears that the horses were unharnessed, and the carryall taken up and lugged into a pasture by the party with it. The horses were also taken there, as shown by the roots and bark of the trees to which they were tied being gnawed. It was at this locality the stockings, cord and Canada paper were found. After the robbery, it is evident the carriage was lugged out to the highway again, and the horses harnessed. The team was next seen in Topsham village at about four o'clock A. M. Friday, after the robbery had occurred. At quarter past five it was seen passing Freeport village with three persons in it, and within one mile of Yarmouth, where they watered their horses. At half-past 7 o'clock the same morning, the carriage was driven into the stable at Portland where it was hired, Fitzgerald being the only person with it, who paid the bills, amounting to twenty-two dollars—twenty dollars of which amount was in two tens on the National Canal Bank of Portland. The horses were returned in good condition, but the cross-bar of the carriage was broken.

There Fitzgerald's trail was lost. He is described as a man of medium size, face considerably tanned, dark side whiskers, and has a defect in one of his eyes, it is thought the right one. Fitzgerald appeared to be flush of money—in more than one instance showing his liberality by overpaying his bills.

Of course our officers were on the qui vive, and on Monday evening Officer Johnson arrested J. F. Nickels, of New York, at the Rockingham House. Mr. Nickels is an old ship master, has served with credit in the Navy, (having been a volunteer lieutenant, in command of ship Onward, in 1863; and acting as lieutenant commander at the time of his honorable discharge, in 1865;) and is well known to many persons in this city, but unfortunately bore a strong resemblance to the description given of Fitzgerald.

Surveillance was kept upon him until Tuesday morning, when nothing to warrant his further detention having transpired, he was discharged.

Capt. Nickels left by the 11 o'clock train for Boston, where, we are informed, he was again arrested from his resemblance to the description given of Fitzgerald, by detectives of that city, and after a short detention again set at liberty.

— Green tea, when made up with the proper chemicals, produces striking soporific effects. A Mrs. Powers recently made a decoction from some that she purchased of a storekeeper in Nashville, and as a consequence, slept a sleep from which she is not likely to awaken.

— It is supposed by some that the Prince of Wales visited this country to obtain a package of Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus. Whether he did or not, it would do honor to the Queen's table to have as nice light Biscuit as that article always makes. If any one has any doubts on that subject, go to your Grocer, and get a paper immediately, and find of a truth that there is nothing like it. Everybody sells it. 104

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Rev. T. H. Miller is to preach at Nottingham next Sunday.

—— James R. Kendrick has been appointed Assistant Superintendent of the Concord Railroad.

—— Mr. Warren Woods, of Hancock, aged 85 years, committed suicide by hanging, on the night of the 21st, in his bedroom.

—— A large Tannery in Bradford was burnt on Monday, with a quantity of leather, also a saw-mill and dwelling house. Whole loss $17,000; insured for $9000.

—— Reuben D. Mussey, M. D. fomerly of Dartmouth College, and a native of this State, and an eminent man, died in Boston last Sunday, aged 86.

—— Rev. Jacob Cummings died at Exeter June 20, aged 73 years and 6 months. He was formerly a Teacher in Hampton Academy, afterwards Pastor of the Congregational Church in Stratham, and in later years has been engaged in Missionary and Bible Agencies and occasional preaching. He was a good scholar, a faithful pastor, and a loyal citizen. Holding the five points of Calvinism, he preached them very plainly, and held them with great tenacity; and not being a graceful orator, he was not a popular preacher: but those who knew him best valued him most highly, for his sterling honesty and unbending integrity. In social and domestic life, he was friendly, kind and charitable.

☞ A Concord dispatch June 25, says: The lady of Gov. Smyth, has to-day heard of the death of her mother, Mrs. Lane of Candia.

A reception which was to have been given by her at Eagle Hotel Wednesday evening, for which cards have been issued, will, in consequence of this affliction, not take place.

A GOVERNOR FOR THREE YEARS.—The Claremont Eagle says:—

Has it ever occurred to any one, that such a thing as keeping a Governor in office more than two years is constitutional? Does any one believe, that the highly responsible office of Governor was created for the benefit of the governed, and not for the exclusive accommodation of those who are ambtiious of the affix of "Gov." to their names? Suppose we keep Gov. Smyth in office a year or two more, would the world come to an end a day sooner, or the Millennium be put off an hour longer? Is it of greater importance to the people that A, B, or C. should enjoy the honor of being governor, than that, when they find a man of vastly superior qualifications for the office, who saves them, by judicious management, hundreds of thousands of dollars annually, and confers durable honor upon the State, they should secure a continuance of those advantages, by keeping him in office? We have the simplicity to believe it is not, and therefore most respectfully and deferentially nominate Frederic Smyth for re-election.

SOUTH CAROLINA.—A riot occurred in Charleston on Saturday, between whites and blacks. The police arrested the ringleaders. Subsequently 300 blacks, led by negro soldiers, paraded the streets, when the military and police attacked them, quelled the riot and arrested many of the rioters.

REASONS WHY THE

AMERICAN WATCH,

MADE AT WALTHAM, MASS.

IS THE BEST.

It is made on the best principle. Its frame is composed of SOLID PLATES. NO jar can interfere with the harmony of its working and no sudden shock can damage its machinery. Every piece is made and finished by machinery (itself famous for its novelty, as well as for its effectiveness) and is therefore properly made. The watch is what all mechanism should be—ACCURATE, SIMPLE, STRONG AND ECONOMICAL. Except some high grades, too costly for general use, foreign watches are chiefly made by women and boys. Such watches are composed of several hundred pieces, screwed and riveted together, and require constant repairs to keep them in any kind of order. All persons who have carried "ancres," "lepines," and "English Patent Levers," are perfectly well aware of the truth of this statement.

At the beginning of our enterprise, more than ten years ago, it was our first object to make a thoroughly good low-priced watch for the million; to take the place of these foreign impositions—the refuse of foreign factories—which were entirely unsaleable at home and perfectly worthless everywhere.

How well we have accomplished this may be understood from the fact, that after so many years of public trial, we now make MORE THAN HALF OF ALL THE WATCHES SOLD IN THE UNITED STATES, and that no others have ever given such universal satisfaction. While this department of our business is continued with increased facilities for perfect work, we are at present engaged in the manufacture of watches of the very HIGHEST GRADE KNOWN TO CHRONOMETRY, unequalled by anything hitherto made by ourselves, and unsurpassed by anything made in the world. For this purpose we have the amplest facilities. We have erected an addition to our main buildings expressly for this branch of our business, and have filled it with the best workmen in our service. New machines and appliances have been constructed, which perform their work with consummate delicacy and exactness. The choicest and most approved materials only are used, and we challenge comparison between this grade of our work and the finest imported chronometers. We do not pretend to sell our watches for less money than foreign watches, but we do assert without fear of contradiction that for the same money our product is incomparably superior. All our watches, of whatever grade, are fully warranted and this warrantee is good at all times against us or our agents in all parts of the world.

CAUTION.—The public are cautioned to buy only of respectable dealers. All persons selling counterfeits will be prosecuted.

A Single Box of BRANDRETH'S PILLS contains more vegetable extractive matter than twenty boxes of any pills in each world besides; fifty-five hundred physicians use them in their practice to the exclusion of other purgatives. The first letter of their value is yet scarcely appreciated. When they are better known, sudden death and continued sickness will be of the past. Let those who know them speak out in their favor. It is a duty which will save life.

Our race are subject to a redundancy of vitiated bile at this season, and it is as dangerous as it is prevalent; but Brandreth's Pills afford an invaluable and efficient protection. Reported for the Chronicle.

A temperance meeting was held at the Stone Church last Sunday evening, which we hope will inaugurate a new era of activity in the temperance reform among us. This meeting was called by a concerted action on the part of the clergymen of the city who had held several preliminary meetings among themselves. The exercises were opened with prayer by Rev. Mr. Lane, and reading the Scriptures by Rev. Mr. DeNormandie, who then, as chairman of the meeting, stated the purposes for which it had been called, the manner in which it had originated; and said that at one of the preliminary meetings a committee had been appointed to draft a constitution for a new Temperance Society which he then called on Rev. Mr. Pike to read.

Mr. Pike entered more at large on the causes which had given rise to this movement, on the effects which it is desired to produce: which are in brief—to enrol as members of this Portsmouth Temperance Society so many of our citizens—men, women and children—as shall be able to give it the controlling influence of public opinion, and then from among its members to select a board of managers, 24 in number, who shall be active courageous men, not unwilling to spend their time and efforts in the cause; nor afraid of encountering the opposition with which they will necessarily be met in their striving to repress the traffic in intoxicating drinks.

Rev. Mr. Adams was then called upon and earnestly advocated the new society—urging on those who by disposition and habit might feel reluctant to enrol themselves in such a movement, the great and increasing necessity of taking speedy steps to check this enormous evil of intemperance.

The meeting was afterwards addressed by Rev. Mr. Lane, Ezra A. Stevens, Esq., Hon. H. D. Walker and Rev. Mr. Medbery, who in turn brought forward the desirability of enlisting in this movement our ladies and the young who are growing up in the midst of such fearful exposure—the want of such an organization among us—and the need of using means to resist the spread of contagion far more to be feared than the so much dreaded cholera.

Notice was then given that after the benediction all who felt interested in the movement were requested to remain and organize the Society. The preliminary pledge was accordingly circulated among those who remained and received upward of two hundred signatures. The Constitution as presented was adopted by the Society, and the clergymen were appointed a Committee to nominate officers and report to a subsequent meeting to be called at an early day. The enterprise was thus fairly started and we give it a hearty God speed.

POLICE COURT, June 26.—Chas. Willey and Wm. Palmer, for burglary, continued to 30th July, under $500 bail each.

Woodbury Langdon for assault on Chas. Hodgdon, paid $9.80.

John Riley for being drunk was fined $6.86; and Abijah Tripp, for same offence received a like sentence. The worthy couple not being prepared to draw a check to the requisite amount, were sent to Warden Philbrick, in the West, for further instructions as to the way of the transgressor.

☞ The ladies of Portsmouth held a meeting on Monday afternoon and appointed committees to wait upon our citizens for contributions towards the Fourth of July collation. It is estimated that at least one thousand military and firemen will assist us in celebrating the great day, and, as our guests, they ought to be respectably treated. Let all contribute liberally. The ladies' committee on collation will re assemble in the Aldermen's Room on Saturday evening next, at 7 o'clock.

☞ N. P. Lovering, Esq., of Boston, for more than twenty years Treasurer of the Concord R. R., has been superseded, and Nathan Parker, Esq., of Manchester, chosen in his place. Mr. Lovering has proved an excellent officer, though the duties of his office were not as onerous as in some corporations, as he simply paid the dividends and attended to transfers; the moneys of the Road, for the most part, unlike other corporations, having been received by the Superintendent who accounted to the Treasurer in bills paid, &c.

☞ Capt. Warsaw's thoughtful present of a dozen bottles of his excellent mineral water and pop beer found that scourge of New England, "quick consumption," awaiting it at our office on Tuesday. We can recommend them as pleasant beverages for this hot weather.

☞ Thomas S. Nowell, Esq., shoe manufacturer, of this city, paid for the month of May the largest U. S. revenue tax returned by any manufacturer in Rockingham County.

☞ Chloasma, or Mothpatch, (also called Liver-spot,) and Lentigo, or Freckles, are often very annoying, particularly to ladies of light complexion, for the discolored spots show more plainly on the face of a blonde than of a brunette; but they greatly mar the beauty of either and any preparation that will effectually remove them, without injuring the texture or color of the skin, is certainly a desideratum. Elegant Residence for Sale.

[On account of removal of owner.]

The well known and beautifully situated CUTTS' HOUSE, on North Road, Portsmouth, recently occupied by Chas. Amory, Esq. The House contains eighteen rooms, with elegant bath room, billiard room, (containing a table in good order,) nursery, and all requisites for a properly arranged family mansion.

The House is in excellent repair, having been thoroughly refitted a year or two since, while its propinquity to the beaches, and the facilities which it affords for charming rides and pleasure sailing, render it one of the most desirable estates in the market.

The House is furnished with double windows (each with a sliding pane) throughout, is heated by a furnace, and many of the rooms have also elegant marble mantels and grates. In addition to the superior cellar, there is a first class wine cellar. The house is fitted throughout with Straw Matting.

The out-buildings are very complete. A STABLE, with accommodations for five horses; CARRIAGE HOUSE; a splendid Harness Room, finished in chestnut and black walnut, with glass cases for harness; Cow House, &c.

If desirable, more land, adjoining, could doubtless be purchased.

The grounds comprise about four acres, with terraced Lawn, fine old trees and thrifty shrubbery—and is so situated as to command a delightful view of forest, city and harbor. The winding drive about the house is underlaid with stone, and laid with sleeks.

PAD-DIES A LA MODE.—Musical and dramatic affairs have a habit of sometimes obtruding themselves into the courts, and once in a while they come in very odd shapes, not to say laughable ones. In the Court of Common Pleas, on Friday, before Judge Brady, a case of Seymour vs. Hobbitzel came up—the demand being made by Mr. Harry Seymour, the costumer, for two very rich costumes furnished to two ladies for the grand Liederkranz Ball at the Academy of Music, in February, 1865. Mr. Robert D. Holmes, the plaintiff's counsel, put that gentleman on the stand, and in a few questions provoked plenty of merriment. One of the costumes, it seems, was a Don Cæsar de Bazan, and a couple of items in the bill of particulars show pretty clearly how we of the male sex are very often victimized. "You say that one of the items is for silk stockings: why were not boots used for the Don Cæsar costume, as is usual?" "Because it was desired to show the legs." "And the next item—what is that for?" "Leg-paddings; or, in other words, false calves, to make the legs seem larger than they really were." We submit that when, first, a peculiar costume is adopted, especially to show the legs; and, second, the legs are padded so that we are swindled and humbugged into admiring what does not exist, we male wretches are likely to have a rough time of it.—N. Y. Atlas.

STATE BANK CIRCULATION.—By an arrangement among the Boston banks, State bank bills will not be received on deposit after Saturday next, June 30th; consequently, the only circulating notes which will be bankable and current after that date will be greenbacks and national bank bills. The State Banks wish to get their bills in; and therefore they should be sent home. No one need lose anything on them, except a mere trifle for brokerage.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth N. H.

THURSDAY, JUNE 28, 1866.

PRESIDENT JOHNSON has voluntarily sent in a gratuitous Message to Congress, in which he condemns the action of Congress on the proposed amendment, for three reasons, which we give in his own words, annexing brief notes.

1. The joint resolution was not submitted by the two Houses for the approval of the President.

Exactly so: and the joint resolution of the Congress of 1789, covering 12 Amendments, was not submitted by Congress to Pres. Washington! Why not? Answer, because it was none of his business, but it was the business of Congress. The President is not a Constitution maker or Amender—but Congress and the State Legislatures or People are. We know there has been some prating against this principle;—and the praters quote from the Constitution as follows:

"Every order, resolution or vote, to which the concurrence of the Senate and House of Representatives may be necessary, shall be presented to the President of the United States."

One of these praters asks:

But what do these fellows care about the Constitution?

We answer, just exactly as much as those fellows did, who composed the Congress of '89. Quite a number of them had helped make the Constitution,—and they know the clause quoted was meant to apply to Law Making,—but not to apply to Amending the Constitution.

2. Of the thirty-six States which constituted the Union eleven are excluded from representation in either House of Congress.

Rightfully and properly excluded by their own folly in the rebellion;—and if it be fatal objection to this new Amendment that the rebel States have had no voice in it:—it should be as fatal to the Abolition Amendment. The President must know that if the rebels had been in the last Congress, they would have defeated the Abolition Amendment—and that if the same men, now reconstructed, were in this Congress, they would certainly not vote to reduce their representation to an equality with ours,—though they used to talk some nonsense about State equality. But they happen to be out,—and the acceptance and confirmation of this equality ought to be a sine qua non, when they come in.

3. He says:

Nor have the sovereign people of the nation been afforded an opportunity of expressing their views upon the important questions which the amendment involves.

This is not true. The Sovereign people sent the members to this Congress on purpose to do just such things.

One extract more. The President says:

I deem it proper to observe that the steps taken by the Secretary of State as detailed in the accompanying report, are to be considered as purely ministerial, and in no sense whatever committing the Executive to an approval or recommendation of the amendment to the State Legislatures or to the people. On the contrary, &c.

We know he is contrary,—though one of his sycophants told us the other day, with an air of triumph, that Congress in this thing had backed down so far as to propose amendments that he approved, and would have signed, had they been presented! But now he takes pains to oppose and be contrary. What then? Did any body ever see Dame Partington sweeping back the tide with her broom? We think so, when they read Mother Goose. Well; here is a second edition.

As a citizen, Mr. Johnson has a right to express his opinion; and the opinion of Andrew Johnson may perhaps be worth as much as an opinion given by Artemus Ward or Josh Billings—and perhaps not worth half so much. But as President he has gone out of his way to meddle with what dont belong to him—and like Don Quixote when he ran a tilt against the Windmill, he may come off second best. U. T.

POISONED BY EATING CHEESE.—It is reported that forty persons residing in Fayetteville, in the town of Manlius near Syracuse, N. Y., were poisoned by eating cheese, last week. Some supposed that the sickness among so many at one time was on account of cholera, but on investigation the cause of the sickness was traced to some cheese sold by a merchant in the village, and manufactured at or near the village of Kirkville, in the same town. The merchant himself is among the number of sick. Two persons have died, and several others are dangerously ill and not expected to survive.

REBELLION RECORD.—Part 57 of this valuable publication, with fine steel portraits of Gens. G. W. Morell and Frank Washburn, is received from the publisher, D. Van Nostrand, New York.

— A New Orleans dispatch says the travel northward and to Europe from that city will not be so great as in former seasons.

— At the tomb of Washington, Tuesday, the Masonic rites of baptism were administered to several persons.

N. H. LEGISLATURE, Tuesday, June 26. A joint resolution was reported to the House, (by Mr. Upham, from the Select Committee on the subject,) ratifying the Amendment proposed by Congress. A minority report was presented by Mr. Sturoc, with 18 reasons for dissent. The Resolution was read twice and ordered to a third reading; and the minority report was ordered to be printed.

DARTMOUTH COLLEGE.—The Commencement occurs on the 19th of July.—President Smith will deliver the Baccalaureate Sermon on the previous Sabbath.—Prize speaking on Monday evening. Class Day on Tuesday, and in the evening Rev. Dr. Kirk will deliver an address before the Theological Society. Wednesday, Prof. Park will address the Phi Beta Kapa Society, and Rev. Elijah Kellogg of Boston, will pronounce a Poem, and Thomas Russell of Boston, will deliver an address before the United Literary Societies. On Thursday are the exercises of the Graduating Class.

THE BOWDOINHAM ROBBERY.—The Lewiston (Me.) Journal says the villains who robbed the Village Bank at Bowdoinham have been unmistakably tracked to Topsham, and the belief is general that they went to the coast at Harpswell to get off by boats. A boat of 20 or 25 tons which laid in New Meadow river for ten or twelve days without an occupant, put to sea early on the morning after the robbery.

☞ Adjutant General Head being unable to get his voluminous Report for 1866 through the press in season for the Legislature, has issued an extract from the same, in which it is stated that the work will probably embrace 1400 pages, in two volumes, and is designed to be "a complete, final and correct record of our Volunteers"—an end which the previous efforts of Gen. Head will well warrant us in expecting.

☞ A Peekshill, N. Y., dispatch of Tuesday says at 3 o'clock that afternoon an up gravel train, when near that place, was thrown from the track, killing C. B. Wheeler, conductor, and three laborers, and seriously injuring Martin Lee, foreman, and several others. The accident was caused by some person placing, by accident or design, a telegraph pole across the track.—The cars were all thrown off the track and badly broken up. There were about 30 laborers on the train.

☞ At a recent meeting of the Boston Clearing House, an association of Boston banks, it was voted not to recieve the bills of State banks on deposit after July 18th. At a meeting of the same association Monday, however, this action was so modified as to allow Boston banks to receive such bills for redemption as formerly,—that is, they will receive them on deposit and forward them at once to the bank of issue.—In this way a person having one or more of these bills after the 18th of July, can save the discount to which he might otherwise have been compelled to submit in making an exchange through bankers for current bills.

☞ Reports to the Freedmen's Bureau from Maryland are very unsatisfactory.—Notwithstanding the negroes work well, there is a bitter feeling against them. Several instances have occurred where they have been sold on the block of slavery for a few years for a petty larceny. The united effects of returned rebels and Johnsonian doctrines.

☞ A Galveston (Texas) dispatch of Monday says the election in that State passed off quietly. Thockmorton, the conservative candidate for Governor, has a large majority in that city, and will probably get nine-tenths of the vote of the State.

☞ The First District Republican Convention at Saco, Me., nominated Hon. John Lynch for re-election to Congress. Resolutions of the same character as those adopted by the State Convention were passed.

IN THE U. S. SENATE, Tuesday June 26, Mr Wilson called up the bill to continue the Freedmen's Bureau, which Mr. Davis endeavored to have laid on the table, but only Messrs. Buckalew, Doolittle, Guthrie and Riddle voted with him, while twenty-seven Senators voted to take up the bill.

The question of continuing the field order of Gen. Sherman, giving the freedmen the Sea Islands in South Carolina and Georgia, coming before the Senate, Mr. Wilson said that the Military Committee, after careful consideration of the subject, advised that the freedmen who had settled on these islands give them up on the 1st of January next. In lieu of these lands, the bill now before the Senate would give the freedmen a chance to purchase for a very small sum the lands acquired by the government under tax sales, in lots of twenty acres or less. This was adopted by the Senate.

— A lady in Concordia, Ill., being quite sick a few days ago, the physician ordered squirrel soup for her. Not a man could be found willing to go and shoot a squirrel, but a young lady, bearing the circumstances, took a gun and after being absent an hour, returned with four squirrels shot in the head.

Local.

☞ The Street Sprinklers work to a charm, we think; and Mr. Plaisted with his gang is doing the work far better than we ever had it done before, and in a manner which ought to satisfy any reasonable person, we should say,—and we hope his patronage will repay his great outlay and trouble. We understand that those whose houses or stores are now "passed" by the machines, can have their premises wet down on application to Mr. P. or the drivers. And we should think everybody who is not really unable to afford it, would indulge in this cheap luxury. For instance, we understand that the whole of State street, from Middle street down to the wharf, will be sprinkled for the season for the small sum of two hundred dollars, which is so cheap, that we should think some dweller in that locality would get up a subscription among the abuttors, which could easily be done, and secure this boon.

For the Chronicle.

☞ What luxury could there be at this season so great as a plunge into the cool, limpid waters of our river; and yet it is an impossible luxury, except to a few boys; the mass of our citizens must forego the health-giving, delicious bath. Why should it be so? Other places, with one-half the the natural advantages of our city, have provided by public baths for the health and comfort of our people. Boston is now reaping the fullest income from ten thousand dollars expended in the construction of six public baths on the Charles river. Thousands of its citizens, male and female, are now daily enjoying its cooling privileges.

How wise are our City Fathers, and its real fathers and mothers, to expend a sum in celebrating the Fourth of July, sufficient to establish an admirable public bath; and still live on from year to year with the means in their hands to give themselves and their children this great blessing, and yet without doing it? Q.

BAILEY'S CIRCUS AND MENAGERIE.—This great combination will exhibit here this afternoon and evening. The large collection of animals is well worth the admission fee, but no further charge is made to witness the fine acrobatic and equestrian performances. By those who have visited this circus we are assured it is one of the very best now traveling. Their advertisement, on the fourth page of this paper gives a synopsis of the attractions offered.

☞ "Hot Weather" we have now-a-days, don't we? So we were informed at least one hundred times a day, for the past three; and we thought we would tell those of our readers who have not found it out for themselves. Whew!

POLICE COURT, June 27.—Wm. Carlin, having unfortunately partaken of too much stimulus, became intoxicated, and as misfortunes seldom come singly, he was unable to furnish the $6.86 necessary to release him from custody. He was therefore enrolled among the agriculturists at the House of Correction.

THE GENERAL ASSOCIATION of Congregational and Presbyterian Ministers in New Hampshire will hold its next annual meeting on the 4th Tuesday (28th day) of August, at Dover; the Committee of Inquiry have submitted the following questions for discussion at the annual meeting. 1st. Does the interest of the cause of Christ in this State call for more sympathy and co-operation between our strong and our feeble churches? 2d. Is it desirable to substitute the exercises of the Sabbath School for the P. M. Sermon; or can any improvement be made in the order of our public religious services for the Sabbath? 3d. What means should be used to instruct youth in christian doctrines. Should the Catechism be more used or Bible lessons?

☞ On our 1st page to-day is an item about whipping a child to death,—which we could hardly have believed; but the details have come, and the dreadful story is true. The man who has thus killed his own child, is a Presbyterian minister named Lindsley, residing near Medina, N. Y.,—his boy was three years old, and would not say his prayers. The father himself made the following statement to the coroner:

"On the 18th of June the child disobeyed his step-mother, and I commenced correcting him, using a shingle for the purpose, and continued to chastise him for more than two hours, when the child began to show signs of debility, and I ceased to punish him and laid him on a couch and called my wife. When she saw the child she said he was dying, and before 12 o'clock he was dead." The coroner's jury returned a verdict next day "that death resulted from chastisement by the father."

MISSOURI.—A St. Louis dispatch of June 26 says Senator Lane of Kansas is quite ill at the Lindall House in that city. He is threatened with paralysis. His physician does not think it will be possible for him to take his seat in the Senate again this session, and advises him to go to Bedford Springs as soon as he can travel.

The case of General Blair versus the Judge of Election for refusing to receive his vote without first taking the oath presented, was decided against Gen. Blair in the general term of the Circuit Court Monday. This is the first decision involving the validity of the voters' oath in that State.

— Language falls to tell, and imagination cannot adequately point out, the degree of perfection to which the J. Monroe Taylor's Gold Medal Soap has arrived. It is a model Soap, and has no rival. When the inventor dies, the ladies ought to erect him a monument. His memory should ever be precious in the recollection of all housekeepers. There will never be any such soap after his exit. Some of our contemporaries call it the woman's benefactor, and it justly deserves the title. 104

HYGIENIC WINE!
HAS FOR ITS BASE
One of the Finest of Pure Wines.

A WINE grown on the sunny slopes of Spain—the genuine juice of the Grape in all its purity, as bestowed upon us by the beneficent GIVER, and such as is, alone, consistent with Christian teaching—not intoxicating in the least—will supply a want greatly felt in this country.

Such is HYGIENIC WINE,
A Bitter Aromatic.

It is conscientiously recommended to LADIES as a tonic which will soothe the nerves, renew the blood, and gently stimulate and invigorate the system.

☞ All persons of sedate habits—ministers, lawyers, and professional men, possessing constitutions more delicate than others of less confining labors—those who expend a great deal of vitality in brain work—will at once acknowledge the superiority of this restorative; for while it acts as a nervine, imparting a genial glow to the blood, it leaves behind none of the baneful influences of Alcholic preparations.

It stands unrivalled as a Tonic of the Digestive Organs, thereby creating a healthy appetite, and we warrant that upon trial HYGIENIC WINE will be found to be the finest, most delicious, and healthful Tonic known. Ask for it.

REASONS WHY THE
AMERICAN WATCH,
MADE AT WALTHAM, MASS.
IS THE BEST.

It is made on the best principle. Its frame is composed of SOLID PLATES. NO jar can interfere with the harmony of its working and no sudden shock can damage its machinery. Every piece is made and finished by machinery (itself famous for its novelty, as well as for its effectiveness) and is therefore properly made. The watch is what all mechanism should be—ACCURATE, SIMPLE, STRONG AND ECONOMICAL. Except some high grades, too costly for general use, foreign watches are chiefly made by women and boys. Such watches are composed of several hundred pieces, screwed and riveted together, and require constant repairs to keep them in any kind of order. All persons who have carried "anceres," "lepines," and "English Patent Levers," are perfectly well aware of the truth of this statement.

At the beginning of our enterprise, more than ten years ago, it was our first object to make a thoroughly good low-priced watch for the million, to take the place of these foreign impositions—the refuse of foreign factories—which were entirely unsaleable at home and perfectly worthless everywhere.

How well we have accomplished this may be understood from the fact, that after so many years of public trial, we now make MORE THAN HALF OF ALL THE WATCHES SOLD IN THE UNITED STATES, and that no others have ever given such universal satisfaction. While this department of our business is continued with increased facilities for perfect work, we are at present engaged in the manufacture of watches of the very HIGHEST GRADE KNOWN TO CHRONOMETRY, unequalled by anything hitherto made by ourselves, and unsurpassed by anything made in the world. For this purpose we have the amplest facilities. We have erected an addition to our main buildings expressly for this branch of our business, and have filled it with the best workmen in our service. New machines and appliances have been constructed, which perform their work with consummate delicacy and exactness. The choicest and most approved materials only are used, and we challenge comparison between this grade of our work and the finest imported chronometers. We do not pretend to sell our watches for less money than foreign watches, but we do assert without fear of contradiction that for the same money our product is incomparably superior. All our watches, of whatever grade, are fully warranted and this warrantee is good at all times against us or our agents in all parts of the world.

CAUTION.—The public are cautioned to buy only of respectable dealers. All persons selling counterfeits will be prosecuted.

A Single Box of BRANDRETH'S PILLS contains more vegetable extractive matter than twenty boxes of any pills in the world besides; fifty-five hundred physicians use them in their practice to the exclusion of other purgatives. The first letter of their value is yet scarcely appreciated. When they are better known, sudden death and continued sickness will be of the past. Let those who know them speak out in their favor. It is a duty which will save life.

Our race are subject to a redundancy of vitiated bile at this season, and it is as dangerous as it is prevalent; but Brandreth's Pills afford an invaluable and efficient protection. By their occasional use we prevent the collection of those impurities which, when in sufficient quantities, cause so much danger to the body's health. They soon cure Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, Pain in the Head, Heartburn, Pain in the Breast-bone, Sudden Faintness and Costiveness. ☞ The first man who rode over the new Street which is to be called Broad, was our worthy Street Commissioner, a few days since. As he was passing, he was invited to enter and survey a highway he may ere long be called upon to inspect officially. But where is Broad Street in Portsmouth? asks the reader. Well, we can tell him that it is a new highway—and probably the broadest in the city,—being opened near Lincoln Hill, from South Road over towards Middle Street. It is just fifty feet wide; and if we are correctly informed, there is not another street in the city of that uniform width, even, though that is only half as wide as all streets should be.

The new Anthony Street is also to be forthwith extended over toward South Street, we believe, through the premises of Messrs T. H. Odion and others; and a new Lincoln Avenue cut across these, from the residence of C. H. Mendum, Esq., down to Richards' Avenue,—if all the owners of real estate along the line are sufficiently awake to improvements and the public interest, as well as their own, to help do it. This Avenue ought to be made one hundred feet wide, and be extended across the South Pond by a bridge (of course much narrower,) to "Elwyn Park" on the South shore, and thence to Pleasant Street. Or a causeway might be built to said (proposed) Park, from a point on Richards Avenue nearer South Street; and thence to the Court House. At any rate, there ought to be a public Park there, and the Pond bridged somewhere. This everybody has agreed to for years,—but why don't somebody take hold and do it? Who will help?

☞ Apropos of the delay experienced by vessels at our quarantine, the following incident is told. A few days since a vessel from New York, corn laden, was boarded by a pilot while making our harbor. The captain thought he had been here too often to need the services of a pilot. "I shall have to quarantine you," said the official. "Quarantine me, why I'm from New York! Where's the health officer?" "Oh, he's up in town, you'll have to go after him". The Captain pondered over the matter but said nothing. Just as the pilot was going over the side, the Captain called out: Jim, clap on that topsail; we've got to go after the health officer,"—and sure enough he did go, in his vessel.

☞ During the storm on Wednesday afternoon, an old wooden building, on a wharf at the foot of Dearborn street, was demolished, probably by a stroke of lightning for though the wreck does not bear any marks of fire, yet it is scattered very much into the Mill Pond, while the barrels which were stored in the building remain in very good order. The old hulk was of little value.

Communication.

"Withhold thy throat from thirst."

So thought the members of Knight's Cornet Band, as they were engaged in rehearsing a difficult piece of music, in their hall last Monday evening; when as if in answer to their wishes, the door suddenly opened, and Mr. John R. Foster, the "Champion" pop beer man appeared, laden with the extracts of lemon and spruce, which he so well knows how to make, and which are so pleasant to imbibe in such hot weather. The Band tender him their sincere thanks for his thoughtful kindness, in providing such refreshing glasses in opposition to that other glass which marked 92° in the shade, on that day. May his lemons aid him in business, and his beer pop the needful into his pocket for a long time. L.

The whole number of converts estimated as the fruit of the recent revivals in Boston is 500. Had it been 5000, the proportion to the whole unconverted population would not have been equal to the number of conversions (600) that were counted in that city as the result of a revival under the labors of Elder Knap several years ago. Perry's Moth and Freckle Lotion.

☞ Chloasma, or Mothpatch, (also called Liver-spot,) and Leotigo, or Freckles, are often very annoying, particularly to ladies of light complexion, for the discolored spots show more plainly on the face of a blonde than of a brunette; but they greatly mar the beauty of either, and any preparation that will effectually remove them, without injuring the texture or color of the skin, is certainly a desideratum. DR. B. C. PERRY, who has made diseases of the skin a specialty, has discovered a remedy for these discolorations, which is at once prompt, infallible and harmless.

Prepared by B. C. PERRY, Dermatologist, No. 49 Bond Street, New York, and for sale by all druggists; price $2 per bottle. Call for PERRY'S MOTH & FRECKLE LOTION.

Sold by all Druggists in Portsmouth and elsewhere. lysndaw—oct19

Elegant Residence for Sale.

[On account of removal of owner.]

The well known and beautifully situated CUTTS' HOUSE, on North Road, Portsmouth, recently occupied by Chas. Amory, Esq. The House contains eighteen rooms, with elegant bath-room, billiard room, (containing a table in good order,) nursery, and all requisites for a properly arranged family mansion.

The House is in excellent repair, having been thoroughly refitted a year or two since, while its propinquity to the beaches, and the facilities which it affords for charming rides and pleasure sailing, render it one of the most desirable estates in the market.

The House is furnished with double windows (each with a sliding pane) throughout, is heated by a furnace, and many of the rooms have also elegant marble mantels and grates. In addition to the superior cellar, there is a first class wine cellar. The house is fitted throughout with Straw Matting.

The out-buildings are very complete. A STABLE, with accommodations for five horses, CARRIAGE HOUSE; a splendid Harness Room, finished in chestnut and black walnut, with glass cases for harness; Cow House, &c.

If desirable, more land, adjoining, could doubtless be purchased.

The grounds comprise about four acres, with terraced Lawn, fine old trees and thrifty shrubbery—and is so situated as to command a delightful view of forest, city and harbor. The winding drive about the house is underlaid with stone, and laid with shells.

Morning Chronicle.

THE NEW SENATOR.—The election of Mr. Patterson to the U. S. Senate, for the term of six years from the fourth of March next, seems to be highly satisfactory to the Republican Press of New Hampshire and of other States, so far as we have noticed. That Mr. P. is eminently qualified for the duties of the station, so far as learning, industry and sound moral and political principles are concerned, no one will pretend to doubt; but, on some other not less weighty considerations, as we regard them, we should rather, as one of Mr. P.'s constituents, have him remain in the House a few terms longer. The fact is, this arena is of no less importance than that of the Senate. Mr. Patterson bid fair to become to New Hampshire what Justin S. Morrill has been to Vermont, had he retained his seat.

This continual changing our delegates in both Houses of Congress is a suicidal policy for our State to pursue. Our Member from the Third Cong. District is just such a man as it was our interest and duty to have retained in service. Whoever his successor may be, it is no disparagement to him to suppose that for a term or two at least, it not, indeed, for a decade to come, he will not make Mr. P.'s place good. And, altho' it may seem invidious to make the comparison, yet it may be reasonable to expect that Mr. Clark's services in the Senate would have been more valuable, on account of past experience, than they have been heretofore; and, probably, not less so than those of his talented successor. Thus, it will be seen the result of this election is to exchange an experienced, able and sound Republican servant, whose record has been pure and unexceptionable, as Senator, for an inexperienced, and we know not how able or properly qualified member of the lower House.—Claremont Eagle.

☞ The famous Ryves case, now on trial in the London Divorce Court, promises to afford an immense amount of scandal for the edification of those who scoff at "the divinity that doth hedge a king." The evidence presented not only endeavors to prove that the petitioners are the legitimate descendants of the Duke of Cumberland, the brother of George the Third, but also that that monarch himself committed bigamy, and that the descendants of his putative wife, including Queen Victoria, have therefore, no lawful claim to the throne. This is rather a startling hypothesis, and it would occasion some marvellous social metamorphoses if legally established, but there is not the remotest probability that Mrs. Ryves will ever become Queen of England. If her case should threaten to become very formidable, she may possibly receive a good round sum to relinquish her claims. This, very likely, is the real object of the litigation.—N. Y. Atlas.

PUT THAT AND THIS TOGETHER.—On Wednesday, the Boston Herald had an editorial headed "Political," from which we select this item:

The amendments to the Constitution passed by Congress recently, and which Mr. Speaker Colfax refused to submit to the President, are likely to fail, as not a sufficient number of States will be found to endorse them. Thus the whole Republican Congressional reconstruction fabric will go down.

The amendment may be adopted, notwithstanding this prophecy; we think it will be. But that point we don't propose to discuss to-day. We copy the above item chiefly to compare it with another, which we cut from a like editorial in the same Herald, only a few days ago. It says of the majority in Congress:

They finally passed a series of amendments to the Constitution which are in accordance with the policy of Andrew Johnson. These amendments were so harmless that they encountered no opposition, and passed through both House of Congress without serious opposition, and if submitted to the President he would approve them.

By putting these two items together, and admitting them both to be true, we must believe that Congress has at last gone over in a body to the President's policy,—and that the People of the States will not endorse it,—therefore it will go down!

But can anybody believe such contradictions? And does any one remember the saying, If the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch!

—The late rains in Kansas were unprecedented in some sections. The bottom at the junction of the Neosho and Cottonwood, six or eight miles above Emporia, and containing some ten or twelve thousand acres, was entirely under water.

— A boy six years old, named William Long, was injured, probably mortally, by a railway train at Fall River, on Friday. The train hit him as he was placing a nail on the track to have it flattened.

— Gen. Howard is daily receiving returns of large issues of provisions made by the agents of the Freedmen's Bureau at the South to the destitute whites. In Cobb county, Ga., there are 3000 in destitute circumstances.

— A rejected swain bidding his sweet heart farewell, said that before morning he should be far away on the briny deep. At nine o'clock at night, a watchman picked him up half seas over.

— The State Journal of Alexandria, Va., is satisfied that a deeply laid plan exists to keep alive the hopes, purposes and organization of the late secession movement in Virginia and the whole South, one measure being to keep control of the land and another to retard the settlement of Northerners in the country.

FRIDAY, JUNE 29, 1866.

STRAWS.—The Chicago Times (Democratic) thinks that President Johnson has but very little support outside of the Democratic organization. In a recent editorial upon Wisconsin politics it remarks: "Were the vote of the Republican party in Wisconsin taken as to an indorsement of the President or of Congress, the latter would have a majority of three-fourths, and so in every Northern State."

The call for a Johnson national convention does not seem to be received very heartily, even among the professed admirers of "my policy." The New York Express says:

"The convention, if it concentrates the friends of the President, and parts them from the Radicals, will be very useful both to the President and the country—but if it be to patch up a bi-forked, double-tongued convention, it will only do harm."

The call is double-tongued, and was thrown out to "gull" the President, and also to "gull the flats." It may very probably be successful with the President: but not with many flats outside Washington. The democratic party are not flat enough to be deceived by it—and none but very flat conservatives.

FIRE AT MARBLEHEAD.—About 11 1-4 o'clock last night fire was discovered in the cordage factory of J. L. Vaumgardner, in Ropemaker's Court, Marblehead, and before it could be extinguished, the building was entirely destroyed. It was a brick building, seven or eight hundred feet in length, and was valued at $20,000. In the building was an 18-horse power steam engine, valued at $16,000, which was ruined. The firemen were able to save the cordage and hemp, but a large amount of spun yarn was destroyed. Mr. Vaumgardner owned the building and contents. His total loss will be about $30,000, on which he has an insurance of $10,000 in the Albany and two other offices.—Traveller, 27th.

IN CONNECTICUT LEGISLATURE, June 27, the house concurred with the Senate in ratification of the Constitutional amendment by a straight party vote. One hundred guns were fired on the green in honor of the occasion. Connecticut is the first State to ratify.

☞ The Rome (Ga.) Courier says more rain has fallen in that neighborhood during the month of June than has ever been known. There has seldom been a better prospect for corn. It is now universally conceded that the wheat crop is a fair one, in that section of Georgia and Alabama, coming fully up to an average yield. It is now nearly all saved. The oat is also excellent, except in some places where it was winter killed.

☞ In a speech at a recent Union convention in Ohio, Hon. Fred. Hassurock said that the democratic party had not accepted and does not recognize the fruits of the war. He points out the glaring inconsistencies of its action as follows:

"It has not even denied after the war what its Southern allies claim before the war—the pretended right of secession. Its platform has but one plank—obedience to its Southern masters. When the rebels attempted to break up our country, the Democratic leaders insisted that we should let them go out. Now that the Southerners wish to regain political power, and will condescend to rule us again, the Democracy insists that we must let them come in! Yesterday the rebels wanted to go out: hence, yesterday the Democratic platform was, "You have no right to keep them in!" To-day, the rebels want to come in again to rule the country which they could not destroy. Hence, to-day the Democratic platform is, "You have no right to keep them out!" The South commands and the Democratic party obeys. It has no other principles or sentiments but the whims or wishes of its rebel masters."

— At Moscow, Countess Potocka, a Polish lady of rank, wealth and beauty, was recently arrested for having predicted some time ago that the life of the Emperor would be attempted on the 19th of April. She had hardly been committed to prison when she went mad.

— In the great New Bedford will case, the court has decided that Miss —— cannot be a witness. Poor girl! what will become of her if she fails to gain that case, and to add the millions left by her aunt to more of her own? She feels so poor now that she can but just rub along. Poor girl? for none are so miserably poor as the rich poor.

— State Constable Boynton was violently assaulted at Haverhill, Mass. on Saturday by Joseph B. Shute, a liquor dealer, whom he had arrested. He was knocked down, jumped upon, and seriously injured, but with the help of others kept possession of his prisoner.

— During the visit of the South Carolina Railroad delegation to Cincinnati last week an Ohio gentleman enthusiastically eulogized the Calhoun theory of State sovereignty, but he was effectually shut up by a Southerner who said:—"I have been accustomed to hear that sort of doctrine advocated on the stump. It sounded well. I believed in it fully. But when we came to try it, it did not work well. The theory was pretty, but the practice was destructive. We do not want any more of it in our generation. We have buried that."

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Dr. Elliott of Wolfeboro' has shown the editor of the News some fine specimens of copper ore found on his farm at that place.

—— On the 16th inst., a small child of Abraham Moody, of Tamworth, drew some small substance into its windpipe, which caused its death in a few hours.

—— The Rochester Courier says that several families of that town are to join the emigrant party to Palestine, preparing to leave in July, under charge of Rev. Mr. Palmer.

—— On Wednesday afternoon last, Willie, son of Dr. W. W. Fletcher, Dentist, of Concord, was drowned in Merrimac river, while in swimming. He was about 8 years of age.

—— The shop of Mr. Alvah Emery, in Raymond, was broken into a few nights ago and a case of shoes stolen. Not far from the time an unsuccessful attempt was made to break into the house of Joseph Brown in the Green District.

—— The fourteenth annual meeting of the New Hampshire Medical Society was held in Concord on the 18th inst. The attendance was large, and the interest greater than in previous years. The following officers were chosen for the ensuing year: A. Morrill, M. D., Concord, President; E. Custer, M. D., Manchester, Vice President; J. H. Gallinger, M. D., Concord, Clerk, Treasurer and Librarian.

—— Mr. Arthur L. Meserve of Bartlett was crossing a bridge in Lower Bartlett, in a buggy, a few days since; when nearly over it, a runaway horse, with buggy attached, overtook him, and, leaping on the back and wheels of his buggy, so frightened his own horse, that in running, he was thrown from his buggy and taken up senseless. At last accounts his recovery was thought to be doubtful.

—— Mr. Elias D. Staples of Eliot, Me., who is spending the season in Wolfeboro', has built a boat of the following dimensions: length, thirty feet; greatest width, seventeen inches; depth amidships, six inches: depth at stem and stern, four inches; weight, forty-one and a half pounds. When loaded, draws two and a half inches of water. Mr. Staples has but few, if any, superiors as an oarsman, and can make his little craft "walk the water like a thing of life," at the rate of a mile in seven minutes.—News.

POISONING BY LEAD.—The Statistics of the Past Thirteen Years.—The deleterious qualities of lead and its extensive use in all our dwellings (says the N. Y. Tribune.) render the protection of our citizens against its effects an imperative necessity. Its evil effects are not always confined to "lead colic," but in many cases of paralysis lead poisoning is the exciting cause. We learn by recent official statements that there are in England and Wales one hundred thousand (100,000) cases of epilepsy and paralysis, a majority of which can be traced to the indiscriminate use of lead as a conductor for water. One-seventh of these cases occur in London alone, thus showing that in large cities, where lead pipe is almost exclusively used, the evil effects are most felt.

The mortuary reports of New York city show that since the introduction of Croton water the deaths from paralysis have increased more largely in proportion to the increase of population than those by any other disease. The following table is a record of the deaths by paralysis from 1853 to 1866:

Year.	Deaths.	Year.	Deaths.	Year.	Deaths.
1853	92	1858	135	1863	219
1854	124	1859	207	1864	237
1855	142	1860	247	1865	248
1856	117	1861	206	1866	261

The statistics of the present year indicate a much greater mortality from this cause than hitherto, and we are assured upon good authority that the same is true as regards consumption of the bowels, want of action in the kidneys, dysentery, and other intestinal diseases.

The use of lead as a conductor for Croton water exposes all the inhabitants to a great extent, and those who are in the habit of drinking ale, beer and soda water pumped through pipes of this dangerous material are more liable to be attacked by diseases induced by lead poison, owing to the fermenting of those liquids. An eminent oculist in New York city asserts that poison introduced into the system by means of fluids which have passed through lead pipes acts first upon the extremities of the nerves and then upon the nervous centers, and that very many cases of diseases of the eye and ear, where the cause is doubtful, may, with good reason, be attributed to the long-continued use of lead-poisoned water. In fact, there are many cases on record, the causes of which were known to be lead poison.

GOLD, Thursday, 153 1-8. This is 3 per cent. below the highest point Wednesday. The favorable news by steamer from England put the price down. The gold gamblers expected to see that American 5 20s were lower in London;—but they held their own,—and on the Continent they are in demand, as they are now deemed safer than European loans.

FROM EUROPE the news is warlike. A London item of June 17th says the entry of the Prussians into Saxony is fully confirmed, Prussia having previously declared war. The entry of the Austrians was hourly expected.

The Paris Presse publishes a report that the first engagement took place near Lepsic on the 15th, but the rumor is unconfirmed.

The best informed European correspondents agree that the volunteers under Garibaldi, already numbering one hundred thousand men, will constitute a revolutionary army, ready to follow its leaders anywhere, and especially to Venice and Rome.

In Italy, it is a mixed up war, political and religious. The Italian Parliament, a few days ago, by a large majority, took the first steps in passing a bill for the destruction of all the religious orders. Measures so violent must provoke resistance. All the old governments know their friends and their agents. The whole body of the clergy must be at heart opposed to those whose views correspond with those of Gen. Garibaldi. Italy may see a civil war as fanatical and ferocious as that of La Vendee. The aid of Prussia may be counterbalanced by this fire in the rear, from a reaction strongest, no doubt, in Southern Italy, but extending more or less over the Peninsula.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—The correspondent of the Boston Herald says, on Wednesday, June 27, the test vote taken in the Senate to-day on universal suffrage for this District shows that the bill will be passed by a large vote. It is a substitute for the House bill which passed in January, and consequently goes to that body for concurrence.

The Special Committee appointed to investigate the assault on Congressman Grinnell, completed their labors to-day. The chairman is in favor of expelling Rousseau, but it is believed the Committee will agree to a resolution of censure.

The Senate, in executive session, has refused to confirm a single nomination of the President for internal revenue officers in Tennessee. The appointees were all the President's friends.

[If instead of friends, we read sycophants, we shall probably come near the truth.]

N. H. LEGISLATURE, June 27. In the House a bill was passed appropriating fifteen thousand dollars for enlarging the Asylum for the Insane; a bill appropriating seventeen thousand dollars for the State Reform School at Manchester was ordered to a second reading. The Committee on the Judiciary reported a bill increasing in the sum of four hundred dollars each of the salaries of the Chief Justice and Associate Justices of the Supreme Court. The bill removing the May term of Court in Hillsboro' county from Amherst to Wilton failed to pass the House and was recommitted to the delegation from that county.

LEGISLATURE.—In the House, Wednesday, a bill to regulate the sale of spirituous or malt liquors, [a license law, $100 to $300,] introduced by Mr. Brewster of this city, was read twice and referred to the Committee on Judiciary.

The Committee on Manufactures reported the bill to incorporate the Kearsarge Mills, with amendments, limiting the place of business to Portsmouth, and limiting the capital to $1,000,000, which were adopted, and the bill ordered to a third reading. At the afternoon session the bill was read a third time, and passed.

THE VALLEY OF THE AMAZON.—In a lecture on the Amazon, delivered at Rio Janeiro, Prof. Agassiz said the general impression in regard the Amazon river was very erroneous, not only in regard to the climate of that region, which he had been informed was unhealthy, but also as to its fertility. He found the valley of the Amazon uncommonly fertile and its climate very healthy. It was his opinion that it would one day become the mart of the world, supporting in comfort twenty millions of inhabitants.

REASONS WHY THE

AMERICAN WATCH,

MADE AT WALTHAM, MASS.

IS THE BEST.

It is made on the best principle. Its frame is composed of SOLID PLATES. NO jar can interfere with the harmony of its working and no sudden shock can damage its machinery. Every piece is made and finished by machinery (itself famous for its novelty, as well as for its effectiveness) and is therefore properly made. The watch is what all mechanism should be—ACCURATE, SIMPLE, STRONG AND ECONOMICAL. Except some high grades, too costly for general use, foreign watches are chiefly made by women and boys. Such watches are composed of several hundred pieces, screwed and riveted together, and require constant repairs to keep them in any kind of order. All persons who have carried "uncres," "lepines," and "English Patent Levers," are perfectly well aware of the truth of this statement.

At the beginning of our enterprise, more than ten years ago, it was our first object to make a thoroughly good low-priced watch for the million, to take the place of those foreign impositions—the refuse of foreign factories—which were entirely unsaleable at home and perfectly worthless everywhere.

How well we have accomplished this may be understood from the fact, that after so many years of public trial, we now make MORE THAN HALF OF ALL THE WATCHES SOLD IN THE UNITED STATES, and that no others have ever given such universal satisfaction. While this department of our business is continued with increased facilities for perfect work, we are at present engaged in the manufacture of watches of the very HIGHEST GRADE KNOWN TO CHRONOMETRY, unequalled by anything hitherto made by ourselves, and unsurpassed by anything made in the world. For this purpose we have the amplest facilities. We have erected an addition to our main buildings expressly for this branch of our business, and have filled it with the best workmen in our service. New machines and appliances have been constructed, which perform their work with consummate delicacy and exactness. The choicest and most approved materials only are used, and we challenge comparison between this grade of our work and the finest imported chronometers. We do not pretend to sell our watches for less money than foreign watches, but we do assert without fear of contradiction that for the same money our product is incomparably superior. All our watches, of whatever grade, are fully warranted and this warrantee is good at all times against us or our agents in all parts of the world.

CAUTION.—The public are cautioned to buy only of respectable dealers. All persons selling counterfeits will be prosecuted.

☞ If fair weather, KNIGHTS' CORNET BAND will give their FIRST PUBLIC REHEARSAL, This (Friday) Evening, June 29, at 8 o'clock, on Market Square.

POLICE COURT, June 28.—Mary Dolland, for drunkenness, was fined $1 and costs, $3.86. However much we are grieved to record such a failing in a woman, we think our city has cause to be proud of the small per centage of female drunkards which mar her fair fame as compared with the proportion in other cities.

Jos. Berry and Martin Burns, for an assault upon a colored gentleman, (who, according to statements of our police, has an unfortunate penchant for visiting such places as any man, white or black, had best keep at a distance,) were each fined $5 and one-half of costs.

☞ Our irresponsible contributor bands in the following:

"Some years ago a man in Lowell proposed this conundrum:

'What is so rare as a day in June?'

Even the Sphynx has failed to answer this, but from data preserved through a long series of years, I am prepared to state that a night in June is just as rare as a day in the same month, there being just thirty of each.

The idea that the waterfall has gone out of fashion is an erroneous one. The largest waterfall that has attracted my attention as yet, came near being upon my own head, a few evenings since—being poured from a pitcher held out of a second story window, while I was passing on the sidewalk below."

☞ A friend has given us a specimen of the Raymond gold-bearing ore, from the farm recently purchased for $20,000 by Ex-Gov. Gilmore. It is quite a glittering specimen, but our "irresponsible" suggests is by no means as attractive in appearance as some valueless stones he has seen, "where the crystal quartz sticks up in pints."

☞ It will be seen that Morris Brothers and Trowbridge's Minstrel Troupe are to favor us with one of their pleasing concerts on Tuesday evening next.

☞ Oh, dear! the Portland Advertiser objects to our comments upon the Portland editors' dispute as to good looks, wishes "New Hampshire editors would mind their own business," and calls us an "outsider." "You're pretty good-looking, but you can't come in," up this way, Br. Newman.

NEW ORLEANS ITEMS, June 27.—The favorable reception of the Levee Commissioners at Washington gives pleasure here; also the reported return of Gen. Canby, who is popularly known as a prudent old soldier.

A general order has been issued by Gen. Seymour, commanding at Pensacola, establishing, virtually, martial law over five counties in Florida in consequence of the civil authorities having failed to prevent crimes being committed upon persons of loyal citizens and soldiers.

— General Fremont and wife called on John Brent, mate of the Dean Richmond, on Wednesday, and presented him with a magnificent gold watch, as a token of their gratitude for saving their son's life on the 9th of June.

— The cultivation of teain India is a great success. The government factory turned out 19,125 pounds last season, of which 1720 pounds were purchased from native zemindars.

— Mrs. John A. Brigham, of Boston, was thrown from a carriage at Lawrence on the 16th, and died on Saturday last. She was formerly a teacher at Lawrence, and had been married but two weeks.

Perry's Moth and Freckle Lotion.

☞ Chloasma, or Mothpatch, (also called Liver-spot,) and Lentigo, or Freckles, are often very annoying, particularly to ladies of light complexion, for the discolored spots show more plainly on the face of a blonde than of a brunette; but they greatly mar the beauty of either, and any preparation that will effectually remove them, without injuring the texture or color of the skin, is certainly a desideratum. Dr. B. C. Perry, who has made diseases of the skin a speciality, has discovered a remedy for those discolorations, which is at once prompt, infallible and harmless.

Prepared by B. C. PERRY, Dermatologist, No. 49 Bond Street, New York, and for sale by all druggists; price $2 per bottle. Call for

HYGIENIC WINE!
HAS FOR ITS BASE
One of the Finest of Pure Wines.

A WINE grown on the sunny slopes of Spain—the genuine juice of the Grape in all its purity, as bestowed upon us by the beneficent GIVER, and such as is, alone, consistent with Christian teachings—not intoxicating in the least—will supply a want greatly felt in this country.

Such is HYGIENIC WINE,
A Bitter Aromatic.

It is conscientiously recommended to LADIES as a tonic which will soothe the nerves, renew the blood, and gently stimulate and invigorate the system.

☞ All persons of sedate habits—ministers, lawyers, and professional men, possessing constitutions more delicate than others of less confining labors—those who expend a great deal of vitality in brain work—will at once acknowledge the superiority of this restorative; for while it acts as a nervine, imparting a genial glow to the blood, it leaves behind none of the baneful influences of Alcholic preparations.

It stands unrivalled as a Tonic of the Digestive Organs, the best promoter of an appetite, and we warrant that upon trial HYGIENIC WINE will be found to be the finest, most delicious, and healthful Tonic known. Ask for it.

Address orders for this superior article to

REED, CUTLER & CO.,
Boston,
Agents for New England.

N. B.—Hygienic Wine is an imported Tonic; has the approval of the "IMPERIAL SOCIETY OF MEDICINE OF PARIS," and was tested by the Committee on Chemistry of the American Medical Association, assembled in Baltimore May 1st, 1866, and endorsed by 50 prominent members with their signatures.

Elegant Residence for Sale.

[On account of removal of owner.]

The well known and beautifully situated CUTTS HOUSE, on North Road, Portsmouth, recently occupied by Chas. Amory, Esq. The House contains eighteen rooms, with elegant ballroom, billiard room, (containing a table in good order,) nursery, and all requisites for a properly arranged family mansion.

The House is in excellent repair, having been thoroughly refitted a year or two since, while its propinquity to the beaches, and the facilities which it affords for charming rides and pleasure sailing, render it one of the most desirable estates in the market.

The House is furnished with double windows (each with a sliding pane) throughout, is heated by a furnace, and many of the rooms have also elegant marble mantels and grates. In addition to the superior cellar, there is a first class wine cellar. The house is fitted throughout with Straw Matting.

The out-buildings are very complete.—A STABLE, with accommodations for five horses; CARRIAGE HOUSE; a splendid Harness Room, finished in chestnut and black walnut, with glass cases for harness; Cow House, &c.

If desirable, more land, adjoining, could doubtless be purchased.

The grounds comprise about four acres, with terraced Lawn, fine old trees and thrifty shrubbery—and is so situated as to command a delightful view of forest, city and river. The winding drive about the house is underlaid with stone, and laid with shells.

JUNE PICTURES.

June's glorious sun unclouded shines,
And not a bud unopened linger;
The lark laugh, and 'mid their vines
The golden-petaled eglantines
Tangled their fragrant fingers.

The epaulette blackbird sings
His love-song in the rushy meadows;
And orioles on flaming wings
Dart through the orchard openings,
And flash into the shadows.

After the rake, a silver sheet
Girdled with swells of green, lies sleeping;
The brooks that in its bosom meet
I see not, but their foam-shod feet
I hear, the ledges leaping.

In groups beneath the pasture trees,
Full fed, the cows lie drowsing;
The locust grove's alive with bees,
With song like that of summer seas.
Among the blooms carousing.

Young quail are whistling in the brake
(Each day their faltering notes grow firmer,)
The kingbirds cheerful music make,—
And doves the woodland echoes wake
With soft and amorous murmur.

Sweet is the noontide of the year
That crowns the world with chaplets floral,
Bids the old Eden re-appear,
And makes a perfumed atmosphere
With living music choral.

Leave your dull haunts, ye human moles,
Blindly for sordid treasures mining;
By verdurous paths seek brighter goals,
And wreath around your jaded souls
The garlands June is twining.

☞ Dr. Mussey, whose death we announced lately, when he resided at Hanover, N. H., had a reputation for skill which is seldom acquired in this country, and his field of practice extended over a wide district in Vermont and New Hampshire. He was generous and kind, and the poor of that neighborhood were often attended to gratuitously.

A writer in the Traveller, more than 30 years ago, heard this story respecting him: He had been doctoring a girl at Norwich for several months, and finally, thanks to his assiduity and skill, the patient was cured. She expected a heavy bill, which it would require a long time for her to pay, and it was with a heavy heart that she visited him and asked what his charge would be.

He asked her if she did not during the summer and fall spin wool for a living—an occupation that paid less than one shilling per day in those "good old times;" the response being in the affirmative, he said—"Well, I guess you better come over to my house and spin for a week." The week's work was all he ever asked for his services.

— Governor Swann of Maryland has refused to call a special session of the Legislature of that State, to ratify the Constitutional amendment.

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN PATENTS
R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents,
Late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1857, 78 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON.
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting Ten Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.
The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.
These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond doubt, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such considerable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most beneficial attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN LANGART
During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twelve rejected applications SIXTEEN AMENDMENTS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

ROGUES KILLED BY LIGHTNING.—Four men who had committed some crimes and were being pursued by officers of the law near Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, recently took shelter under a tree during a thunder storm, when all four were struck by lightning and instantly killed. Strange to say, the tree was untouched by the electric fluid, at any rate exhibited no traces of it, while the ground was torn up for several feet around.

— The Garden of Plants, Paris, contains 6000 different sorts of birds.

— The wheat crop in Illinois promises a good yield. The harvest is now in progress.

— Orders have been issued to stop the further printing of the five cent fractional currency notes.

— Mehemet Ali Pasha has just given his brother-in-law, the Sultan, an inkstand which cost $40,000; it is of gold, adorned with diamonds.

— Votaire is slightly personal when he says that ideas are like beards—men get them when they grow up, and women never have any.

— Beautiful was the reply of a venerable man to the question whether he was still in the land of the living: "No but I am almost there."

— A theatre agent in Portland having very politely sent a package of tickets to the office of Zion's Advocate, the editor reciprocated the attention by sending the whole troupe a standing invitation to the Baptist prayer meeting.

— In a late number of the Richmond Enquirer is a striking example of what justice means in Virginia. In a list of persons that had been sentenced for various crimes, we find out "Edward Lee, negro, sentenced for life for grand larceny." In the same list is a sentence of a white man for grand larceny for two years.

— The Albany Argus says the prospects for a large wheat crop in Central New York are very good. The farmers all agree that their wheat looks look well, and there is no disposition to indulge in croaking. The late rain and warm weather have greatly improved the crops in Maryland.

— We think that there is but one opinion among the best financiers of the country, as well as among the disinterested masses, with regard to the continued non-taxation of the government bonds, and that is, that this exemption should be removed just as far and as fast as it can be done legally and equitably, faith being preserved toward creditors and due attention always being paid to the current financial interests of the Government.

SATURDAY, JUNE 30, 1866.

☞ The Augusta (Ga.) Constitutionalist concludes a long article as follows:

"If the freedmen are taught to read, they will soon come in possession of the truth concerning themselves and the slave trade, and the part performed by the North in that trade. They can also learn that their emancipation by Mr. Lincoln was defended as a 'war measure,' and was not based upon love for the negro. They will discover that the secret of the radical party is not that it hates the negro less, but his former master more. The South has everything to hope and nothing to fear from a proper education of the negro."

Well, then, go ahead and educate him.

— In view of the unsettled condition of the country politically, the President has been importuned to call a general convention of the States, in the hope that the present uncertainty may be removed.—Copperhead Exch.

How does it happen to be the President's province to call a Convention? He has no such power in the Constitution. Congress is required to call a Convention to propose Amendments of Constitution, when requested by the Legislatures of two-thirds of the States. But the President has no more right or power to Convene the States than Ex-Gov. Wise or Gen. Beauregard. No doubt he is importuned to do all sorts of foolish things, by the mercenary and reckless adventurers who have gathered round him to endorse his policy, save their own necks, and feather their own nests. The President himself has done more to unsettle politics than anybody except the rebels. But the people will settle them and him. He is only the President, not the Congress, not even "the State,"—and if he should order the tide not to rise on the sea shore, at the importunity of his friends, it is not certain that the tide would obey. U. T.

☞ The Board of Excise Commissioners in New York having refused to obey the order of the Court of Common Pleas restraining them from enforcing the new law against certain parties who had obtained decrees of injunction from the Court, Judge Cardozo, on Tuesday, administered a sharp rebuke, and announced his intention to use all the legal remedies in his power to make the will of the Court respected. The indignant Judge, in reviewing the action of the Commissioners, said:—

"I shall not only, after having decided that the plaintiffs are absolutely entitled to an injunction, not attach any condition to it, but whenever I am applied to I will grant injunctions in favor of any one who may be interfered with under a pretence of a statute which I have declared wholly void. And perhaps if the defendents do not already know it, very little inquiry will enable them to learn that, no matter how exalted the offender, when I, as Judge of this Court, issue an order, there is some danger in disobeying, evading or trifling with it in any respect."

Judge Cardozo is evidently infallible in his own opinion,—and like some Presidents and other great men, fancies that his policy is the only true way.—But possibly he, as well as they, may lie under a mistake.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—The Richmond and other Southern Journals received in Washington warmly endorse the National Union Convention called to meet in Philadelphia in August. They say it will give the South a chance to be heard, and that every Southern State will be represented.

The House of Representatives are considering the Tariff bill. Mr. Morrill made an hour's speech in favor of it, in which he gave rather a gloomy account of the financial condition of affairs, and declared that we were farther off from specie payments now than twelve months ago. He put the currency circulation of the country at over nine hundred millions of dollars, and called it an alarming and monstrous fact.

It is one of the effects of the war—and a good positive tariff, of specific duties, would help the case some.

Gen. Lowell reports that the issue of rations to freedmen in Virginia is steadily decreasing, and recommends the consolidation of sub-districts and a reduction of the agents of the Bureau to one-third the present number. The demand for labor is much greater than the supply.

A PANIC AMONG OXEN.—A terrible accident occurred recently at a large cattle fair in Le Blanc, France. A sudden panic seized the oxen brought there for sale, which, to the number of more than one thousand two hundred, set off at a furious speed in the same direction, overthrowing everything in their way. At last they came to a wall and hedge inclosing a field, both of which were borne down by the shock, and the animals escaped into the country. As the ground on the outside of the fence was about four feet lower than on the inside, the oxen fell on each other, carrying with them seven or eight persons who happened to be near the spot. At the foot of the wall two men were found crushed to death, and four others severely injured, but only one of them dangerously. Two oxen were also killed. Seven persons received hurts by being thrown down and trampled on.

— A conscientious critic has come to the conclusion that the difference between Tayle's works and Beadle's dime novels is, that while the one are sententious, the others are ten-cents-ious.

—— Rev. J. L. Merrill was installed pastor of the Congregational Church in Acworth, June 13th.

—— Julia Deane Freeman, whose literary nom de plume was "May Forest," died at Conway, last week.

—— The Congregational church at Sanbornton Bridge has received $2000 from the family of John Mooney, as a permanent fund to aid in the support of the Gospel.

—— Rev. T. P. Sawin was dismissed from his pastoral charge of the Congregational Church in Brookline, Mass. May 18. He has removed to Manchester to take charge of the Mission church, over which he was fomerly settled, and from which he was dismissed ten years ago and became pastor at Brookline.

A WISE AND IMPORTANT MEASURE.—A congressional correspondent of the Boston Daily Advertiser states that on the 13th inst., a bill very noiselessly became a law, than which no more important measure has been passed this session. Direct and practical in its bearing upon the reconstruction question, it will prove in due course of time a most powerful and beneficial element in solution of the great social and political problem in the South,—namely, the act supplementary to the great homestead bill throwing open the public lands in the States of Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Arkansas and Florida to the poor whites and colored people of the South. The effect of this law, the writer thinks, will be to break down the land monopoly of the ex-slave-holding classes of the South, that has been the root of slavery and rebellion. It will, by enabling the poor whites and emancipated slaves to become possessors of lands in their own right and to pursue the road to independence and wealth, work a complete regeneration of the South in a few years. It will redeem the immense wastes of that favored land, and, by developing its untouched resources, add vastly to the national affluence and prosperity.

The quantity of surveyed unsold public land in the five States referred to, all of which will become subject to entry by actual settlers under the bill, was in February last forty-six millions three hundred and ninety-eight thousand five hundred and forty-four acres. Of course, not all of this domain is capable of cultivation. But most of it is, according to the records of the General Land Office, and it will afford homes to hundreds of thousands of settlers. Gen. Howard, as soon as the President has signed the bill, will send out special instructions to the agents of the Bureau to take every pains to inform the colored people of the nature of the act, and to induce them to exercise the right of selecting homesteads on the public lands conferred upon them by it.

GENEROUS.—F. W. Warner, Esq., of Concord, makes the following liberal offer to disabled soldiers of this State, whereby they may fit themselves for the duties of accountants, copyists, telegraph operators, &c.:

I will donate a Life Scholarship in the the New Hampshire Commercial College to one disabled soldier in each county in this State. Applications should be made to the Judge of Probate, who is authorized to make the appointment of the most worthy applicant for the county in which he may reside, subject only to the following conditions: That the applicant shall bear satisfactory certificate of moral character, and shall commence the course of study prior to the first of September.

I remain, very truly yours,
F. W. WARNER,
Principal N. H. Commercial College.

☞ The New York World does not relish the call for the Johnson national convention, which it regards as the beginning of a third party movement. It says:

"To the earlier formation of a third party we should have had no objections, especially as its materials would be drawn from the Republicans. But we deem it our duty to say now, what time will certainly verify, that the Democratic party will not merge its existence in the proposed new organization."

It then goes on to say that the Republican party being unanimous against the new project, the latter would have no voice in the press, and no influence except that derived from the use of the public patronage, which would amount to nothing, in consequence of the Republican control of the United States Senate, to which all nominations must be subject.

IN CONGRESS, the Foreign Affairs Committee of the House will make important reports Monday on Mexico and the Fenian question. They will report adversely to a repeal of the Neutrality laws.

The Board, which examined the site near Portland, Me., for a fresh water basin for iron-clads, have reported adversely on the subject.

HEAVY LIFE INSURANCE.—It is stated that J. W. Crafts, of South Boston, accidentally killed a month or two since by coming in contact with a knife in his pork packing establishment, had his life insured for fully $120,000, in thirteen companies. One policy had been running for thirty years.

IN DEATH NOT DIVIDED.—On Thursday last, Mr. Samuel Smith, of Bristol, R. I., deceased, having reached within a few days the age of eighty-eight years. On Friday, the day following, his wife nearly eighty-six years, died without knowing of the death of her husband. She had been for many years his careful and anxious attendant, and though of late her mind through disease and age had become clouded, on Friday during a lucid interval she inquired after her husband, and was answered "he sleeps sweetly." Expressing her gratification at what she understood to be the repose of health, she herself sunk into that slumber which knows no waking here. They had been married 67 years, and had been separated in all that time only three nights. The nearest relative of Mr. Smith present at the funeral was his brother, Bishop Smith, of Kentucky. Both coffins were placed side by side in one box, and lowered into one grave.

TEXAS.—A Fireman's festival took place recently in Houston, Texas, during which there was not a single American flag in the procession, at the banquet, or at the ball, while rebel tunes were played, cheers given to Jeff. Davis, and a "Dixie" serenade given to a military commission. In the parade a truck drawn by four white horses, upon which was arranged a canopy, and in this was placed a monument in memory of the Confederate dead, and in this again was seated a beautiful girl mourning for the "dear nation and its martys." She wore red, white and red, with crape over the stars which represented the Southern States, and manacles on her hands with chains at her feet, as indicative of the condition of her own native land.

These things, and the late election, do not show great signs of speedy reconstruction in Texas.

N. H. LEGISLATURE.—Thursday afternoon, June 28, in the House, at 5 o,clock, the unfinished business of the morning was resumed, which was the joint resolution ratifying an amendment to the Constitution of the United States. The rules were so far suspended as to allow the Speaker to vote. The roll was then commenced. While the members were answering their names the lobbies and gallery were crowded with spectators, and all listened to the response with intense interest. One county after another, from Rockingham to Coos, showed a strict party vote, as has been anticipated. At twenty-five minutes to six, Speaker Pike reported the vote as being two hundred and three yeas, one hundred and seven nays, and the resolution passed. This announcement was no sooner made than the most enthusiastic applause commenced on the floor of the hall and continued for several moments; the pleasant but dignified presiding officer somewhat reluctantly rose to beckon for order, but as good fortune would have it his gavel broke at the first blow, and powerless to make himself heard he smilingly sat down, while applause louder than ever before broke forth and sent its echoes far up and down the busy streets surrounding the Capitol grounds.—Five Republicans and eleven Democrats were absent.

☞ A very interesting event took place in the good old town of Ipswich, in Essex county, Mass., on Thursday. It was the celebration of the 40th anniversary of the settlement of Rev. Daniel Fitz, D. D., as Pastor of the South Congregational Church and Society in that town, and also the observance of the completion of one hundred years since the ordination of his predecessor, the late Rev. Dr. Joseph Dana. It is stated that these two clergymen were the only two candidates heard by the church, the only two pastors settled, and the only persons thought of for the office. Is there another church in New England which can present a parallel history?

☞ A severe thunder storm passed over Portland, Me., Wednesday afternoon. At Windham a lady thirty years old was instantly killed, a girl of twelve years fatally and an old lady were slightly injured by lightning while sitting together. A barn in Lisbon belonging to S. G. Newell was struck by lightning and destroyed with seven tons of hay.

STRIKE AT AN END.—The New York ship caulkers have returned to work upon the old time, and at the old prices—the bosses having succeeded in resisting the demand for the eight hour system, while the men still retain their organization.

— A horticulturalist advertised that he would supply all sorts of fruit trees and plants, especially pie-plants of all kinds. A gentleman thereupon sent him an order for one package of custard-pie seed, and a dozen mince-pie plants. The gentleman promptly filled the order by sending him four goose eggs and a small dog.

— As far as our experience goes, we have found that in every family where the J. Monroe Taylor Gold Medal Soap has been tested, it is found to be among the indispensables. We are very glad to find that it is in constant use in every household where its merits have become known. The ladies find it a safe and reliable article for cleaning paint, etc., as well as in washing the finest fabrics. It is appropriately called the Queen of Soaps, and stands at the head of its class. 105

HYGIENIC WINE!

HAS FOR ITS BASE

One of the Finest of Pure Wines.

A WINE grown on the sunny slopes of Spain—the genuine juice of the Grape in all its purity, as bestowed upon us by the beneficent GIVER, and such as is, alone, consistent with Christian teaching—not intoxicating in the least—will supply a want greatly felt in this country.

Such is HYGIENIC WINE,

A Bitter Aromatic.

It is conscientiously recommended to LADIES as a tonic which will soothe the nerves, renew the blood, and gently stimulate and invigorate the system.

☞ All persons of sedate habits—ministers, lawyers, and professional men, possessing constitutions more delicate than others of less confining labors—those who expend a great deal of vitality in brain work—will at once acknowledge the superiority of this restorative; for while it acts as a nervine, imparting a genial glow to the blood, it leaves behind none of the baneful influences of Alcholic preparations.

It stands unrivalled as a Tonic of the Digestive Organs, thereby creating a healthy appetite, and we warrant that upon trial HYGIENIC WINE will be found to be the finest, most delicious, and healthful Tonic known. Ask for it.

REASONS WHY THE

AMERICAN WATCH,

MADE AT WALTHAM, MASS:

IS THE BEST.

It is made on the best principle. Its frame is composed of SOLID PLATES. NO jar can interfere with the harmony of its working and no sudden shock can damage its machinery. Every piece is made and finished by machinery (itself famous for its novelty, as well as for its effectiveness) and is therefore properly made. The watch is what all mechanism should be—ACCURATE, SIMPLE, STRONG AND ECONOMICAL. Except some high grades, too costly for general use, foreign watches are chiefly made by women and boys. Such watches are composed of several hundred pieces, screwed and riveted together, and require constant repairs to keep them in any kind of order. All persons who have carried "snegres," "lepines," and "English Patent Levers," are perfectly well aware of the truth of this statement.

At the beginning of our enterprise, more than ten years ago, it was our first object to make a thoroughly good low-priced watch for the million, to take the place of these foreign impositions—the refuse of foreign factories—which were entirely unsaleable at home and perfectly worthless everywhere.

How well we have accomplished this may be understood from the fact, that after so many years of public trial, we now make MORE THAN HALF OF ALL THE WATCHES SOLD IN THE UNITED STATES, and that no others have ever given such universal satisfaction. While this department of our business is continued with increased facilities for perfect work, we are at present engaged in the manufacture of watches of the very HIGHEST GRADE KNOWN TO CHRONOMETRY, unequalled by anything hitherto made by ourselves, and unsurpassed by anything made in the world. For this purpose we have the amplest facilities. We have erected an addition to our main buildings expressly for this branch of our business, and have filled it with the best workmen in our service. New machines and appliances have been constructed, which perform their work with consummate delicacy and exactness. The choicest and most approved materials only are used, and we challenge comparison between this grade of our work and the finest imported chronometers. We do not pretend to sell our watches for less money than foreign watches, but we do assert without fear of contradiction that for the same money our product is incomparably superior. All our watches, of whatever grade, are fully warranted and this warrantee is good at all times against us or our agents in all parts of the world.

CAUTION.—The public are cautioned to buy only of respectable dealers. All persons selling counterfeits will be prosecuted.

OREGON.—Complete returns from the Oregon election give the following Union majorities: Mallory, for Congress, 555; Woods, for Governor, 327. The remainder of the ticket receives a still larger majority. The Legislature stands—Senate, 8 Union majority; House, 3 Union majority.

The telegraph reports numerous Indian murders and outrages near Los Angelos and on the Colorado river.

MEXICAN NEWS, via San Francisco, speaks of disaster to the Liberals in Sonora.

☞ On Thursday afternoon a valuable horse attached to a wagon load of iron work belonging to the Atlantic Iron Works, backed overboard from the East Boston ferry-boat Gen. Grant, and was drowned, the driver saving himself and the cushion to his seat. It was reported that the hands on board the boat neglected to fasten the chain across the end of the boat, but such appears not to be the fact. The boat was crowded with teams, and the chain was stretched across the boat, but passed between the spokes of one of the hind wheels of the Atlantic Company's wagon, and was liable to chafe the paint. The driver observing this, unhitched the chain, and was in the act of passing it outside of the rim of the wheel, when a team forward of his backed a step or two, causing his horse to back overboard.

Reader, this is Dyspepsia—we bid you eat as heartily as you please, and anything you choose, even the richest food, and if you will follow it with a single spoonful of Coe's Dyspepsia Cure, you need not fear any distressing effects from it. Holloway's Pills and Ointment.—CANCER.—The days of "brilliant operations" are no more. The discovery of Holloway's Ointment dispensed with the necessity of the knife, which frequently endangered the life of the patient. Thousands of females have been cured of cancer in the breast by the medicating action of the Ointment, and their lives spared to their families. The salve follows the cancer in its tortuous wending, and imperceptibly but thoroughly and painlessly eradicates it from the system. The Pills cleanse and purify the blood. Sold by all Druggists. je30-1wdaw

A Household Necessity Exists for the Use of Dr. Duncan's Catarrh Snuff. Which, in the first stages of a cold, acts like magic—Headache, Hoarseness, Diptheria, and Bronchitis, Sore Eyes, Deafness, Bad Taste and Smell, being the result of Catarrh. This snuff removes and prevents all these, and insures a healthy Head. Its effects are pleasant and safe, even for infants who suffer from snuffles.

It has the highest professional testimonials.—Sold by all Druggists, or sent by mail to all parts of U. S., for 30 cts. for one Box, or $1 for four Boxes. Address JAS. DUENO,

Perry's Moth and Freckle Lotion.

☞ Chloasma, or Mothpatch, (also called Liver-spot,) and Lentigo, or Freckles, are often very annoying, particularly to ladies of light complexion, for the discolored spots show more plainly on the face of a blonde than of a brunette; but they greatly mar the beauty of either and any preparation that will effectually remove them, without injuring the texture or color of the skin, is certainly a desideratum. DR. B. C. PERRY, who has made diseases of the skin a specialty, has discovered a remedy for these discolorations, which is at once prompt, infallible and harmless.

Prepared by B. C. PERRY, Dermatologist, No. 49 Bond Street, New York, and for sale by all druggists; price $2 per bottle. Call for

The well known and beautifully situated CUTTS' HOUSE, on North Road, Portsmouth, recently occupied by Chas. Amory, Esq. The House contains eighteen rooms, with elegant bath-room, billiard room, (containing a table in good order,) nursery, and all requisites for a properly arranged family mansion.

The House is in excellent repair, having been thoroughly refitted a year or two since, while its proximity to the beaches, and the facilities which it affords for charming rides and pleasure sailing, render it one of the most desirable estates in the market.

The House is furnished with double windows (each with a sliding pane) throughout, is heated by a furnace, and many of the rooms have also elegant marble mantels and grates. In addition to the superior cellar, there is a first class wine cellar. The house is fitted throughout with Straw Matting.

The out-buildings are very complete. A STABLE, with accommodations for five horses; CARRIAGE HOUSE; a splendid Harness Room, finished in chestnut and black walnut, with glass cases for harness; Cow House, &c.

If desirable, more land, adjoining, could doubtless be purchased.

The grounds comprise about four acres, with terraced Lawn, fine old trees and thrifty shrubbery—and is so situated as to command a delightful view of forest, city and harbor. The winding drive about the house is underlaid with stone, and laid with tiles.

Morning Chronicle.

NOT A CHRISTIAN, BUT A BAGGAGE MASTER.—The Nashville (Tenn.) Republican says that an accident recently happened to a train on the Atlantic and Great Western Railroad. The baggage-master sat in his car reading at the time, but perceiving by the motion of the car that a great danger was threatened, he attempted to jump out, when he was caught between two boxes and badly jammed. He was taken out in an insensible condition, and being laid upon the ground, an attempt was made to revive him, which proved successful. As he opened his eyes to a consciousness of things, a clergyman stepped out from the circle which surrounded him to offer prayer for his complete restoration. He kneeled down by the side of the victim, but, before proceeding with his work of mercy, he inquired, "Are you a Christian?" "No, sir," as emphatically as his weak condition would allow, "I'm a baggage-master on the Atlantic and Great Western Railroad."

A FOOLISH WAGER.—At Pittsburg, Pa., last Friday a man named Motts made a wager of $40 that he could stand on a post for twenty-four consecutive hours. He accordingly began at ten o'clock in the morning. After he had been standing several hours his feet began to swell, and it became necessary to cut his boots to ease the pain. Later in the day the swelling extended to his legs, and at half past eight in the evening he suffered from numbness of the feet and limbs, and was rubbing the calves of his legs and applying whisky to excite the circulation. Fortunately this unusual spectacle drew so large a crowd that the police finally interfered and forced the man to get down.

WILL CONTESTED.—Miss Hetty Howland Robinson, only daughter and heir-at-law of the late Edward Mott Robinson, formerly of New Bedford, has filed allegations before Surrogate Tucker in New York against the will of her father, charging that its execution was obtained through fraud and undue influence, while he was not of sound and disposing mind. By his will Mr. Robinson gave about $30,000 in legacies; bequeathed one million of dollars to his daughter, to be disposed of she pleases; and left the remainder, about four millions of dollars, in trust, the income to be paid to his daughter, and the whole to go to her children, if she should have any.

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN PATENTS

R. H. EDDY,

Solicitor of Patents,

Late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837,

78 State Street, opposite Kilby Street, BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers connected with the Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, those which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the undersigned and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the undersigned during twenty years past has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides its extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART

During eight months, the subscriber, in charge of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

PURE WATER FOR LONDON.—London is troubled to obtain a supply of pure water. The water level in the wells is constantly sinking. The Thames water is very impure. Eminent engineers think it is settled that artesian wells cannot be relied on to furnish a supply. Mr. Bateman, who has had large experience in hydraulic engineering, proposes as the best plan, that water should be brought from the head waters of the Severn in the mountain ranges of Cader Idris and Pignlimmon in North Wales. He would collect the water into lakes, one of which would be larger than Loch Katrine. The entire length of the aqueduct would be 183 miles. The first cost for a supply of 130,000,000 gallons a day is estimated at £8,600,000.

A LAGER BEER STRIKE IN BAVARIA. There has been a revolution in Munich, in which the troops were called out, and, firing upon the populace, killed four or five of the revolutionists. The brewers had raised the price of beer from six to six and a half kreutzer the "mass." Now, as a "mass" is about half a gallon, and a half kreutzer is about one third of a cent, it would not seem as though this was a very serious attack upon the pockets of the Monichers. They, however, determining to nip in the bud this idea of augmentation, attacked a brewery, and were only dispersed by the fire of the military.

A "CONSERVATIVE."—An English squire (Sir Thomas Bateson) who does not favor the suffrage movement recently informed the House of Commons that the grouping of boroughs in the Redistribution bill before the House had been "lodged," and warned his friends on the opposition benches that "this new-born sympathy for the workingman had been begotten by a lust for power, suckled by the unctuous pap of peripatetic stump orators, and dry-nursed by the insolent threats and swaggering bluster of domineering agitators."

This is better even than some of the famous utterances of Sir Boyle Roche.

NOT A SECESSIONIST.—A St. Louis dispatch says:

A colored barber of this city, who owns some property at Topeka, Kansas, is engaged in the courts proving he was not a member of the Tennessee Convention which passed the ordnance of secession, nor was a captain in the rebel service. It seems he came from Nashville originally, and finding the same name on the records of the Tennessee Convention, the United States authorities confiscated the Topeka property. The confiscation has cost the barber dearly already; and the whole affair is rather rich on the lawyers.

ONCE IN A LIFETIME.—A traveller announces a fact, (and though he is a "traveler," we believe him,) that he once in his life beheld people "minding their own business!" This remarkable occurrence happened at sea—the passengers being to sick to attend to each other's concerns.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth N. H.

MONDAY, JULY 2, 1866.

☞ The Democratic party in Congress have prepared an address to the party generally, advising them to see that there are full delegations of the people at the Philadelphia Convention. This is all right; there is no chance for a third party now. Mr. Doolittle and his associates—the Johnsonians—must either act with the democratic party or with the republican, if they act at all. They must either go for equal representation, according to voters, in the proposed Amendment of the Constitution; or they must agree to the gross inequality now existing in the document! This was the issue in the N. H. Legislature—every member saw it, and voted accordingly.

Mr. Doolittle's party, including the President, advocate letting the ex-rebels come into Congress in full numbers, and then amend the matter of Representation! which means, really, never to amend it, but to recover by gross fraud the power which they lost by rebellion.

The Union Republicans, and two-thirds or three-quarters of Congress, oppose all this, and wish to equalize the matter as far as possible. There are only two sides to this question.

TWO ITEMS.—A correspondent of the New York World, writing from Mobile, Ala., states that there are, according to the best data obtained, as many as one hundred and twenty thousand whites in Alabama that are dependent, some of them only partially it may be, on the United States Government for subsistence. The agent of the bureau at Selma shows by his books an issue of one hundred and forty thousand rations to the needy and infirm, both white and black.

Now, remembering the above item, of 120,000 white sufferers in one State, read the following item, which came the same day.

The Washington correspondent of the New York Express says there is good authority for saying the President will veto the bill extending the Freedmen's Bureau.

The man naturally comes up, does he care any thing at all about humanity or justice? Is he in his right mind? or is he afflicted with policy on the brain?

GREAT EXPECTATIONS.—"Perley" says'—"President Johnson's friends expect that the Philadelphia Convention will be a success, and they profess to have assurances that every State will be respectably represented. Hon. Geo. Ashmun, it is said, will head the delegation from Massachusetts, and among others expected from that State are ex-Gov. Clifford, Gen. Devens, and Hon. Chas. R. Train. The policy men in Maine assert that they can defeat Mr. Lynch in the Portland District if Bion Bradbury can be made Collector.

Do any of the old men remember the howl that was set up, when Henry Clay and his friends united with those of John Quincy Adams? "Corrupt Coalition! Bargain and Corruptions! This administration must be put down, if it were as pure as the Angels of God!" &c., &c.

☞ The successful trip of the monitor Miantonomoh across the Atlantic is deservedly attracting much attention as a great naval triumph, she being the first vessel of the kind that has ever crossed the ocean, although the Monadnock has made an equally perilous and much longer voyage around Cape Horn to San Francisco. Being the first monitor to visit European waters, she will of course attract great attention wherever she goes. Capt. Fox, Assistant Secretary of the Navy, who went out in the Miantonomoh, writes to the Navy Department that our monitors could use their guns in a sea-way when a frigate would find it impossible to use her battery.

HOW IT HAPPENED.—Here is the story of Prince Christian's courtship. Prince Christian is the youth who is to marry the Princess Mary on July 5. Queen Victoria, at the inauguration of a statue to the Prince Consort, saw a gentleman wiping his eyes and looking very much affected, and asked who it was. It proved to be Prince Christian of Schleswig Holstein. From that hour the Queen took the almost unknown, unnoticed and penniless young Prince into favor, and finally bestowed upon him the hand of her daughter. Not however, without the hearty consent of the young Princess herself, who shares her mother's enthusiastic admiration for this tender-hearted Prince, who, like some hero of a fairy tale, won a royal bride by an appropriately dropped tear.

— Barnum says that printers' ink is the best friend he ever had. He invested in it largely by judicious advertiseing, and prospered accordingly.

— Hon. Charles D. Drake of St. Louis estimates that at the next Missouri election the total conservative vote will not exceed 40,000, while the radical vote will amount to 65,000.

— A Louisiana paper says that in that State horse-stealing is managed as follows: The owner of a horse makes a bargain with a thief to take the horse to Iberville or Baton Rouge, and sell him. The thief brings the owner half the money, and tells the name of the purchaser. Then the owner goes and reclaims the horse as having been stolen.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Rev. L. D. Hill, for several years the minister of the Franklin Street Baptist Church, Dover, has resigned his pastorate.

—— Warren Woods, of Hancock, eighty-five years old, committed suicide on Thursday, June 21, because he feared his property couldn't support him much longer.

—— A young man by the name of Charles Church dropped dead on Central street, Dover, last Wednesday evening—supposed from disease of the heart.

—— Saturday night June 23, at Great Falls, Thomas Murphy, being drunk, fell from the door of Elijah Grant's saloon, two or three feet, to the sidewalk, broke his skull, and died. Coroner's Verdict, accident.

—— The Swampscott Machine Co., of South Newmarket, have recently made an addition to their shop of 356 by 46 feet, for the manufacture of gas fittings, portable steam engines, boilers, ships' tanks, gasometers, machinists' tools, iron, and brass castings, steam whistles, &c. One hundred and fifty men are at present employed.

WHAT WILL RECONCILE THE SOUTH.—The Richmond Examiner announces the method by which the Southern people are to be reconciled to the dread necessity of living under the stars and stripes. We are to bestow upon the chiefs of the rebellion the same honors we have so far reserved for the heroes of the Union. We are, for instance, to build a monument to Stonewall Jackson at national expense. The Examiner thinks "it would thrill the heart of the South with grateful and loyal emotions, and would command the unqualified admiration of this and future ages." Very good But the Detroit Post suggests that, inasmuch as they commenced the war, they ought to be the first to offer such tokens of reconciliation. Suppose for instance, they get up a public contribution for the purpose of building a monument to John Brown. Or, suppose they erect the statute of Abraham Lincoln in front of the State House in Virginia. Would not that be apt to "thrill the North with grateful and friendly emotions?"

OUTRAGE IN HOLDEN.—The Worcester Spy states that Stephen Hall of Holden has evidently been guilty of most inhuman and disgusting treatment of his own daughter, now a woman of 25 years old, for the last nine years. He has been convicted of assault and battery in the Worcester Police Court, on the testimony of his neighbors but his daughter was not in a condition, mentally, to testify in regard to graver charges against him. She escaped from her father a few weeks since, and made her appearance at the house of a neighbor, almost destitute of clothing, in a horribly filthy condition, and bearing upon her person the marks of severe abuse. She says she has been kept a close prisoner by her father ever since she was 16 years old, confined in a room without bed, fire or clothing, and subject to infamous treatment. The neighbors of Mr. Hall say that years ago they knew that he had such a daughter, but for years they have not known what had become of her. Her mental condition is deplorable, her sufferings and long confinement having weakened and debilitated her mind to such an extent that her evidence would hardly be admissable in a court of justice. The circumstances of the case, however, all go to confirm her statements, although her father says she is insane and had to be confined.

NAVY YARD GOSSIP FROM WASHINGTON.—A correspondent says:

The New London agents feel sanguine that they will prevent the adoption of the League Island scheme by the Senate, and secure a new examination of their proposed site for an Iron-clad Navy Yard. The adverse report on the proposed site for a basin near Portland shows, however, that the officials are disposed to agree with the Secretary of the Navy, who is strongly prejudiced in favor of League Island. It will be remembered that Ensign E. A. Sawyer, Acting Executive officer in charge of the iron clad fleet at League Island, was discharged from the service a few months since for having expressed his convictions that that mud bank was not a suitable place for a Navy Yard.

☞ At South Reading, Mass. Friday morning, half-past four o'clock, fire broke out on the floor of the five-story wooden building owned by the Boston and Maine Iron Foundry. The flames soon reached the second story, occupied as the varnish, paint and oil room, and the flames spread through the building, which was speedily reduced to a heap of ruins. The building was a hundred feet square, stored nearly full of stoves, a large portion of which were ruined. A watchman is on duty on the premises, and the fire is supposed to have caught from a lighted lamp carelessly placed by the watchman under a wooden shelf. The loss is large, partially covered by insurance.

— There was an extensive discharge of workmen from the Charlestown Navy Yard on Saturday.

— Special Washington dispatches say the total receipts from all sources for the fiscal year ending to-day are estimated at $500,000,000.

THE MEMPHIS MURDERS.—Preceding the expected report of the Congressional Committee, Col. Charles F. Johnson, the Inspector-General of Kentucky and Tennessee, has made a statement of his investigation of the Memphis riots. He traces the remote cause to a standing ill-feeling between the low whites and blacks (who are about equal in intelligence,) which found an occasion for strife in the forcing of a number of negroes off the sidewalk, one of whom tumbled over a policeman, whereupon the policemen drew their revolvers and beat the negroes. On the following day, about the time a crowd of discharged colored soldiers had assembled, the police "fired upon unoffending negroes remote from the riotous quarter," and, (though the colored victims of the original quarrel had returned to Fort Pickering,) reinforced themselves for indiscriminate slaughter, and fired on men, women and children, killing and wounding several. Just at this time, an official Probst is said to have addressed the crowd of murderers: "Boys, I want you to go ahead and kill every one of the nigger race and burn up the cradle." Under this advice negroes were hunted down day and night by policemen, firemen, and others; shot, assaulted and robbed; their houses searched, plundered and burned. All crimes were committed from simple larceny to murder. Several women and children were shot in bed. In some instances houses were fired and armed men guarded them to prevent the escape of the inmates inside.

Loyalists, long residents of Memphis, who "deprecated the riot," were called Yankees, and cautioned to leave the town. Generals of the Freedmen's Bureau and the army found themselves powerless for interference. All that can be said for the Mayor of the town is that he was hopelessly drunk. The fruits of the riot were, as far as can be ascertained, thirty negroes killed and sixty wounded; three negro churches, eight school houses, and about fifty private dwellings burned; and, without counting the large sum of money stolen by policemen from discharged colored soldiers and others, $125,000 worth of various property lost by the United States Government and the negroes. In all this massacre and robbery two white men were killed, one of whom was killed by a white man through mistake, and the other, according to the surgeon who attended him, shot himself by accident.

"CARRY ME BACK."—The York Times is informed by a gentleman from a region in the Southern States where society was greatly broken up, and the population, white and black, greatly scattered by the operations of the war, that, within the last year, the negroes who had fled or taken refuge in far away localities, have nearly all returned to their homesteads where, and the employers by whom, they were brought up. This has been the case to a very great extent throughout the South.

How many hundred times, within forty years, have we been told by conservatives as grave as owls, that if the negroes were set free, they would rush to the North in droves, and dreadful consequences would follow! But we laughed at them then, and they deserve to be laughed at now.

☞ Forty-one new vessels have been added to the Gloucester fishing fleet during the past six months. The average cost of these vessels is about $10,500 apiece, making the total amount $430,500; add to this the amount paid for second-hand schooners that have been bought into the district, and it foots up about half a million of dollars that has thus far been invested in the vessel property, the present year. Several other vessels are building or have been contracted for, which will swell the number to upward of fifty sail—the largest number ever built in one season for that place.

— The Mobile Nationalist shows that the freedmen are both earning and saving money. At the several branches of the Freedmen's Trust and Saving Company, the deposits for March and April amounted to $204,829.98. The amount deposited up to May 1 was $599,897 22; the total deposits paid was $256,774.30, leaving a balance to the depositors of $252,228.83.

— The call of the Illinois Republican State Convention invites voters "who are in favor of keeping traitors out of the halls of Congress, and of asserting and maintaining the right of the people through their representatives in Congress to fix and determine the condition on which States lately in rebellion shall be permitted to participate in the government of the United States."

PURGATIVE PILLS have become a settled necessity with the American people. Indeed, cathartics always have been and always must be used, in some form, by all mankind. In this country, the pillular form of administration has been growing in favor since pills were first made of Aloes and Rhubarb, rolled into a ball. Their high position in the public confidence has finally been secured and fastened into permanency, by AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS, the most skillful combination of medicine for the diseases they are intended to cure, that science can devise or art produce. Those who need pills, no longer hesitate what pills to take if they can get AYER'S PILLS.—Wheeling (Va.) Press.

Since using it, we feel that there is one article in the way of Saleratus that all can use with healthy results. We have almost cured our dyspepsia, and thanks to the Gold Medal Saleratus for it. ☞ Chloasma, or Mothpatch, (also called Liver-spot,) and Lentigo, or Freckles, are often very annoying, particularly to ladies of light complexion, for the disagreeable spots show most plainly on the face of a blonde than of a brunette; but they greatly mar the beauty of either and any preparation that will effectually remove them, without injuring the texture or color of the skin, is certainly a desideratum. DR. B. C. PERRY, who has made diseases of the skin a specialty, has discovered a remedy for these discolorations, which is at once prompt, infallible and harmless.

REASONS WHY THE

AMERICAN WATCH,

MADE AT WALTHAM, MASS:

IS THE BEST.

It is made on the best principle. Its frame is composed of SOLID PLATES. NO jar can interfere with the harmony of the working and no sudden shock can damage its machinery. Every piece is made and finished by machinery (itself famous for its novelty, as well as for its effectiveness) and is therefore properly made. The watch is what all mechanism should be—ACCURATE, SIMPLE, STRONG AND ECONOMICAL. Except some high grades, too costly for general use, foreign watches are chiefly made by women and boys. Such watches are composed of several hundred pieces, screwed and riveted together, and require constant repairs to keep them in any kind of order. All persons who have carried "ancres," "lepines," and "English Patent Levers," are perfectly well aware of the truth of this statement.

At the beginning of our enterprise, more than ten years ago, it was our first object to make a thoroughly good low-priced watch for the million, to take the place of these foreign impositions—the refuse of foreign factories—which were entirely unsaleable at home and perfectly worthless everywhere.

How well we have accomplished this may be understood from the fact, that after so many years of public trial, we now make MORE THAN HALF OF ALL THE WATCHES SOLD IN THE UNITED STATES, and that no others have ever given such universal satisfaction. While this department of our business is continued with increased facilities for perfect work, we are at present engaged in the manufacture of watches of the very HIGHEST GRADE KNOWN TO CHRONOMETRY, unequalled by anything hitherto made by ourselves, and unsurpassed by anything made in the world. For this purpose we have the amplest facilities. We have created an addition to our main buildings expressly for this branch of our business, and have filled it with the best workmen in our service. New machines and appliances have been constructed, which perform their work with consummate delicacy and exactness. The choicest and most approved materials only are used, and we challenge comparison between this grade of our work and the finest imported chronometers. We do not pretend to sell our watches for less money than foreign watches, but we do assert without fear of contradiction that for the same money our product is incomparably superior. All our watches, of whatever grade, are fully warranted and this warrantee is good at all times against us or our agents in all parts of the world.

CAUTION.—The public are cautioned to buy only of respectable dealers. All persons selling counterfeits will be prosecuted.

The Guide to Health and Beauty,

JUST PUBLISHED.

It teaches how to remove Tan, Freckles, Pimples, Blotches, Moth Patches, Sallowness, Eruptions, and all impurities of the skin; how to enamel the skin, leaving it white and clear as alabaster; how to produce the fullest development of the female form (as practised by the French,) causing the bust to grow round and full, and the form has been lost by pudding, lacing, or maternity, restoring it to more than its original fullness, firmness and beauty. It teaches how to reduce in size the hands and feet; produce corpulency or the reverse; remove superfluous hair; cure Corns, Bunions, Warts, and Moles; renew your age; cure Drunkenness, Catarrh, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, &c., how to fascinate and gain the love and affection of any person you may choose, together with other useful and valuable information. No young Lady or Gentleman should fail to send their address to the undersigned and receive by return mail a copy of this valuable work in sealed envelope free of charge. Address

PURIFY THE BLOOD.—If the blood be pure, the body which is formed from and by the blood cannot be diseased. But if there be in any part of the body any affection, such as a boil or ulcer, even a bruise, the blood circulating through that part takes up impure matters from the local affection and carries it into the general system. This is the cause often of sudden death to persons of full habit afflicted with boils and ulcers, and who use no medicine; the matter gets into the circulating system and chokes up the fine blood vessels which supply the brain with vitality, and life ceases as if

Bereft by Lightning.

Now, this can be remedied.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS

take all impure matters from the circulation, and save the general health, soon curing local affections also. BRANDRETH'S PILLS protect from tedious times of sickness and often save life.—Sold by all Druggists. Je29dawlm

WATER FOR THE FOURTH.—A judicious friend suggests to the public, that we have in Portsmouth only two public places where any stranger can get a drink of water, viz., the pump back of the Brick Market, and that in Daniel street; and hopes that the City will provide a place on Market Square with water and ice, where the hundreds of thousands of visitors that day may get a drink of water when they need it, as a great deal will be wanted, especially if it should be a hot day.

We would add our approval of this; and also suggest that the City could not do a better thing at small cost, than to set up some little public fountains, permanently, in such low places as the Court House, Hanover Street Chapel, &c.

☞ Mr. C. T. Lane of Candia, Mail Agent on the C. & P. Railroad, brings very nice Strawberries into this market, we know, for we have a splendid sample box before us, from his hand. They are sold at Batchelder's News Depot, which is also the great Strawberry emporium of the city, and where goodies may always be found in abundance.

☞ A little boy fell from one of our wharves on Saturday, while fishing, and was rescued in rather an exhausted condition. The old lady's advice to her boy, "not to go near the water when he went fishing," still holds good in case of small boys.

☞ A raid was made on a gang of counterfeiters and lottery dealers last Friday night, at Salem, N. H., by Constables TUCK and Dean of Haverhill, Mass., and U. S. Deputy Marshal Morse and City Marshal Kent of this city. Considerable paraphernalia belonging to that class was secured, and the letters and photographs will be of service to the officers hereafter.

☞ House No. 9 Chapel street was sold at auction by Mr. Hackett, on Saturday, for $2000. It was bought by Mr. John Harris, proprietor of the Irish American House, on Bridge street.

☞ The "Philharmonics" having voted to sing at the Temple on the Fourth,—every member is desired to notice the advertisement calling a Rehearsal for this (Monday) evening, at the Temple.

☞ The "I. D. of C." will assemble at the place designated at their meeting, at 6 1-2 o'clock, A. M., July 4th, and will march promptly at 7 o'clock, through the following streets, viz:

Water, Pleasant, State, Middle, Cabot, State, Cass, Islington, Cabot, State, Court, Pleasant, High, Deer, Vaughan, Elm, (countermarching on Christian Shore,) Vaughan, Congress, Islington, to Cabot, countermarching down Islington to Carter's Store, (where a halt will be made and prizes awarded,) Congress, State and Water, where they will be dismissed at or near 8 o'clock. Per order.

The huge disorganized and demoralized body will be examined, corrected and revised and put into new binding, near the Customhouse, on arrival at that point, at 7 1-2 o'clock. U.

— Roxbury is desirous of a supply of pure water.

— At a recent gathering of the Democratic managers in Ohio, Vallandigham's proposition to stump the State was respectfully declined. They had had enough of that on a former occasion.

— The Leavenworth Bulletin places at the head of its editorial columns the following ticket: "For President in 1868—Ulysses S. Grant. For Vice President—A man we can trust."

— Schooner Elihu Burritt, Elwell, arrived at Gloucester, Mass. on Monday, from George's with a good fare of fish, having made the trip in six days. We believe this is the shortest trip ever made to the banks.

— The Lafayette (Ind.) Courier says:—An estimable lady of this county, a witness in court, the other day testified that she was sixteen years of age, had been twice married, and was the mother of two children.

— The Louisville Journal states that a live frog was found on the 13th ult., in a block of marble, in Springfield, Ky., the stone having been quarried from a depth of ten feet below the surface of the earth. The frog lived four days afterward.

— Advices from the South represent trade as at a complete stand still, and those engaged in it as much discouraged in consequence. Large quantities of goods received from the North were being offered in some of the leading cities at far less than their cost, but the lack of money as a general thing prevented their purchase.

Holloway's Pills and Ointment.—CANCER.—The days of "brilliant operations" are no more. The discovery of Holloway's Ointment dispenses with the necessity of the knife, which frequently endangered the life of the patient. Thousands of females have been cured of cancer in the breast by the medicating action of the Ointment and their lives preserved to their families. The salve follows the cancer in its tortuous winding, and imperceptibly but thoroughly and painlessly eradicates it from the system. The Pills cleanse and purify the blood. WHO IS TO BLAME? If people grow thin and emaciated, and fairly die out by inches from the ravages of dyspepsia and indigestion, and who will pity such people, in their distress and suffering, when they neglect to avail themselves of the only remedy yet discovered that will cure them, and which we have again and again repeated and recommended as a certain cure for dyspepsia—we refer to Cox's Dyspepsia Cure. It is certainly the greatest miracle of the age, for it cures all disorders of the stomach and bowels.

Ayer's Pills.

ARE you sick, feeble and complaining? Are you out of order, with your system deranged and your feelings uncomfortable? These symptoms are often the prelude to serious illness. Some fit of sickness is creeping upon you, and should be averted by a timely use of the right remedy. Take Ayer's Pills, and cleanse out the disordered humors—purify the blood, and let the fluids move on unobstructed in health again. They stimulate the functions of the body into vigorous activity, purify the system from obstructions which make disease. A cold settles somewhere in the body, and deranges its natural functions. These, if not relieved, re-act upon themselves and the surrounding organs, producing general aggravation, suffering and mismanagement. While in this condition, take Ayer's Pills and see how directly they restore the natural action of the system, and with it the buoyant feeling of health again. What is true and so apparent in this trivial and common complaint is also true in many of the deep-seated and dangerous distempers. The same purgative effect expels them. Caused by similar obstructions and derangements of the natural functions of the body, they are rapidly and many of them surely cured by the same means. None who know the virtue of these Pills will neglect to employ them when suffering from the disorders they cure, such as Headache, Foul Stomach, Dysentery, Bilious Complaints, Indigestion, Derangement of the Liver, Costiveness, Constipation, Heartburn, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Worms and Suppression, when taken in large doses.

They are Sugar Coated, so that the most sensitive can take them easily, and they are surely the best purgative medicine yet discovered.

Ayer's Ague Cure.

For the Speedy and Certain Cure of Intermittent Fever, or Chills and Fever, Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache or Bilious Headache, and Bilious Fevers; indeed, for the whole class of diseases originating in biliary derangement, caused by the malaria of miasmatic countries.

This remedy has rarely failed to cure the severest cases of Chills and Fever, and it has this great advantage over other Ague medicines, that it subdues the complaint without injury to the patient. It contains no quinine or other deleterious substance, nor does it produce quinism or any injurious effect whatever. Shaking brothers of the army and the west, try it and you will endorse these assertions.

Elegant Residence for Sale.

[On account of removal of owner.]

The well known and beautifully situated CUTTS' HOUSE, on North Road, Portsmouth, recently occupied by Chas. Amory, Esq. The House contains eighteen rooms, with elegant bath-room, billiard room, (containing a table in good order,) nursery, and all requisites for a properly arranged family mansion.

The House is in excellent repair, having been thoroughly refitted a year or two since, while its propinquity to the beaches, and the facilities which it affords for charming rides and pleasure sailing, rendered it one of the most desirable estates in the market.

The House is furnished with double windows (each with a sliding pane) throughout, is heated by a furnace, and many of the rooms have also elegant marble mantels and grates. In addition to the superior cellar, there is a first class wine cellar. The house is fitted throughout with Straw Matting.

The out-buildings are very complete. A STABLE, with accommodations for five horses; CARRIAGE HOUSE; a splendid Harness Room, finished in chestnut and black walnut, with glass cases for harness; Cow House, &c.

If desirable, more land, adjoining, could doubtless be purchased.

The grounds comprise about four acres, with terraced Lawn, fine old trees and thrifty shrubbery—and is so situated as to command a delightful view of Greely, city and harbor. The winding drive about the house is underlaid with stone, and laid with shells.

Morning Chronicle.

A NEW RUSSIAN NOBLEMAN.—It appears that the young peasant who was the instrument of saving the life of the Emperor of Russia is Ossip (Joseph) Ivanovitch Kommissaroff, a young man of twenty-five and born in the province of Kostroma, where he was a liberated annuity-paying serf. Some time since he was allowed to go St. Petersburg and work in a batter's shop. There he rose to be foreman, where he was when his career and rank were changed by an accident. The 16th being his birthday, he went to say his prayers in the chapel near the house of Peter the Great. Coming to the river side, close to the Marble Palace, he perceived that the bridge was removed and the passage temporarily interrupted. Retracing his steps, he then made his way to the Summer Garden, at the gate of which a crowd was assembling round an Imperial equipage.

Knowing the carriage to be the Emperor's, and longing for the happiness of beholding His Majesty, he joined the crowd waiting for the monarch's arrival. Presently there was a stir and animation in the crowd, and he saw His Majesty in an overcoat. His Majesty approached the carriage and was putting on his cloak, when a young man, who had been standing behind Kommissaroff, tried to push him aside.—This individual had repeatedly attempted to penetrate through the surrounding crowd and get nearer the carriage; but Kommissaroff, wishing to see the Emperor, would not suffer him to squeeze through and plant himself before him. At the moment when the Emperor was putting on his cloak, the individual, pushing Kommissaroff forcibly aside, made his way to the front rank of the multitude. Kommissaroff followed him closely. Hardly had the assassin got near the Emperor, when, drawing a pistol from underneath his overcoat he leveled it at the Emperor. Kommissaroff, who had noticed the movement, instantly caught him by the arm, and diverting the pistol from its aim caused it to discharge in the air. In another moment the assassin was arrested, and Kommissaroff, a prey to a thousand anxieties, lost in the surging crowd.

Thus was the valuable life of His Majesty the Emperor saved. In the evening, when the general officers and others having access to the court were assembled at the palace, the Emperor expressed a desire to see Kommissaroff, and signified to him that he had raised him to the rank and dignity of a nobleman, which announcement was received with loud hurrahs. The would-be assassin of the Emperor is a young nobleman about twenty years of age, who has been financially ruined by the emancipation of the peasantry.

The Chronicle.

THE MYSTERIES OF THE FRENCH BALLET.—A training school for the first class of dancing girls is an exceedingly painful spectacle. The first thing done is to place the feet in hollow wooden clamps or boxes, whose bottom and top are stoutly strapped together, and which are moved by straps, so as to bring the heels of the feet heel to heel, while the knees remain turned out. This is extremely painful under any circumstances; it is doubly painful when the poor girls' feet are swollen and bruised, as they almost always are. This exercise lasts half an hour. Then for another half hour she is obliged to place first her left and then her right foot on a wooden bar, which is placed on a level with her chin. Then they dance all the steps used in ballets—les assemblies, les jetes, les balances, les ronds de jambe, les fouettes, les cabriols, les pointes, les pirouettes on the instep, les sauts de basque, les pas de bourre, les entrechats a quatre, a six and a huit. This series of exercises must be pursued and reviewed all day long, until exhausted nature sinks. They are obliged to stand in the giddiest positions on "practicables" not wider than a lady's hand. They are suspended by iron wire—necessarily as slight as possible for illusion's sake—while "flying" to the very top or bottom of the theatre. There is the perpetual danger of fire. And when the first crow's foot traces its sinuous lines in the eye's corner, and the slender form loses its Diana's firm, full and yet delicate outline in a mass of flesh—the dancuse's career is ended. Until this fatal hour she receives a few hundred dollars a year for all these pains, for all these perils.—Paris Correspondence.

CHOLERA
DISARMED!!!
The Chief Causes of Pestilence Destroyed.
DR. E. R. COURARET'S DISINFECTING FLUIDS, secured by Letters Patent in the United States and France. Prepared solely by the New York Disinfecting Company, at their Laboratory, Nos. 298, 300, and 302 Henry street, N. Y.—Office, 42 Cedar street.
This Company organized on a permanent basis, with Courtaret, the celebrated French Chemist, in charge of its Laboratory, is prepared to furnish its DISINFECTING FLUIDS for sick rooms, cemeteries, urinals, water closets, privies, cesspools, sewers, gutters, ships, railroads, hospitals, prisons, and public institutions of all kinds, slaughter-houses, offal and fat-boiling establishments; all kinds of manures (immensely increasing the value of the latter), and wherever poisonous and offensive gases exist. These agents are deodorizers, antiseptics, antiputrescents, and disinfectants in the scientific meaning of the words they remove noxious gases and odors by chemical principles—leaving in their place healthful ones; they are DESTROYERS, and not merely absorbents of poisonous gases—not injurious to utensils in which they are used. The attention of medical and scientific men is directed to these disinfectants. Attached are testimonials in favor of this great discovery, which, with hundreds of others, can be seen at the Company's office.
DELAVAN HOUSE, Albany, March 30, 1866.
To the President of the New York Disinfecting Co:
Dear Sir: It is all it is represented to be. We have made many trials of disinfectants, but now consider that we have found an article which surpasses all others as a remedy against all bad odors. T. ROSSEAU, Jr.
NEW YORK, April 9, 1866.
To the President of the New York Disinfecting Co:
Dear Sir: We pronounce it without exception to be the best we have ever known. Its effect upon every matter is complete and instantaneous.

Portsmouth N. H.

TUESDAY, JULY 3, 1866.

IN MASSACHUSETTS, the Supreme Judicial Court on the 30th ult. decided that the law passed late in the session of the last Legislature in reference to liquor selling did not repeal the law previously in force. The original action under the old law by the courts, held some few weeks since, is therefore affirmed, and those who thought themselves out of the woods are not so fortunate.

The Boston Traveller embodies the decision in the following paragraph:

In the Supreme Court, on Saturday, Chief Justice Bigelow read the decision of the court in the cases of Thos. F. Dolan of Dedham, and Samuel Carter of New Bedford. These were habeas corpus cases, claiming discharge on the ground that Chapter 280, Acts of 1866, virtually repealed a portion of the liquor nuisance act. The court decided that it did not; that the effect of the statute of this year was to mitigate, in certain cases, the sentences passed under Chapter 86 of the General Statutes, and that the fact of mitigation was a proof that the original statute was meant to stand. The statute of 1866 applied to all laws where fine and imprisonment were imposed together, and gave the court power to omit either one or the other penalty in first offences. Such a law was on the statute book for years (chap. 139, sec. 4, R. S.), and its operation was never questioned.

☞ It is stated that a special act of Congress, approved April 25, 1866, empowered the Secretary of the Treasury to issue American registers to twenty-four vessels employed on the Western lakes, whose flags had been changed during the recent war. The public were not generally aware that any such act had been passed—on the other hand it was understood that Congress was decidedly opposed to any such favor being extended to ship-owners who put their vessels under foreign flags. The question arises why special permission was given to the vessels enumerated above, and not to others who were in the same category.

THE NEWS FROM EUROPE is to June 20. The English Ministry has been defeated in the House of Commons, where the Reform Bill failed—304 to 315. A battle has taken place between Prussians and Hessians—the Prussians having invaded Saxony. Russia warns France to remain neutral; if not, Russia will not remain so. Prussia and Italy have declared war against Austria; and Austrian troops fired on a Prussian patrol, June 18.

☞ The N. Y. Herald's correspondent with Generals Steedman and Fullerton, writing from Grenada, Miss., says that State is the worst one they have visited. A perfect reign of terror prevails at Grenada. Forrest's guerrillas and ruffians are murdering Bureau agents and outraging citizens. The most revolting cruelty is practiced upon the freedmen, and the only measures adopted to check these atrocities consist of offering rewards for the perpetrators.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— The Methodist Camp Meeting at Epping commences Monday, Aug. 27.

—— The gold mine at Raymond turns out to be a silver mine.

—— Rev. R. J. Donaldson, minister of the M. E. Society, Raymond, has been chosen Superintendent of a mission in South Carolina.

—— The Exeter News Letter states that Patrick Connor, of that town, while taking off a belt at the workshop of A. Merrill & Sons, last Thursday, injured his arm so badly as to be obliged to have it amputated.

—— The corner stone of St. John's (Episcopal) Church, at Dunbarton, was laid last Saturday. Bishop Chase performed the religious ceremonies, assisted by clergymen from Concord.

—— Christ Church, Exeter, in the first year of its history has had 15 confirmations and 17 baptisms. It has recently been presented with a copy of Raffael's Madonna, valued at $400. The friends in Dover, Wallingford, and this city, are said to have been extremely liberal in their presents to the late fair of the Society.

—— McFarland & Jenks, Concord, have just published "The Political Manual for New Hampshire," containing an Almanac from June, 1866, to May 31, 1867, with the Representatives, Senators, and State and County officers for the same time; votes for Governor,—and a hundred other things of great interest to almost every voter and reader.

— One of the latest styles of ladies' hats now worn is called the "butter dish." They are a cross between a snapping turtle and wash pan. They are so nice.

— A down-east editor in describing a country dance, says: "The gorgeous strings of glass beads glistened on the heaving bosoms of the village belles like polished rubies on the delicate surface of apple dumplings."

— If we would have powerful minds, we must think; if we would have faithful hearts, we must love; if we would have muscles, we must labor; and these three—thought, love and labor—include all that is valuable in life.

From the Washington National Intelligencer.

THE OLDEST NEWSPAPER IN AMERICA AND OLD NEWSPAPERS IN GENERAL.

The Newport Mercury, in its last issue, commemorates with just pride that with that number it enters upon the one hundred and eighth year of its existence, the paper having been established in 1858. General Peter Force's library contains files of this paper, commencing in 1762, which seems, from the editorial remarks in the last number of the paper, to be many years earlier than the date of any copy of the paper within the reach of its present conductor. The paper was considerably enlarged in 1762, and was then printed on a sheet 14 1-2 by 19 inches, with the following as its heading: "THE NEWPORT MERCURY: Containing the Freshest Advices, Foreign and Domestic."

With what authority the Mercury, however, assumes to place under its caption, in large type, the words, "The oldest paper in America," we are not able to understand, though we are very glad that our excellent Rhode Island cotemporary should wear that honor if entitled to do so.

The New Hampshire Gazette, which still survives in Portsmouth, N. H., was established in 1756, and is consequently some two years older than the Mercury. In 1856 the Portsmouth people celebrated the centennial anniversary of the introduction of printing into New Hampshire, reprinting on that occasion a sheet in imitation of the first number, dated (if our memory is correct) October 6, 1756.

The earliest file of this paper in Gen. Force's library is for the year 1770.

The following is the statement printed on the corner of the paper, above the name in the issue for Friday, September 28, 1770: "This paper completes the fourteenth year of the," and then follows the title—"New Hampshire Gazette and Historical Chronicle, containing the freshest advices, foreign and domestic," and beneath it, "Friday, September 28, 1770, Num. 728 weeks since this paper was first published." This would seem pretty conclusively to settle the fact that the New Hampshire Gazette, and not the Newport Mercury, is the oldest newspaper in America. The Gazette was printed on a sheet about 17 by 20 inches, by "Daniel and Robert Fowle."

It is curiously instructive to turn over the pages of these old newspapers, of which this remarkable library of Gen. Force contains ancient files of some more than forty different papers. The following advertisements from the Gazette, April 6, 1770, in connection with the events of these times, are interesting:

TO BE SOLD CHEAP FOR CASH—A likely active negro boy, nineteen years of age; sold for no fault but want of employment. Inquire of the printers.

TO BE SOLD CHEAP FOR CASH, or short credit—A likely negro man, about thirty years of age, well built and fit for any sort of labor. Also, a negro girl, about eighteen years of age; understands cookery and most other sorts of household work; both sold for want of employment. For further particulars inquire of JOHN SULLIVAN, of Durham.

The Newport Mercury of June 27, 1763, has the following:

NEWPORT, June 6, 1763.—On Thursday last arrived from the coast of Africa the brig Royal Charlotte, with a parcel of extreme fine, healthy, well-limbed GOLD COAST SLAVES, men, women, boys and girls. Gentlemen in town and country have now an opportunity to furnish themselves with such as will suit them. They are to be seen on board, at Taylor's Wharf.

N. B. Those that remain on hand will be shipped off very soon.

This Daniel Fowle, of the Gazette, figured with some prominence in the events which led to the Revolutionary drama. In 1754 he was arrested and imprisoned by the order of the Massachusetts Legislature, and after his release he published a pamphlet, a copy of which is in Gen. Force's library, and of which the following is a copy of the title page:

TOTAL ECLIPSE OF LIBERTY.

being a true and faithful account of the arraignment and examination of Daniel Fowle before the honorable House of Representatives of the Province of Massachusetts Bay, in New England, October 24, 1754, barely on suspicion of his being concerned in printing and publishing a pamphlet entitled

THE MONSTER OF MONSTERS.

Also his imprisonment and sufferings in a Stinking Gaol, without the liberty of pen, ink, or paper, and not allowed to see his nearest friends, nor to write a line to his wife, with many other incidents and aggravations, which shows it to be

MONSTROUS TREATMENT.

Written by Himself.

Oh, give me Liberty!
For were e'en Paradise itself my Prison,
Still I should long to leap the Crystal Walls.
Dryden.

BOSTON. Printed in the year 1755.

It is well known that the first newspaper printed in this country was the "Boston News Letter." It was established in 1704, and the earliest volume in General Force's library is for the year 1762, then printed semi-weekly on a sheet 16 by 19 inches. In a large miscellaneous manuscript volume in this library is the original petition, in the handwriting of John Campbell, postmaster of New England, the establisher of the News Letter, in which he calls on "His Excellency Joseph Dudley, Esq., Captain General and Governor-in-chief in and over her Majesty's province of New Hampshire, &c.," and "the honorable her Majesty's council" to assist him in maintaining the enterprise. This was in 1705. The petition sets forth that the petitioner had the year previous started "a weekly letter of intelligence," "expecting that the journal thereby being set at a moderate rate would be sufficient to defray the necessary charge thereof. The which it did not do." The fact embraced in this last quoted sentence has been realized in quite many cases since John Campbell, postmaster of New England, started the Boston News Letter, and how he succeeded with his petition we have not time to investigate.

In this collection there are volumes of the New York Gazette as far back as 1738, printed on a sheet about thirteen by seventeen inches; the New York Gazette revived in the weekly Post-Boy as early as March 5, 1749–50, number 372, and the New York Mercury as early as December 16, 1754, number 273.

There are also volumes of these ancient and immensely valuable papers, representing, among other States, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Maryland, and Virginia.—The volume of the Pennsylvania Gazette for 1765, Benjamin Franklin's paper, contains the last number of that journal in which Franklin's name appears as a proprietor and publisher. On the day prior to that on which the stamp act went into effect, October 31, 1766, he clothed his paper in mourning and announced its temporary suspension. It was revived after a vacation of three weeks, the number in mourning being 1,923, and the next issue numbered 1,926, thus making the time good by adding the three weeks of suspension to the number. A sheet, not called Gazette, however, was issued each week of the suspension. The paper was printed by "B. Franklin and D. Hall, at the new printing office near the market," and afterwards by Daniel Hall.

A complete file of the first paper printed in this city is in this collection. The heading of the first number, in the first volume, is as follows: "THE WASHINGTON GAZETTE. Number 1, volume I. From Saturday, June 11, to Wednesday, June 15, 1796. Published by Benjamin More, every Wednesday and Saturday. Price, $4 per annum, at the house next west of the Hotel." "The Hotel" stood, till consumed by fire some twenty years ago, on the spot now covered by the Southern central portion of the General Post Office structure.

Mr. More seems to have been a man of a business like turn. In his salutatory remarks in his first issue, he says, "that he throws himself on the patronage of a generous public with but little doubt that they will allow him to pursue his plan, which is in the first place to obtain a living for himself, and in the second to amuse and inform his fellow-mortals." The "living" which he obtained from his enterprise, however, seems to have been sorry indeed, and after a hard fortune "The Washington Gazette" ended its career with the thirty-fifth number of the second volume, March 24, 1798.

LATE ADVICES FROM MEXICO, via California and via Texas, are very favorable to the Liberals.

MILITARY.—Col. Walter Harriman, of 11th N. H. Volunteers, for meritorious conduct during the war, is to be brigadier general by brevet, to date from March 13th, 1865.

☞ A Washington correspondent says the Congressional Democrats cannot agree upon their address to the Democratic voters, indorsing the Silver Gray convention at Philadelphia. One sentence after another has been stricken from the report, until little but a skeleton endorsement remains.

— Mr. S. V. Spalding, who was severely burned by the explosion of a kerosene lamp in Lowell last Sunday night, died on Tuesday.

— The wife of a clothing merchant of Baltimore eloped on Tuesday last with a Colonel, formerly of a New York cavalry regiment, and took with her eleven thousand dollars, her husband's money, which she had authority to draw from bank, her husband being in Europe. The elopers were overhauled at York, Pa., and the wife brought back, but the Colonel escaped with all the money.

— The Richmond Times of June 28 says: "A Yankee named Spry last Monday collected from a large number of negroes fifty cents each as a fee for getting them employment on Southern plantations, and made an appointment to meet them on the wharf next morning. Mr. Spry was not at the wharf, and has not been seen since."

Ayer's Pills.

ARE you sick, feeble and complaining? Are you out of order, with your system deranged and your feelings uncomfortable? These symptoms are often the prelude to serious illness. Some fit of sickness is creeping upon you, and should be averted by a timely use of the right remedy. Take Ayer's Pills, and cleanse out the disordered humors—purify the blood, and let the fluids move on unobstructed in health again. They stimulate the functions of the body into vigorous activity, purify the system from obstructions which make disease. A cold settles somewhere in the body, and deranges its natural functions. These, if not relieved, re-act upon themselves and the surrounding organs, producing general aggravation, suffering and derangement. While in this condition, take Ayer's Pills and see how directly they restore the natural action of the system, and with it the buoyant feeling of health again. What is true and so apparent in this trivial and common complaint is no less true in many of the deep-seated and dangerous distempers. The same purgative effect expels them. Caused by similar obstructions and derangements of the natural functions of the body, they are rapidly and many of them surely cured by the same means. None who know the virtue of these Pills will neglect to employ them when suffering from the disorders they cure, such as Headache, Foul Stomach, Dysentery, Bilious Complaints, Indigestion, Derangement of the Liver, Costiveness, Constipation, Heartburn, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Worms and Suppression, when taken in large doses.

They are Sugar Coated, so that the most sensitive can take them easily, and they are surely the best purgative medicine yet discovered.

Ayer's Ague Cure.

For the Speedy and Certain Cure of Intermittent Fever, or Chills and Fever, Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache or Bilious Headache, Bilious Fevers; indeed, for the whole class of diseases originating in biliary derangement, caused by the malaria of miasmatic countries.

This remedy has rarely failed to cure the severest cases of Chills and Fever, and it has this great advantage over other Ague medicines, that it subdues the complaint without injury to the patient. It contains no quinine or other deleterious substance, nor does it produce quinism or any injurious effect whatever. Shaking Doctors of the army and the west, try it and you will endorse these assertions.

REASONS WHY THE

AMERICAN WATCH,

MADE AT WALTHAM, MASS.

IS THE BEST.

It is made on the best principle. Its frame is composed of SOLID PLATES. NO jar can interfere with the harmony of its working and no sudden shock can damage its machinery. Every piece is made and finished by machinery (itself famous for its novelty, as well as for its effectiveness) and is therefore properly made. The watch is what all mechanism should be—ACCURATE, SIMPLE, STRONG AND ECONOMICAL. Except some high grades, too costly for general use, foreign watches are chiefly made by women and boys. Such watches are composed of several hundred pieces, screwed and riveted together, and require constant repairs to keep them in any kind of order. All persons who have carried "Waltham," "Stephens" and "English Patent Levers," are perfectly well aware of the truth of this statement.

At the beginning of our enterprise, more than ten years ago, it was our first object to make a thoroughly good low-priced watch for the million, to take the place of these foreign impositions—the refuse of foreign factories—which were entirely unsaleable at home and perfectly worthless everywhere.

How well we have accomplished this may be understood from the fact, that after so many years of public trial, we now make MORE THAN HALF OF ALL THE WATCHES SOLD IN THE UNITED STATES, and that no others have ever given such universal satisfaction. While this department of our business is continued with increased facilities for perfect work, we are at present engaged in the manufacture of watches of the very HIGHEST GRADE KNOWN TO CHRONOMETRY, unequalled by anything hitherto made by ourselves, and unsurpassed by anything made in the world. For this purpose we have the amplest facilities. We have erected an addition to our main buildings expressly for this branch of our business, and have filled it with the best workmen in our service. New machines and appliances have been constructed, which perform their work with consummate delicacy and exactness. The choicest and most approved materials only are used, and we challenge comparison between this grade of our work and the finest imported chronometers. We do not pretend to sell our watches for less money than foreign watches, but we do assert without fear of contradiction that for the same money our product is incomparably superior. All our watches, of whatever grade, are fully warranted and this warrantee is good at all times against us or our agents in all parts of the world.

CAUTION.—The public are cautioned to buy only of respectable dealers. All persons selling counterfeits will be prosecuted.

PURIFY THE BLOOD.—If the blood be pure, the body which is formed from and by the blood cannot be diseased. But if there be in any part of the body any affection, such as a boil or ulcer, even a bruise, the blood circulating through that part takes up impure matters from the local affection and carries it into the general system. This is the cause often of sudden death to persons of full habit afflicted with boils and ulcers, and who use no medicine; the matter gets into the circulating system and chokes up the fine blood vessels which supply the brain with vitality, and life ceases as if Bereft by Lightning.
Now, this can be remedied.

☞ Upon the representations made by Gen. Gates and others of the utter impossibility of the proper enforcement of quarantine at this port while Fort Constitution remained without a garrison, an order has been issued from the War Department, sending an officer and twenty enlisted men to this post. The order was received by Gen. Gates on Monday morning.

FUNERAL OF CAPT. CHARLES E. RAND. Capt. Thomas B. Rand, of the Parks House, Boston, arrived home Friday evening with the remains of his brother, the late Capt. Charles E. Rand, (formerly of this city,) of the first Massachusetts Regiment, which he has just recovered from the field of Chancellorsville, where he fell on the 2d of May, 1863, more than three years ago. The funeral will take place at the Old South church, Sunday, July 8th, in the afternoon. Capt. Rand had a great many friends, who will take a melancholy pleasure in paying the last sad tributes of respect to his memory. The Boston Herald learns that the First Regiment, to which the deceased belonged, and in which he was a general favorite, will turn out as a body, and there will probably be an additional military company or two with arms, acting as an escort to the remains. A committee has been raised to make arrangements for the funeral, composed of officers of the First Regiment.

☞ The extreme eastern angle of old Fort Constitution has been pretty thoroughly demolished, and the work of blasting the ledge down nearly to water line is progressing. The new fort, being farther inland, we hope will prove a less formidable "windbreaker" to boats passing Fort Point than its venerable predecessor.

☞ The First Baptist Society, of Manchester, will make an excursion to this city, and from hence to Isles of Shoals, on the Fourth.

☞ Those of our friends who contemplate visiting Rye Beach on the "Glorious Fourth," will not fail to remember that a glass of Ice Cream, or a glass of Cool Soda can be had at Mr. G. H. Jenness' new Saloon, situated about one-fourth of a mile north of the Atlantic House. This Saloon has been recently erected, and is well stocked with confectionery, cakes, pies, and a great variety of other good things peculiar to this latitude. Mr. Jenness has also in connection an excellent Bowling Alley, where men (and women, too,) can exercise their "muscle," and thus live a long, happy and virtuous life.

☞ The concert this evening, by Morris Bros. & Trowbridge's Minstrels, will afford an opportunity for lovers of minstrelsy to pass a pleasant evening. Their reputation as musicians stands deservedly high.

☞ The beautiful Linden Tree on Linden Street, near Daniel, is in full flower and exquisite fragrance to-day.

NAVAL.—The resignation of Midshipman L. G. Spaulding was accepted June 18.

☞ Rev. Mr. Walton has removed from Portland, Me. to North Adams, Mass.

☞ Mr. Walter Brown will pull in the race for single sculls, at the regatta on Charles River, July 4th.

— The forty-five days' session for which the act of the last Connecticut Legislature made provision having already expired, the members of the present Legislature are now doing the peoples' work at their own expense—paying their board, etc., but receiving no pay from the State.

WHO IS TO BLAME? If people grow thin and emaciated, and fairly die out by inches from the ravages of dyspepsia and indigestion, and who will pity such people, in their distress and suffering, when they neglect to avail themselves of the only remedy yet discovered that will cure them, and which we have again and again repeated and recommended as a certain cure for dyspepsia—we refer to Coe's Dyspepsia Cure. It is certainly the greatest miracle of the age, for it cures all disorders of the stomach and bowels.

Elegant Residence for Sale.
[On account of removal of owner.]

The well-known and beautifully situated CUTTS' HOUSE, on North Road, Portsmouth, recently occupied by Chas. Amory, Esq. The House contains eighteen rooms, with elegant bath-room, billiard room, (containing a table in good order,) nursery, and all requisites for a properly arranged family mansion.

The House is in excellent repair, having been thoroughly refitted a year or two since, while its propinquity to the beaches, and the facilities which it affords for charming rides and pleasure sailing, render it one of the most desirable estates in the market.

The House is furnished with double windows (each with a sliding pane) throughout, is heated by a furnace, and many of the rooms have also elegant marble mantels and grates. In addition to the superior cellar, there is a first-class wine cellar. The house is fitted throughout with Straw Matting.

The out-buildings are very complete. A STABLE, with accommodations for five horses; CARRIAGE HOUSE; a splendid Harness Room, finished in chestnut and black walnut, with glass cases for harness; Cow House, &c.

If desirable, more land, adjoining, could doubtless be purchased.

The grounds comprise about four acres, with terraced Lawn, fine old trees and thrifty shrubbery—and is so situated as to command a delightful view of forest, city and harbor. The winding drive about the house is underlaid with stone, and laid with shells.

HYGIENIC WINE!

HAS FOR ITS BASE

One of the Finest of Pure Wines.

A WINE grown on the sunny slopes of Spain—the genuine juice of the Grape in all its purity, as bestowed upon us by the beneficent GIVER, and such as is, alone, consistent with Christian teachings—not intoxicating in the least—will supply a want greatly felt in this country.

Such is HYGIENIC WINE,

A Bitter Aromatic.

It is conscientiously recommended to LADIES as a tonic which will soothe the nerves, renew the blood, and gently stimulate and invigorate the system.

☞ All persons of sedate habits—ministers, lawyers, and professional men, possessing constitutions more delicate than others of less confining labors—those who expend a great deal of vitality in brain work—will at once acknowledge the superiority of this restorative; for while it acts as a nervine, imparting a genial glow to the blood, it leaves behind none of the baneful influences of Alcholic preparations.

It stands unrivalled as a Tonic of the Digestive Organs, thereby creating a healthy appetite, and we warrant that upon trial HYGIENIC WINE will be found to be the finest, most delicious, and healthful Tonic known. Ask for it.

Address orders for this superior article to

REED, CUTLER & CO.,
Boston,
AGENTS FOR NEW ENGLAND.

N. B.—Hygienic Wine is an important Tonic; has the approval of the "IMPERIAL SCHOOL OF MEDICINE of PARIS," and was tested by the Committee on Chemistry of the American Medical Association, which assembled in Baltimore May 1st, 1866, and endorsed by 56 prominent members with their signatures.

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN PATENTS

R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents,

Late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1857,

78 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed, if, it not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber, and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great expense there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to commend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twelve rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

CHOLERA
DISARMED!!!
The Chief Causes of Pestilence Destroyed.
DR. E. R. COURANT'S DISINFECTING FLUIDS, secured by Letters Patent in the United States and France. Prepared solely by the New York Disinfecting Company, at their Laboratory, Nos. 295, 301, and 303 Henry street, N. Y.—Office, 42 Cedar street.
This Company organized on a permanent basis, with Courtaret, the celebrated French Chemist, in charge of its Laboratory, is prepared to furnish its DISINFECTING FLUIDS for sick rooms, nurseries, urinals, water closets, privies, cesspools, sewers, gutters, ships, railroads, hospitals, prisons, and public institutions of all kinds, slaughter houses, offal and fat-boiling establishments; all kinds of manures (immensely increasing the value of the latter), and wherever poisonous and offensive gases exist. These agents are deodorizers, antiseptics, antiputrescents, and disinfectants in the scientific meaning of the words. They remove noxious gases and odors by chemical principles—leaving in their places healthful air; they are DESTROYERS, and not merely absorbents of poisonous gases—not injurious to utensils in which they are used. The attention of medical and scientific men is directed to these disinfectants. Attached are testimonials in favor of this great discovery, which, with hundreds of others, can be seen at the Company's office.
DELAVAN HOUSE, Albany, March 30, 1866.
To the President of the New York Disinfecting Co.;
Dear Sir: It is all it is represented to be. We have made many trials of disinfectants, but now consider that we have found an article which surpasses all others as a remedy against all bad odors. T. ROESSEL & CO.

To the President of the New York Disinfecting Co:
Dear Sir: We pronounce it without exception to be the best we have ever known. Its effect upon every matter is complete and instantaneous.

OUR EUROPEAN NAVAL SQUADRON TO BE INCREASED.—In view of the impending conflict on the continent of Europe, it has been suggested that our naval force in that quarter should be increased, in order to render it thoroughly competent to protect American citizens residing in Europe; and in pursuance of this suggestion the Navy Department has assigned the gunboat Swatara, now ready for sea at the Washington Navy Yard, to that squadron. Several other vessels are also to be despatched as soon as they can be placed in readiness. Among the vessels spoken of as likely to be attached to the European squadron are the new frigates Franklin, Guerriere and Chattanooga, with the new sloops-of-war Neshaminy and Mackinaw.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth N. H.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 4, 1866.

☞ The statement made in some of the newspapers recently that the President has ordered the arrest of all the officers of the Freedmen's Bureau engaged in cultivating lands in the South, goes a little too far. The President has directed Major General Howard to cause the arrest of every officer of the Bureau in North Carolina who is engaged or pecuniarily interested in the cultivation of plantations, and Brig. Gen. W. E. Strong has been dispatched to execute the order. Judge Advocate General Holt has been instructed by the President to make out charges against these officers, with a view to their trial before a court martial.

So the story, that Gen. Howard is to be dismissed from the Bureau, for defending certain officers, is probably a little too fast. It is now said, that Gen. H. has advised the President to appoint the Commanding Officers of U. S. troops in some of the States, to superintend the Freedmen's affairs there; —and that this advice is to be followed. Gen. Grant's view is nearly the same. The latest story is that Gen. Howard thinks of resigning his bureau.

☞ Mr. Morrill of Vermont stated in the U. S. House of Representatives that our volume of paper currency was about $917,000,000; and then said:

I do not cite these figures as a reproach to anybody, but as a fact, and a monstrous fact, attended by evils increasing day by day; and the longer contraction—the true remedy—is withheld, the more difficult will be found its application. At the time of the surrender of Lee and Johnston, any terms of settlement might have been obtained from the Southern rebels, with ample guaranties for the future; as they panted for nothing so much as deliverance from the pains and penalties of treason, and anything short of expatriation would have been promptly accepted. That opportune moment passed away, never to return.

So the translation from paper to specie at that time might perhaps have been made with less strain upon the country, with less inconvenience to individuals than it can now or ever be brought about. The people were prepared for it. The goal in point of fact was almost reached. Nobody was in debt and nobody was distressed. The nominal reduction of inventories would have left all with relatively equal purchasable values. But, unfortunately, this policy did not prevail, and now trade stands against any reduction of values, and Congress itself grudgingly authorizes the return of only about four millions per month of our huge volume of currency, the presence of which stimulates rates and strangles production.

These are sad truths; and yet the policymen, who threw away the first named opportunity, are among those who complain most loudly because the second was suffered to slip by; though the first fault led on to the second. In other words,—the President, instead of engineering the Seward policy, should have called Congress together a year ago, and obeying the voice of the people, he should not have played into the hands of copperheads and rebels, but kept along with Congress.

THE LATE GORDON CUMMING'S COLLECTION.—Gordon Cumming, the renowned African traveller and intrepid lion hunter, having quitted this world, his extensive collection, which was exhibited some years since, has passed through the auction-rooms of Messrs. Stevens, in King Street, and it may be consolatory to the spirit of the mighty hunter to know that the skins, tusks, and bones which have so long kept company together are not now dispersed. They have passed, in fact, into the possession of another mighty hunter, though of different game, and have been knocked down to the equally intrepid and no less renowned P. T. Barnum, of New York, in the United States of America and elsewhere. At the sale which took place on Saturday last, Mr. Barnum's agents, Messrs. Wells and Nimmo, silenced all opposition by the decided character of their biddings, and secured not only the grand panorama, which brought so vividly before the spectator the scenes and adventures through which the traveller passed, but all the great gems of the collection. A large skull of an elephant and the great ivory tusks realized 100 guineas, while lions' skulls and other osteological specimens produced large sums. The skins were secured in a lot for Mr. Barnum, who since the destruction of his museum at New York has, we are told, dispatched agents to the utmost ends of the earth to secure attractions for the new collection he is about to submit to the notice of a discriminating public.—London Morning Post.

SENATOR LANE of Kansas, better known as Jim Lane, died by his own hand on Monday morning, aged 70, at Topeka. He had been out of health some time; and finally shot himself. We have considered him insane on some points, for years. He killed a neighbor in 1848, was tried and acquitted. In Congress his votes have been strange and contradictory. Peace to his ashes.

P. S.—Washington, July 2. The latest accounts say that Senator Lane is still alive, but there are no hopes of his recovery.

☞ The U. S. Senate is said to have had a lively time in executive session on Saturday afternoon over the nominations of certain officers in Wisconsin and in Pennsylvania. Senators Doolittle and Cowan did all in their power to save their friends, but they were unsuccessful.

LATE FOREIGN NEWS, per steamer Cuba, from Queenstown June 24, and Liverpool June 23, says there has been no collision of any importance between the belligerents. The Prussians had entered Austrian Silesia. The Austrians still show designs of activity. It is officially announced that the war in Italy commences on the 23d.

The Italian army crossed the Mincio unopposed June 23d.

Nothing authentic is known concerning the communication made by France to Austria.

The Vienna Presse says France denies that she has made any agreement with Prussia. Italy maintains full liberty of action. If Austria does not menace the existing kingdom of Italy, if successful, and does not advance beyond Milan, France will not interfere, but assist in the conclusion of a definitive treaty of peace, and will further propose that Italy pay an indemnity for Austria's renunciation of the fruits of victory.

St. Petersburg advices deny that a movement of troops has been made, and says that non-intervention continues to be the policy of Russia.

A military revolt broke out in Madrid on the 23d. The insurgents furnished the populace with arms, and threw up barricades. After an obstinate resistance the insurgents surrendered at discretion. Narvaez was slightly wounded. Gen. Prim has been arrested at Bayonne by the French authorities.

The Paris Bourse was unsettled yesterday and rents closed at 62f. 85c.

The London Observer says a motion will be made in the House of Commons expressing confidence in the Ministry and promising a favorable consideration of the Reform bill at the next session, if the Ministers do not announce the dissolution of Parliament.

GEN. SAXTON.—This officer, in a letter to the Secretary of War, makes an able defense of himself against the recent charges in the report of Generals Steedman and Fullerton. After dealing with several of the items of these officers' strictures, Gen. Saxton says:

"If Generals Steedman and Fullerton had wished to arrive at the truth, and to do simble Justice to all parties; if they really had the interests of the freedmen at heart, would they not have redeemed the dark pictures they have made of my administration by mentioning some of its brighter features? They were silent as regards the thousands of acres of cotton raised for the government on the lands around Beaufort during the years 1862-3 and 4, while the war was going on, by which some half a million of dollars was realized (cultivated by the old men, the women and children,), which was sufficient to pay all the expenses of my administration of affairs for the freedmen in the district of which I was the military commander, and the Hilton Head district. The same fund also paid all the expenses of my administration as Commissioner (except rations and medicines for the destitute), and of which fund there is now a balance of nearly fifty thousand dollars in the United States Treasury. They were silent in regard to the Savings bank I established in Beaufort, where the freedmen have deposited over two hundred thousand dollars, which is invested in government bonds. It was the first one started, and its success caused the establishment of others throughout the South.

No mention was made of the regiments of colored soldiers I brought into the United States service, of the orphan asylums I aided, and the schools I established, where thousands of the freedmen have been taught to read and write. These are the records they might have found in South Carolina had it suited their purposes to do so.

The whole of the report referring to me seems to betray an indecent haste to condemn me. For my labors in South Carolina I know that I have the confidence of the freedmen whose cause was committed to my hands.

Sustained by yourself, I stood up for nearly four years against the falsehoods and misrepresentations of men quite as able as Generals Steedman and Fullerton. I have sufficient evidence that I was honored by the approval of President Lincoln."

SUICIDES.—Three cases of attempted suicide—two of them satisfactorily successful to the parties engaged in them—took place in Hartford, Conn., on Saturday and Sunday last. One was the case of R. J. Bolles, a shoemaker, who had been living with a Mrs. Shaw, and having become enamoured with her charms, and found his love unrequited, had recourse to a dose of strychnine to free him from his disappointments. He leaves three young children. There were two other cases of frail women who jumped into the river, but one of them was rescued by some men passing by.

GEORGIA.—The Savannah Herald says a freedman, arrested in Macon for the murder of a woman in Wilkinson county, was brought back to scene of the outrage, and after the mutilation of portions of his body he was bound to a tree, surrounded by faggots and burned.

GOLD, Tuesday, 143 1-4.

CONGRESS, Tuesday, July 2, the Senate accepted the report of the Committee of Conference on the Freedmen's Bureau bill which adopts the amendment of the Senate relative to the lands now occupied by freedmen, under authority of the special field orders of Gen. Sherman.

The effect is to restore the lands in question to their former owners, and give to the freedmen, in lieu of them, six years' lease of twenty acres of land, and at the expiration of that period a certificate of sale on a payment of a sum not exceeding $1.50 per acre. It is the general opinion that the President will veto the bill.

In the House a resolution was passed reciting certain outrages committed upon citizens of Maine in Georgia, and calling on the President to inform the House if the personal rights of citizens are sufficiently protected in all the States, and if further legislation is necessary to give him sufficient power to protect all local citizens in all the States.

The select Committee on the Rousseau-Grinnell affair made a report, which was ordered to be printed. The first resolution expels Mr Rousseau, and the second reprimands Mr. Grinnell for a violation of the rules of debate. The minority report of the committee offers as a substitute for the first resolution one directing Mr. Rousseau to be publicly reprimanded by the Speaker at the bar of the House.

A resolution proposing to give belligerent rights to the Fenians was rejected.

Mr. Banks introduced a bill establishing conditions for the admission of the States of Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Canada East and Canada West, and for the organization of Territorial Governments for New Foundland, Prince Edward's Island and Columbia. Read twice and referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—The Republican Senators held a caucus Tuesday morning with a view to arrange the public business before them before fixing the time for the adjournment of the session.

The Secretary of the Treasury is engaged in preparing his report for the fiscal year ending June 30, and as many reports are to be received from distant points the issue of the regular monthly statement of the public debt for June 1866, will be suspended. The result of the financial operations of the Treasury, however, will show a diminution in the National debt to the amount between ten and fifteen millions.

A communication from the Secretary of War in response to a resolution of the Senate enclosed a report from General Dyer, Chief of Ordnance, in which the latter says Harper's Ferry cannot, in his opinion, be ever again used to advantage for the manufacture of arms. The detention of the property of the United States at that point is not necessary or advantageous to the public interest beyond the temporary use of so much as may be required for an ordnance depot, and he recommends that as soon as that depot can be broken up, all the public land, buildings and other property there be sold and the proceeds of the sale be applied to the construction of an armory in the West, as is now authorized by law to be established.

President Johnson was going down the Potomac Wednesday on a government steamer, and Washington gossips declare that he intends to pass the Fourth with Jeff. Davis at Fortress Monroe.

CONNECTICUT LEGISLATURE. — The Connecticut Legislature finally adjourned Saturday morning, Gov. Hawley making a brief address to the members in joint Convention before they separated. The Derby and Harlem railroad project, designed as a rival to the New York and New Haven railroad, after having succeeded in the House, was killed in the Senate; and bill making eight hours a legal day's work, which passed the Senate was lost in the House. A resolution to raise the Governor's salary $2000 passed both branches, as did also a bill to establish a Homeopathic Hospital, and appropriating $10,000 therefor, provided the friends of the enterprise shall raise an equal amount.

☞ The Rev. Dr. Bacon of New Haven said in a recent address, that during his 41 years' pastorate over his church, he had expended for his family over $25,000 beyond all that had been paid him directly or indirectly by the church. From which it may be concluded that he has been more fortunate than ninety-nine hundredths of his fellow clergymen in having any reserve to draw upon.

— Which is the most profitable of businesses? The shoe, for every pair is soled before it is finished.

— Mrs. Partington says that Ike has bought a horse so spirituous that he always goes off in a decanter.

— Secretary Seward's unpopularity among the more radical Senators was manifested by the opposition made to printing the customary 10,000 extra copies of the diplomatic correspondence on the rumored departure of Austrian troops for Mexico. The extra edition was ordered by Democratic votes.

Perry's Moth and Freckle Lotion.

☞ Chloasma, or Mothpatch, (also called Liver-erspot,) and Lentigo, or Freckles, are often very annoying, particularly to ladies of light complexion, for the discolored spots show more plainly on the face of a blonde than of a brunette; but they greatly mar the beauty of either and any preparation that will effectually remove them, without injuring the texture or color of the skin, is certainly a desideratum. DR. B. C. PERRY, who has made diseases of the skin a specialty, has discovered a remedy for these discolorations, which is at once prompt, infallible and harmless.

Prepared by B. C. PERRY, Dermatologist, No. 49 Bond Street, New York, and for sale by all druggists; price $2 per bottle. Call for PERRY'S MOTH & FRECKLE LOTION. Sold by all Druggists in Portsmouth and elsewhere. lysnd&w—oct19

PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER,
As an internal remedy, has no equal. In cases of Cholera, Summer Complaint, Dyspepsia, Dysentery, and Autumn, it cures in one night, by taking it internally, and bathing the side freely. It is the best liniment in America. Its actions is like magic when externally applied to bad sores, burns, scalds, and sprains. For the sick headache and toothache, don't fail to try it. In short, it is a Pain Killer.

PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER.—This medicine has become an article of commerce, a thing no medicine ever became before. Pain Killer is as much an item in every bale of goods sent to country merchants as tea, coffee, or sugar. This speaks volumes in its favor.—GLENS FALLS MESSENGER. Jy1—dawlm

AMERICAN WATCH,
MADE AT WALTHAM, MASS.
IS THE BEST.

It is made on the best principle. Its frame is composed of SOLID PLATES. No jar can interfere with the harmony of its working and no sudden shock can damage its machinery. Every piece is made and finished by machinery (itself famous for its novelty, as well as for its effectiveness) and is therefore properly made. The watch is what all mechanism should be—ACCURATE, SIMPLE, STRONG AND ECONOMICAL. Except some high grades, too costly for general use, foreign watches are chiefly made by women and boys. Such watches are composed of several hundred pieces, screwed and riveted together, and require constant repairs to keep them in any kind of order. All persons who have carried "verges," "lepines," and "English Patent Levers," are perfectly well aware of the truth of this statement.

At the beginning of our enterprise, more than ten years ago, it was our first object to make a thoroughly good low-priced watch for the million, to take the place of these foreign impositions—the refuse of foreign factories—which were entirely unsaleable at home and perfectly worthless everywhere.

How well we have accomplished this may be understood from the fact, that after so many years of public trial, we now make MORE THAN HALF OF ALL THE WATCHES SOLD IN THE UNITED STATES, and that no others have ever given such universal satisfaction. While this department of our business is continued with increased facilities for perfect work, we are at present engaged in the manufacture of watches of the very HIGHEST GRADE KNOWN TO CHRONOMETRY, unequalled by anything hitherto made by ourselves, and unsurpassed by anything made in the world. For this purpose we have the amplest facilities. We have erected an addition to our main buildings expressly for this branch of our business, and have filled it with the best workmen in our service. New machines and appliances have been constructed, which perform their work with consummate delicacy and exactness. The choicest and most approved materials only are used, and we challenge comparison between this grade of our work and the finest imported chronometers. We do not pretend to sell our watches for less money than foreign watches, but we do assert without fear of contradiction that for the same money our product is incomparably superior. All our watches, of whatever grade, are fully warranted and this warrantee is good at all times against us or our agents in all parts of the world.

CAUTION.—The public are cautioned to buy only of respectable dealers. All persons selling counterfeits will be prosecuted.

PURIFY THE BLOOD.—If the blood be pure, the body which is formed from and by the blood cannot be diseased. But if there be in any part of the body any affection, such as a boil or ulcer, even a bruise, the blood circulating through that part takes up impure matters from the local affection and carries it into the general system. This is the cause often of sudden death to persons of full habit afflicted with boils and ulcers, and who use no medicine; the matter gets into the circulating system and chokes up the fine blood vessels which supply the brain with vitality, and life ceases as if

☞ At a special meeting of the Board of Aldermen, Saturday evening, Aldermen Martin, Ayers and Ham were appointed a committee to erect a stand for the distribution of ice-water on Market Square this day.

The following named persons were appointed special police for the Fourth of July, viz: Samuel D. Foye, John Milton, Reuben Rand, jr., George S. Webber, Jefferson C. Rowe, Nathaniel M. Lear, Charles H. Kenny, William H. Deverson, Andrew S. Marden, John Hutchings, Daniel F. Smith, Job Woodsum and Josiah F. Adams.

Voted, that the City Government will entertain His Excellency Governor Smyth, on the occasion of his visit to this city July 4th.

"BEWARE OF PICKPOCKETS."—James Sullivan, alias Jack Bunsby; James Connor, with an alias, a Fort Hill gentleman, and Bill Knox, three pickpockets, were arrested on Monday evening, by Marshal Kent and Officer Johnson, and on Tuesday morning their fare was paid to Boston. The light fingered gentry expressed their regret at having arrived in town one day too soon.

People will do well to watch their pockets to-day and also to carry but a small amount of money with them. The celebration will draw a number of persons hither who have but indistinct ideas as to whose pockets their hands are thrust in.

☞ Mr. Brownell, one of the proprietors of the spool factory, at Raynes' ship yard, in this city, had a severe fall on Monday afternoon. While hoisting some timber in the factory, the rope became entangled on the elevator, and Mr. Brownell went up to clear it. The rope slipped suddenly, throwing him from his position, and he fell a distance of about twenty-five feet. It was at first feared his back was broken, but it is now hoped his injuries will be confined to the severe bruises necessarily attendant upon such a fall.

☞ Mr. H. S. Bodge, for the convenience of the order, has furnished himself with a large assortment of Masonic goods, including text books of various kinds, and a chaste selection of pins, rings and jewelry. Another specialty he makes in spectacles, of which he keeps constantly a large assortment, and splendidly carved ivory goods—chessmen, card cases, &c. To accommodate strangers visiting our city on "the fourth," he will keep open doors that morning.

☞ There were several arrests made on Monday evening, of parties who had lost their almanacs and so began to celebrate the 4th on the 2d. We heard one gentleman quite anxious as to the proper polish of his boots, because "George" was one of the victims to the police. For his benefit we chronicle the release of the offenders, on Tuesday morning.

☞ The place for exhibiting the fireworks this evening has been changed from Market Square to Rundlett's Mountain, the pyrotechnist having decided that the Square would not be at all adequate to a proper display of the pieces.

☞ Gov. Smyth will arrive by the first train from Manchester, be received at the depot and escorted to the Rockingham House, and from thence have a military escort to the City Hall.

☞ The firemen seem inclined to believe that a day's parade will hardly fit them for a trial of speed this evening, and so the Granite State Company has decided to run this morning.

☞ We are informed that a gentleman had his pocket picked of $180 at the Shoals, on Tuesday, where he carelessly exhibited his money while paying for his dinner.—Again we say, "Beware of Pickpockets!"

☞ Our next issue will be on Friday morning, as we intend to celebrate to-day—all hands.

☞ The Vandalis, which made so fine a display a year ago to-day, will be decorated and fire the customary salute to-day.

☞ On our first and last pages will be found nearly all necessary information as to the day's programme for this latitude.

☞ We understand that Master David Whipple of this city has been appointed a Midshipman.

☞ The garrison for Fort Constitution arrived on Tuesday afternoon.

SOMNAMBULIC ACCIDENT.—Mr. John Tarbell of Milton, N. H., who with his wife is on a visit at the house of Mr. O. F. Raymond, No. 369 Main street, Charlestown, Mass., on Thursday night while in his sleep jumped from a third story window to the pavement, receiving serious injuries. Shortly after eleven o'clock, as the last Neck car was passing, on its return to Boston, he jumped from his bed, shouted "whoa," and leaped from the window. Both of his wrists and an ankle were broken, and the unfortunate man, although sensible, lies in a very critical condition.—Advertiser.

— The public water fountains are said to prove an injury to the London beer shops.

— Cholera has made its appearance at several points near Berlin, the capital of Prussia.

☞ The "I. D. of C." will assemble at the place designated at their meeting, at 6 1-2 o'clock, A. M., July 4th, and will march promptly at 7 o'clock, through the following streets, viz:

Water, Pleasant, State, Middle, Cabot, State, Cass, Islington, Cabot, State, Court, Pleasant, High, Deer, Vaughan, Elm, (countermarching on Christian Shore,) Vaughan, Congress, Islington, to Cabot, countermarching down Islington to Carter's Store, (where a halt will be made and prizes awarded,) Congress, State and Water, where they will be dismissed at or near 8½o'clock.
Per order.

The huge disorganized and demoralized body will be examined, corrected and revised and put into new binding, near the Customhouse, on arrival at that point, at 7 1-2 o'clock. U.

WHO IS TO BLAME? If people grow thin and emaciated, and fairly die out by inches from the ravages of dyspepsia and indigestion, and who will pity such people, in their distress and suffering, when they neglect to avail themselves of the only remedy yet discovered that will cure them, and which we have again and again repeated and recommended as a certain cure for dyspepsia—we refer to Coe's Dyspepsia Cure. It is certainly the greatest miracle of the age, for it cures all disorders of the stomach and bowels.

Peat as Fuel.—In consequence of the favorable results of experiments looking to the use of peat as fuel, peat beds in this and other Northern States are held for a large advance in price. The supply of this article in New England is believed to be inexhaustible, and with the machines invented to prepare it for sale, of which there are now about twenty patented, it is believed it will come rapidly into use. The Hartford and New Haven Company propose to use it instead of coal, and other companies will undoubtedly follow their example. One great recommendation of peat is that it is not in the least injurious to health, lacking the sulphurious gasses of coal.

The Iron belonging to South-Newmarket, that was sunk a few months since, in 60 feet of water, near Portsmouth bridge, is now being recovered, by the use of sub-marine armor. Eight tons have been recovered, but it appears to be a hard task.

SARATOGA GOSSIP.—Burleigh, the gossip writer for the Boston Journal, is at Saratoga Springs, as usual, at this season. His letter of June 29 mentions a new horse-running club; states that gambling-houses multiply there; and that Morrissey's place is now eclipsed by that of a fast woman, who has dancing, drinking and gaming, with young men and women as decoys. He adds a word about waiters:

The capacity of the colored man when he has a chance and a motive is no where better exhibited than at the Springs. To feed and tend some thousand or two impatient people, and keep a few hundred servants in order, is a work of some magnitude and calls for some brains. Yet this whole matter has been for years in the hands of the colored head waiters of large hotels. The help for the season is engaged in the winter, and a sweep is made as far as Philadelphia and Baltimore to obtain good waiters. These are engaged, drilled and controlled by the colored head waiters. No white man could do it better; no one could do it as well if he had a colored man to deal with. The full complement was engaged for the Congress; some were on hand, and all were on their way when the house was laid in ashes; but not one of these men is out of employ. The head waiter, with the genius of Napoleon, with about 200 men on his hands, at once disposed of his forces, placing some in the hotels in this place, at the lake, at Lake George and other watering places, and he could not fill the applications made on him, and no man he had engaged is now out of place. If the colored man can do this in the green tree, he can do it in the dry.

ENDOWING SOUTHERN INSTITUTIONS. The Chicago Tribune is rather severe on Mr. McCormick's endowment of Virginia College. He is a very wealthy man, said to be worth over a million of dollars—every dollar of which came from the pockets of the farmers of the West, yet he never gave the first dollar to found an institution for the benefit of those who gave him his wealth, while he gives thousands upon thousands to endow institutions of an aristocratic character, located in a State which, a few years since, spewed him out as "poor white trash" to get manhood and gold in the free State of Illinois. Flunkeyism, combined with sympathetic disloyalty, could hardly get lower than this.

RATHER FORGETFUL.—There is a legend that one day a woman went to Brigham Young for counsel touching some alleged oppression by an officer of the church. Brigham, like a true politician, assumed to know her; but when it became necessary to record her case, hesitated and said; "Let me see, sister—I forget your name." "My name," was the indignant reply, "why I am your wife." "When did I marry you?" The woman informed the "President," who referred to an account book in his desk, and then said—"Well, I believe you are right. I knew your face was familiar!"

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN PATENTS
R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents,
Late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837, 18 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON.
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, and maintaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.
The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.
These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is new pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART
During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twelve rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

FRIDAY, JULY 6, 1866.

GREAT FIRE IN PORTLAND.

We take the following account from Boston Traveller extra of Thursday noon, being the first paper received, (from Conductor Philbrick):

The fire began July 4, about noon. It commenced a little below the foot of High street, in a boat shop. Upham's flouring mill was next burnt, then J. B. Brown & Co.'s sugar house with all its surroundings, then Staples & Sons and Richardson's foundries, and nothing else on Commercial street of consequence.

J. B. Brown & Sons loss from $600,000 to $700,000; insured $300,000.

It next swept what is called Gorham's corner, composed of small wooden buildings, up as far as the old Varnum House on Pleasant street, one-third the way up Centre street, half way up Cotton street, completely up Cross street, Union street, Temple street, Plumb street and Exchange street.

It swept down on the northerly side of Forest street to India on the east, while on the west it moved along diagonally across Middle street, and down to Cumberland it took the Elm House, but sparing the First Parish Church.

Then from Chestant to North street it made a clean sweep on the southerly side of Cumberland street to Congress street, and everything else to Forest street as far east as India street.

The fire swept completely through the city from the foot of High street to North street on Munjoy, destroying everything in its track so completely that the lines of the streets can hardly be traced, and a space 1 1-2 miles long by a quarter of a mile wide, appears like a forest of chimnies with fragments of walls attached to them.

The wind was blowing a gale from the south, and a tremendous sheet of flame swept along before it, devouring everything in its passage. The utmost exertions of the firemen, aided by steamers and hand engines from several other places, could only succeed in preventing it from spreading in new directions.

Many buildings — perhaps fifty—were blown up to check the flames.

The inhabitants could scarcely do more than flee with their families to the upper part of the city, saving such goods as they could carry, though every vehicle in the city was employed with excellent effect in moving goods.

The Custom House being fire-proof, escaped, though greatly damaged, and the Court records in the upper story, were probably destroyed.

The splendid city and county building on Congress street, which was nearly fire-proof, was considered safe, and it was piled full of furniture by the neighboring residents, and then swept away with all its contents.

Half the city is destroyed, and that half includes nearly all the business portion, except the heavy business houses on Commercial street.

The fire destroyed all the newspapers' all but three of the printing offices, all the jewelers, all the wholesale dry goods stores, several churches, the telegraph offices, nearly all the stationers, and the majority of nearly all the business places.

The fire then went below Cumberland street, working back to the westard, the wind having changed, and was finally stopped about noon on Thursday, having burned about 24 hours.

Capt. Isman has telegraphed for fifteen hundred tents to accommodate the homeless inhabitants. The Mayor of Boston has issued a call for aid to the Portland sufferers, and, in response from a telegram from the Mayor of P., has engaged Mr. J. B. Smith, caterer, who has already set about cooking large quantities of meats to be immediately forwarded to Portland. The Superintendents of the Eastern and B. & M. railroads will transport relief articles free of freight.

CITY OF PORTSMOUTH.
MAYOR'S OFFICE, July 5, 1866.

A dispatch has been received at this office from Mayor Stevens of Portland stating that "thousands of the inhabitants of that city are homeless. Many have lost their all. Any assistance will be acceptable." Donations of money will be received at this office to be sent to the Mayor of Portland to be used for the unfortunate sufferers.

A prompt and hearty response from the citizens of this city is earnestly solicited.

JOHN H. BAILEY, Mayor.

— The manner of advertising for a husband in Java is by placing an empty flower pot on the portico roof, which is a much as to say: "A young lady is in the house—husband wanted."

Local.

THE FOURTH OF JULY was a pleasant day, and the temperature here was moderated all the early part of the day by a sea breeze. There was a large turnout of people from the country, as well as all our own inhabitants. General good order prevailed, and very little drunkenness showed itself in public. The water stand on Market Square, free to all, was a valuable institution, doing positive good, and no doubt also preventing some evil. The bells and cannon did their duty, and made their kind of music according to the programme.

The Fantastic exhibition in the morning was in correct taste (?) and abounded in wit, waggery, and burlesque. The gentlemen composing this turn out are of that class "born to blush unseen," and so we spare their modesty the publication of the names of winners of prizes: "Family Kerridge," first prize, $15; "Freedmen's Bureau," second prize, $10; "Returned Fenians from Canada," third prize, $5; Captain Heltorskelter, fourth prize, wooden medal.

The street decorations were very meagre as compared with those of former years, consisting of single arch, spanning Vaughan street, at Deer street, with the inscription —"Liberty, 1776. The legacy bequeathed by our forefathers, redeemed by their posterity. Equality, 1866;"—a double arch thrown across Congress and Vaughan streets where they meet, and two arches over Pleasant street at South Mill Bridge. These last bore various designs wrought in evergreens, and were much nearer our idea of what a decorative arch should be, than the others. Quite a number of private residences were prettily decorated with bunting and evergreens, conspicuous among them those of T. Tredick, A. H. Hill, H. D. Walker, W. R. Preston, J. F. Shores jr., A W Simpson, J M Edmonds, J Brooks, and others; while Jefferson Hall, trimmed and beflagged, reminded us of Bottom, the weaver, wearing the fairy crown of Puck upon his asinine head. Liberty Bridge was prettily trimmed.

The procession, under the Marshalship of Col. J. H. Jackson, made a good show, and was promptly formed. First came a section of city police, followed by the Portsmouth Cornet Band, and a military escort under Col. J. H. Jones, U. S. M. C., composed of two companies of U. S. Marines; City Cadets, Capt. L. Ayers, and Cushing Guards, Capt. Johnson, of Newburyport; and H. S. Cadets, Capt. R. Noble, of this city. Next carriages containing Gov. Smyth and staff, Mayor Bailey, and various dignitaries and guests, civic, military and naval. Knight's Cornet Band came next in order, with the following fire companies: Steamer "Dearborn" No. 1, Steamer "Sagamore" No. 2, and "Gov. Langdon" No. 3, all of this city; "Eagle" No. 5, of Newburyport, "Garibaldi" Hook and Ladder, of this city, and a Fire Company from South Berwick. Then the full-rigged ship Constitution, Capt. Deering; a decorated boat, drawn by ten yokes of oxen, containing young ladies representing the 36 States; a chariot containing Mr. E. A. Joy's Singing Class, drawn by a similar stud of fine working cattle; a team with cordwainers at work, from T. S. Nowell's shoe manufactory; a team representing shoe business of J. C. Carr & Co.; a team with agricultural implements from Goodwin, Sweetser & Co.'s warehouse, and horse drawing patent rake, from same; express wagons, Jackson & Co.; a car containg a traveling blacksmith shop, from G. J. Greenleaf's; team from M. T. Betton & Co., with knitting machines in operation; a fine team, with stone cutters, from Fort Constitution; and a car with stucco workers, from Messrs. Frazer & Green, closed this feature of the day's observance. Moving over the route appointed, the procession reached the Temple at high noon.

The services in the Temple were all appropriate: the Music being by the Portsmouth Philharmonic Society; the Declaration of Independence read by Timothy G. Senter, Esq.; and prayer offered by Rev. Dr. Burroughs, who also pronounced the Benediction. The Oration, by Rev. A. J. Patterson was a spirited and patriotic performance, eminently suited to the day, and demanding an honest and practical use of the equality which is professed and promised in the Declaration of Independence. Mr. Nowell wisely postponed the delivery of his Poem, as the hour was getting late. On motion of Rev. Mr. Adams, it was resolved that the poem be heard at some opportunity soon or published with the other performances. Gov. Smyth was introduced to the audience by the Mayor, and briefly expressed his pleasure in the visit, with his good wishes for the enterprise and prosperity of the city.

At 3 o'clock, Gov. Smyth, as the guest of the city, with officials and other invited guests, partook of dinner at the Rockingham House, when Mr. Nowell read his deferred poem, to the great acceptance of those present.

To the great relief of nervous and humane people, the tight rope man did not come here to break his neck. And to the disappointment of thousands, the high wind in the afternoon prevented the ascension of the balloon and sadly marred the regatta; tho' the balloon was inflated and the rowers ready. The same wind also raised a most uncomfortable dust.

The first race at the regatta was between two single sculls, the J. Horace Kent, entered by Geo. Paul, and the Glide, entered by Jas. F. Brooks. Owing to the roughness of the water, this match was rowed under great disadvantages. The Glide made the distance (a strong mile) in 16 minutes 55 seconds, while the Kent came in in 16 min. 45 sec., winning the prize of $10. The Gazelle, 16 oars, was the only other entry, and raced against time, going over the course in 10 min. 45 sec., but we are uncertain as to the amount of the prize won.

The engine race at 6:30 P. M., was between Eagle, No. 5, of Newburyport, and Granite State, No. 1, of this city. When nearly at the reservoir, one of the members of the Granite State, (Danl. Thompson,) was thrown under the engine and run over, severely injuring his shoulder, and of course rendering another trial necessary. The injured man was attended by Dr. Boardman, and was quite comfortable on Thursday morning. The Newburyport company ran one-eighth of a mile with their engine and played water through 200 feet of hose in two minutes and thirty-five seconds, notwithstanding some seconds delay caused by throwing their engine from the forward wheels when the brakes were first worked. The Portsmouth company then made a second trial, ran an eighth of a mile with their engine and played through 200 feet of hose, in two minutes and ten seconds, thus winning the prize of $25.

The fireworks exhibted on Rundlett's mountain in the evening were excellent, and were admired by a great crowd of people, the site for their exhibition being proved to have been most judiciously selected.

☞ The hands in the Chronicle Office return thanks to Mr. Avery, of the Union Billiard Hall, for the large pitcher of most excellent lemonade, furnished them last evening. Without its cooling draughts they would hardly have succeeded so well with our press of matter on such a sweltering night.

☞ For the excellent order maintained during the presence of so large a crowd of people as filled our city on Wednesday, our police deserve great credit, and we think no one will wish to begrudge them their hard-earned meed.

☞ The number of arrests on the 4th, by the police was 25—for drunkenness and incidental diseases, none of these from either Newburyport, Portsmouth or Manchester. Upon becoming sober, they were all discharged.

☞ At the sailing regetta in Boston harbor, July 4, the pilot boat Edwin Forrest won the prize. T. S. Appleton's new yacht Alice came in second, making the 25-mile run in 2h. 53m. 34s.

☞ The Balloon Ascension, postponed from the 4th, will take place on Wednesday next, at 2 o'clock P. M.

☞ At the regetta on Charles River, July 4, the first prize, $75, for single scull wherries, distance two miles, was won by Walter Brown in 17m. 10s.

For six-oared boats, distance three miles. First prize $150, second prize $75.

A CLEAR COMPLEXION is not merely an ornament, but is a token of sound health.—This cannot be secured by the use of washes and lotions. It can only be gained by keeping the system in a healthy state. OUR LADY READERS Should try J. W. SHERBROOKE.—This is the title of a new book, nearly ready by D. Appleton & Co. The scene is laid in a New England village; the plot is most admirably conceived, and the style is eminently chaste and pure. The whole tone of the work is elevating and ennobling; at the same the story is intensely interesting and exciting, obliging one who has commenced the reading to finish, even to the laying aside of all ordinary duties. "Aunt Lyndia" and her proverbs would never be forgotten by the reader. "Hope," the heroine of the story, is a model in many respects, and young ladies would do well to imitate her example. We predict for "Sherbrooke" an immense sale.

Holloway's Pills.—Indigestion, Stomach and Liver complaints These medicines will cure the most confirmed cases of dyspepsia, and disorders of the stomach and liver. They have restored more suffering dyspeptics to actual and permanent health than all the other ephemeral "specifics" united. They have stood the test of fifty years' experience. They increase the appetite, invigorate the stomach and purify the liver. In bowel complaints they are equally efficacious, and for sick and nervous headaches they stand unrivalled. Sold by all Druggists. je30dawlw

WHO IS TO BLAME! If people grow thin and emaciated, and fairly die out by inches from the ravages of dyspepsia and indigestion, and who will pity such people, in their distress and suffering, when they neglect to avail themselves of the only remedy yet discovered that will cure them, and which we have again and again repeated and recommended as a certain cure for dyspepsia—we refer to Coe's Dyspepsia Cure. It is certainly the greatest miracle of the age, for it cures all disorders of the stomach and bowels.

PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER,

As an internal remedy, has no equal. In cases of Cholera, Summer Complaint, Dyspepsia, Dysentery, and Asthma, it cures in one night, by taking it internally, and bathing with it freely. It is the best liniment in America. Its action is like magic when externally applied to bad sores, burns, scalds, and sprains. For the sick headache and toothache, don't fail to try it. In short, it is a Pain Killer.

PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER.—This medicine has become an article of commerce, a thing no medicine ever became before. Pain Killer is as much an item in every bale of goods sent to country merchants as tea, coffee, or sugar. This speaks volumes in its favor.—GLENS FALLS MESSENGER. Jy1—dawlm

AMERICAN WATCH,

MADE AT WALTHAM, MASS:

IS THE BEST.

It is made on the best principle. Its frame is composed of SOLID PLATES. NO jar can interfere with the harmony of its working and no sudden shock can damage its machinery. Every piece is made and finished by machinery (itself famous for its novelty, as well as for its effectiveness) and is therefore properly made. The watch is what all mechanism should be—ACCURATE, SIMPLE, STRONG AND ECONOMICAL. Except some high grades, too costly for general use, foreign watches are chiefly made by women and boys. Such watches are composed of several hundred pieces, screwed and riveted together, and require constant repairs to keep them in any kind of order. All persons who have carried "ancres," "lepines," and "English Patent Levers," are perfectly well aware of the truth of this statement.

At the beginning of our enterprise, more than ten years ago, it was our first object to make a thoroughly good low-priced watch for the million, to take the place of those foreign impositions—the refuse of foreign factories—which were entirely unsaleable at home and perfectly worthless everywhere.
